SPECIAL, 12:30 A. M.

Not to see our stoves and ranges before buying is a mistake. Mistakes are always costly. In heating stoves we have the largest as well as the most carefully selected stock in the city. The stoves we offer were not bought as an experiment but as a certainty. We know what each stove will do, and they were bought for cash, so the price is right. We have specialties in heaters, beside our regular lines of Garland, Argand and Superior stoves and ranges.

The taking of the eleventh census is going to be a very expensive luxury for Uncle Sam. Already the stationery estimates are enormous. In addition to the population schedules now being printed 10,000,000 more will be ordered in a few days. This will require 200 tons of paper, which is now being delivered at the rate of 30,000 pounds a day.

Fine Balloon Ascension.

We must in justice to Mr. Redmond say that his balloon ascension yesterday was the highest and his performance the finest ever in Albany. Several parties there who were judges, said it put them in mind of the high flavor and fine quality of Mueller & Garrett's roasted coffees. They also have the finest line of delicacies in the market.

Parasols! Parasols!

I have just received my spring stock of parasols direct from the manufacturer in New York in all the latest styles and prices cheaper than ever before. Samuel E. Young.

For sheet music go to Will & Link.

M'MAHON'S CIRCUS.

A Large Attendance and a Successful Balloon Ascension.

This old-time circus gave two performances in this city yesterday, both of which were well attended. The tumbling and trapeze performances were very clever. The riding will probably be better when their stiffness from their stay in winter quarters has worn off. The elephant Queena is a wonder, and is the best trained elephant ever exhibited in this city. The trained dog, fire-eater and some other specialties of the side show were well worth seeing. The circus is big for its size and gives the public their money's worth.

The balloon ascension, given by Prof. Redmond, was one of the interesting features of the circus. The first attempt was not a success. The balloon was only partially filled, and when a few feet from the ground it tipped over and fell to the ground. It was inflated again, however, and when cut loose it sailed upwards with the aeronaut performing upon a trapeze. The balloon was struck by a current of air, and many people cringed when the big bag of canvas tipped partly over, but it righted up again and floated southward. After attaining a heighth of about 1000 feet it began to settle, and landed in safety in a field about a mile south of the city.

The managers of the circus, including Joseph and John McMahon and Harry Armstrong, the press man, are agreeable and pleasant men to deal with, and treat everybody well.

Their pair of trained elephants cost $40,000 and are an attractive feature of the show.

The Event of the Season.

Caroline Gage and Harry F. Keene's own eastern company of players are coming to Albany for a four nights stay, commencing Monday, April 28th and will open their engagement Monday evening in the beautiful society drama in five acts by Tillotson, entitled "Queena" or "The Life of An Actress," and out of a repertoire of nearly thirty pieces, among which are Queena, The Galley Slave, Our Boys, Camille, Passions Slave, The Planter's Wife, Daughter of The Regiment, Only a Farmers Daughter, etc. They will select a different play for each night. The Portland Oregonian, in speaking of this company's production of "Queena," the piece in which they will open their engagement here, says: "Another large audience witnessed the presentation of "Queena" at the New Park theatre last eveninn and as on the opening night Miss Caroline Gage was the recipient of several well merited ovations. Young and beautiful, with a finely proportioned physique and possed of more than ordinary talent, she is rapidly rising in the front ranks of her profession. She enacts her various roles with force and feeling and always leaves a good impression on her hearers. The rest of the company were up to their usual standard of good work."

The Democratic Convention.

The democratic state convention will convene in Portland to-day. the delegates from Linn county went down yesterday. Governor Pennoyer will be renominated without opposition and G. W. Webb is likely to be renominated for state treasurer. For the other offices there does not seem to be much of a desire on the part of democrats to enter the arena against the republican nominees.

Social This Evening.

The social to be given by the Y. P. S. C. E., of the Congregational church this evening in the lecture room of the church promises to be an enjoyable affair. A musical and literary programme has been arranged, after which ice cream and cake will be served for 25 cents. The old and young are cordially invited to attend.

Crowd at the Circus.

The large crowd and the busy scenes at the circus yesterday put one in mind of the large crowd constantly at Mueller & Garrett's getting some of their choice groceries and vegetables, and as for the elephant he is nowhere in comparison with some of their bargains in the good things in this life.

Will Go to Tacoma.

Rev. S. G. Irvine, D. D., of this city will leave to-morrow for Tacoma, where he goes to assist in the establishment of a mission of the United Presbyterian church.

This week representative stock raisers from all parts of the county were in town and all report having been seriously injured by the winter, though we were pleased to note that that none of them feel discouraged, but all have confidence in the country and will make an effort to recover their losses by renewed energies.—Ochoco Review.

A man living down on the Columbia, between Portland and St. Helens, recently shipped two large boxes of catfish or bullheads to Portland. Some of them were nearly a foot in length, the largest which have yet been seen there. They found no purchasers except among the Chinese, although the man who sent them considers them a luxury and expected a good price for them.

Dr. N. G. Blalock states that the new steam plow which he has been testing on his 5000 acre farm near Blalocks has worked so far like a charm, and that he is fully convinced that it reduces the cost of plowing at least one-half. The apparatus complete cost him $5000, and as he has been paying $2 an acre for plowing, it will be seen that if the cost is reduced one-half, the total cost will be saved in one year on that farm.—Baker City Reveille.

Oregon Leads The World.

When Oregon wants to—and she usually does—she excels in whatever she undertakes. Her wheat took the award at the centennial her displays were among the best at Paris, she is the home of the oldest Odd Fellow and she has within her borders the youngest postmaster in the United States. He was appointed when nineteen years of age and lives and holds his office not a thousand miles from Salem. It might, in this connection, be remarked that one qualification of a United States postmaster is that his age must be at least twenty-one years.—Statesman.

An Easy Answer.

Why should you take out an accident policy in The Travelers?

Because somebody will be left destitute at your death if you have no insurance, and it is a shabby thing to leave them so when you can keep them from it by paying a very small fraction of that money now.

Or it not quite killed you do not like the chance of being laid up for some months with a broken leg or rib, with the cost of living and doctors' bills going on and nothing coming in.

You have somebody, a wife, a sister or a little brother or an old mother relying on you, whom your death would half or wholly beggar.

You have not been injured for several years? Then your time is so much nearer. You are going to be the lucky one and escape, and the "other fellow" is to be the one hurt? Yes—and the other fellow thinks you will be the one.

The Travelers pays a million dollars a year under accident policies to just such people, every one of whom was sure he was in less danger than his neighbor. It pays from 16,000 to 17,000 claims or one in six of all its policy holders. What certainty is there that you will not be one of the one-sixth.

If you are not immortal and invulnerable insure in the The Travelers with C. B. Winn, agent for Albany and vicinity.

Good Investment.

A few reasons why the Goltra Park addition is the only sure and safe investment around the city of Albany. 1st. Because it is the closest addition platted to the city. 2d. Because it is the only addition that has a proposed motor line to it, which will be in operation within 60 days. 4th. Because it is the only addition that has a public park laid out in it. 5th. This is the time of year when the young woman with a complexion makes you conscious of it by walking around with her head muffled up in a veil so that the spring wind may not reach it. And every night and morning use Hubbard's Elegant Lotion. Then she will have a complexion to be proud of.

Disarming an Unseen Foe.

"This was sometime a paradox," as Hamlet says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen foe, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its misty venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation impregnates the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary potent to disarm the foe and assure efficient protection. Fever and ague, billous remittent, dumb ague and ague cake, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But it is preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons dwelling in malaria-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy is powerless. Cures, likewise, dyspepsia, rheumatism, kidney and billious ailments.

The Pride of Woman.
