Ten thousand carriages in Central park, New York, have a coachman and a footman. At least 5000 more have a coachman. Twenty thousand people ride there simply to wait on the rich, to minister to the luxury of the opulent. Ten thousand of these people are lackeys. It was about fifty years ago that Daniel Webster, speaking of the region then known as Oregon, said it was "so far off that it could never be governed by the United States, and a delegate from congress would not reach Washington till a year after the expiration of his term." N. A. McDavid, of Fellowship, Fla., carved out a "rebus" on the end of an orange cane which translated is the name of President Harrison. On one end of the handle is the head of a hare, near the center is an eye, then a sun. Putting them together the symbols spell Harrison. The cane is elegantly finished in oil, and has been sent to the president by C. P. Haycraft. A MIDSUMMER ITEM. Some Pointers That Will Save Money to Housekeepers. Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose WORTH 100 Dollars! DEAR S. L. K.: I consider one dose of Simmons Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated and headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite had the blues, and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to Blue Mass, Calomel, Quinine, and every remedy suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S. L. K. did me more good than $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Resp'y, J. C. MARTIN. I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid liver, and have been entirely cured by Simmons Liver Regulator. I found it to be of a mild character in its action, as not to interfere, in the least with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to the same, I can so highly recommend Simmons Liver Regulator. W. H. THAYER.
