Salem Blithely Arranging for Her New Census.

TROUBLE OVER THE BRIDGE.

The Work Not Being Done in a Satisfactory Manner—Part Of It To Be Torn Out and Rebuilt.

SALEM, August 13.—Mayor Williams and President Wright, of the board of trade, to-day appointed as supervisors of the new census of Salem, W. F. Boothby, who will co-operate with Special Agent Teal, and upon his arrival here, probably two or more enumerators will be appointed for each of the four precinct for which the recount is ordered.

It having been stated that the work on the new steel bridge across the river at Salem was not being performed as per the original plans, Supt. Grandahl as telegraphed for at Portland, and came up this evening for a conference with the county judges here to morrow. Judge Stouffer, from Polk county, will be here and the matter looked into. Grandahl says the bridge will be stronger by far under the changes recommended by him. The concrete going into the pier was found unsatisfactory, also the pier work already done will have to be torn out. The contractors used one part of cement to 8 of gravel and by the new orders will use 1 to 5.

A NEW SILVER BILL.

An Important Measure Introduced by Senator Teller.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—Teller to-day introduced a new silver bill in the shape of an amendment to the bill to discontinue the coinage of $3 and $10 gold pieces and 3 cent nickel pieces. The bill differs from the present law principally in that it requires the continued monthly coinage of two million ounces of silver into standard dollars, and strikes out the provision that the rate of coinage shall continue until July, 1891, only, and does away with the discretion given to the secretary of the treasury to redeem treasury notes issued in payment of bullion, either in gold or silver, and provides for the free coinage of silver when the market price of 371.25 grains reaches one dollar.

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Powderly Interviewed Concerning the Big Railroad Strikes.

DETROIT, August 13.—The executive board of the Knights of Labor assembled in secret session at 2 o'clock this afternoon and at 11 p. m. are still in conference. General Master Workman Powderly was interviewed on the strike. He says the going out of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen was a surprise. It is just as much their fight as the Knights of Labor.

"Will you say something regarding the responsibility for this extensive strike?"

"Where men are discharged and thrown out of work in lumps which aggregate 50 to 60, as was the case with the New York Central and West Shore, it is pretty conclusive there must be something wrong with the management. The railroad people brought on the trouble."

When asked as to whether Depew went to Europe to avoid participation in the impending strike, he said Depew is very diplomatic.

FARMERS IN CONVENTION.

They Resolve to Become a Factor in Political Affairs.

COLUMBUS, O., August 13.—Four hundred and fifty farmers met here in state convention to-day in response to a call by prominent agriculturalists, to take action on presenting their interests to congress and the legislature.

Resolutions were adopted setting forth that farmers must take a new departure and henceforth be a factor in politics. The question was whether this could be best accomplished by the formation of a farmers' party, or by making their influence felt in the control of the existing parties. It was the sense of the convention that they should thoroughly test the latter course.

Smith was elected president.

BREACH OF PROMISE.

A Young Lady Receives $50,000 as a Solace for a Broken Heart.

LEWES, Del., August 13.—A sensational breach of promise action was finished to-day. The plaintiff was Miss Gladys Knowles, niece of Sir Francis Knowles, baronet, a young lady of 21 years. The defendant was Leslie Fraser Duncan, aged 64. Duncan has been condemned to pay the sum of $50,000 damages as a solace for Miss Knowles' broken heart.

BAD PROSPECTS FOR IRELAND

The Potato Crop a Failure, and a Famine Likely to Ensue.

LONDON, August 13.—Michael Davitt returned to-day from his hurried visit to Ireland, whence he was called late on Friday, and in reply to a reporter, said:

"I have made a brief trip through Ireland for the purpose of inquiring into the facts concerning the impending famine. My inquiries fully confirm the fears that have been expressed as to the probability of the disastrous consequences of the famine, and I find that the potato crop is almost a total failure. In addition to this thousands of smaller farmers will suffer."

INHUMAN STEAMSHIP CAPTAIN

Runs Down a Vessel and Refuses to Assist in Saving the Crew.

PARIS, August 13.—A telegram from Fecamp to the Temps reports the arrival at that port of the crew of the Christopher Columbo, which was run down and sunk by the Netherlands American Steam Navigation company's steamer, Obdam, on the banks of Newfoundland. The crew declare that the captain of the Obdam refused, although asked to do so by the captain of the Columbo, to lower a boat and aid in picking up the crew of the French vessel, four of whom were drowned. The passengers of the Columbo have also signed a statement attesting to the same fact, and asserting that the Obdam showed neither its port nor its starboard lights.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Vice-President Morton has entered some of his cattle and sheep at the New York and New England fair.

Mr. Buchanan, the democratic candidate for governor of Tennessee, is a cousin of President Buchanan. But he should not be blamed for that.

Hugh McLeod, a Scotch crofter, who was born November 24, 1783, is the oldest man in Great Britain. He lives in county Ross, and is still healthy and vigorous.

Mrs. Marie Antoinette Nathalie Pollard, widow of the late E. A. Pollard, a southern historian of some note, is running a broker's office for ladies in New York.

Mme. Patti will visit this country in 1892 on the same conditions as on her last four visits—namely that it will be a farewell tour, and seats will be worth a small fortune.

STATE AND COAST.

Col. Markham to Be the Next Governor of California.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

A California Rancher Maltreated at the Hands of the Mexican Authorities—Seattle Is Jubilant.

SACRAMENTO, August 13.—The republican state convention to-day nominated Colonel Markham, of Pasadena, for governor on the first ballot.

It was about 3 o'clock when the secretary commenced to call the roll for the first ballot. Ask the count proceeded there was great cheering for Markham. When the count was announced the result, which gave Markham 299 votes, and Morrow 231, left Markham lacking 40 votes of having a majority, but before the vote was announced the delegations from Calaveras and Humboldt counties and the forth-fifth and forty-sixth assembly districts of San Francisco changed their votes from Morrow to Markham. The wildest excitement followed, and in the midst of the excitement Gen. Diamond moved to make the nomination unanimous. This was carried, and when the excitement subsided the convention adjourned till 8:30 p. m.

W. H. Beatty, present chief justice of the supreme court, was renominated.

J. C. Reddick of Oakland was nominated for lieutenant-governor.

At the evening session R. C. Harrison and G. H. Garoutte were nominated for associate justices, and the convention then adjourned till to-morrow.

PRESS COMMENTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—The Chronicle will say editorially: "Markham's nomination was the work of the most independent and untrammeled convention which has met in California for years, and as such he must be entitled to respect, no matter what may have been the preferences heretofore. The battle was a hard fought and gallant one, but no one will withhold the laurels from the victor."

The Call will say: "The republicans now go into the campaign with every assurance of victory. The impulse of Markham's nomination will give to the campaign a reasonable certain republican legislature and at least five republican congressmen.

A MEXICAN OUTRAGE.

An American Imprisoned and Held 24 Hours Without Food.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—A special from San Diego says: "E. Wolf is a cattle dealer of Tia Juana, small town on the Mexican line, 20 miles south of here. A few days ago he crossed the line to get a lot of cattle he had been pasturing in Lower California, and on returning with them was forced to pay $500 to Mexican officials as export duty. Next morning he crossed the line again and was arrested and imprisoned twenty-four hours, he claims, without food.

No charge was made against him, but $10,000 bail was refused by the Mexicans. Yesterday fifteen of his friends armed themselves to free him by force, but finally decided to try strategy. First one of them went to the guard house with a quantity of doctored mescal and succeeded in drugging all the Mexican officials. He then released Wolf and both fled back across the line. Further trouble is feared.

SEATTLE IS JUBILANT.

Editor Scott of the Oregonian Gives Her People a Little Taffy.

SEATTLE, August 13.—To-day the first train ran over the new terminal railway from the terminus at Seattle to the great grain warehouse at West Seattle. A large number of representative citizens of the city were present. Among those from abroad who participated in the exercises was Mr. H. W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian, who spoke in very complimentary terms of the spirit and energy the people of the city had displayed.

Tried to Shield His Wife.

NAPA, Cal., August 13.—Christ Merkle has been held to answer to the superior court on a charge of perjury. His wife was recently convicted of manslaughter, and after her conviction he made an affidavit that he killed the man. This was in conflict with his testimony at the trial.

A Tacoma Banker Dead.

TACOMA, August 13.—E. L. Scarritt, president of the Washington National Bank, died this evening of typhoid fever. His father and fiance came from Illinois a few days ago and were at his deathbed. The deceased was 31 years old, and one of the youngest bank presidents in the country.

President Harrison Returns.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—The president and party returned to Washington this evening.

A Republican Caucus.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—A call has been sent for a caucus of republicans in the senate to-morrow night for the purpose of discussing the order of business. In view of several pending propositions to change the rules the subject will receive consideration at that time.

Run Over and Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 13.—W. R. Knapp, a well known mining man, was run over and killed this afternoon on Market street by a butcher wagon driven by Pat Toomey.

Rowing Match Arranged.

LONDON, August 13.—A rowing match for £1000 has been arranged between Kemp and O'Conner. The race takes place on the American Pacific coast in March next.

An American Girl Goes Wrong.

PARIS, August 13.—Miss Annie Cutting, daughter of the late Ward Cutting, of New York, is to marry Baron Venier, one of the nobility of Belgium, according to reports from Hamburg.

Smashed All Records.

NEW YORK, August 13.—The steamship Teutonic has smashed all records in making the run from Roches Point, Ireland, to Sandy Hook in 5 days, 19 hours and 5 minutes.

Population of Maine and Vermont.

LEWISTON, Me., August 13.—The census shows the population of Maine to be 658,454, an increase of 9550 since 1880. The population of Vermont is 33?,000, a decrease of 286.

The Farmers' Alliance.

TOPEKA, August 13.—The Farmers' Alliance of the state convention to-day nominated J. F. Wilber for governor.

The Women's Relief Corps.

BOSTON, August 13.—The annual convention of the National Women's Relief Corps opened this morning. Mrs. Anna Wittenmeyer is president.

MADE AN IMPRESSION.

A Rat That Went Through the Times Press.

Los Angeles Times.

As the swift "Presto" perfecting press of the Times was thundering along yesterday morning, a rat who hadn't got a proper appreciation of the art preservative, or who had lost his presence of mind or his reasoning powers—hence his ratiocination—or had taken a sudden fright, made a jump for the whirling, clattering mass of machinery and in less than a second had "gone to press." Just how or when he passed through the type and impression cylinders is not known, because the press made no sign of a kick, but all at once there was a tremendous smell of rat in the press-room, and a sheet that came out had on it a map of the recent conflict. To say that the rat was spread out thin don't express it. He was easily a foot and a half broad by twenty-one inches in length and continued to the eighth page. It was in fact the greatest 'spread' that anything has had in the Times for a week or two and was a decided "scoop" for the press. Pressman Crawford was panic-stricken when he saw the illustrated rat edition come from the press, and he stopped operations at once and made a thorough examination; but not a cog or spring was out of whack. The rat had simply jumped against the great inevitable and nothing remained of him but an impression. The tragedy has a moral, which is obvious to the observant.

The West Shore.

If any enterprise deserves success it is that of the West Shore. To publish such an elegant, high class illustrated weekly on the Pacific coast must take a greater supply of brains, hard work and perseverance than would be required in the more densely populated portions of the country. West Shore will celebrate its first anniversary as a weekly by enlarging its page to admit better artistic effects. This enlargement will be made August 16, and the paper, printed in five colors, will be the peer of any colored illustrated journal in the world. A new department will then be added for Boys and Girls, conducted by Emily A. Kellogg, a lady well known as a writer for juvenile publications. Ella Higginson, editor of the Woman's Department, has acquired a national reputation as a poet and writer, and her work in West Shore is her best. The original humorous department is contributed to by the brightest wits of the country. Its independent and pithy editorials are giving it an enviable reputation in newspaper circles everywhere. The Pacific coast has reason to be proud of West Shore, and it should be found in every house and place of business.

In the school of journalism; Professor—I again call your attention to the too common use of the trite expressions. Mr. Quills, can you not find a fit substitute for the well-worn phrase, "He died a natural death!" Mr. Quills—(about to graduate as managing city editorial correspondent-in-chief)—Well, sir, I suggest, "He died without medical aid." How would that do? Professor—It is excellent Mr. Quills.

Ladies gold watches cheaper than ever at F. M. French's.

MORMONS FOR UTAH.

A Young Girl Convert Induced to Return Home.

THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

A Reign of Terror in a Minnesota Town—The Day in Congress—An Interview With Mr. Powderly.

NEW YORK, August 13.—Four European steamships landed to-day 1643 immigrants. Among the passengers on the Wisconsin were 80 Mormons, en route to Utah. One of the number was a beautiful 17 year old girl from England, Eliza Gee. She was a convert, and was on the way to join Father Mormon, but she was persuaded by the passengers to return to England.

THE G. A. R. VETERANS.

The Second Day's Session of the National Encampment.

BOSTON, August 13.—The convention of the twenty-fourth national encampment of the G. A. R. came to order in Music hall at 11 o'clock. Prayer was offered by Past Chief Caplain J. M. Foster.

Commander-in-Chief Alger then delivered his annual address. He congratulated his hearers on celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the end of the rebellion in the historic city, known as the "Cradle of Liberty," and delivered warm words of welcome to General Sherman.

He recommended that a committee be appointed to secure funds for a monument to General Grant at Washington. He also referred to the disappointment in the ranks that congress had not passed the service pension bill, and added: "Let us be just to our lawmakers even though they have not given us all we asked. No country on earth is or ever has been nearly so generous to its soldiers as ours."

The reported condition of the organization is excellent. The total membership borne on the rolls is 458,230, against 427,981 a year ago.

Gen. Wheeler Veasey, of Vermont has been elected commander-in-chief. Veasey is an inter-state commissioner and a native of New Hampshire. He is 50 years old.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Numerous Resolutions and Bills Considered in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—In the senate, house amendments to senate bills to adopt regulations to prevent collisions at sea and to amend the act relative to shipping commissioners were concurred in.

The senate then proceeded to executive business. A resolution offered by Edmunds yesterday limiting the debate on the tariff bill, was referred to the committee on rules.

Blair's resolution authorizing a provision for the previous question, took the same direction, on his own motion.

Quay's resolution providing for a vote on the tariff bill on the 31st of August, was, on motion, referred to the committee on rules. After a statement by Quay that he understood the resolution on the general appropriation bills was to include the river and harbor bill, Hoar offered an amendment so as to include the federal election bill among the measures to be taken up for consideration at the present session; also referred to the committee on rules.

To-day there was reported favorably from the committee on education and labor the resolution introduced proposing an amendment to the constitution to favor the prohibition in the United States of the manufacture, importation, exportation, transportation and sale of all alcoholic liquors used as beverages.

IN THE HANDS OF STRIKERS

Minnesota Militia Called Out to Preserve Order in Cloquette.

ST. PAUL, Minn., August 13.—Governor Merriam has ordered a company of the state militia of Duluth to proceed immediately to Cloquette, where the millmen's strike had assumed an ominous character. The town has been practically in the hands of rioters since Saturday. The strikers, numbering 400 men, armed with revolvers and knives, are running things with a high hand.

Shipped Back to China.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—Eighteen of the twenty-three Chinamen brought here from the south were shipped to China on the Belgic this afternoon. The other five, who escaped from jail by bribery and were caught, were kept until they can testify against the men who aided them. Deputy Sheriff Moreyson, who was arrested on a charge of bribery in this connection, has been surrendered by his bondsmen and is now in jail here. The five substitutes will also be prosecuted and may receive ten years imprisonment.

Mrs. Andrew Hickok, who is in her 91st year, recently astonished the sojourners at a Norwalk, Conn., summer resort by swimming long distances and by her capers in the surf.
