Dr. J. T. Tate, of Seattle, is in this city.

The price of wheat has advanced to 67 cents.

Miss Allie Schlosser is visiting in Corvallis.

Mr. J. R. Abbey leaves to-morrow for a trip to Alaska.

Mrs. Dr. E. L. Irvine, of Salem, is visiting her parents in this city.

Mr. John Robb, formerly of Halsey, now of Waterville, Wash., is in the city.

I sell only the most reliable make of shoes and guarantee every pair as represented. E. C. Searls.

Miss Laura Goltra, of Salem, who has been visiting her parents in this city, returned home yesterday.

Ladies can procure Hughes & Storey's tailor system at the Ladies Bazaar. H. J. Sower, agent.

Wanted—A girl to do general housework. Apply to Wm. Fortmiller, carner of Ellsworth and Fifth streets.

I have received my fall line of kid gloves, and our $1.50 glove is the best ever offered here for the money. E. C. Searls.

Those having stock in the pasture of F. L. ..uck at Cloverdale are notified to take the same away on or before September 1st.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford and D. B. Monteith have returned from Astoria, where they went to look after their property interests.

George Humphrey, Wm. Faber and party have returned from the mountains. They made a tour of the lakes and indulged in some fine trout fishing.

Messrs. Will & Stark have just received a new line of beautiful silverware, solid gold watches, rings and jewelry of all kinds. Call and see their fine selections.

Those wanting copies of Prof. Palmer's song, "Bright as a Sunbeam," should call immediately at Jones' book store as only a limited number of copies are placed on sale.

George Anderson & Co. have fitted up a neat fish market opposite Frank Wood's marble shop, where fine salmon and all kinds of fish fresh from Yaquina bay will be kept every day.

A little son of Mr. Geo. E. Chamberlain was playing with a cartridge Tuesday evening, when it exploded, the ball whizzing uncomfortably near his head. The lad was only slightly injured by the explosion.

Who says that Oregon is not a peach country? Mrs. Crandall has placed upon our table some as large and fine flavored peaches, grown on their lots at their beautiful home in this city, as were ever produced in any country on this green earth. Good for Oregon peaches.

Kilpatrick Post No. 28, G. A. Q., of Newberg, Oregon, will hold a reunion at that place from the 24th to the 26th of September inclusive, to which they earnestly invite all ex-soldiers sailors and marines and members of the W. R. C. to attend. Those going should take tents and blankets. Meals can be had at 25 cents each. A good time is anticipated.

Little Baby Parker, the child actress, who created such a furore in New York last winter, is with Miss Granger and will be seen in "Inherited." Little Miss Parker is but five years old, but commands a salary of $40 per week and her expenses. She is the sole support of a widowed mother living in New York.

Misses Wheeler and Crawford will reopen their kindergarten Monday, Sept. 1st, at the W. C. T. U., hall. A select school will be run in connection with the kindergarten this year, to which pupils will be admitted up to the age of 12 years. Children taken to and from school.

O. E. Carter, who formerly belonged to Oregon's brethren of the quill, but is now representing E. F. Michael & Co., of LaPorte, Ind., is in the city. Mr. Carter's father, W. B. Carter, was state printer for Oregon at the time of his death, in 1880, and for twenty years editor of the Corvallis Gazette.—East Oregonian.

Take the Northern Pacific Railroad to all points East, shortest time of any road East. No change of cars, best accomodations and the most pleasant route to travel. Tickets for sale over this road to any and all points east at the lowest rates by Burkhart & Keeney who are the authorized agents of this company at Albany. Call on them for tickets and full particulars.

The Pendleton East Oregonian says: Lewis E. Lee, brother of Rev. G. H. Lee, of this city, arrived in Pendleton to-day, and will take his departure to-morrow for Williamstown, Mass., where he will enter the freshmen's class in Williams college. He will stop over on a visit to his parents at Pueblo, Col., while en route. Mr. Lee was graduated last summer from the Albany Collegiate Institute.

A HILARIOUS SPREE.

Chemawa Indian School Boys Get Gloriously Drunk and Kiss the Girls.

Special to the Herald.

PORTLAND, August 27.—Deputy United States Marshal Sinnot came down from Salem to-day, having in charge Theodore North, the keeper of a small store at the fair grounds near that city. North was arrested on complaint of the principal of the Indian school at Chemawa, who claims that last week two of his Indian boys went to Salem and purchased liquor from North. At any rate they got the juice, and went home in a hilarious state of intoxication. They kissed all the girls at the school, hugged the pretty lady teachers and executed a war dance on the roof. They drove the cows all off the ranch, amputated a dog's tail and put vinegar in the milk. Not content with that they put a menthol mixture on the professor's handkerchief, so that when he blew his proboscis he began crying and is weeping yet. The boys sobered up and said they got the liquor from North, who sold it to them as cider. North was examined before a United States commissioner to-day and furnished $100 bail to appear in the United States court to-morrow.

Maud Granger in "Inherited."

To-night the theatre goers of Albany will have an opportunity of witnessing an actress, who is a graduate of that famous school of drama, the Union Square theater, and whose name has been associated with many of the most notable successes of that famous dramatic temple. As an emotional star, Maude Granger is today the leading exponent of this type of the drama, and she is certainly one of the most popular actresses known to the American stage. Her engagement will open to-night in "Inherited," a play of the intense emotional school, and in which the fair actress has made a decided success in the principal cities of the East. It comes endorsed by the press of Paris, London and New York, and particularly by M. Francisque Sarcey, of Paris Temps, who is known to have advised the great Sara Bernhardt to secure the play, and who would now undoubtedly possess it but for the prompt action of Miss Granger, who witnessed the original production of the play at the Theatre de L'Application, Paris. Miss Granger brings a company, comprising such competent people as Harry Mainhall, Frank Kilday, Charles H. Mestayer, Claude Brooke, the Misses Estha Williams, Carrie Elberts and sweet little Baby Parker. There has been a large sale and several theater parties will be present.

Excursion to Newport.

The last excursion of the season at popular prices will be given Saturday, September 6, the train leaving Albany at 2 p. m., returning leave Yaquina at 5:45 p. m. the following day, arriving in Albany at 9:35 p. m., making connection with the California express. Those who desire may remain until Monday and return on regular train that day.

The steam schooner Mischief will go over the bar for deep sea fishing. Tickets for round trip only $2.

The S. P. Co. will grant a reduced rate of one and one-third fares for parties of ten or more from Salem, Shedd, Halsey, Harrisburg, Junction and Eugene to Albany and return from Sept. 6 to 8, inclusive.

LETTER LIST.

Following is a list of the letters remaining uncalled for in the post-office at Albany, Oregon, Aug. 27, 1890. Persons calling for the same will please give the date on which they were advertised: C. D. Bates, John R. Cartwright, W. J. Ford, Miss Ida May Goforth, Miss Lottie Geer, David Irvine, N. S. Mueller, Jessie F. Otis, Wilt Rosenblatt, Mrs. Cora Wilde.

RUFUS THOMPSON, P. M.

Held to Answer

In the case of T. J. Anderson, who was arrested on a charge of perjury preferred by his hired hand named Randall, the defendant waived examination before Justice Wyatt, and was held in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. He promptly furnished the necessary bonds. The case grew out of a suit for wages brought by Randall.

Returned From Yaquina.

Jay W. Blain and family, Miss Maggie Chambers, Miss Anna Flinn, Miss Elizabeth Irvine, Mrs. Burmester and daughter, Mildred, Mrs S. G. Irvine and son, Clem were among those who returned from Yaquina yesterday. The weather at the bay now is said to be very fine.

Sodaville Mineral Water.

Mr. F. H. Pfeiffer is making arrangements to start soda works at Sodaville. He now keeps the water from these springs on draught at his soda fountain in this city, and also sells the water in bottles.

Wanted.

Two agents to canvass for Leach improved patent roaster and baking pans. Good commission. Call this morning at the Russ house between 8 and 11 o'clock.

E. F. WADE.

The engagement of Miss Granger and her admirable company will be an event far out of the ordinary for Albany. It will give our theater goers an opportunity of seeing such a performance as might be seen on the stages of any of the leading New York theaters, the principal ones of which Miss Granger has many times been a strong attraction.

LETTER FROM CROOK COUNTY

BEAVER CREEK, CROOK CO., OR., August 22, '90.

To the Editor of the Herald:

This region (sixty-five miles southeast from Prineville) has just closed the haying season, and from the large amount put up of grain and wild hay insures abundant forage for all of the stock next winter. The cattle owners are happier now since they have just contracted their beef to a Mr. Gilmour for the Sound market—about a thousand head of very fine fat steers for $30 per head for 3-year-olds and upwards, to be delivered at the ranches in October, which is an advance in price well above last year, when we got but $24 for 3's and $27 for 4's and up. The mutton nearly all went out of the country after shearing at $2.50, while $3 is now offered. Indications are that the producer is hereafter to be better paid for the hardships and privations he has to undergo to make his living and keep even, for that is all he has done here so far, and without the luxuries of a more favored climate.

This neighborhood has now become clear of diphtheria, which carried off four children of the number who were attacked by that dreadful disease. Minor Swick, formerly of Corvallis, lost three bright little boys out of the five he possessed. Charley, a lad of 16, and Scottie and George, much younger. It was very affecting when the father asked Charley as he and Scottie lay breathing out their last moments on earth whether he wanted his body taken to the old home in the valley, or to be buried here with Scottie in one coffin, he bravely replied that he wished only to be buried in a separate coffin by the side of Scottie, near the house, where Georgie was laid, and a wire fence be put around their graves, begging his distressed parents not to grieve after them when death would soon relieve him from his awful suffering, and soon the noble lad was dead. In one and a half hour afterward Scottie's spirit followed.

The whole country is very solicitous about the progress of the Oregon Pacific railroad, which, if completed through this country as proposed, would make life more endurable for the wives and daughters of the ranchmen—quick travel to and from the Willamette valley, cheaper living with the luxury of fresh fruits imported, reciprocating with the fat beef and mutton in summer or from the stall in mid-winter, the encouragement as well of agriculture, when these great sage plains can be utilized in producing wheat for export that induced capital can largely increase by diverting these creeks and rivers upon the arid soil.

NORTHWEST NOTES.

Wednesday last a fire caught in the railroad wood near Hubbard and burned up thirty cords of wood.

The right of way through East Portland cost Huntington $170,000 for his East Portland & Silverton road.

The appraisement of the Umatilla reservation lands is now going on. The appraisers are now in the mountains and the work is slow.

A full gang of men are clearing the way, and 1000 more will be put to work on the Roseburg & Coos Bay railroad the middle of next month.

Next spring there will be many fine additions to the steamship fleet of the Pacific ocean, as several lines are to have new steamers, large, commodious, convenient and fast.

A cannon ball that was fired from the steamer Decatur, while defending Seattle against the Indians thirty-five years ago, was found by the laborers in excavating at the corner of Second and Cherry streets, Seattle. It is a twelve-pounder.

Quite an interesting sight is afforded the bathers of Clatsop beach in watching two large sea lions swim in close to the breakers and sport and plunge around as if enjoying seeing so many beautifully formed young ladies. The sea lions seem to enjoy it immensely, as they come regularly at bathing times.

The Indians at Quinaiult engage in whale fishing as a regular vocation, using their canoes and crude appliances for ensnaring the monsters of the deep with great skill. One particular whale, forty-five feet in length, they were three days and nights in subduing and bringing to shore. It is a coast whale, its value to the Indians being about $100.

An exchange says: "Look out in the valley for the counterfeit two-dollar bills. They are an excellent imitation of the genuine. There is one infallible way to test them and other United States paper money. Take a pin or needle and run it under the silk fiber that is scattered through the paper of the bill. If with the pin you can pull up the thread so that it is plainly visible, then you can take that money for the face of it. The counterfeit twos are silver certificates."

She Was at Johnstown.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says. "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy and it cured both of them. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Foshay & Mason.

Awbrey gives gas for the painless extraction of teeth.

A Dime Novel Elopement.

On Wednesday, the 13th inst., Lulu Elliot, aged 16, eldest daughter of J. G. Elliott, of Pillar Rock, eloped with Chris Henry, aged 40. The girl boarded the Telephone that afternoon for Astoria, where she was joined by Henry. In the evening they took the steamer back to Portland, and from there it is supposed they have gone to Idaho. Some of the officers on the steamer were aware of the fact and kept an eye on the couple. They did not take a stateroom, but remained in the ladies' cabin all night. Miss Elliott, the precocious damsel, is a rather handsome, petite girl, who had developed almost a mania for reading dime novels, to which cause is attributed her desire to make her marriage as realistic as the exploits described by her favorite authors. Her parents were not opposed to the match and regret her foolish and hasty actions. The would-be husband, who induced her to elope, had been paying her attention for some time and appeared to be devotedly attached to her. Henry was very jealous and threatened to kill a rival lover if he did not cease paying his addresses to Miss Lulu. He has fished on the river for several years and is well known.—Cathlamet Gazette.

Fall and Winter Announcement.

We beg to announce that the two large shipments of woollens consigned to us, and recently purchased of Boston and New York houses, will arrive in the course of a day or two. These goods should have been delivered August 1st, but owing to the recent strike of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, we were unable to receive them sooner and regret exceedingly the disappointment to our customers. The stock comprises the latest foreign and eastern designs, and required no little skill and care to meet the wants of the public, as we fully anticipate to please the most fastidious. We will announce the arrival of these goods and trust an early inspection.

Respectfully,
