VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR

As a part of the census of the people to be taken during the month of June special provision has been made by Congress for ascertaining the names of surviving soldiers, sailors, and marines who were mustered into the service of the United States during the war of the rebellion.

tion in the office. The voters the third district can have perfect satisfaction in depositing their ballots for him, for they can rest well assured that he will perform the duties of the office with ability and fidelity, and that the important interests of the people devolving on the incumbent of that office will be carefully looked after.

ONE of the most essential offices to fill in the county election is that of assessor. Mr. James B. McCoy, of Oakville, is out for that office and will make one of the best assessors that Linn county has ever had. He is a man of sound judgment, good education, and is peculiarly fitted for the place being an old resident—since '45—and knows every foot of the territory, and is active and energetic, capable and fair in his dealings with all. Mr. McCoy makes a success of his own business and is safe and reliable to entrust with any business for the county, and is pre-eminently fitted to fill the place of assessor.

F. C. GOSLEY, the Republican candidate for county recorder, is a young man of rare ability, having served in the capacity of clerk in the Auditor's office of the O. R. & N. Co. for a number of years. As a penman he has no superior in Linn county. He is a Linn county boy by birth and should be elected by a handsome majority.

R. E. McHENSON, republican candidate for School Superintendent, is a thorough and practical teacher, his educational experience and training render him thoroughly qualified to take charge of the county school. His speeches on school work and school taxation, are logical and convincing and show him to be master of those difficult questions.

Mr. JOHN R. SMITH, the nominee for county treasurer is one of the solid farmers of Linn county. He is an old resident of Lebanon precinct, popular and well known and will make a most efficient county treasurer.

A vote for James A. Pearl for sheriff is a vote for an efficient and business like administration of the office for the next two years. The voters of Albany and Linn county should see to it that he is elected.

Mr. F. M. Redfield is perhaps more familiar with the office and duties of county clerk than any other man in the county. He will receive next Monday.

THE can officers will close the canvass in this city to-day. Republicans have good men nominated, and they should stand by and elect them. They can do so by a united effort next Monday.

D. P. THOMPSON, the next governor of Oregon. "Governor Thompson" sounds well and he will make an able governor; even the democrats admit that.
