Miss Flora Batson, of New York, generally regarded as the greatest colored singer in the world, will appear in concert at the opera house on Decoration Day evening, May 30. The Nashville American says of her: "Her voice is rich in the qualities most valuable to a singer. The range is wonderful. It is clear and resonant, exceedingly flexible and pure. Her articulation is perfect, and she sings with a freedom from effort seen rarely, except in the most famous singers. The tones of her voice are powerful and thrilling. It is rather dramatic than emotional. Her renditions last night covered an extraordinary versatility and range." Tickets are now on sale at Blackman's drug store. Reserved seats 50 cents.

More Coal Discoveries.

Messrs. Morehead & Curl, who are pushing in a tunnel on their coal mine above Scio, have struck a seven foot vein. The tunnel is in about 120 feet. The mine promises to prove a valuable discovery.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT SCIO.

A Block of Wooden Buildings Burned The Loss About $18,000.

A fire broke out at 2:30 yesterday morning in the rear of Mrs. Smith & Co's millinery store in Scio, which was quickly communicated to adjoining buildings and destroyed nearly all the buildings in the block, entailing a loss of about $18,000.

The losses and insurance are as follows:

Mrs. Smith & Co., store and millinery stock, $3,000; no insurance.

S. M. Townsend, grocery store, $3000; fully insured.

S. M. Daniel, building, $500.

Edward Goins, building, $500.

L. Mayer, bakery, $1000; no insurance.

Mottby & Carey, saddlery; building $600, stock $650; insurance on stock, $600.

Bilyeu & Shelton, saloon, $2000; no insurance.

Johnson, Hibler & Co., loss by removal of merchandise stock, $5000; no insurance.

Gill & Smith, damage to stock $1000; no insurance.

The fire burned all the buildings on the west side of Main street, between Johnson & Hibler's dry goods store and Gill & Smith's hardware store. The citizens of Scio, aided by the political candidates who were in the city on the canvass, worked hard and saved much property. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin.

H. Brenner's smoke house was robbed of $75 wirth of hams and bacon during the fire.

Citizens of Scio say the burned block will be rebuilt of brick at once.

TO ADVERTISE THE VALLEY.

A Plan Formulated by the Committees from Albany and Salem.

Mr. G. W. Wright and J. R. Neil returned last evening from Salem, where they went as a committee from the Albany Board of Trade, to confer with a like committee from the Salem Board of Trade concerning the question of advertising the Willamette Valley by the joint action of its cities and towns. They formulated a plan which will be submitted to the Board of Trade meeting next Thursday evening.

They decided upon the organization of an association to be known as "The Willamette Valley Development Association of the State of Oregon.

The object of this association is to advertise the great resources and natural advantages of the Willamette Valley and to develop its agricultural, manufacturing and mining industries.

All cities, towns and Boards of Trade of cities situated in the Willamette Valley, and particularly in the counties of Linn, Marion and Polk, are entitled to membership.

Each county is to pay monthly not less than $100 per month, and a total sum of not less than $1000 per month is to be expended in advertising the entire Willamette Valley.

The association is to be governed by a board of managers, to consist of seven members, one from each county joining the association.

The first meeting is to be held in Albany at a date to be named hereafter.

Fourth of July Excursion.

Arrangements have been completed for a special excursion train from Corvallis to the eastern extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad compan's track on the Fourth of July next, leaving Albany about 7 A. M., and starting back about 4:30, making an enjoyable day's outing for all who participate. The fare will be less than one-third the regular rate so that everbody may take advantage of this opportunity to make a trip to this, the prettiest spot in the valley. Excellent trout fishing can be had by those who are piscatorially inclined. As the number of tickets sold will be limited it would be well to purchase the same as soon as they are placed on sale, of which notice will be given later.

Suicide at Philomath.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Minnie Wyatt, wife of Frank Wyatt, committed suicide at Philomath, by shooting herself in the head with a revolver. They were married in this city a short time ago, and went to Philomath to reside. She had shown signs of dementia recently, and yesterday morning before her husband was awake she took his revolver from the bureau and placing it against her temple, sent a bullet into her brain. The young husband was aroused by the shot and found his wife lying on a sofa with the smoking pistol in her hand. She lived but a few minutes.

Food Commissioner's Inspection.

Mr. Peter Esser, Oregon state food commissioner, of Portland, is in the city on a tour of inspection. He found all the manufactured, production and sale of foods in Albany conducted in a wholesome manner, and will have a favorable report to make of his visit here. He will return to Portland to-day.

Drowned at Corvallis

John Kaler, a young man employed at the Corvallis flouring mills met with a sad death Monday. In company with several other men he was engaged in repairing the dam. Kaler was in a boat placing a plank in position, when by some means the rope attached to the boat became loosened and it went over the dam. The man on shore called to him to hold to the boat, but he failed to do so, and being unable to swim, drowned. His body has not yet been recovered.

Batteries repaired by Fred. Dawson, at Foshay & Mason's drug store.

THE CANDIDATES AT SCIO.

The Orators Warming Up to their Work in the County Canvass.

Special to The Herald.

Scio, May 20.—There was much good humored raillery among the candidates assembled here this morning over the fact that a large part of the business portion of the city was burned during the night while the candidates were here.

The Scio brass band called the people together at 1 P. M. and the large hall selected for the political speaking was speedily filled. Hon. Wm. Cyrus was elected chairman.

The discussion was opened by Hon. John Bryant, who pursued the same line taken up at Lyons—to prove that the union-prohibition party had furnished the foundations of both the democratic and republican platforms. He accused the old parties of being wrong upon the silver question and placed them about the same on the tariff.

Hon. J. K. Weaterford followed, touching the assessment law, the silver question, the election of United States senator, and the railroad commission.

Hon. Peter Hume then took up the discussion in a humorous strain, showing that on the assessment law he had thirty years ago advocated the same amendments that are now proposed. On the water bond bill he left no uncertain feeling, but pledged himself fully and freely against them and fully exhibited that he understood the situation and was on the right side of the questions.

Hon. Jeff Myers presented his views then, stating that he had voted against the water bond bill, the road appropriations and the railroad commission bill.

Mr. Parker followed in the discussion, making no special points, but sticking to the old claim that the union party had inspired the platforms of the other two parties.

Mr. R. L. Smith, republican candidate for representative, next spoke and showed that he was fully equipped in the understanding of the legislative wants of the people, and was fit in the ability to work for them.

Mr. James Richardson, on the republican ticket for representative, followed, giving ample evidence that he had the ability and was determined in his intention to fully carry out the wishes of the people.

Mr. C. J. Shedd followed, favoring the continuation of the mortgage tax law, against non-taxable bonds, and other measures mentioned.

Mr. W. A. Templeton followed, giving ample evidence of his solid character, sound judgment and thorough understanding of the questions the people want, being a farmer and a workingman. He made a good impression and created friends.

Dr. Henry, candidate for representative on the democratic ticket, was on the programme but was forced to return home, and was not present when called for.

Mr. Russell stated that he was a democrat, on the democratic ticket and claimed election on that ground. He said that the fire had rendered him unfit for speaking as he had worked at the fire while his opponent slept.

Mr. Michener replied that he was the first out to the fire, and staid at work while the fire lasted and had found Mr. Russell on the corner talking politics when he came down. He left him there when he went back to bed and found him there again in the same occupation in the morning, and presumed he was talking all the balance of the night. Mr. Michener then gave a thorough and practical speech upon the educational interest of the county and state.

James A. Pearl, candidate for sheriff on the republican ticket, was loudly called for and sang his comic song which created a storm of cheers.

His opponent, Mr. Scott, told a story, supposed to be at the expense of Mr. Pearl, but the latter's friends, seemed to be in the majority.

The candidates will be at Millers to-morrow.

Row at Gervais.

Saturday evening a foot race took place at Gervais between a young fellow named Cameron and Grimm. After the race was run those that bet thought it was a preconcerted game and at once went after the principals in a rough manner. A rope was arranged to hang one man and a severe thumping was given to another. A rough and tumble fight took place which will result in a big lawsuit.

Cloud Bursts.

Jacksonville Times.

A waterspout dropped on one of the spurs of the Siskiyous several miles southeast of Ashland, Tuesday afternoon, that flooded the neighborhood of the Delvin place with oceans of water for a short time and washed out considerable plowed land. J. C. Adkins, who lives on the Delvin place, was the heaviest loser, estimating his loss about $50. The water came so fast that it drowned five pigs for him before he knew what was the matter, says the "Record."

A cloudburst and rainstorm on the west side of Table Rock mountain extended as far as Moonville and did great damage one day last week. Hail fell to the depth of six inches, doing considerable damage to grain and stripping the fruit trees within a limited area. The old barn on the Coleman place was almost destroyed by the wind and considerable fence was blown down.

A VILE WRETCH.

Kincade Held In $500 Bonds For Criminal Intimacy With Little Girls.

John Kincade, who was arrested in this city, in company with Florence Hoyt, a 14-year-old girl of Portland, is now resting under a very dark cloud in the county jail at that place. He is 50 years old and is said to have been a resident of Portland for many years. The Evening Telegram says of the case: For some time Officer H. C. Wood had reason to suspect that he was unduly familiar with a 14-year old girl named Florence Hoyt living with her mother on Hood and Water streets. On Tuesday last Kincade took the girl to Sellwood, and there procured a team, driving to Mollala. He left her there and drove back, coming to Portland, where he obtained $150, subsequently returning to Mollala and in company with the child he stayed in Canby that night, going to the Albany following day.

In the meanwhile Officer Wood had satisfied himself of Kincade's guilt, and he wired to Albany to have have him arrested. He was taken in custody Saturday, and at once petitioned for a writ of habeas corpus, which was to have been heard Monday, but Mr. Wood cut this proceeding short by hurrying the alleged culprit to this city last night.

The officer stated the girl had made a full confession of her intimacy with Kincade, which has continued since last September. Officer Wood stated that it all is true that he hears there are several other similar cases pending against the prisoner. He was booked on a charge of rape.

In the police court Kincade waived examination, and he was held in default of $500 bail.

ASTORIA NOTES.

The Willamette Chief came down yesterday from Portland with eight cars of railroad iron for the Astoria & South Coast railway.

W. B. Barr, the chief engineer of Albany & Astoria Railroad Company, came down yesterday morning. He says his corps of engineers will all be here by Wednesday at farthest, and the work of surveying the route will then begin.

A Fraser river fisherman has found some specimens of the lamprey eel on salmon caught by him in the river. The lamprey is a denizen of salt water, but often ascends streams in the spring for the purpose of spawning. They live by sucking the blood of other fishes, and one of the lampreys when found, had bored quite a distance in the salmon on which it was feeding.

The steamer Dolphin, from Shoalwater bay, arrived yesterday. The rumor that this vessel had gone ashore on Sand island proved to be without foundation, further than that while well inside she had been fast for a short time on another sand pit. When the tug Coleman arrived and proffered her assistance the Dolphin was almost clear, and no damage was incurred.

HARRISBURG NOTES.

Harrisburg, May 20.

Dr. Dallas Hows considerable about their new arrival. I think it is a boy.

Messrs. May & Senders are doing some good work in the way of foundations and general repair of their warehouse on the river.

T. T. Roach complains of the water being so high as to interfere with his ferrying business but it is just the thing for shippers and steamboats.

The wool clip has commenced to come in. What has been received is in good condition, no price is established yet but all are hopeful of a fair price this season.

Upmeyer & Briggs will add to their grain storage capacity and have the latest improved machinery for their warehouses, which will be first class in every particular.

Mr. J. C. Goodale of Coburg was on our streets this week and as a result of his visit he sold to the sawmill company here a million and a half feet of sawlogs to be delivered as soon as possible. It is expected to have the sawmill running on full time by the second week in June.

Mr. Kimble, the gentleman who has had charge of the steam flouring mills here, will soon take his departure for Wallowa county, where he will go into the milling business on his own account. His many friends and especially the patrons of the mills will very much regret his going from amongst us, but will all join in wishing him great success.

There seems to be a general competition with property holders in cleaning up and painting their property, a matter so long neglected in Harrisburg but one is led to believe, or rather hope, that the long sleep of our citizens is about to be cast off and something of the enterprise of other towns of the valley adopted. This is the right place if we can get the right mind hold of it.

New embroideries, flouncing, lace flouncing in cotton and silk, black and cream. Laces in imitation point, also new designs in black and white lace, including Vandyck and Eiffel Tower. New ruchings. Samuel E. Young.

Secure your railroad, steamship and sleeping car tickets to all points North, South and East via the Union Pacific railway, and save time and money. Ticket office on Broadalbin street.

Matthews & Washburn continue to push business and evince that by a bran new ad., in another column. Their indication may not be handsome but he is considerably striking.

REPUBLICAN SPEAKING.

When and Where the Prominent Men Will Deliver Speeches During the Campaign.

The republican state central committee has made the following appointments for public speaking in Albany and vicinity:

Hon. Seymour Condon at Albany on Saturday evening, May 24, at 7:30.

Hon. D. P. Thompson, Hon. Phil Metchan, Col. E. W. Nevins and Lydell Baker, will speak as follows:

Albany May 26, at 1:30.
Corvallis May 28, at 7:30.
Salem May 29, at 7:30.
Oregon City May 30, at 7:30.
Portland May 31, at 7:30.

Hon. Geo. R. Curry will speak as follows:

Harrisburg May 23, at 7:30.
Halsey May 24, at 7:30.
Brownsville May 26, at 26.
Lebanon May 27, at 7:30.

The public are cordially invited to be present and hear these gentlemen discuss the issues now before the people of Oregon.

Two Trains Daily Between Portland and Spokane Falls.

Effective May 11th, 1890, the Union Pacific system will establish two daily trains between Portland and Spokane Falls.
