FIRE AT SPOKANE.

Incendiaries Attempt to Burn the City

THE LOSSES REACH $250,000.

Five Fire Bugs Arrested—Three Fires Were Started—The City Guarded—The Losses and Insurance.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., July 23.—Fire this morning destroyed property valued at nearly $200,000. There was a woeful lack of water, one of the mains bursting on the island. The Monroe street bridge, a new structure, costing $40,000, was entirely burned, the department having no water on the north side of the fire. Losses are as follows: Cable Road company, $50,000; H. W. Greenburg & Co., $18,000; Monroe Street Bridge Company, $35,000; Bonne & Company, $12,000; Cascade Laundry, $3500; Cutter & Curtis, $7500; Washington Water Power Co., $18,000; S. P. Packer, $2000; James Jones, $1000; Miss Ada Howard, $1000; total loss, $148,000.

Insurance: Cable Road Company, $15,000; H. W. Greenburg, $6000; Bridge Company, $12,500; Cascade Laundry $1500; Washington Water Power company $11,000; Bonne & Co., $5500; James Jones, $500; S. P. Packer, $1500; total, $53,500.

Early this morning stories were afloat about the loss of life, but these have not been verified.

Losses on Second street in city property were as follows: W. C. Cardwell, second hand goods $3000; J. P. Ball, building, $1500; Julia Glenn, lodging, $700; N. W. Commission Co., $4,000; K. of L. lodge-room, $200; Tuttle & Hix, stock $2000; building $1500; Monarch Lodging House, $2500; O. C. Ross, four cottages, $4000; Spokane Cold Storage Co., $3500; total, $22,000.

Insurance: O. C. Ross, $4,000; Julia Glenn, $525; miscellaneous, approximate, $4500; total, $8525.

It is the general belief that fire bugs are at work. Two small fires this forenoon, one in the west and the other in the east part of the city, strengthen this belief. People are alert and vigilant. Five suspects have been arrested. The city is thoroughly guarded and no further danger is anticipated.

The burnt district on the north side of the river and the great chasm left by the burning made the bridge present a very desolate appearance to-day.

Neither of the fires were in the business center. A great many rumors have been afloat all day about the work of fire-bugs but they fail to develop. Julia Glenn, keeper of a lodging house in which second street fire first started, is under arrest for suspected arson, but she stoutly denies the charge and there seems to be but little to substantiate it.

When the two fires were at their height the whole city and surrounding country was illuminated. Everybody was nervous and this almost developed into a panic when the main bursted and the firemen had no water to fight with. The Monroe street bridge burned inch by inch while the firemen and thousands of spectators stood by powerless to check the flames. Many buildings were saved by the use of garden hose and wet blankets. Many people remained awake all night, fearing the starting of new fires, as the air was still and sparks and firebrands ascended far into the blackness and floated to distant parts of the city.

The firemen did excellent work and one man in particular won admiration from all who saw his work. He covered a frame work with wet blankets and carried hose into the alley with flames raging on both sides of him and checked the progress of the fire.

CARELESSNESS OF HUNTERS.

A Disastrous Forest Fire Started in Nevada County, California.

SACRAMENTO, July 23.—Information was received here from Grass valley yesterday evening giving a meagre account of a huge forest fire in Nevada county. It is stated that the woods were blazing between the town of Forest Springs and Perin's mine, and that smoke could be seen from Grass valley. The fire is believed to have spread over ten miles square, sweeping in its passage several farm houses, orchards and any number of acres of oats. Careless hunters are supposed to have started the fire.

FIRE IN SEATTLE.

A Destructive Blaze in the Suburb of Ballard.

SEATTLE, July 23.—Ballard, a northern suburb of Seattle was visited by a very disastrous fire this morning shortly after 4 o'clock. The fire started in the Song saloon on Ballard Avenue in a manner that is unknown. A general alarm was at once sounded. The flames spread quickly in all directions and was soon beyond control.

To the south of the saloon was a large two story hotel, owned and occupied by D. P. Calligan. The hotel contained 24 rooms, all of which were occupied. The guests were at once warned, but so rapidly did the fire spread that a number of them barely escaped with their lives. A bucket brigade was hastily organized, but all the water that was brought was used to wet down neighboring buildings.

Meantime the fire was spreading in all directions. The residence of Calligan in the rear of the hotel was soon in a blaze and the buildings to the north of Nodigan's saloon, occupied by A. O. Sirier as the Acme saloon, Tweedie and Calligan's saloon to the south, and across to the Russell block and the Mackenzie building were on fire. The latter two were soon extinguished with the aid of buckets. The fire was finally stopped by tearing down a small building.

The total loss is $14,400; insurance, $6,500.

TO STOP SHIPPING ARMS.

No More to be Sent from This Country to Central America.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—It is known that for some time past all the Pacific Mail Company's steamers have carried considerable consignments of arms and ammunition to Central America states. Agent Johnson, of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, has received the following dispatch from President Houston:

"Stop shipping arms and munitions of war to Guatemala, Salvador and Honduras."

It is learned that a considerable quantity of arms and munitions of war had been ordered from local dealers to go on to the San Blas, which sails to-morrow. This telegram from President Houston will have the effect of countermanding these orders.

RIOTOUS STRIKERS.

They Threaten to Make Broadway Run With Blood.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The striking cloakmakers have begun to carry out their threat of making Broadway run with blood. They have been wrought up to fighting pitch and this morning started out to wreak vengeance on the firm of Meyer, Jonassen & Co., on Broadway, and but for the prompt interference of the police, a bloody riot might have resulted. At 8 o'clock this morning over 100 operators and tailors, armed with clubs, gathered in front of the company's house. A great body of them took up positions on the opposite side of the street, while half a dozen selected ones patrolled the sidewalk in front of the factory, and began to taunt the cutters as they went into the store to work. C. J. F. Kluptell, who tends store for the firm, noticed one man in particular who was aggressive. He stood almost directly in the doorway and assumed a threatening attitude, holding a club in his hand. Kluptell ordered him away, whereupon the striker let out a string of oaths and threatened to beat the brains out of the door-tender. It was the signal for the mob to rush across the street, brandishing its clubs. Two policemen came up at this critical time, and threatening to brain the first man who made a move to fight, held them at bay. The aggressive fighter was arrested and at the station was recognized as a striking operator. At the headquarters of the operators, reporters were threatened with death, and the general outlook points to a riot which may break out at any time.

YACHTING DISASTER.

Two Boats Capsize and Two of the Men Drowned.

MILWAUKEE, July 23.—A special from Duluth says that in the yacht race this morning two boats were struck by a squall. One went to the bottom. Clark and Lindler were drowned. Purcell was rescued in a dying condition. The others of the crew were picked up by a tug.

BLAINE'S SCHEME.

President Harrison Favors Somewhat Broader Terms.

NEW YORK, July 23.—A Sun's special from Washington says that President Harrison has drafted a message to congress, urging the adoption of Blaine's reciprocity scheme, but on broader terms and with a scope far more extensive than has been advocated by the secretary of state. It can be stated authoritatively that a rough draft of the message has been written and is now in the president's desk. Both Senators Aldrich and Morrill, of the senate finance committee, have become converted to Blaine's doctrine recently, and they have added their influence to that of the secretary of state.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The president sent to the senate to-day the nomination of John L. Stevens, now minister resident at Honolulu to be minister to the Hawiian Islands.

The president also sent the following nominations to the senate to be ministers plenipotentiary, pursuant to an act of congress, approved July 14, 1890: Thos. H. Anderson, of Ohio, now minister resident and consul-general at La Paz, Bolivia; C. E. Carr, of Illinois, now minister resident and consul-general at Copenhagen, Denmark; John D. Washburn of Massachusetts, now minister at Berne, to Switzerland; George Maney, at Montevedio, to Paraguay and Uruguay.

THE BEHRING SEA.

Correspondence Between England and the United States

THE QUESTION IN CONGRESS.

A Lengthy Discussion by the Representatives of the Two Countries—President Harrison's Views.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The president to-day sent to the house of representatives in answer to a resolution introduced by Representative Hitt, the official correspondence between this government and [illegible] touching seal fisheries in Behring sea. In an accompanying letter transmitted to the president, Secretary Blaine, under date of Bar Harbor, July 19, regrets the delay in transmission, which the president directed on the 11th instant, and says that correspondence is still in progress.

The correspondence includes 30 separate papers, beginning with a letter from Edwards, first secretary of legation and charge d'affair after Minister West's recall, dated August 24, 1889, and closing with one from Secretary Blaine to Sir Julian Pauncefote, British minister, dated July 19, 1890.

Blaine says it is the opinion of the president that the Canadian vessels arrested and detained in the Behring sea were engaged in a pursuit of itself contra bones mores, a pursuit which of necessity involves a serious and permanent injury to the rights of the government and the people of the United States.

The secretary then speaks of the seal fisheries, which were controlled by Russia without interference, till the session of Alaska to the United States in 1867. This undisturbed concession continued to the United States till 1886, passing whaling vessels abstaining from seal capture. He says this uniform measure of all attempts to take fur seals in those waters had been a constant recognition of the right held and exercised, first by Russia and subsequently by this government. It had also been a recognition of the fact now held of a broad denial or doubt that the taking of seal in the open sea rapidly leads to distinction. Certain Canadian vessels in 1886 asserted their right to enter and by a ruthless course destroy the fisheries. The government of the United States at once proceeded to check this move.

The ground on which her majesty's government justifies, or at least defends, the course of the Canadian vessels, rests on the fact that they are committing their acts of destruction on the high seas. It now awaits any proposition for a reasonable adjustment which her majesty's government may submit. The forcible resistance to which this government is constrained in the Behring sea is, in the president's judgment, demanded, not only by a necessity for defending the traditional long established rights of the United States, but also the rights of good government and good morals the world over.

Pauncefote wrote Blaine, in answer to his invitation for a counter proposal for settlement: In view of the divergent views held no solution would satisfy the public opinion in Canada or Great Britain without a full inquiry by a mixed commission of experts. Meanwhile he was prepared to recommend to his government certain provisional precautionary measures pending the report of the committee.

He then proposed the following provisional regulations: That pelagic sealing should be prohibited in Behring sea, Okohotzk sea, and adjoining waters during the months of May, June, October, November and December, which may be termed the migratory period of fur seals.

2d. That all sealing vessels be prohibited from approaching the breeding islands within a radius of 10 miles.

The Marquis of Salisbury, under date of the 22d, in a letter to the British minister, undertakes to reply to Blaine's argument, relative to the seizures. It was justified by the fact that they were engaged in a pursuit contra bones mores the marquis says. It is an axiom of international maritime law that such an action is only admissible in case of piracy or in pursuance of a special international agreement.

Her majesty's government would deeply regret that the pursuit of fur seals on the high seas by British vessels should involve even the slightest injury to the people of the United States. If the case be proven they will be ready to consider what measures can be properly taken to remedy such injury, but would be unable on that ground to depart from the principle which free commerce on the high seas depend. No sea is now mare clausum. All of the seas may be pursued by ships under any flag except directly on the coast or within its territorial limit.

The thirtieth and last letter of the correspondence, which would, if printed, entirely fill over 20 newspaper columns, was addressed by Mr. Blaine to Sir J. Pauncefote from Bar Harbor last Saturday.

The secretary says: I am ordered by the president to say that the United States is willing to consider all the proceedings of April 16, 1883, as cancelled so far as American rights may be concerned. This government will ask Great Britain to adhere only to the agreement made between Salisbury and Mr. Phelps on the 25th of February 1888.

THE NORTHWEST INDIANS.

A Commission to Determine Some of Their Rights.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The senate resumed the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill this morning. An amendment for the appointment by the president of a commission of three persons to visit Puyallup reservation in the state of Washington to make a full inquiry and investigation regarding such reservation, whether the power of alienation by the Indians should be removed, whether the railroads shall be granted the right or necessity of disposal by the Indians of their interest, was agreed to.

Mitchell offered an amendment for the appointment by the president of a commission of three to fix the northern line of the Warm Spring reservation in Oregon and to visit the Colville Indian reservation in Washington and negotiate for a cession of a portion of that reservation.

A DEPLORABLE FATE.

A Former Albany Journalist Must Go to the Asylum.

PORTLAND, July 23.—To-day W. A. McPherson was adjudged mildly insane, and will be taken to the asylum for treatment. He formerly resided in Albany. In his earlier days he wielded a most caustic pen in the field of journalism, which was as much admired by his friends as feared by his foes.

Once he was state printer and he filled various other offices of public trust reflecting his intelligence. Even during the past few months when his physical system evidenced decay, his wonted genial manner did not desert him.

The World's Fair.

CHICAGO, July 23.—To night the ordinance asked by the directors of the world's fair, granting the use of the lake front as a part of the site, was adopted by the city council without amendment. The vote stood 44 to 15. The ordinance pledges the city of Chicago to pay for any piling or filling in of the lake that may be needed to the extent of $200,000, and after the fair is ended the grounds to revert to the city to be used forever as a public park. Not less than 150 acres of the lake front are to be used for the world's fair purposes.

Thousands of Cattle Dying.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 23.—The Siberian cattle plague is ravaging the province of Riazan. Cattle, horses and sheep are dying by thousands. A number of peasants have also contracted the disease, but no fatal cases are reported.

Schooner and Crew Lost.

LONDON, July 23.—The American schooner Wm. Rice has been lost at sea and her crew, consisting of 16 persons, perished. The vessel was on a voyage from Cape Ann to Ireland.

Ordered to Guatemala.

ROME, July 23.—The Italian-American squadroon has been ordered to Guatemala to protect Italian citizens.

A MIDSUMMER ITEM.

Some Pointers That Will Save Money to Housekeepers.

Go and see that beautiful gold watch at the "Golden Rule Bazaar." Julius Gradwohl the proprietor of the Golden Rule Bazaar informs us that he has the Prize Baking Powder, and No. 1 Japan tea, expressly put up for his business, and for the benefit of his customers, each box of baking powder will win a piece of fine glassware, and also each pound of the tea will win a piece of fine glassware, and customers who buy one pound of tea or a box of baking powder, which is warranted, will have a chance on that beautiful gold watch. He has also added a fine assortment of family groceries to his mammoth stock of glassware and crockery, which is the largest in the Willamette valley. Go and see Mr. Gradwhol at the Golden Rule Bazaar, and you will see that nothing is misrepresented.
