THE LOUISIANA LOTTERY.

While the anti-lottery bill is hung up in committee at Washington, and the agents of the swindlers are busy among the members of congress trying to have it smothered, the people of Louisiana are appealing to their brethren throughout the country to aid them in their struggle against a giant evil. They give the history of the origin of the legalized lottery swindle, from which it appears that the state charter was obtained through bribery and corruption, and the company has ever since been able to overcome the most strenuous efforts of the best and most influential people for its suppression. What was secured through the corrupt use of money has been retained through the corrupt use of money has been retained through the same villainons means. The swindling methods of the concern are fully exposed. The drawings are largely fraudulent, the chance to win a prize in any amount being but one in thirty, whereas under an honest drawing at least one in ten would draw something. The market value of the stock has risen from $35 per share in 1879 to $1200 per share in 1890, so that now it is more than double the whole banking capital of the state. They have an enormous surplus of an unknown amount, after having declared dividends of 80 and 100 per cent. per annum, and that, too, out of only half of the net earnings, he other half belonging to the lessees, Messrs. Howard and Morris. The aggregate of the schemes of the monthly and semi-annual drawings is the fabulous sum of $28,000,000 per annum, and the aggregate of their daily drawings is over $20,000,000 more. They receive annually $1,125,000 from the written policies sold on the numbers of the daily drawings, receive annually $22,000,000 from monthly and semi-annual drawings, and the latter-named drawings are so arranged that they can sell 95 per cent. of their tickets, pay 10 per cent. for selling them, lose all of the prizes provided for in the schemes, pay $1,000,000 for expenses, and still make $3,000,000 profit per annum. All this money absolutely filched from the pockets of the people, and yet congress hesitates to crush the iniquity. Down with the lottery.

NATIONAL AND STATE DEBTS.

The census superintendent has made a very prompt report of the debt of the United States and of the several states in 1880 and 1890—a statement that affords good evidence of the general prosperity of the country. The total bonded and floating debt of the United States and the several states in 1880, less cash and funds on hand, was $2,127,017,999. It was reduced in ten years $1,071,305,190, or more than one-half, and now stands at $1,055,712,808. By far the larger part of the debt is that of the United States. The net debt of the several states i now $132,336,689, being $72,163,985 less than in 1880. The great bulk of the state debts is owing by the Southern states. The Eastern and middle states together only owe about $12,500,000, and this is more than offset by the excess of assets over debt in those groups of states. Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York and New Jersey have no net debt, but, on the contrary, assets beyond the debts. Pennsylvania owes only $1,783,020. Altogether there are twenty states in the union with assets beyond their debts. The showing is favorable in every part of the country except in the South. Nearly all of these states have heavy state debts, which, it is true, have been reduced $28,000,000 in ten years, but only by the enforced refunding of the old debt into new at a discount varying from 25 to 80 per cent. Four states that had a net debt in 1880 show assets beyond their debts in 1890, and seven an increase of net indebtedness.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The drouth, storms and cyclones in the East will drive many people to the favored climate of the Pacific coast this fall.

Great distress prevails in Canada, and the government has been asked to furnish work to destitute inhabitants. Crops in many portions are a failure, and thousands of families are preparing to leave the country.

The California democrats have nominated Pond for governor. When election day rolls around the popularity of Col. Markham, the republican standard-bearer, will make itself felt, and Pond will find himself in the turgen.

At the next meeting of the city council action is to be taken in the matter of making a survey and locating the bridge to span the Willamette at Albany. There should be no delay or hesitancy over this question. The bridge is a public necessity and must be built. The movement is now fairly started and should be vigorously prosecuted until the structure is completed.
