THE N. P. HAS A RIVAL.

The Great Northern Building from St. Paul to Seattle.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 16.—

Railroad officials state the Great Northern railroad has effected a loan in London for the essential purpose of building an extension from Great Falls in Montana via Spokane to Seattle.

Work on this proposed extension is now going on in Washington under the name of the Fairhaven southern Railroad Company, and it is thought that within three years the Great Northern will have trains running between Seattle and St. Paul.

The French Don't Like It.

PARIS, August 16.—The McKinley bill still excites comment in commercial circles. The recent consular conference, held in this city, received complaints from nearly thirty chambers of commerce pointing out the difficulty of complying with the provisions of the bill without almost destroying trade.

Altamont Wins.

PORTLAND, August 16.—A match race at City View park this afternoon between Tongue's Kitty Ham and Matlock's Altamont was won by the latter won in three straight heats; time, 2:28, 2:28 1/2, 2:27 1/2.

ODD AND INTERESTING.

The most magnificent charity fund ever contributed in the world's history was the Johnstown relief fund, which amounted to $4,116,801.

Besides this there were great quantities of the necessities of life.

While waiting for the train at Mont Gretna, Pa., last week, President Harrison took off his coat and stepped on the scales.

He tipped the beam at 193 pounds, being the heaviest man in the party.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stuart Phelps-Ward is described as a shy woman of delicate features. Her eyes have a look of sadness in them.

The strength of her face appears in her forehead. She is a quiet, but engaging talker.

John P. Buchanan, the democratic nominee for governor of Tennessee, is a cousin of the late President James Buchanan. He joined the confederate army at the age of 16 and remained until the close of the war.

Bowling green, the newly appointed United States consul to Serra Leon, is a colored man and is said to be a number of years on the west coast of Africa. Since 1870 he has resided in Hartford, Conn., carrying on a hotel barber shop.

An extraordinary case of matrimony in India is reported. A boy less than ten years old has received from a Brahmin of Bengalee, the Brahmin's six sons, eight six sons and four daughters in one batch.

A baby bride was brought to ceremony on a brass plate.

Senator Gorman is said to be the handsomest man in the United States senate. He is a Presbyterian.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

The River and Harbor Bill Passed by the Senate.

POPULATION OF THE U. S.

The Census of 1890 Shows an Increase of Thirty

Per Cent.

WASHINGTON, August 16.—In the senate today the river and harbor bill was taken up and reported to the senate. All the important amendments adopted by the committee of the whole were agreed to and the bill was passed. A conference was asked and Frey and D. A. P. were appointed conferees.

The anti-lottery bill passed the house today, also the bill for the relief of D. McKay.

MESSAGE FROM SENATOR MITCHELL.

PORTLAND, August 16.—Following is a copy of a message sent to Oregon's delegation in congress:

Portland, August 14.—Ask the chief engineers for a copy of Major Handbury's report of the operations on the mouth of the Columbia river work for the month of July. It will arrive to-day or tomorrow, and shows the necessity of the immediate action of the senate on the river and harbor bill. Signed, T. F. Osborne, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

To-day the following dispatch was received:

Washington, D. C., August 16.

To T. F. Osborne, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Portland, Oregon.—Thank you for the chamber for the dispatch received.
The river and harbor bill, carrying over $1,250,000 for Oregon rivers and harbors, passed the senate to-day.

J. H. MITCHELL.

THE OREGON EDITORS.

They Visit Oregon City—Will Meet in Astoria Next Year.

PORTLAND, August 16.—The editors of Oregon City to-day were entertained by the board of trade. They were met at the steamer and escorted in carriages to the park where a lunch was spread. J. T. Apperson welcomed them in behalf of the city. He spoke of the great influence of the press in the next meeting of the members of the Oregon press association.

Judge M. L. Pipes of Corvallis responded in a few well chosen words. On the way to Oregon City the boat touched at Oswego and allowed the excursionists to inspect the iron works. At a busness meeting on the boat which en route to Portland, the vote was recorded by which Salem was selected as the place for the next meeting of the association.

Miss F. Fuller, secretary of one of the Tacona papers was one of a party that left for a trip to the top of Mt. Tacoma a fortnight since.
Writing from Paradise Camp August 12, to a friend in this city, she says: "Hurrah, I have been to the top of Mt. Tacoma and am safely back. Five of us spent all night in a crater. I am perfectly satisfied, but, oh, it was hard work." So far as known Miss Fuller is the first woman who ever reached the top of this mountain peak.
