Fall and Winter Announcement. We beg to announce that the two large shipments of woollens consigned to us, and recently purchased of Boston and New York houses, will arrive in the course of a day or two. These goods should have been delivered August 1st, but owing to the recent strike of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, we were unable to receive them sooner and regret exceedingly the disappointment to our customers. The stock consists of the latest foreign and eastern designs, and required no little skill and care to meet the wants of the public, as we fully anticipate to please the most fastidious. We will announce the arrival of these goods and trust an early inspection.

Respectfully, ZACHES & SON, Merchant tailors, drapers and fine trade designers. Opposite the postoffice. We make a specialty of fine cakes for parties and weddings. Blackburn & Pironi.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A Drummer in Trouble - A Money Drawer That Was Mistaken.

A Portland whisky drummer was in this city last evening as usual as of yore. He blew a police whistle vigorously and when a blue-coated officer approached he said he would be helped to the Holton house. He swore vengeance at the policeman and threatened to report him to "Chief Parrish" because the officer told him to quiet down or he would help him to the city jail. Albany's metropolitan appearance had simply made him think he was in Portland.

Maud Granger. The engagement of the great emotional actress, Maud Granger, is one of the principal topics of conversation among our society people and theater-goers in general. The coming of this famous beauty and favorite artist will be an event far from the ordinary. It will give our theater-goers an opportunity of seeing such a performance as would be given on the stages of Wallack's, the Union Square, Palmer's, Daly's or any of the fashionable theaters of New York, with which Miss Granger has been prominently identified. There is not an actress on the American stage who has been connected with so many notable New York successes as she. Immediately after the close of her present tour she returns East, when "Inherited" will have an extended run at one of the leading New York theaters. A strong feature of Miss Granger's engagement will be the splendid company she will bring with her. This distinguished actress and her excellent company will play in this city on Thursday evening next.

To send an Exhibit Car East. The Portland Board of Immigration is making an effort to send a car containing Oregon exhibits East. The plan is to have the eight counties of the Willamette Valley subscribe $500 each, making a fund of $4000, to which Portland offers to give $1200, to send the car through the East this fall. Mr. Nichols, of the "Commercial" Board of Trade, was in this city yesterday on this business. It would be a good way to attract attention to Oregon.

Yaquina Passengers. YAQUINA, August 22.—The steamer Willamette Valley arrived today with the following passengers: D. Mularovich, H. W. Butler, J. W. Davidson, J. Bellman, H. Bellman, Mrs. D. Allison, A. Long and -ie, S. S. Brush, J. Mognold, Chas. DeLaney, Mrs. Dr. Scott and two children, F. Arnberger, R. L. Lambert, wife and three children, Miss L. Lambert, Miss E. Lambert. A special train took the passengers to Albany.

Only a Joke. Yesterday morning the door of Eastham & Van Winkle's cigar store was observed to be partly open, and some of their neighbors quietly entered and removed the money drawer, containing a few dollars. It caused a small ripple of excitement until it was found that a joke had been played upon them and the drawer was returned to them.

Building a Flume. S. W. Reece returned yesterday from Green Basin, on the eastward extension of the Oregon Pacific railroad. Their saw-mill is in operation and the company is building a flume to run their lumber down the mountain side to the railroad. A number of Albany men own timber claims and fruit ranches in that vicinity.

A Fine Window. At Mueller & Garrett's can be seen a fine show window neatly dressed, with a fine lot of water-melons, peaches, pears, corn, squashes, pumpkins, etc., so arranged as to attract one's attention who is one of fine fruit. Don't fail to take a look at it.

Those Indian Wars. Men who lived in Oregon during the 40's and 50's and through the Indian wars do not put much faith in the claims of Major Theman, the old veteran, who claims to have fought in the Malheur river Indian war in 1854, assisting in the capture of forty-two women after what he terms the Malheur massacre. Indian war veteran, here say that there was no Malheur river massacre in 1854 or any other year, and that there were no forty-two women captured or recaptured at that time. There were not so many as forty-two women in that part of the country at that time, they say. Theodore Thompson, F. B. Wait, T. C. Shaw and many of the veterans of the Indian wars of those days have no knowledge of any ninety-one families having been massacred on the river Malheur in '54.—Sal in Statesman.

They Visited Lebanon. A special train bearing the following distinguished S. P. railroad officials came into Lebanon Wednesday afternoon: R. Koehler, manager; J. H. Wait, roadmaster; W. A. Grandolph, superintendent and building; and H. Volk, division roadmaster. The object of the visit was an inspection of the road. As a result of the visit to this place, the depot will probably undergo some changes for the better.—Lebanon Express.

Oxford Ties. I have just received an invoice of the popular Johnson Oxford ties for $2.50 a pair. The best shoe I have handled for the price. Samuel E. Young.

Gradwohl's fine teas, with the cut-glassware that goes with them, forms quite an attraction and goes very rapidly.

THE ALBANY FIREMEN INVITED

To Attend the Excursion of Veterans Firemen to San Francisco on Sept. 9.

Mr. Joseph Webber, of this city, one of the well-known veteran firemen of the coast, is in receipt of the following self-explanatory letter:

PORTLAND, Aug. 20, 1890. Friend Webber, Ex-Chief, Albany, Or.: At a meeting of the association held Tuesday evening, the 19th inst., and by a unanimous vote we accepted the invitation extended to our association from the Veteran Firemen's association of San Francisco, and appointed a committee of three, with myself, to make all arrangements for the excursion. We will leave here on the 3d of September at 10 o'clock in the evening, and the Union Pacific company have given us the following rates: $20, first class, for round trip by steamer.

If you have any of your citizens who wish to join us, please send names to the committee. Send all you can. We will try and have the steamer lay over at Frisco until the 10th instead of sailing on the 9th. Let's hear from you soon. J. K. PACE, K. D. FREEMAN, D. H. HENDER, ROBT. HALMAN, Committee of Arrangements.

REV. MR. FISHER REPLIES AGAIN. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD: In answer to the article of J. Hollenbaugh in THE HERALD of the 22d inst., which is deceptive and misleading, permit me to make the following correction: Mr. Hollenbaugh says: "Instead of three minority conferences, as stated by Fisher, there are seven, and these seven conferences have only 10,000 members, less than one-half of the entire membership of the whole church." Now, to state it mildly, I would say Mr. Hollenbaugh knew he was misrepresenting the facts when he wrote those lines. Does not Mr. H. know that the 21 loyal conferences will never recognize the seceding factions of the conferences that have disrupted? And yet he counts these pseudo conferences in order to make up the number—seven "minority conferences." And again, does not Mr. H. know that in the conferences that have disrupted a great many of the lay members are loyal and will not recognize the seceding preachers? Reader, is this not true of the church in Albany and not only in Albany, but our best and largest churches in Oregon are good friends in again this wicked rebellion in the church as much so that out of ten or twelve church buildings which Mr. Bowersox has on his so-called district only two are open to him. So also in the disruption of Illinois, which has over 11,000 members, the great majority are loyal to the church.

Then, again, does Mr. H. know that in the three conferences that have a majority in favor of the opposition there are many preachers and lay members who work in the opposition, who don't think another denomination is needed, but will stand firm by the church? Now, then, dare Mr. H. tell the readers of this paper that there are seven minority conferences, and leave the impression that all the ministers and members of the loyal conferences are standing by the opposition? Here in Oregon the brag of "eleven" are crowding less all the time. Quite recently Mr. Beauchamp, one of the eleven, left his field and has gone to East Portland to work in a saw-mill. This is the fourth one that has dropped out from the number of eleven, and from indications the nipping is getting pretty short for some of the rest of the eleven.

Mr. H. says: "There are also other conferences that have been whipped into line by the Episcopal lash which cannot be kept there." Will Mr. Hollenbaugh please favor us with the names of those conferences? I say it is untrue—yes, it is a slander on the good name and character of the members of the loyal conferences. For Mr. H. to make such a statement, and now if he knows his statement to be true he will give the names of the conferences he refers to. Will he do it? The readers of THE HERALD will notice that Mr. Hollenbaugh admits that the faction with which he is holding forth is greatly in the minority, even according to his false count. What, then, is the duty of the minority? Mr. H. advises me to read the Evangelical. (This Evangelical is the opposition paper.) Thank you, Mr. H.; when I get ready to read the class of literature to which the Evangelical belongs, I think I can find something even better—the Police News, for instance. Yours in defense of the church, I. B. FISHER.
