THE GREAT STRIKE.
Railroad Business Paralyzed in New York.
A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED.
Twenty-three Chinese Sent Back—A Boy Shot in Hand With a Rifle—New Natural Banks.
New York, August 9.—Despite the details of the officials the whole New York Central railroad is practically tied up by a strike and the struggle promises to be long and bitter over, as both sides are determined not to give up. Every 1/2 of L. employed in running a train has quit work, and the whole line between this city and Buffalo is strewn with abandoned freight and passenger trains. The commerce of the state and county is in danger of being paralyzed, as the strikers will have no stone unturned to carry the point, in fact the leaders, in many cases, will be every road in the state before to-morrow night unless their demands are complied with. On the other side the road is said to have issued orders to crush out the strikers, even if it costs a million dollars. Many thousands of men and watchmen are out in the freight and passenger yards of the city. They say they will extend the war to the West Shore, Harlem Road, Lake Shore and Nickel Plate, if they are not met. A hundred thousand of freight is completely blocked, and passenger traffic is greatly delayed.
 The strikers so far have done violence and everything is quiet. The officers of the road, however, have taken measures to protect the low men to have been fired, and 200 police reserves are stationed about the Central depot and ready for an emergency. A report comes from Albany that the strike has been ordered to hold in Albany for active duty. The strike is already being seriously felt in this city.
 The wholesale price of milk has advanced from $1.37 to $1.40. In many people's hands occurred to fall back on the common sense. Many train loads of meat, in refrigerators, are reported standing on tracks between this city and Albany to 100 cars. There is supposed to be a lot of it.
CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—At 5 o'clock this evening the following was received by the Associated Press from O. W. Ruzick, general passenger agent of the Michigan Central this morning. Advised by the New York Central that their passenger train service will be completely resumed to-morrow morning. No further delay or trouble is expected.
Foreign Politics.
BERLIN, August 9.—One of the results of the interview at O-born between the queen, the prince of Wales, Emperor William and Lord Salisbury is the withdrawal of the candidate, Waldemar, from the Bulgarian throne. Family reasons, notably a protest from the king of Greece, influenced this decision. Under promptings from Emperor William both the queen and the prince of Wales are beginning to take more active part in foreign politics.
Tonight's Post says the foreign office circles now believe there was political significance in the recent visit of the kaiser, the outcome of which may astonish the world.
Frost in Manitoba.
CHICAGO, August 9.—Private reports were received here this morning to the effect that the temperature at Minnetonka fell last night to 30 degrees above or 2 degrees below the freezing point, and that a general frost will probably be experienced throughout Manitoba. The significance of the report lies in the statement that the wheat harvest has not begun yet and that what there is in the mill and a severe frost would ruin the crop.
Lottery Men Denounced.
BATON ROUGE, August 9.—At a meeting of the farmers' alliance today resolutions were adopted, denouncing the alliance men in the general assembly who voted in favor of re-chartering lotteries, as traitors to the cause and principles of the union, and refusing to affiliate with them as members of the order, and recommending the subordinate unions to expel them.

The Value of a Name.
 Had Shakespeare been at the cashier's desk of the Leaud Hotel this morning, says the Chicago Post, when a guest stepped up to settle his bill, he would have had an answer to his question, "What's in a name?" The guest in question asked Cashier Chamberlain: "How much do I owe you?" "Name?" queried Chamberlain, "supposing his name is Brown." "What's in his name?" replied the guest.
 Mr. Chamberlain stopped mopping, stroked his hand over the desk to clap that of the guest and to shake it as he asserted: "Your bill is nothing. Any man with that name coming to this hotel in this weather awakens such pleasant suggestions of what he has in his name that he must have the best he house affords and without cost."
