

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE. The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

TOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

O. P. Coshov, Sr., of Brownsville, is in the city. Mrs. J. K. Elberkin and children are sojourning at Seaside. Klein Bros., give a pair of fastenets with every pair of ladies oxford ties. Logan Hays, manager of the Western Union telegraph office at Corvallis, is in the city. For all styles in children shoes go to Klein Bros., as they will save you money.

Robinson's Ten Big Shows combined into one great circus will be in Albany on July 31. Have you seen those new style hair ornaments at the Ladies Bazaar. They are the latest thing out.

An elegant new line of addressed card gloves, in all the latest shades just received at the Ladies Bazaar. Note of the salmon canneries on Yaquina or Alsea bays will be run this season, owing to the low price of salmon.

We are fast gaining a reputation for good goods and low prices. Just what the people want, Spencer & Blackburn.

People going to the seaside can have the Herald sent to them without additional expense by leaving their addresses at this office.

The regular meeting of Temple Commandery takes place to-night at their hall. Sir Knights will take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

The new judge, Pipes, will preside at a special term of court to be held in Eugene July 14 to try some right of way suits brought by the Oregon Railway company.

Messrs. Caplatz & Pevin have purchased the restaurant of Harry Jones, opposite the Russ House. They will keep the same open all night and will serve breakfast for the early Albany local train.

Mr. Louis A. Vieram, advance agent of the Chicago Comedy Co., is in the city arranging for the re-appearance of this excellent company in this city next week. Beginning on Monday night they will play a week's engagement.

Wm. Emerick has opened a meat market opposite the Russ House, where he is prepared to furnish the best of meats of all kinds. Having been in this business for many years, he knows how to suit the public in this line.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mr. Jay Blain and family, Mrs. Elizabeth Blain, Mr. John Morrison, Mrs. Ollie Marks, Mr. Albert and W. Sellmacher, left this city yesterday for Yaquina.

The flag tender team of Salem has challenged the five ladies of the Albany tender team for a race for $100 a side. The same will be accepted and the race will probably occur in this city some time in July.

Tickets to Europe San Francisco, Spokane Falls, Pendleton, Baker City, The Dalles, and all points in the United States and Canada for sale at the Union ticket office, C. G. Rawlings city ticket agent, Broad street.

Messrs. Benway & Co. have been amusing the public nightly with stereopticon views exhibited at the corner of Broad and Second streets. W. H. Warner is assistant operator. The display will be continued each evening.

New emporiums, flouncing, lace flouncing in cotton and silk, black and cream. Laces in imitation point, also new designs in black and white lace, including Vanduyck and Edget Rowers, New Archings, Samuel E. Young.

Mr. Charles Wright is in the city delivering life sized crayon portraits to those whose orders are already filled. Those desiring work of this kind should call on him at the store of F. H. Pfeiffer. The work speaks for itself and is done at reasonably low rates.

The Albany & Astoria railroad surveys are diligently at work in the mountains north of Union Peak. They have some rough country to encounter there, the most difficult on the whole route, and are making a thorough survey of the most feasible passes. They have recently graded all pack-trails to their outlet.

Mrs. Houghton, wife of Senator Houghton, of Spokane Falls, is spoken of as one of the brightest and clearest real estate women in Washington. "She is business from the drop of the hat," said a well-informed gentleman to a Tacoma Ledger reporter. "That woman has made $20,000 during the past four or five years. Her business is transacted chiefly at Spokane Falls."

Loaded Down. Last evening Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express wagon was overloaded for the first time since the arrival of their new wagon. The reason of this was that Wheeler's Garrett received a large supply of fine California fruit. Don't fail to read over their list in this morning's issue.

An Eastern Oregon Water-Spout. A water spout occurred last Tuesday on Sutton creek, says the Baker City Democrat, starting on the summit and running a perfect flood down on the ranches below, destroying grain, dams and garden patches. The principal cause by the rust of waters were Judge L. O. Stearns, who had a large reservoir washed out, and Mr. Birchoux, whose grain field was badly damaged by slum washing over it.

AN INJUNCTION SUIT

It Will Be Brought to Change the Location of the Lyon Street Canal.

A special meeting of the city council was held last night to consider the matter of preventing the water in the canal on Lyon street from interfering with the wall of P. J. Baltmore's new building. No definite action was taken, but Mr. Baltmore announced that he would commence an injunction suit against the water company to restrain them from allowing the water to run adjoining his building, and it was an informal understanding among members of the council that the city would aid in such suit to enforce the location of the canal in the middle of the street.

Chicago Comedy Co.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

LETTER LIST.

Following is a list of the letters remaining unclaimed in the post-office at Albany, Oregon, July 9, 1896. Persons calling for the same will please give the date on which they were advertised. Miss A. Billings; J. H. Cummings; John B. Gilmore; Mrs. Susan B. Henderson; Mrs. Carl Kraeger; James Kilackey; H. A. Laue; A. E. Martin; Miss Rose Messelt; Johnny Murphy; Fred Patterson; W. R. Robinson; Tom Todd; Miss Jennie Thomas. P. M.

OBITUARY.

Eliza Lamb, born May 6, 1811 in the north of Ireland, the united with old School Presbyterian church when 17 years of age. Came to America in 1831 and married Richard Van Tine Nov. 22, 1832. Cause of death from California in Aug. 1896. Died June 22, at the residence of her son-in-law Wm. Allen two miles north of Seaside. Roman Catholic. Her granddaddy died March 11, 1887. "Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep."

COAST NOTES.

Baker City's electric light works will soon be ready to start up.

While in Tallinn Monday we obtained of Mr. Smith a head of wheat which we presume is an average of its grain, and it measured 6 1/2 inches in length.—Lelan Express.

East Oregonian: Two white men and one Indian were drowned near Biolaok while crossing the Columbia Friday last. The body of a man who was drowned two months ago, after having started a fishery in operation, has just been found fifty miles below the place of the accident.

During the wind storm last week two Indians attempted to cross the rapids near Collio in a small boat, which soon became unmanageable and capsized. One of the bodies was found in a fish wharf above the city; the other is supposed to have been carried off in the current.—Dales Times-Mountaineer.

The Calapooia Mines.

A correspondent from Brownsville writes, under date of July 4, Mr. F. D. Van Hagen returned from the Calapooia mines this morning, with flattering reports. He says that Mr. Sargworthy, of Portland, who is up there, is simply a tonished at the amount of ore in a spot, the richest yet found by any one who will take the trouble of pounding the rock and that it has laid idle and vacant so long. It is too near home to be appreciated or sought for. A trail up the Calapooia to shorten the distance one-half is again talked of.

A Convenience For Albany.

For the morning 5 o'clock local train running from Albany to Portland, which makes the run through without change or breakfast, Mr. E. J. Brown, of the Depot Hotel, will prepare hot coffee with the lunch served to those taking the train who desire it.

The Limited Fast Mail.

On the Union Pacific consumes but seventy hours from Portland to Chicago, which is the fastest time ever made from the Pacific coast. Ticket office Broad and Second streets.

How to Make Home Happy.

Gentlemen, if you would always have your home happy and serene, just call at Spencer & Blackburn and leave your orders for bread, pies and cakes, or anything you want in the bakery line. They will receive prompt attention.

In the decline of life, infirmities beset us to which our youth and maturity were strangers, our kidneys and liver are subject to degeneration, but nothing equals Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm as a regulator of these organs.—Foshay & Mason.

Ladies, when your light colored shoes get soiled go to Klein Bros., for a bottle of Russian Tan; it will make them also as new.

Eight shaves for $1 at Viereck's.

COUNTY COURT.

In the matter of R. N. Thompson et al. for county road, W. R. Kirk, W. O. Smith and J. H. Washburn appointed viewers.

In the matter of application of Abraham Earl et al. for county road: road ordered opened on payment of damages.

J. S. Corbett, clerk for medical services continued for another year.

Settlement with H. Farrell, ex-county treasurer, made and approved.

The following bills were allowed: E. E. Montague, clerks fees $ 61.60; Cronson & Menzies, m. a. s. 6.25; John Davis, keeping papers 37.10; Fees State vs. Frank Mack allowed in full 27.00; E. T. Fisher, establishing corners 22.50; L. M. Curl, salary, superintendent 114.50; Fees, drawing justice jury list 6.00; G. W. Young, work on bridge 117.00; J. F. Wallace, medical aid to Albany Water Co., water rent 15.00; John Leedy, lumber 29.48; Thos. Thompson, lumber 5.25; Chas. D. Montague, aid to poor 15.00; R. R. Humphrey, lumber 59.80; W. R. Robinson, aid to poor 10.00; O. P. Coshov, 10.00; Ladies Aid Society, aid Long family 10.00; G. C. Coffey, aid Mrs. Clark D Hart, keeping poor 35.00; N. D. Conn, exam. bridge 5.00; Hamilton & Andrews, aid for poor 10.00; J. B. Fitzwater 10.00; Wm. J. John, building Wiley Creek bridge 700.00

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned, the cabin boy, sustained her recognized power and grace, and increased her popularity to even a higher degree than formerly. Louise Howard and Annie Inman also sustained their parts admirably. One of the best characters of the play was E. H. Felt, as the guide to the penal colony. As an actor he is hard to beat—and there you are. To-night will be presented "Black Diamonds," one of the best drawing plays now on the stage, and in which the company shows to great advantage. The pianist, Mr. Foster, is an accomplished musician and was loudly applauded last night. The company will open a weeks engagement at the Albany Opera House commencing Monday July 14th, playing an entirely new repertoire of latest Eastern successes, at popular prices 20, 30 and 50 cents. The company has been entirely reorganized, and besides retaining the leading favorites of last season, many new talented eastern stars have been added, making in all one of the strongest companies on the road. The seats are now on sale at Will & Link, the opera house music store.

The following taken from the "C. P. Journal" of Salem, of Tuesday July 8th next, speaks of the above company. This beautiful melodrama was presented to grand style to a well filled opera house last night by the Chicago Comedy company. Jas. A. DeLin as Simon Lazarus, a London page, and in which the audience roars during every appearance. Val E. Love, as Owen Glynden, the old man with an iron will was a grand character, as was also the younger Snow as Harry Glynden the c-a-t guard, and Harry Barrymore as "last Jack," the villain. Miss Belle Inman, as Ned