REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The republican party of Oregon in state convention assembled, proclaimed the principles of human liberty and human rights, its great and imperishable motto, which found its true and only expression in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

First—That we favor a limited and economical administration of every department of government, both state and national.

Second—That we regard the free school system of our state as the special care and pride of the republican party, to be cherished as one of the bulwarks of the liberties of the people.

Third—That we favor the republican party has always contended for a pure electoral system, in its administration of every department of government, both state and national.

Fourth—That the republican party of Oregon in its platform of 1892, and in its platform of 1896, has always contended for a pure electoral system, in its administration of every department of government, both state and national.

Fifth—That we favor the republican party has always contended for a pure electoral system, in its administration of every department of government, both state and national.

Grand Army boys, as well as many others, will be interested in the following from Alex B. Fox, Stewart, Tenn., who is a D. C. Chamberlain. He says: "We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only thing that has done any good."

Have you heard what Mr. G. L. West, of Cambridge City, Ind., says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy? If not, here it is: "During last summer I was troubled very much with severe pains in the stomach and bowels, and was worried by a friend to try this Remedy. I took one dose, as per directions, and it gave me almost instant relief. I cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted."

Mr. F. J. Smith, Editor of the Ft. Abernethy, Dakota, Herald, says: "The most wonderful medicine I have ever met with is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In case of colic it gives speedy relief. On hunting trips I have found it indispensable. Put in a bottle, it imparts a pleasant taste, and prevents the painful diarrhea, which alkali water produces. I could not feel safe without it in my house."
