A presentment had been mule

against him and a trial was had according to the force and form of the discipline, after the dae notice was given him, and he took no appeal from that judg ment. It was found by the trial onference that they had jurisdic tion of h m and of the surject marter. I see no irregularity in har. I think he had no right to preside over the Il inois conferoce, and that body act d in strict conformity to the d scipline in a:pointing a prosiding officer, and were regular all were bound by its ac s. and if the ministers sent out with the seal of that conference attached to t cir cer ifica ewere the appointed ministers sent their respective districts, I on't see any reasona de cause to loubt their authority.
