ON SALE.

The Daily Herald will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store where it is procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Cases at French's. New goods at Read's. Corvallis has a damage suit. Silver-headed cases at F. M. French's.

The latest in cases at the corner jewelry store. Gold-headed cases at the corner jewelry store.

See those un-dressed kid gloves at W. F. Read's. Rev. E. J. Thompson of Corvallis is in the city.

Al. Boehm has returned from a trip to Portland. J. A. Gross returned yesterday from San Francisco.

Ladies fast black corsets and underwear at E. C. Searls. All the latest in cloaks and jackets at W. F. Read's.

Just received a new stock of Y. S. F. Hosiery at W. F. Read's. Fine line of neckties in the latest styles just received at E. C. Searls.

Jas. F. Powell & Co. have just received a large lot of fresh fruit. H. M. Roberts of Harrisburg, was in the city yesterday on business matters.

Over a 1000 different patterns of dress goods to choose from at W. F. Read's. J. A. Cumming, E. D. Cusick and J. D. Guise returned yesterday from the mountains.

The Corvallis Marine Band came over yesterday to go to Newport with the excursionist. J. A. Gross, of the depot hotel, had returned from San Francisco much improved in health.

Mrs. Jacob Streitler returned Friday from her husband who is driving logs on the McKenzie river. A very large assortment of furnishing goods and neck wear were just received at W. F. Read's.

For rent, a building suitable for small business or a dressmaker, on First street. Inquire of E. I. Thompson. Morgan Hoult, son of the late Hon. Enoch Hoult, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Eastern Oregon.

Tone Smith, of Astoria, formerly of Harrisburg, went through the city yesterday on his way to Virginia to attend law school. Mr. H. J. Sower, of the Ladies' Bazaar, has enlarged his store and added a room for the convenience of ladies in fitting on garments.

Don't irritate your lungs with a stubborn cough when a pleasant and effective remedy may be found in Dr. J. H. McLean's Tar Wine Lung Balm! The citizens of Jefferson will celebrate the completion of the big bridge being built at that place on Saturday Sept. 13th, in an enthusiastic manner.

The city council at their meeting last evening decided to employ an engineer to locate a bridge across the river, and he will commence his labors on Monday morning. The depot hotel will in a short time have sewer privileges extended to it, which will give an important advantage in the way of health to all who have business in that direction.

George Anderson & Co. have fitted up a neat fish market opposite Frank Wood's marble shop, where fine salmon and all kinds of fish fresh from Yaquina bay will be kept every day. Ladies who experience a sense of weakness and sometimes lameness of the back should use Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, it will supply the much needed strength and overcome all weakening irregularities.

Messrs. Wandel & Hollenbeck, who are occupying the McFarland building, have a fine stock of goods and invite examination. They are entertaining business men and will command a liberal patronage. Mr. Jonas Davis, of Shedd, was in the city yesterday and reports harvest completed, and a large yield of excellent wheat. His oats was a fair yield, but light on account of the dry weather when sown and irregularity in coming up, causing different times in ripening.

Messrs. Guise, Cusick, Cumming and Harry Cusick have returned from their trip to the summit of the Three Sisters and report having passed a very pleasant time and gained health, vigor and a large and practical experience in viewing the grandest scenery of our mountain regions. They had the pleasure of adding their names to the long list in the bottle register on the top of the mountain. It has been decided to hold the entertainment and fair, for which the W. C. T. U. are now making arrangements, in the opera house, on the evenings of September 25 and 26. A good programme will be presented each evening, with time allowed for social enjoyment and ice cream cake will be served for refreshments. The booth committee are enthusiastically at work, and it is earnestly hoped that the ladies, members of the W. C. T. U. or not, will contribute to the articles to be on sale in the booths. The historical booth promises to be very interesting, and persons having relics of pioneer days in Albany in their possession will confer a favor by notifying Mrs. L. E. Blain. Everything points to a successful entertainment.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

They Decide to Employ An Engineer - A Sewer to the Dept.

City Surveyor Barr made the following recommendations: That the grade of Water street be lowered one-tenth of a foot at its junction with Madison, Hill and First street, and that a survey be made and a grade established.

A petition of citizens for a sidewalk and foot bridge on the west side of Baker street, between 7th and 9th streets, was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

Saloon license was granted to Nicholas Zimmerman. The contract for the construction of the extension of Railroad street sewer a distance of 2133 feet, the same to be of 18-inch terra cotta sewer pipe, was let to James Laurent at $1.84 per foot. The sewer to be completed within 60 days. Mr. Laurent's bonds were fixed at $5,000.

Drowning On the McKenzie. Tim Kellogg, age, supposed to be between 20 and 30 years, was drowned at Oak Tree camp about 4 miles east of Corvallis on the McKenzie river, Wednesday September 3d about 11 o'clock a. m. He was employed driving logs down the river. The water at this place is shallow, but of very uneven depth and at the place where he went under the water was about 4 feet deep, and has a very swift undercurrent. The logs would float out to the banks of the river and lodge, and had to be "dogged" back into the river with horses. His position was to unfasten the horses from the logs, and he was standing in the water about waist deep, leaning on a peavy after having unfastened his team from a large log when a smaller log, in passing him knocked his peavy out of his hands. He then started toward the shore and had got nearly out of the water when he suddenly turned around, went back and sat on the log. It is supposed the log rolled with him as he was next seen struggling in the water. A boat was immediately to his rescue, but before the boat could reach him he sank again and was seen no more. Work was immediately suspended and a diligent search begun, but up to 6 o'clock Friday morning the body had not been recovered.

The Latest Swindle. "Do you know the latest swindle for farmers?" asked a gentleman yesterday. "It beats the others," he said. "A glib tongued agent goes to a farmer and makes a bargain with him to furnish him cinnamon beans, something new, just out, and for which there is great demand, in the production of cinnamon oil, which is pressed from the beans. The beans are worth $20 a bushel and he will agree to give the farmer $5 for each cinnamon tree grown from the seed he furnishes, when it has reached the growth of five feet, and he will bind the contract by a good and sufficient bond. The seed beans the farmer gets are common red beans saturated with cinnamon oil, and which seldom reach the growth above six inches. The farmer will wait a good while for the return of his $20."

An Immense Crowd. Was seen at the Ladies' Bazaar yesterday examining their large and well selected stock of new fall goods for ladies, children and infants, consisting of ready made dresses, caps, cloaks, jackets, knit goods, hosiery, yarns, embroideries, laces and fancy goods of all descriptions. Their stock of buckles, gloves, handkerchiefs and new veiling cannot be surpassed.

Marriage Bells. The marriage of J. A. Bennett, the depot agent at Lebanon for the Southern Pacific, and Miss Ida Roberts, one of Harrisburg's most popular young ladies, will take place this forenoon at the residence of H. M. Roberts, the bride's father, in Harrisburg. The young couple will have the hearty good wishes of hosts of friends. The ceremony will be performed by Elder B. M. Wade, of the Christian church, in Harrisburg.

Jackets and Wraps. I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies, misses and children jackets and wraps which are of the latest style and good value and as cheap as standard goods can be bought. I have a lot of ladies Newmarkets carried over from last year, which I am selling at cost to make room for new arrivals. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Sudden Death. Mrs. Porter, mother of Thurston and Wm. Porter, the blacksmiths of Harrisburg, died very suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. P. Barger, Jr., near Harrisburg on Tuesday. She was quite an aged lady, but was in usual health and her death was totally unlooked for.

Car Loads of 'Em. Mueller & Garrett, at the Willamette Packing company have watermelons of that dimension. The Herald's force have sampled them. Try one.

E. C. Searls has opened one of the finest stocks of shoes ever shown in this part of Oregon. Sweet potatoes at Jas. F. Powell & Co.'s

BIDDING FOR IT.

Three Cities Competing For The Willamette University.

The subject of re-locating the oldest institution of learning in Oregon—the Willamette University of Salem—has in some mysterious manner been started into active discussion, and three cities, Portland, Salem and Astoria, have been drawn into competition for its location. As Dr. Stratton who is now at the head of the University, places the funds necessary to raise to properly maintain the school at $100,000 it will be seen that it is no light task that the city that gains the location will have to assume. The real facts in the case are that the University should not be moved from Salem where it has been so long located that it has assumed all the characteristics of an actual landmark, and it is to be hoped that Salem will be able to offset all competing bids and retain the school.

Attached. Sheriff E. M. Croisan went up to Galesville above Mill City on the Oregon Pacific on Wednesday and put an attachment upon the store and other property of Dr. South. This attachment is for $3,000, to collect a note for the amount held by Ladd & Bush, of Salem. Mr. South made a statement of his assets and liabilities, and gave it to the sheriff. He claims to have $16,250.00 worth of property, and his liabilities according to his statement are $7,384.55, giving assets over liabilities $8,865.45. Mr. South will not make an assignment, as he says he has enough property to pay all of his debts, and he will without doubt do this if he can, for he is a square man, and has a host of friends. Following are his creditors: Ladd & Bush, fully secured, $3,000; Allen & Lewis, $976.87; Akin, Selling & Co., $644.71; Dittendorfer, Haas & Co., $401.36; Esberg, Bachman & Co., $395.51; Chas. H. Dold & Co., $346.14; Thuanlaner & Frohman, $254.24; E. Goins, $239.28; Isom, Lanning & Co., $222.85; Sam'l E. Young, $225.69; M. Seller & Co., $78.30; S. M. Dargels, $873; Neustadter Bros., $62.87; Hoffman & Pfeiffer, $41.70; Fleischer, Mayer & Co., $186.81; Bernheim & Manner, $48.90; Stewart & Son, $80.50; Cox Bros. & Co., $22.80; Deyoe & Robson, $11.15.—Salem Statesman

The Siuslaw Road. It is learned that John C. Wilson, the contractor on the Siuslaw road, left the work, came out to the valley saying he will return in a few days and has not since been seen. The men, fearing he had been robbed, sent a man to look for him. It was found that he had taken the train at Junction, but no further trace could be found. The work has stopped and the workmen have attached property for the balance due them.

NEWS FROM TANGENT.

Railroad Accident Near That Place—No New Cases of Diphtheria.

Died, on Tuesday last the infant son of Samuel Bryan, near Tangent. J. M. Beard's fruit train is running full blast and turning out a fine quality of fruit.

Rev. P. A. Moses and family will start next Thursday for Myrtle creek, his appointment. There are no new cases. Annie Bryan has been very low with it, but we are glad to learn is improving.

The public school will open the first of October with Mr. Loney, late of the East, as principal, and Miss Winnie Nichols, of Tangent, assistant.

Wheat is putting into the warehouse at a lively rate, also quite a number of car loads have been sold and are being shipped direct from the field.

John Beard has lumber on the ground for a fine residence, to be built soon in Tangent. His son, Ambrose, of Fossil, Gilliam county, is home on a visit.

Tangent is still improving. Mr. H. W. Settlement has just finished his window blind in an ornamental style. Henry never does things by halves.

Last Monday morning the freight train separated about a half a mile above here. The mishap was noticed by the engineer until he had stopped his engine. When he stepped out of his cab he saw the remainder of his train coming and sprang back and gave the engine full force, jerking the drawhead out of one of the cars, leaving seven there, which the remainder of the train ran into, mashing the drawheads of the whole seven, so they had to be left on the switch for repairs. No one was hurt.
