

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE. The Daily Herald will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

NOTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

New goods at Read's. See those unadorned kid gloves at W. F. Read's. Those Kay of the Salem woolen mills, is in the city. Ladies' fast black corsets and underwear at E. C. Searls. All the latest in cloaks and jackets at W. F. Read's. A social dance will be given at the armory this evening. Just received a new stock of Y. S. F. hosiery at W. F. Read's. Fine line of neckties in the latest styles just received at E. C. Searls. Jas. F. Powell & Co. have just received a large lot of fresh fruit. Over a 1000 different patterns of dress goods to choose from at W. F. Read's. Stanley on Shoalwater Bay and Marshall on Coos Bay are the latest "boom towns."

Dr. C. C. Kelly, wife and sister came down from his homestead in the Green Basin yesterday. A very large assortment of furnishing goods and neck wear were just received at W. F. Read's. On the circuit court docket for Portland district appears the names, "Koldeway vs. Koldeway, divorce."

For rent, a building suitable for small business or a freemason, on First street. Inquire of E. L. Thompson. Scott May, cashier of the Seio bank, and Peter Smith, of that city, were on our streets yesterday looking after business interests. Paymaster C. C. Hogue, of the Oregon Pacific, has been over the line, making glad the employes by liquidating for the month of May.

Don't irritate your lungs with a stub or cough when a pleasant and effective remedy may be found in Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm!

The V. L's will give a social this evening at the residence of Mrs. W. S. Thompson. Friends of the Society and all members are invited to be present. Judge Burgess, of Missoula, who is the guest of Judge R. S. Strahan in this city, in company with Judge Strahan took in our office for a few moments last evening.

The Topsy, the diminutive steam boat that used to ply on the Willamette between this city and Corvallis, is now said to be flying about on the Columbia and small tributaries carrying freight. Mr. Frank Crabtree was in the city yesterday. He reports the harvest nearly completed in his neighborhood, and that the wheat crop is generally very satisfactory, but the crop of oats as being rather short.

Ladies who experience a sense of weakness and sometimes lammness of the back should use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, it will supply the much needed strength and overcome all weakening irregularities. Buy your tickets to the east via the Canadian Pacific railroad, the best railway service in existence from $5 to $10 cheaper than any other transcontinental line. The finest scenery in the world is along the Canadian Pacific railroad. Remember you can save $5 on a second-class ticket and $10 on a first-class ticket by purchasing your tickets over this line. For maps and tickets, etc., call on Burkhardt & Malin, office opposite the First National bank, Albany, Or.

A Cabin Being Built. The Oregonian says Captain Symons, United States engineer is having a cabin built on the government steamer General Wright, 9x20 feet, with accommodations for four persons, and room for cooking and writing up surveys. The steamer has heretofore had no adequate accommodation for the force employed upon her in making surveys, etc., and it has been necessary for men employed to seek lodgings on shore. As it is expected that the river and harbor bill will pass very soon and it provides for a number of surveys of rivers and bays, and Captain Symons is expecting to receive orders to begin this work as soon as the river and harbor bill is approved by the president, he is having the Wright put in order to proceed with the work.

Fell To His Death. A dispatch from Gervais says that Thomas Hunt, sr., an old pioneer and resident of French prairie for over forty years, was instantly killed Wednesday about 10 o'clock by falling from a load of grain while descending a steep hill at Butterville. His neck was broken in the fall, and the front wheel of the wagon passed over his face, splitting it wide open. Death was instantaneous. He was a widower, 67 years of age and leaves three children. He will be buried at the Catholic cemetery at this place Friday at 10 o'clock. He leaves an estate valued at $10,000. Mr. Hunt is the father of Mrs. Peter Riley, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Riley went to Gervais on the morning train yesterday.

A Change. Hereafter no tickets will be sold at the Oregon Pacific depot, and all trains over that road will leave the city station, near the Southern Pacific depot, where tickets for all points on the Oregon Pacific will be sold. Use elegant lotion for tan.

WHAT IRRIGATION WILL DO.

It Will Make the Desert Blossom Like the East.

Paul F. Mohr, formerly of Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railroad has just returned from a trip through Yuma county, in Eastern Washington and is full of praises. Quite a period had elapsed since he had visited the Yakima country and he was surprised at its development in the interior. Where he had left miles upon miles of arid and uncultivated land he now found prosperous and well cultivated farms. Mr. Mohr holds that the system of irrigation which is being perfected there will greatly improve the country and create a sort of boom. He says that this dry land, where it is irrigated, produced a wonderful crop. He estimates that fully 400,000 acres of land will be made productive when the irrigation system is in full operation. Not only grain, but watermelons and grapes and other fruits flourish in this section of Washington. "When the irrigation system is complete it will be the garden spot of Washington," concluded Mr. Mohr—Seattle Telegraph.

The Hop Louse.

For some time it has been known that a louse of some kind has made its appearance in the hop yards here. It was not thought at first that it is the regular hop louse that has proved so injurious to the hop fields of New York and other Eastern states, and in but few yards was it yet done any damage and in those yards the damage is very light. Prof. F. L. Washburne, of the experiment station of the State Agricultural college, examined some of the yards last week and says the hop louse there is in considerable numbers. There is no use of denying the fact that this pest exists here and means of destroying it should be resorted to at once.— Eugene Register.

The Elkhorn-Bonanza.

Baker City Democrat: The Elkhorn-Bonanza Mining Company, whose property is an extension of the Baisley-Elkhorn, this wonderful billion producer, are pushing development work on an extensive scale. The company has just completed a 250-foot tunnel and are now running another lower down the mountain. The amount of ore in sight is immense and justifies the erection of a large mill. Mr. Fred Plan is the superintendent of operations at the Elkhorn-Bonanza and the work is done in a scientific manner. It is safe to say that this property will soon give more evidence of the fact that Baisley mountain is the greatest gold producing section in the Northwest.

No Owner.

There is a forty acre piece of land about one mile from Eugene that is without a rightful owner, unless it be Uncle Sam. It was discovered by parties looking over the records of the land office, but as the corner posts have been destroyed they are unable to locate it exactly without making a new survey. It is now valuable land and it will doubtless be located soon.— Eugene Register.

A Glorious Drunk.

Last evening about 5 o'clock six traps went to the cold storage room at the new works in this city and bought a keg of beer, took it out and drank it. About 6 o'clock they came back and bought another keg, took it outside of the city limits and succeeded in getting gloriously drunk. They had several fights among themselves and one of them had a black eye and a broken nose.

New Law Needed.

There is a law prohibiting the killing of deer at certain times, and the spotted fawn are protected at all times, and a punishment is provided for the man who violates the law; but there is no law to protect a man from being killed for a deer, and no punishment for the man who thus kills another.— Eugene Register.

Everybody Should Be Satisfied.

With an unusually large yield of sound, plump fall wheat, an average yield of spring wheat, fruit of all kinds, and hay and oats in abundance, an enormous yield of potatoes; stock in good condition, weather that has been favorable to harvesting and good prices for all products, the people of Oregon certainly have nothing to complain of in the summer that has just closed.

Incorporation of Articles.

Articles incorporating the Siskiyou Stone company have been filed in this office of the secretary of state by H. Wittenberg, C. W. Myers, James Hall, and E. G. Smith, as incorporators. The object is to do a general quarrying and paving business, and the capital stock is fixed at $10,000, divided into fifty shares.

Backyard Buggies.

Three carloads of buggies, hacks and carts have just been received by Messrs. Price & Robson, of this city. They are thoroughly up to the times and carry everything in the shape of a buggy, cart or hack that could be desired. They also carry at all times a full stock of the best shell hardware and sewing machines.

Selling Out.

My entire stock of merchandise, consisting of dry goods, clothing, hats, boots, shoes and groceries are now offered for sale at first cost, as I contemplate engaging in another line of business. I must sell, and if you want bargains call at once, as the goods must and will be sold. P. COHEN.

BUSY INCIDENTS

Happening in Oregon and in the State of Washington.

A conservative estimate places the amount of gold taken from the Swank since its discovery at $100,000. Gold has been found a certain distance up Baker creek, but not on the Swank above where this stream puts in.

War has been declared against the chain ferry across the Walluski river, back of Astoria, and an effort will be made to induce the Clatsop county commissioners to abolish it and have a proper bridge built across that river.

The Australian ballot system was tried in Whetsum, Wash., Monday, for the first time, and everybody was pleased with it. The work on the outside was not to find voters, but to persuade them before they got to the polls.

Brush fires in that section of the forest on Puget Sound known as South Seattle, are alarming the residents. Some small cabins were destroyed. The fire company could do nothing, as there is no water to be had there.

Lois Wilson, an old and respected citizen of Astoria, died Wednesday night of heart disease, aged 66. He was a native of Stockholm, Sweden, and came to Oregon in 1857. He was a member of the state board of pilot commissioners at the time of his death. He leaves two sons and daughters, one of the latter being Mrs. Wiley E. Allen, of Portland.

A. P. Sharpstein has made a proposition to the people of Astoria to build an electric railway over the hill to Young's bay for a cash subsidy of $80,000. He will guarantee to begin work within sixty days and complete it in six months, the subsidy to be paid within five days after the completion of the road. A public meeting has been held, and it is probable the subsidy will be raised.

James Mathers, a laborer, was killed at Kirkland, near Seattle, by a tree falling on him. He was employed in clearing land for J. G. Scott, a contractor, at Kirkland, and as he was felling a tree an adjacent tree fell upon him, crushing his skull. He was brought to the Providence hospital in an insensible condition, and soon after died. Mathers has some relations living in Denver, Colorado.

The sheriff of Klickitat county, Washington, took two prisoners to Golden-Idle Tuesday. They were captured in Tygh valley, Oregon, by two Indians and a white man, who had trailed them from the mountains. Their possession was found seven miles back from the citizens of Klickitat county. The evidence is very clear against them, says the Times-Mountaineer, and very likely they will work for the state for some years to come.

Their names are William B. Biele and William Jordan, young men apparently about 25 years of age. When the handcuffs were put on them they took matters very coolly, and justly said, government jewelry is not at all ornamental, but very useful.

The Washington Legislature convened by Gov. Ferry to apportion the state under the new census, is held at work at Olympia. The first business in both houses was the acting of Governor Ferry's proclamation covering the legislative session. Then committees were appointed to notify the governor to transmit any communication he might have. The senate designated Long, Forsythe and Thompson of Walla Walla, Speaker Ferguson selected Drew, Steele, Allen and Brown of Spokane, Stevenson, Ostrander, Painter, Tucker and Kuhn on the part of the house. Representative Geozegan has prepared a bill that will be used as the basis of work for the apportionment.

OUR NEWPORT LETTER.

Newport, Or., Sept. 4. The weather here is very fine, pleasant balmy days much milder and more pleasant than last month. Although the hotels and camping places are not crowded as they were earlier in the season, still there are a great many people still here, and each train adds a few to the number in search of sea breezes.

The salmon run has commenced and great numbers of these fish are being captured and shipped to the interior, yesterday it was the writers good fortune to catch a fine fish which tipped the beam at 57 pounds.

The schooner Mischief makes daily trips over the bar for deep sea fishing, though our party prefer the salmon as you fish them from a small boat inside the bay.

To the Buyers of Shoes.

We are offering some rare bargains in men's and ladies shoes. We sell you the same shoes that other houses show you—made by the same manufacturer—in short they are the same goods—for much less money. Call and see our prices—we guarantee to save from 25 to 50 per cent—on each pair of shoes purchased. These goods are new and first class in every particular. A. B. McILWAIN.

A Runaway.

About 11 o'clock yesterday a team belonging to Jas. Nanny became frightened on First street and ran out Ellsworth to Fourth street, where they were stopped without damage.
