There is a brisk demand for ice now. Some part of the machinery of the ice works gave way Saturday, but it has been repaired, and the demand has been supplied much to the satisfaction of the public.

A letter received from Congressman Hermann states that on the mail route below Shedd and Oakville, Linn county, the mail service has been increased to six days a week, the same taking effect on July 1st.

An assay received by the Albany Mining & Milling company from one of their new lodes, the Santium showed 37 ounces of silver and $2110 in gold per ton. It was an average sample from the mine and points to something rich for the company.

Charlie Henkle who is logging for Brown's mill at the Niagara of the Santium reports blackberries ripe, and most of them near that camp than 100 people can gather in 10 days. Take a jug of cream and a box of crackers for your lunch July 4.

The Albany express, that is put on this morning to run between this city and Portland will be a very popular train. Conductor David L. Houston will have charge of the train, and the traveling public will find him an affable, pleasant and accommodating gentleman to deal with.

A report from Corvallis states that at the recent meeting of the board of regents, the faculty numbering thirteen members, was reduced by dropping five of them, one of whom was Prof. Grimm. The latter has been considered one of the best teachers in the school, and the board has acted unwisely if they have dropped him from the faculty.

Senator Dolph has introduced a bill asking for an appropriation of $20,000 for a hospital to be built on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets in Albany. The senator says that the Pacific Northwest is entitled to one of the hospitals if another is decided upon, and the Albany Board of Trade has forwarded a memorial to our representatives in congress to have the home at Albany.

A Sad Death. Herbert, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Obling, died last evening of diphtheria in his home on Washington street in this city. Herbert was an unusually bright little fellow, and his death is a sad loss to the heartbroken parents, thus being their last child, the other one having died by the same disease only a few days ago. The sympathy of the entire community will go out to the bereaved parents in their sad affliction. The funeral will take place from the residence at 2 P. M. today.

Card of Thanks. Permit us through your columns to extend to the friends of Alice, without distinction on either side, thanks for their kindly offers in finding and restoring to us the body of our beloved little boy, after many hours of ceaseless toil, what seemed to be a hopeless task. From friends and strangers alike we have received heartfelt expressions of tenderest sympathy and words of consolation, and we take this method to loudly express our high appreciation for assistance rendered in the sad hour of bereavement.

Albany June 30, 1890.
