MONDAY'S ELECTION.

Linn County Republicans Gracefully Yield the Entire Ticket to the Democrats Except Surveyor.

The result of Monday's election has proved a surprise even to the democrats, and it certainly was to the republicans. Concerning the election there is little to say. The democrats have carried the county by about 250 majority except perhaps E. T. T. Fisher as surveyor, and Pennover's majority will be something like 625.

There is no doubt but that the disaffection among republicans on the governorship made itself felt on the county ticket, which together with the lack of united work among republicans swelled the majority on the county ticket at least 100.

Many republicans were mad and slaughtered their friends in their efforts to get even on the Portland ring. The count revealed the fact that the pencil was freely used all over the county.

The returns in the county as far as received are given in the appended tabulated statement of the returns.

Murder in Benton County.

Morg. Lillard went to the house of his son-in-law, Lew Feagle, on Big Elk, near Elk City, Benton county, last Friday, and ordered him to come out. Feagle came to the door, revolver in hand when Morg. fired two shots at him, neither taking effect. Lew then opened fire on Morg., firing five shots, four of them struck Morg. from the effects of which he died Sunday. Two weeks before the parties had quarreled over a line-fence and Morg. chased Lew with a gun. Lew went to Corvallis and tried to have Morg. arrested, but the authorities refused to have anything to do in the matter, advising Lew to defend himself. Lew then procured a revolver and went home. Morg. had the reputation of being a quarrelsome man and was a terror in his neighborhood, as we learn from parties of that neighborhood yesterday.

Big Excursion.

The Salem Statesman says: Co. F. of Albany, has chartered the steamer Hoag for a grand river excursion to Salem Thursday of this week. Already nearly the allotted number of tickets have been sold and the excursion gives promise of a grand success. The splendid Albany band will accompany the party of ladies and gentlemen, furnishing music all the way down. The steamer will leave Albany at an early hour, expecting to reach Salem before noon. They will remain here a few hours, viewing the city and riding on the street car line. The Second Regiment band and a large number of Salem's citizens will meet the visitors at the wharf and bid them welcome to the city.

Oregon Mineral in Chicago.

The Oregonian says that Mr. W. W. Thompson assistant secretary of the Oregon Immigration Board, has, since his return from his recent trip east, collected some very fine exhibits of coal, iron, gypsum, galena and marble, to be forwarded to Eastern railway offices. Mr. Thompson says that Chicago men of capital have exhibited an awakened interest in the mineral resources of Oregon and have made arrangements with him whereby he should collect specimens and send them to their several offices, where they will be put on exhibition.

The Blue and the Gray.

Garfield Enterprise: There was an incident at church Sunday morning that probably unnoticed by the majority of the congregation. The G. A. R., as all remember, were seated in one corner of the church, and when an ex-Confederate soldier came in he was promptly invited to a seat among those who wore the blue. It attracted no attention because it was nothing unusual, yet nowhere except in the United States of America could it have occured. There is nothing that shows so forcibly the complete restoration of national unity as the good fellowship existing between those who faced each other on the battle field.
