WOOLEN MILLS MATTERS.

Director's Change Name - No Machinery Taking Out Splendid Work

The annual election of directors for the Woolen Mills Company took place this week resulting in the choice of J. M. Moyer, F. E. Croft, J. M. Waters and W. T. Cochran.

The directors elected the following officers: President J. M. Moyer, Secretary and Treasurer, J. P. Galbraith, Superintendent, F. E. Croft.

By a vote of the stockholders the name was changed, and hereafter the proper appellation will be the Albany Woolen Mills.

Six new looms and a pack have been ordered and are now on the way. A large amount of fine goods are being manufactured at the present time and find a ready market.

The Play To-Night.

The Russell-Jewell Company, which will play at the opera house to-night, receives the following notice from the Salem Statesman: The Russell-Jewell dramatic company secured a decided hit at the opera house last evening in the production of the most successful comedy ever produced, "Our Boys."

The company is much stronger than when here before and is composed of perfect ladies and gentlemen, all fine actors.

The play presented last evening was of a most striking character, Miss Mollie Stockmeyer was the hero of the evening. She is a clever dancer and met with a hearty encore at every turn.

Morris and S. Phillo were as usual great favorites. Space forbids a lengthy mention this morning, but the company is deserving of a crowded house each evening.

Officers Appreciated.

The members of the Grant's Pass opera house passed resolutions thanking the Russell-Jewell dramatic company for their efficient services in preventing the destruction of the building when the stage scenery was set on fire by the explosion of one of the oil lights. The damage to the opera house was about $150, fully covered by insurance.

The company lost a $65 set of parlor furniture and several mats and rugs which were used in extinguishing the flames. This company will play two nights in this city beginning to-night.

A Beautiful and Useful Book.

Mrs. John A. Logan has prepared a very useful book called the "Home Manual," which treats of social, domestic and business life, and contains a mine of useful knowledge for every person. The book is not only a very valuable literary production but it is also a most attractive and valuable article for the parlor in its illustrations and general make up.

It is a work that should be in the possession of every household. Mrs. A. M. Tall is taking subscriptions for this valuable work, and our people should not fail to keep their books. As she calls upon them, for it is a rare treat to even see it.

He Was A Prohibitionist.

The daily Astorian of April 30 says: Mr. A. Le Roy, the nominee on the democratic ticket for superintendent of public instruction, was for some time a resident of this city. Two years ago he was a candidate for county school superintendent on the prohibition ticket. He got ninety-five votes.

A Scheme That Didn't Work.

Chief of Police Hoffman, who came up from Portland last evening, states that considerable excitement was occasioned in the metropolis over an attempt to wreck the Northern Pacific train. The night before the engineer on the train leaving Portland, when about seven miles below the city, beheld a man running up the track wildly waving a fire-brand to signal the train to stop.

Teachers Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public examination of teachers of this county will take place in Albany, commencing at 1 o'clock on Wednesday, May 23, 1890. All teachers desiring examination will please be present at the beginning. Teachers desiring state certificates should present their recommendations from district boards at the above time. L. M. C. Co. County Supt.

LANE COUNTY MATTERS.

A Former Resident - Coal Mining - A New Boat - Investments - Street Judge.

The following article from the El Paso Times, Albuquerque, N. M., gives an account of the death of a former resident of Lane county: "On Thursday, April 22nd, Colonel H. Bony died at his ranch, some eight miles from here, from the effects of a wound received from a rabbit covote. About three weeks ago the Colonel was looking for a calf, when unexpectedly it sprang upon him inflicting a mortal wound on his forehead. Bony was about 70 years old, and fell a victim to hydrophobia. Deceased was an old settler of Cloverdale, Lane county Oregon, and leaves many friends and relatives in the vicinity of Cloverdale and Crosswell to mourn his loss."

Work in Dr. Taylor's coal diggings is being pushed vigorously and the results are very encouraging. A load of coal was brought in from their last week and tried in the furnaces at the water works pumping station and was pronounced first class. A gentleman who has visited the mines at Crosswell pronounces the coal in the Taylor mines of a superior quality. It is thought the mine will be a paying one.

The new boat built at Florence, which has been christened the "Moose," was launched at 2 o'clock May 14th. She was launched at that hour as the tide was then at its highest. The boat is owned by E. L. Seagrave and Mr. Hanson and is a fine vessel. It is provided with a new propelling power, a combination of gasoline and electricity. The boat was launched without any trouble or accidents.

Last Friday Joseph Simon, C. B. Bellinger, J. Harris and other capitalists came up from Portland to look over this part of the valley. At Springfield they purchased of Hon. John Kelly his property lying east of the city. We understand they also purchased other property there. Our neighbor will no doubt enjoy a healthy growth this summer.

After it was learned that Judge R. S. Bean had been nominated for supreme judge candidates for his present office looked up on all sides. Among those who want the office are W. R. Willis, and J. C. Fullerton, of Coos county, and John Kelsey, of Benton county.

COAST NOTES.

The U. S. Fish Commission is to the end of the track on the Fourth of July. Grading on the Main and Independence motor line has been begun. It is to be completed by July 1.

George Graham, aged 41, fills the responsible position of first mate on the schooner Juno, which plies between Seaside and the Columbia River and Coos Bay. He is a native of Scotland and has been in the service of the Juno for several years. He is a very capable and reliable man, and is well known to all who are acquainted with the Juno.

Some movement and a small one of those Norwegian physicians recently turned home at Olney. The fact that it was a small one of water shows that the doctor knows what the fish was.

A woman (resident) has been charged with selling of strychnine during the fire week in May. She was arrested by the police and is now in the city jail. She is charged with selling of strychnine to a man who was arrested by the police and is now in the city jail. She is charged with selling of strychnine to a man who was arrested by the police and is now in the city jail.

Inquiry among leading hop growers of Marion and Polk counties shows that the prospect for a good crop is not good. If the growers get a good price, the sale of the crop this year will add much to the prosperity of those counties.

Notice of sale of Astoria Property. Mr. F. J. Goodenough, of the firm of Leinenweber & Goodenough of Astoria, arrived in this city yesterday. The regular monthly auction sale of lots in Powers addition to Astoria was postponed from 1 o'clock to 2 o'clock at which time four lots were sold at prices ranging from $17 to $25 each. Mr. Goodenough read a telegram from Geo. Keeney, who is now at Astoria, stating that Powers addition did not overflow and is good property. Mr. Goodenough will hold another sale next month.
