OREGON INDIAN LAND The Umatilla Reservation to be Opened for Settlement. A RUSH FOR LANDS PROBABLE How the Seattle's Red Dogs Were Stolen - A Forge Accidents - The News of the Coast

WASHINGTON, May 5.—There is every prospect that the Umatilla reservation in Oregon is soon to be opened to settlement. Lands were allotted five years ago and a survey of a surplus of 150,000 acres was commenced about three years ago. Subsequently it was discovered that many lands had been made in the survey, but which have now nearly been corrected. Mr. Hermann says the survey will likely be completed within two weeks, and there will probably be a great rush, and the Oklahoma scenes will be repeated. The land will be opened to actual settlers at $1.25 per acre.

THE KEMMELER CASE A Respite Granted to the Murderer Until May 19. WASHINGTON, May 5.—The U. S. supreme court has declined to grant a writ of habeas corpus for Kemmeler, under sentence of death by electricity pursuant to an order of Judge Wallace of New York, but decided to hear the motion for a writ of error on May 19.

BEVERLY, May 5.—Another writ has been issued in the case of Kemmeler, under sentence of death by electricity pursuant to an order of Judge Wallace of New York, but decided to hear the motion for a writ of error on May 19.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL STOCK. Boston, May 5.—The Commercial Advertiser says the early liquidation of the Oregon Transcontinental. The plan is to have a committee of four presidents of large New York trusts, companies to make the appraisal of the assets. The stockholders will then be given the option of taking cash for the stock at its appraised value or of converting the stock, share for share, into stock of the new company. Practically all the shares will be exchanged for stock in the new company as Villard and his friends own three-fourths of the stock.

Base Ball Lawsuit. PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—In the suit of the Kansas City American Association Club against J. T. Pickett and the Players Club of Philadelphia, Judge Arnold today granted an injunction restraining Pickett from playing for any other club than the Kansas City during the season of 1890.

Gave Himself Up. PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—Joseph Monahan, a lawyer, who ran away several weeks ago, after swindling his clients and farmers in Bucks county of nearly $100,000, returned last evening and today delivered himself up to the sheriff.

Returned from Canada. ALBANY, N. Y., May 5.—It was reported late this afternoon that Henry M. Sayles, ex-alderman of "Boulder," of 1884, who fled to Canada and forfeited $20,000 bail, has returned to this city. His brother called at the district attorney's office to arrange for bail, but up to a late hour this evening Henry had not been found.

Attorney Fees Refused. CHICAGO, May 5.—The county commissioners today decided to refuse to pay the bills of the council engaged for the prosecution in the Conn. case. Mills and Ingram's bill being $200 and W. J. Hayes, $1500. Commissioner Cole said these lawyers were engaged by private parties.

Senate Bills Passed. WASHINGTON, May 5.—In the senate today a number of bills were passed, among them a senate bill to establish two additional land offices in Washington. The Oklahoma tax-site bill was agreed to.

A Catholic Fair. NEW YORK, May 5.—A fair for the benefit of the Roman Catholic mission home for immigrant girls was opened to-night by Cardinal Gibbons.

The Roman Senators. ROME, May 5.—The senate today in a debate on the providing bill rejected the class providing for church expenses. Premier Crispien then declared that he would resign in order to decide the question of the dissolution of the cabinet or a reconstruction under Signor Saraceni.

Killed in Jail. COLUMBUS, S. C., May 5.—Wm. Leaphart, colored, was shot and killed in Lexington jail last night. Leaphart was convicted of rape on a 14-year-old girl in Washington, yesterday afternoon having made the run from New York in 28 1/2 hours. Her time beat all previous records.

The Fastest on Record. WASHINGTON, May 5.—The torpedo boat "Cushing" arrived at the navy yard in Washington yesterday afternoon having made the run from New York in 28 1/2 hours. Her time beat all previous records.

THE STRIKE ENDED. The Eight Hour Labor Move Wins In Chicago. MORE MISSISSIPPI FLOODS. A Railroad Syndicate Backed by British Millions to Build a Road to the Pacific Coast.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The great carpenter's strike is finally settled so far as the new bosses association is concerned. Fully 4000 journey-men will go to work by Thursday. The arbitration committee of the new bosses association and the strikers met this evening and settled the last detail. The journey-men achieved almost a sweeping victory. An official statement of the terms of settlement will not be issued till tomorrow, but it is reliably said that the document provides for 8 hours a day. The minimum rate is fixed at 45 cents per hour up to August and after that 37 1/2 cents. The employers agreed to employ only union men, even for foremen.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—It is said that two or three thousand carpenters who struck May 1 have been granted their demands.

A SENATIONAL TRIAL. Some Reasons for a Murder in San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The taking of testimony in the trial of Gen. Pratt for shooting Brown, president of the California insurance company in January, began today. The most sensational feature of the case to-day was the testimony of the defendant. He related that on his return from a trip to Japan, where he had gone on business for the insurance company, of which Brownwell was the president, he found his wife a physical wreck and took her to Napa for treatment.

HONORS TO STANLEY. A Grand Reception Tendered Him by Notables in London. LONDON, May 5.—The geographical society gave a reception to Stanley at the Albert hall this evening which was a notable event. Prince and Princess Wales and many other notables were present. The princess of the royal family headed the triumphal procession which conducted Stanley and his colleagues into the hall. The president of the society then presented medals to Stanley with an appropriate speech. Stanley returned his thanks and proceeded to narrate his adventures.

FRISCO LABOR TROUBLE. The Men Want the Same Wages and Eight Hours Work. SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—The mill men's protective association this afternoon decided to make no concession to the employees at the present time. This caused much consternation. It is feared that all the building trades will be affected by the mill men's decision. About one hundred carpenters employed by Mahoney Bros. struck to-day because the contractors reduced their wages from $2.50 to $2.20 for eight hours work.

How the Seattle Relief Funds Were Misapplied. SEATTLE, May 5.—J. P. Disarming an Unseen Force. "This was sometimes a paradox," as James says. Since, however, the people of America and other lands have been enabled to pit Hostetter's Stomach Bitters against that unseen force, malaria, it is no longer a paradox, but an easy possibility. Whatever malaria evolves its mity venom to poison the air, and decaying unwholesome vegetation irregularly the water, there, in the very stronghold of miasma, is the auxiliary agent to disarm the foe and assist efficient protection. Free and regular bowels, remittent, dumb,ague and acute, no matter how tenaciously they have fastened their clutch on the system, are first forced to relax their grasp and eventually to abandon it altogether. But if preventive force that should chiefly recommend the Bitters to persons declining in malarial-cursed localities, for it is a certain buckler of defence against which the enemy's powerless. Cures, likewise, despatch, rheumatism, kidney and bilious ailments.

GOV. HILL'S SCHEME To Dispose of Contested Election Cases. TRIBUTE TO SENATOR BECK. The Policy of the Republicans on the Tariff Measure Deferred. The Electoral Executive Deferred.

ALBANY, May 6.—Gov. Hill today sent to the legislature a message suggesting a change in the method of contested elections. He suggests the passage of a concurrent resolution submitting to the people an amendment to the state constitution, which will take from the house the power of judging on elections and confer the jurisdiction upon the courts. He will also recommend such action on the part of the legislature as is likely to bring the subject to the attention of congress with a view of securing ultimately a similar amendment to the federal constitution.

HONORS TO SENATOR BECK. The Senate and the House Arrange for the Funeral. WASHINGTON, May 5.—In the house upon information of the death of Senator Beck this afternoon the speaker appointed a committee to take charge of the funeral arrangements on the part of the house, and then adjourned in honor of the deceased.

In the senate a formal announcement of Senator Beck's death was made by his colleague Blackburn. A committee was appointed to attend the funeral at the senate chamber at one o'clock to-morrow.

The committee of arrangements from both houses of congress and the tariff makers will meet at the house of Representative Breckinridge to-morrow at 10 A. M. Senator Beck's body will be taken to the marble room of the senate and there viewed by the public. The body will then be taken to the senate chamber where Chaplain Butler and ex-Chaplain Bullock will conduct the funeral ceremonies. A special train will then convey the remains to Lexington, Kentucky.

THE TARIFF BILL. The Policy of the Republicans Outlined on the Measure. WASHINGTON, May 5.—After the adjournment of the house this afternoon the republican members assembled in conference and decided on a party policy in reference to the tariff bill.

The river and harbor bill managers made a strenuous effort to have the appropriation bill made a special order for consideration and a conclusion before the tariff bill is taken up. It was decided by a vote of 99 to 19 that the tariff bill is a matter of prime importance and should be called up Wednesday, and it was agreed that the general debate shall go on for four days of this week with a night session for speeches. Eight days' additional debate will be allowed for consideration of the bill by paragraph under the five minute rule. On May 21st the previous question on the final passage of the bill is to be considered ordered.

First B. C. Palmer's Conservatory of Music. Two-Weeks' Work. First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 29, 1890. The course of instruction will consist of classes for piano, organ, harmony and voice culture. There will be a normal class and diplomas furnished to teachers, specifying capacity and experience.
