THE EUROPEAN WAR.

PROPHETS have been making the air lurid for years predicting war in Europe, and yet peace reigns and the standing armies of immense numbers, and costly paraphernalia, remain "standing" to watch one another.

The Boston Globe says that Von Moltke is the oldest general in Europe, and is generally regarded as the greatest soldier.

PHILADELPHIA is rather hard on the street musicians, having decided that they cannot patrol the streets. The order will be hard on the organ men and the tambourine and bass drum of the salvation army, but it will be conducive to rest and satisfaction to the citizens.

What a Fortune: Is a good, healthy, pearly skin. Few are aware of the short time it takes a disordered liver to cause blotches on the face and a dark, greasy skin.

a million dollars by the decision of the United States Supreme Court that under its charter it could not legally accept the generous bequest made by Mrs. McGraw-Fiske for a library fund.

The fact that the state gives the republican candidates, excepting the governor, a majority reaching away up above 8,000 is a pretty good indication that Oregon is still republican, and that the sheep are not all dead yet.

Railroad consolidation progresses in a slow but sure fashion. The Atchison company recently added 1850 miles to its line by the purchase of the St. Louis and San Francisco, and controls 8966 miles.

A Young Flyer: One of our colt, Deleo, recently made a record of 2:31 in a trot at Vancouver. Oneo, owned by McKnight Bros., is known over the state as a flyer, and he is one Linn county's fine horses.

The change of situation causes considerable change in the views, or at least, the expressions of men. For instance while Mr. Carlisle was a member of the house and Mr. Cleveland was president, Mr. Carlisle was very strenuous on the matter of reducing the treasury surplus, but now Mr. Carlisle is a Senator from the great state of Kentucky.
