For coughs it acts like a charm, and can be inhaled into the pipes or passages, where no other cough cures can reach

AWAITING DEATH.

Kemmler Will Probably Be Electrocuted Wednesday Morning.

THE NORTH AND THE SOUTH.

Breckenridge Wants the Two United—The Day's Proceedings in Congress—Kentucky Still Democratic.

AUBURN, N. Y., August 4.—This afternoon the postman carried into prison a registered letter addressed to Wm. Kemmler. The postmark was Philadelphia, and upon the envelope was written the words, "From your brother, Henry Kemmler." Doubtless this letter was thought by the writer probably would be the last to pass between the two brothers. At four o'clock this afternoon Warden Durston told an Associated Press reporter that the execution would not take place within twenty-four hours.

Bearing upon this point is a private message received in this city from Buffalo, stating that the invited witnesses to the execution have been asked to be present in Auburn at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. Reasoning from this fact the people are divided in the opinion as to whether Kemmler will die to morrow or upon Wednesday evening. Doubtless more people here are of the belief that Wednesday morning will be the time of his execution by electricity.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Tariff Bill Still in the Senate—Appropriation Bill in the House.

WASAINGTON, August 4.—In the senate the tariff bill was taken up, the question being on Vest's amendment to the chinaware paragraph, a reduction of duty on decorated to 50 per cent. ad valorem, and on plain undecorated ware to 40 per cent. instead of 55 and 50 as recommended by the finance committee, and instead of 60 and 55 in the house bill. The matter was discussed at length.

IN THE HOUSE.

The house went into a committee of the whole on the general deficiency appropriation bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—In the house today Breckenridge, of Arkansas, criticised the code of rules and proceeded to contrast the personal and political relation which existed between Speaker Carlisle and the members, and that which existed between them and Speaker Reed. He said the members of the minority had always been treated courteously, but now a member of the minority rising for recognition did not know what treatment he would get at the hands of the speaker. He then proceeded to make an earnest appeal against the force bill, concluding as follows: "Gentlemen of the north, why cannot we come together? Why cannot we lay aside these suspicions? You cannot take your rotten burroughs from the South; you cannot hold power here by the mercenaries put at the polls. You cannot keep political power by debauching the ballot box or jury box; you cannot make a country one by turning out members who are elected by the people and seating one elected by your vote. What you can do is this: You can aid the people of the South to build up that country; you can help us keep in the line of progress, so that your sons may come and live among us, cast their lot with ours, and intermarry in our families, so that while there will still be a North and South, it will be a loving and rich North and a prosperous and patriotic South."

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Of Chemicals in Denver Which Killed Two Persons.

DENVER, Colo. August 4.—Chemicals exploded in the office of the Denver firebrick and chemical supply house at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The entire front of the building was blown out and men passing by the front of the store at the time were hurled across the street and badly bruised.

The building took fire instantly, and when partially extinguished, a body burned to a crisp and supposed to be that of the president of the company, Joseph Bosworth, was taken out of the ruins. It is thought that another is still in the building.

Kentucky Is Still Democratic.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 4.—The general election took place in Kentucky to-day. The only state office at stake was the clerkship of the court of appeals. The candidates were: N. W. Longmoore, democrat, and Judge J. H. Kinsley, republican. Delegates to the first constitutional convention since 1884 were also chosen. Reports up to midnight indicate that Longmoore will have a larger majority than the democratic ticket received at the last general election From returns from 60 of 119 counties, by comparison, the gains are estimated that Longmoore will have about 35,000 majority.

A Big Blockade.

SAULT STE MARIE, August 4—The Lock of the St. Mary canal, which became disabled Thursday, has been repaired and passages were resumed this morning, being a delay of 80 hours to commerce. There has been one hundred and fifty vessels tied up here, representing about $10,000,000, carrying about 60,000 tons of cargo. The loss is about $2 0,000. The lake commerce cannot recover from this dalay inside of two months.

The Panama Canal.

NEW YORK, August 4.—A dispatch dated July 25 says that the only intelligence concerning canal matters is to the effect that negotiations with the Columbian government are going on smoothly. Lieutenant Wyers' engineers are pushing on their preparations for an early resumption of work. Their careful examination of the condition of the plant has resulted very satisfactorily, everything being in as good if not better preservation and order than can have been reasonably expected.

An Aged Woman's Death.

BALTIMORE, August 4.—Mrs. E. Sands, probably the oldest person in the city, and last of the old defenders association, died yesterday, 101 years of age. She outlived all her children, the last one dying six months ago, at the age of 77. Her husband joined the army in 1812, and it is proposed to bury her with military honors.

The Rains in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, August 4.—The most general rains that have fallen in six weeks visited all parts of Kansas last night and this morning. The hot winds last week did further damage to corn, however, and in the greater part of the state the rains were too late to do any good.

Judge Deady Decides a Case Against the Farmers—Seattle's Demands for Defenses for the Pacific Coast.

SALEM, Aug. 4.— At a meeting of the Salem Board of Trade this evening, resolutions were adopted and ordered sent by telegraph and mail to Oregon's senators and representatives at Washington, urging them to take steps to secure a recount of the census of the state, and declaring the former census imperfect and faulty. It was also decided to use what influence they could in having the county improve and the city of Salem sprinkle the roads leading from Salem to the State Fair grounds, so as to give better accommodation to the public at the fall festival.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

Residence Burned in North Salem—A Young Lady Injured.

SALEM, August 4.—Early this morning the residence of Mrs. M. L. Sweeley, in North Salem, took fire and burned to the ground, together with all the household goods. The loss was about $400; no insurance. Mrs Sweeley is a widow and it will be a severe blow to her.

This morning returning from the Wilhoit springs Miss Amfield Cavanaugh was seriously injured by being thrown from a wagon on her head. The wagon struck a stump and she was thrown out.

THE OYSTERVILLE MURDER.

John Rose Now on Trial—A Change of Venue Denied.

OYSTERVILLE, Wn., Aug. 4.—The defense in the case of John Rose was argued on a motion for a change of venue this morning. The grounds on which the change was asked, were: 1st, Prejudice and ill feelings against the defendant; 2d, That on account of the conviction of one of those charged with the crime the feeling against the prisoners would be intensified and an impartial jury could not be obtained; 3d, That a majority of the jurors had been subpoenaed by the sheriff in open view from the neighborhood of South Bend and Willapa, where open threats of lynching had been made.

In denying the motion Judge Bloomfield called attention to the fact that no difficulty had been experienced in getting a jury in the Edwards' case, that but 26 jurors had been examined, and only four premptory challenges had been made, the remaining 12 being challenged for cause. The court ordered a certified list of jurors from which the jury to try John Rose was to be selected, to be served on the counsel for the defense. When the list was served it was claimed by the defense that out of 89 jurors placed in the box 46 were summoned from South Bend, Willapa City, and Willapa Valley. The defense filed this fact in an affidavit and again renewed the motion for a change of venue. The state was given until 7 P. M. to file counter affidavits. The court expressed itself in somewhat severe terms about the officer summoning jurors from localities where the defendants resided.

One of the jurors in the Edwards case says the first ballot was nine for conviction and three for acquittal. After an hour another ballot showed 11 for conviction. It took three hours to convict the twelfth man.

SEATTLE NEWS.

A Memorial for Coast Defenses in the Pacific Northwest.

SEATTLE, August 4.—The chamber of commerce this evening adopted a resolution requesting the Seattle representatives in the G. A. R., camp at Boston to invite the Grand Army to hold its next encampment here, and to secure assistance of the other Washington delegates to that end.

A memorial to congress was adopted asking for an appropriation of $126,000,000 for the defense of the Pacific Coast, six million of which is asked to be expended on Puget Sound. The memorial says there is no defense on the coast from Cape Flattery to the Gulf of California, in which there are two million people and two billion dollars worth of property, while Great Britian has a navy yard and dry dock for the largest ships only 12 miles from the coast of the sound.

AGAINST THE FARMERS.

Judge Deady Renders a Decision in a Railroad Case.

PORTLAND, Aug. 4.—In the case of Branson et. al. against the Willamette Railway Company et. al., in the United States circuit court, Judge Deady to-day rendered a decision sustaining a separate demurrer of defendant to the amended bill.

Suit was brought by Branson and others to obtain possession of thirty miles of the West Side Narrow Gauge line to which they claimed they had title. The suit grew out of the transfer of $165,000 worth of stock by the Willamette R. R. C. to the Oregonian railway.

Some farmers who were stockholders objected, but the stock was transferred and the Oregonian Railway Company paid the $165,000 owed by the other company. The farmers objected to the transfer and claimed that their stock was held in trust by Gaston and others, and that they had no right to transfer it, and so brought suit to regain possession of their 30 miles of road. The court said that if the farmers owned the stock they were bound for the indebtedness, and if they could show that they had paid the indebtedness they might establish their claim to the stock. It was decided that the demurrer be sustained on the ground that there was no equity in the claim of the farmers, and also that they had put off bringing suit too long, and could establish no claim on this account

A DEADLY FIGHT

A Love Affair Results in a Fatal Duel in New Jersey.

THE ELECTION IN ALABAMA.

A Brilliant Reception to President Harrison and Party—Poor Crops in Kansas—Eastern News.

BOUND BROOK, N. J., Aug. 4.—A terrible fight, the result of a love affair, occurred in an Italian settlement known as the Gravel Pit, in the outskirts, yesterday. Several years ago an Italian girl came to this country. She was engaged to a lover in Italy, but in a short time married one of the Bound Brook Italians. Yesterday a brother of the jilted lover visited the settlement, and meeting the woman struck her over the head with a bottle. Her husband interfered, and in a moment the two were engaged in mortal combat. In the fight which followed both men were seriously wounded. During the night the two wounded men died.

EMPEROR WILLIAM.

The German Ruler Pays a Visit to His Grandmother in England.

LONDON, August 4.—The German imperial yacht with Emperor William and brother, Prince Henry, on board, arrived at Osborne at 10 o'clock this morning. The queen signaled "welcome" to his majesty from the Osborne House, her palace on the Isle of Wight. As the yacht entered Cowes roads, the Prince of Wales and Duke of Connaught, on board the royal yacht, went out to meet the emperor. A number of others of the royal family awaited his arrival on the private landing steps. One German ironclad accompanied the emperor. It was escorted into the harbor by five British torpedo boats. As the emperor landed a salute was fired. Entering a carriage his majesty drove to the Osborne House, where the Queen, Princess of Wales and Duchess of Edinburgh received him. At the entrance, as he entered, a band played German and English national anthems. The emperor wore a British admiral's uniform.

Slang Phrases That Are Very Old

American Notes and Queries

Lord Byron says: "I have learned that your poem is announced by the name of 'Dallah Rookh' I want you to make a great hit." In 1857, Landor, writing to J. Forster about "Aurora Leigh," says: "I am reading a poem full of thought and fascinating with fancy. In many pages there is the wild imagination of Shakespeare * * * I had no idea that any one in this age was capable of such poetry. There are, indeed, even here some flies upon the surface, as there always will be upon what is sweet and strong."
