STATE DISPATCHES.

Robbed of $5000 at Salem—Attempted Suicide at Eugene.

SALEM, July 30.—S. W. R. Jones, a wealthy farmer and land owner, living north of the city yesterday evening was confidenced out of $5000 in gold in a bold swindle. Jones came here this morning and carried a little tin box which he supposed contained $15,000, but which instead was filled with a couple of stones. A man and a woman, representing themselves to be wealthy, called to buy his farm a few days ago, and while en route to Salem yesterday met another man, representing himself to be a Louisiana lottery agent, who induced Jones to invest in a ticket. He did and drew $5. He drew again and got $15,000, which the agent said he could not pay unless he knew that Jones was worth that amount, whereon Jones came here and borrowed $5000. He then went and met the supposed agent, who pretended to put $10,000 in gold and bonds in a tin box with Jones' money, and then gave him the box to keep, saying they would meet in Salem to-day and cash the ticket. By a neat legerdemain he changed the tin boxes on the gullable Jones, giving him one containing rocks and making way with his money. Jones thought the game was honest till he came here with the box and found no man with a key for it ready to open it and cash his check. He broke into the box and was paralyzed at finding nothing but cruel stones. He offers $500 for the apprehension of the lottery agent, with no show of ever hearing of him.

HE TOOK STRYCHNINE.

EUGENE, July 30.—Barney Scott, who resides on the farm of Judge Rodney Scott, six miles east of here, took strychnine with suicidal intent to-day, but will probably recover. He has been afflicted with mental disorders for some time and seemed to fear that he would be driven to insanity and preferred death to the asylum.

Mrs. A. Wheeler, wife of the proprietor of the Springfield mill met with a serious accident this afternoon. She had been to Eugene with her husband who had remained while she drove home alone. A short distance from town the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing her out on the gravel road. She received a severe shock and several painful bruises, but it is thought they are not necessarily fatal.

At the Opera House.

The next attraction at the opera house will be the Elliott's big show consisting of 25 premier artists, all selected from the best theatres in the world for the California tour of this excellent attraction. One of the many features of the Elliott show is the Imperial Japanese Chrysanthemum troupe, nine in number, direct from the Mikado's Palace Theatre of Tokio, Japan. This troupe contains two Japanese lady performers, the only ones in America, and the greatest in their line in the world, and the only lady in the world that accomplishes the wonderful and most dangerous feat of sliding from the dome of a theatre to the stage on a tight rope at an angle of 45 degrees. The Elliotts magnificent company are direct from New York city and travel in their own palace car, and have just finished a two weeks engagement in San Francisco to crowded houses and the show was an immense hit. The company are enroute to Tacoma, Seattle and Portland, thence east, and came direct from Oakland, California, to Eugene, and will be in Albany Wednesday and Thursday nights, August 6 and 7. The prices will not be advanced for this most excellent attraction, but will be placed at 50 and 75 cents. Seats on sale at Will & Link's music store, opera house.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

There are sixty railway mail clerks in this state.

The mean depth at low tide of the Yaquina bar has been increased about five feet by the jetties—a good showing.

Senator Dolph's bill has passed, granting the right of way across the Siletz Indian reservation to the Newport & King's Valley railroad.

Washington census returns shows that our sister state has a population of 326,204. That will entitle that commonwealth to two representatives in congress.

It is thought it will require the services of 2000 to 2500 men at least four months to complete the contemplated changes in the railroad through Cow Creek canyon.

The State Press Association meets at Portland next month and will no doubt be a pleasant convention. The newspaper fraternity of the metropolis will do all in their power to make it a success.

Inquiries are being made from both Eastern and Western states regarding the prune crop in Oregon this year. There will be a very good crop, that will find ready sale at good prices. As a prune country, Oregon cannot be beaten, and ought to raise more of this saleable fruit than she does.

It now looks as though there would be no Northwestern Firemen's tournament this year. President Worsley has taken no further action towards holding the next tournament. Spokane Falls was selected but the place may yet be changed, as it is stated that the offer of $5000 in purses there was unauthorized, and will not be made good.

For all styles in children shoes go to Klein Bros., as they will save you money.

The best watch in the world for the money at F. M. French's.

In addition to which are the famous fleet-footed coursers connected with the hippodrome. This grand parade will be given in the public streets to-day. There will be two performances, in the afternoon and in the evening.

Reform School Contract.

The contract for the state reform school was let to Geo. Stevens on Wednesday morning, and the contracts are properly signed and work will be begun at once. The contract was let at the amount of his bid, which was $26,716, being the second lowest bid—D. C. Schell, of Albany, refusing to accept the contract. Mr. McNally, the architect, will superintend the construction and will be paid for his services by the state. The building is to be completed by the first of December.—Salem Journal.
