HEIR TO AN ESTATE.

A United States Prisoner's Good Fortune.

Atlanta (Ga.) Dispatch Globe-Democrat.

Christopher Clarke, a United States prisoner in Fulton county jail looms up as the central figure in an interesting romance. Ten days ago Clarke was sentenced to three years' imprisonment at the penitentiary in Columbus O., and to pay a fine of $500, having been convicted of attempting the lives of some Deputy Marshals. Since then Clarke has fallen heir to 1600 acres of a valuable Georgia land which has gold elements its surface. Clarke's story is this:

In 1861 John Clarke, the father of the prisoner, now deceased, went to Norfolk, Va. He was attracted by the face of ... the street. She was a dark-eyed brunette who came from Portugal, but her descent was so disguised by her deep tan color that some thought she was a negress, while others believed her to be an Indian. A mystery hovered about her nativity which was not even fully solved in her own mind. John Clarke married her and brought her to his home in the Blue Ridge mountains of Georgia. Clarke was a rich Georgia planter, and had already been married to an estimable lady. Christopher Clarke is the son of the Portuguese wife and like all the children of this woman, is a fine looking brunette with much of the Portuguese in his appearance. When his father died his landed estate were claimed by the first wife and her children, who asserted that Clarke's marriage with the quadroon, as they called her, was illegal.

Six times the case was tried, and the "dark-eyed daughter of foreign lands," with her children, lost the estate, but the Judge set aside the verdict ... During this prolonged litigation both mothers have died and the children of the alleged quadroon proved that the father of their mother was a Portuguese sailor who came into Norfolk on a vessel, and that he had married an Indian.

Owing to this proof he has succeeded in getting a verdict granting him the landed estate of his father, which is shared by his brothers and sisters. The tall and the felon do not wear well together. Clarke now makes a motion through his attorney on the case for release on bond. Clarke is a stout handsome fellow, with a wildness in his face that is interesting. It is said he is betrothed to a pretty mountain lassie near Dahlonega and now that he finds himself in possession of sufficient property, proposes make a strong fight for freedom.

ENORMOUS RAFTS.

On the Coast to be Taken to San Francisco,

KILLED BY A DYNAMO.

Indicted for Smuggling—Bribery Laws No Good—The Ranger to Go to Samoa—Colored Ravisher Lynched.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The Pacific Pine Lumber company is stated has purchased the patent right for this coast of the ... enormous timber rafts. The sum of $150,000 has already been subscribed and at a meeting yesterday afternoon it was resolved to incorporate and begin the construction of a raft as soon as practicable.

There are hundreds of settlers owning large timber tracts on the banks of the Columbia river and Puget Sound who will be enabled to market their material by simply floating their logs and delivering them at the mills, which probably will be erected by the company at some convenient point in the vicinity after which the timber will float down the coast in one enormous raft to this port.

PORTLAND, June 12.—Detectives are on the lookout for Dr John Josie and wife formerly of Seattle. About six weeks ago the couple came here and gained the confidence of Mrs. Robbins, a widow about 55 years of age, who was keeping a boarding house. The doctor and his wife prevailed on the lady to sell out and put the proceeds, $280, in a bank. The party then started for California. Mrs. Josie acting as the old lady's maid. Josie succeeded in getting Mrs. Robbins to allow him to take care of her money. Arriving at the Oakland depot, Josie gave the lady $22 in money and a ticket for Boston. He told her to wait and he would secure tickets for himself and wife to the same destination. Mrs. Robbins returned $9 of the $22 given her. That was the last seen by her of her money or the doctor and his alleged wife. Realizing her situation and being away from friends she at once returned to Portland, where she reported her loss to detectives.

The Mississippi and Missouri River Appropriations—A Utah Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The house to-day passed the agricultural appropriation bill.

Senator Edmunds from the committee on judiciary to-day reported back favorably with amendments to the bill recently introduced by him providing for the reorganization of the government of Utah. By the terms of the bill existing election districts and apportionments of representatives for members of the territorial legislature are abolished and it is made the duty of the governor, territorial secretary and board of commissioners, as soon as practicable after the result of the census is made known to rearrange and make a new apportionment for the legislature officers, territorial auditor and treasurer with commissioners to locate university lands. Probate judges, county clerks, selectmen, assessors, recorders and superintendent of district schools, are vacated and appointment of all of these officers is vested in the government, subject to approval by the board of commissioners. The board of commissioners is authorized and empowered in its discretion to cause a new registration of voters in Utah and to make and enforce rules and registration not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, for the conduct of the registration and elections in the territory.

In the course of the remarks on conference report and the urgent deficiency in the pension appropriation bill representation, Henderson of Iowa, in the house made the following statement, showing the appropriations made by the present house for the benefit of soldiers. As represented by the committee the bill gives about three million in excess of the house bill.

The biscuit company having gobbled up the most of the eastern houses, came here and bought up the Kennedy company, but failed in negotiations with another large concern. The Dake trust has declared war and the Dake people retaliated by organizing a combine among several large western manufacturers. A sharp fight in prices is looked for.

PROHI POLITICS.

A Chicago Move to Gobble Biscuits With a Trust.

THE WIDOW'S MITE STOLEN.

A Faithful Nun Gives Her Life—Montana Supreme Judges—Maine Republicans—Elections.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The New York national temperance congress this morning discussed the topic "should there be a political party whose dominant idea is prohibition of the liquor traffic." Rev. Dr Carroll, editor of the Independent, took the ground that such a party is not needed. Prohibition is a question that does not come within the scope of congress except in a limited degree. Prohibition is evidently a state question. We would have more prohibition if we had fewer prohibition parties.

Rev. Dr Bascom, late president of the Wisconsin university said. The republican party is now under the most corrupt leadership. It can't be trusted to secure prohibition." In the morning session the topic discussed was "to what causes is to be attributed the failure of prohibition amendment in the late contests" in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island.

H. H. Qaxon, of Massachusetts said that the defeat in his state was due to the fact that high license had been placed on the statues a short time before the campaign and Boston was determined to get the $888,000 fees.

He thought local option the best thing for the prohibition party to do. He said the prohibition party is exerting a healthful and restraining influence on the Republican party; as for the democratic party it can be trusted to do anything which will advance temperance and morality.

The attitude of the labor unions toward the liquor traffic was also discussed.

MILITARY ACADEMY.

The Usual Number of Graduates Turned Out.

WEST POINT, June 12.—The last exercises are over and another class has graduated. Rev. D. Everett Hale addressed the graduates this afternoon in behalf of visitors concluded with the sentiment "stand by your country boys," which was received by the cadets with loud applause.

Gen. Sherman was introduced and he said he would first have to apologize for appearing in civilian dress, "but I tell you," he said "you will be glad to follow my example when you have served fifty years as I have done to-day." At this announcement the audience sent up a mighty shout of congratulation to the old war horse simi centennial. "I have seen fifty such classes as this leave here," added the general. In conclusion he advised the cadets to trust to God and serve their country faithfully.

INCREASING PRICES.

Must be Brought Up to Living Profit.

CHICAGO, June 12.—At the meeting to-night of the national furniture manufactures it was decided to increase the prices after the 1st of the month. The increase in the resolution is to be "sufficient to cover the increased cost of materials and enable manufacturers to make a living profit."

A Fight to the End.

ALBERQUERQUE, June 12.—There was a free fight yesterday among a number of cowboys on the head of the Nigralas, Socorro county, which resulted in the death of John and Garnet Davis on one side and Fred Groskett on the other. There are two factions in that county and it is thought that the killing is the result of bad blood and too much "budge."

Tickets in the Field.

TOPEKA, June 12.—A joint convention of delegates from the farmers' alliance and farmers' mutual benefit association, industrial grange and knights of labor are holding a session in this city. The meeting so far has been strictly secret, but it is learned that it has been decided to put state and congressional tickets in the field and watch them closely. A state convention will be called.

Racing at Portland.

PORTLAND, June 12.—At the second day's racing at the City View park the attendance was about 1000. The weather was good and the track fast. In the 7-8 mile race Sunday won; Murphy, 2d; Synfox, 3d; time, 1:33½. In the one mile race Guido won; Tom Daly, 2d; Coloma, 3d; time, 1:44½. In the trotting race Hannibal Jr. won; Harry Howe, 2d; Hamen, 3d; best time, 2:33¼.

Indian Hostility Reports False.

HELENA, Mt., June 12.—The reports of a threatened Indian hostility in East Montana are largely sensational. The account received here implicated the Cheyennes in depredations on cattle herds. The only murderous crime committed was in killing Homer F. Ferguson, foreman of the Ramsey Cattle Co., May 6th. The guilty Indians surrendered and are in jail awaiting trial at Miles City, and a recent movement of the band of Cheyennes led to a suspicion that they are making ready to go on the warpath. The military took prompt measures to check the outbreak, if meditated. Exaggerated rumors scared a number of exposed settlers, and in response to representations of danger, the government dispatched from Miles City some arms and ammunition. Gov. Toole said this afternoon that he had an officer at Miles City who did not seem to share in the fears of trouble there.

FIRE IN A HOSPITAL.

One of the Brave and Devoted Nuns Loses Her Life.

Republican Convention in Maine.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 12.—The republican state convention met to-day. Governor Burleigh was nominated by acclamation. Seth L. Milliken, of Belfast, was nominated from congress from the third district. The platform unreservedly renews the adhesion of the republican party to the prohibition of the liquor traffic and demands of congress the enactment of such legislation as shall enable each state to exercise a full control, within her borders, of the traffic in all liquor, whether imported in original package or not.

Cattle Quarantine.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Stringent measures were adopted by the secretary of agriculture to stamp out pleuro pneumonia in the cattle from the counties of King and Green, has created considerable excitement and aroused dairymen to armed rebellion. It is understood that Secretary Rusk recently received private news that unless his disease be effectively done away with a severe quarantine be proclaimed by England against the exportation of American cattle.

The very best quality of tea and coffee to be found in the city is at Spencer & Blackburn's. Their blended coffee, ground to order, will suit the most fastidious.

The Oyster Crop.

Yaquina Post.

Oystermen say, for some reason, they fear a light crop. Clams are as plentiful and good conditioned as at any time heretofore, and the table is spread twice a day as usual, and all are invited to help themselves free of charge.

Why.

Why shouldn't the spirit of mortal be proud when good fresh groceries can be bought so very cheap at Spencer & Blackburn's. A trial order will convince you.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Superintendent of Census Porter was informed by the census supervisor of the Fifth district of Pennsylvania that the Hungarians, Poles and Italians refuse to give any census information, even to an interpreter
