"A dollar saved is a dollar earned," so call at the Ladies Bazaar, and examine prices on millinery before purchasing elsewhere.

The members of the Building and Loan Association will notice that to-day is the time for the monthly payment, and govern themselves accordingly.

Our customers all speak highly in praise of St. Patrick's Pills. They are the best.—Berry Bros., Carroll, Nebraska. For sale by Foshay & Mason, druggists.

J. W. Brock, the agent for the Gaskell Literary Club, is in the city, having begun a canvass of the county. Don't fail to see his list of elegant premium bibles for members.

A rare musical treat at the opera house, on Monday evening, September 22, to listen to the Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and Comedy Sketch Club. They give a genuine, enjoyable entertainment.

Mr. Charles Mueller and his mother started east Wednesday morning on a business and pleasure trip. So all lovers of the good things of life can look over for some fine delicacies.

Frequently accidents occur in the household which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises, for use in such cases Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy.

The Y's assisted by several others, are rehearsing two very fine concert pieces for the W. C. T. U. entertainment. It will be well with the price of admission to see and hear the performance of either.

An evening in the Flower Garden is a beautiful and delightful concert piece, which will be charmingly rendered by the Y's assistee by others, on Friday evening Sept. 20th, at the opera house.

There was a lovely display of fall and winter millinery at the Ladies Bazaar yesterday; it was quite a treat, all the different novelties and styles, trimmed in such good taste and at remarkable low prices that cannot fail to please the most fastidious of economical.

Farmers about Prairie City are getting eighty cents for their wheat. That is far above "railroad price," and if the people of Grant county consumed only Grant county flour this price would be universal, and even higher, besides this, money would be plentiful.—Grant County News.

Al Waddle and father are visiting in this city, the guests of W. J. Monteith. Mr. Waddle Sr. from Illinois, and in company with his son, who is a member of the firm of VanSchuyver & Co. of Portland, is visiting different points of interest. Judge Whalley is expected to arrive from Portland to-day and a general war on snipe will be waged.

At Silverton, Sunday evening, Miss Adamson, daughter of Ed. Adamson, and granddaughter of George Ritchie, of the Wadsworths, was seriously injured by being thrown from a buggy by a runaway horse. She was out riding with Louis Aldrich, and the animal he was driving took fright at some object in the road, overturning them. All day Monday Miss Adamson was unconscious, but it is thought she is not fatally injured.

Correspondence with the state treasurer develops the fact that Curry county's share of the state apportionment of school funds was forwarded by check No. 483, on the Merchants' National bank of Portland, for $988.15, in favor of Walter Sutton, on August 9, 1890. The check never reached here, says the Gold Beach Gazette, but was lost in the mail. Payment has been stopped on the check, and it is worthless, but the mishap has caused an unavoidable delay in making the county apportionment to the districts.

A MENAGERIE TURNED LOOSE.

A Terrible Scene Followed Too Harrowing to Be Imagined.

As horrible story as could be related was told in yesterday's dispatches from Kimberly, South Africa, of an awful occurrence at midnight on the first of June last. Some person evidently bearing ill feeling toward the proprietor of the Tullis menagerie opened the doors of the cages confining the wild animals and set them all free.

Most terrible scenes followed. Four attendants sleeping on the premises endeavored to rouse up the beasts, but were mangled beyond recognition, being actually torn limb from limb. The entire population, within a radius of a mile, were aroused by the roaring of the lions, the trumpeting of elephants, and the shrieks of other wild animals.

Having tasted blood in their struggle with employees the ferocity and sprang at every living thing in their way. Four performing Hungarian horses were killed almost instantly and a number of ponies destroyed. An elephant burst through a heavy iron gate and rushed into Curry street, followed by nearly every animal in the menagerie. The little child of James Grindley, in the rear of a room opening on the garden way, was pounced upon by a cheetah and dragged into the open air where the agonized mother saw it torn to pieces and devoured before help could reach it. Other harrowing incidents are reported, among them the killing of five women, who were on the grounds. When the mails left, four lions, two hyenas, one tiger, three bears, two wolves, one hyena, two cheetahs, one elephant, one camel and sixteen baboons were still at large. The police have been organized into hunting parties, and the people are keeping in doors.

Mashing Comes High.

Mashers will probably be a little careful in Portland. The Oregonian says: Among the prisoners in the police court yesterday was J. W. Ross. He was booked on a charge of disorderly conduct and his offense consisted of attempting to make a "mash" on a young lady in the city park. Park Officer Myers said that the young lady came running to him very much frightened and reported the breach of etiquette. Judge Tanner looked very thoughtful for a moment and then said that he did not know whether an attempt to make a "mash" was disorderly conduct or not. However, as Ross foolishly entered a plea of guilty, there was no alternative for the court but to impose a sentence. He fined Ross $10.

Beaten to Death.

East Oregonian: O. W. T. train men bring the news of a tragedy which occurred on the Northern Pacific Monday. Conductor Cameron was beaten into a state of insensibility with a slung shot by a switchman named Rhodes, employed in the yard at Fargo. Cameron attempted to collect fare from Rhodes, who being an employee of the company, refused to pay. Words followed and Rhodes began to beat Cameron over the head with the weapon, who afterwards died from the effects of his injuries.

A Foreible Objection.

A very emphatic objection was raised when Henry Cassin, of Jersey City, attempted to marry his son while the latter was being married to Miss May Berkeley, of St. Patrick's cathedral. Cassin wanted his son to marry another woman, and the young man, defying his wishes, he followed the couple to church and fired a shot at the altar. The bullet fortunately missed and he was disarmed. Tremendous excitement prevailed in the church.

Railroad Deal.

Quite a large railroad deal is announced in the fact that the Atchison company had bought control of the Colorado Midland. It is said the price paid is $5 per share. The Colorado Midland operates 274 miles of road, the main line running from Colorado Springs to Newcastle, Colorado, 234 miles, with branches to Aspen, Spring Gulch and Arkansas Junction.

Signs of Civilization.

Bellingham Bay Express: Anaerotics is rapidly coming to the front. She now has, if we may believe the advertisement, a restaurant in which table covers and napkins are provided. Of course it will take the natives sometime to accustom themselves to these luxuries and to keep from carving the table while waiting for their orders, but in the end even the napkins will be found ahead of the old-fashioned mat and sheepskin and look what an ad. it will be for the city.

Wants Cash, Not Garden Truck.

General News: Some people have an idea that a newspaper is a sort of charity concern, and anything contributed, from a sheet of fly-paper to a bushel of turnips—smaller in the patch at that—is seized with avidity by the publisher, who is under everlasting obligations to the donor. Such is not the case. A newspaper is a legitimate enterprise, and is deserving of cash business just the same as any business enterprise.

Successful Surgery.

Dr. Wallace performed a successful surgical operation for Dr. W. Gray, in removing sixteen distinct polyps from the nasal passages, bringing him great relief.

We find St. Patrick's Pills to be very extra and to give splendid satisfaction. They are now about the only kind called for.—W. A. Wallace, Oasis, Ia. For sale by Foshay & Mason, Druggists.

MATTERS IN LANE.

Route of the Railway Big Like Land Case—Bridge—Lumber Co.

It is not yet definitely decided whether the Oregonian railroad will go up the Middle Fork on the east of west side of the river. The engineer of construction states that it is possible they will cross the river at Springfield and go up this side and recross near Hyland's. One reason for this is that there are two points on the other side that are difficult to get ground and the county road now has the field, and the county has spent thousands of dollars to build the road there and keep it in repair, and will den and pretty heavy damages if the road is disturbed. The engineer says when they get to Springfield they will decide which side to take.

The hop lice have been working industriously the past few weeks and as a result they have damaged a great many hops. Mr. Smeed informs us that they have ruined about 8000 pounds in his yard, and they have caused more or less damage in several other yards in that vicinity. We are informed Mr. Anderson has lost nearly one-half of his hops from this cause. In some yards they took nearly every hop as they went and in other places scattered around and picked up and pick out the good hop. They have spread rapidly the past few weeks but they did not reach some yards until too late to do any damage.

About a year ago or more a man named Park found a flaw in the title to a certain piece of land lying near Goshen and filed on it as unoccupied land and has since been living on the same. Now comes the original owner, Mrs. Frances Veach, who deeded the land to some heirs, and brings suit to recover the land. The case is to be tried next month. The land in question lies in the middle of a large farm and is valuable property.

The Coast Fork bridge will be completed this week. The piers of the Springfield bridge are constructed and accepted. The Lake Creek bridge will be completed in a few days and the county commissioners will probably go down this week to accept it. A new bridge is being constructed near Beecher Reekonius road.

The McKenzie Lumber company filed articles of incorporation in the office of secretary of state last week. The incorporators are J. C. Goodale, A. Wheeler, and E. Crawford. Capital $16,000, divided into 150 shares. The company will operate the mill formerly owned by the McKee Bros., on the McKenzie.

Price Shooting.

Now is the time to get in your score for the prize shooting at the gallery opposite the Russ House. 1st prize, $25; 2d prize, $15; 3d prize, $10; 4th prize, $5. Prizes will be awarded on Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

An Enjoyable Entertainment.

The Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and Comedy Sketch Club, which occupies the opera house in this city on the evening of Sept. 22d, gains the following encomium from the Lincoln, Neb., Journal: "A very enjoyable performance was given by the Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and Comedy Sketch Club at the People's Theatre last evening. The audience that greeted the first appearance of this company here was large and enthusiastic, and for nearly three hours the house rang with their plaudits of the crowd. The Sketch Club came to Lincoln unheralded with glittering and overdrawn press notices but the entertainment of last evening fully demonstrated the fact that the company travels on its merits, and the sign of approval manifested on all sides was evidence enough that the performers were artists in their line. The bell ringing, by John and Alice Oakes, made a decided hit, each rendition being met with a storm of applause. The wonderfully sweet and brassy tones from tumblers partly filled with water was duly appreciated. Frank Hollister exhibited his powers as a specialty comedian in his act "The Yankee Farmer from Squashtown," in a manner that fairly controlled the audience. He introduced old-time dances, songs and stories of candy pullings, parades, corn huskings in irresistible down east twang. Mr. Hollister is an actor of experience and unlike many comedians of the day, he does not over do his acts. Harry Eades also appears in a number of sketches in which he displays to a remarkable degree to what uses the facial muscles may be put. His imitations of different characters in every stage of physical development, in which the face largely figures, were marvelous exhibitions. His sudden facial changes were most humorous and grotesque. The violin playing by Mr. Korn and the harp solos by Alice Oakes were very good. The performance was a good one and proved a success."

Five Husbands and Four Divorces.

The divorce case of Emma Gagnon vs. Isidore Gagnon, now under consideration before a referee appointed by the court, is being argued in court today. It is said that the defendant is the plaintiff's fifth husband and this is the fourth time she has brought suit for divorce. He is also a brother of the last husband from whom she obtained a separation. Mrs. Gagnon must be hard to please.—East Oregonian.

To the Buyers of Shoes.

We are offering some rare bargains in men's and ladies shoes. We sell you the same shoes that other houses show you—made by the same manufacturer—in short they are the same goods—for much less money. Call and see our prices—we guarantee to save from 20 to 50 per cent—on each pair of shoes purchased. These goods are new and first class in every particular. A. B. McILWAIN.

Recently the Dallas Observer

claimed that Mrs. Harry Holliman was the oldest native Oregonian in Washington county, Oregon, in 1845. This brings out the following from a correspondent of the McMinnville Telephone-Register: "D. M. Hewitt, of Monmouth, was born in Washington county, Oregon, in 1845. This brings out the following from a correspondent of the McMinnville Telephone-Register: "D. M. Hewitt, of Monmouth, was born in Washington county, Oregon, in 1845, driving the first wagon that ever came down the western slope of the Blue mountains and the second to the Dalles of the Columbia river and the Applegate outfit that claim the honor. followed their trail."

The Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers

and Comedy Company which pleased the citizens so much on their appearance here about a year ago, are coming again. They will be here on the 22d of this month, and will be greeted by a full house, for they are good. On their appearance at Huron, Dakota, the Leader of that place said: "Those who attended the vocal and instrumental treat at the opera house last Saturday night pronounced the Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and comedy Sketch Club a little bit out of the common order of melody. They frequently stirred the house in attendance, who favorably expressed themselves in relation to the entire exercise. The solos were excellent. The English comedian, Harry Eades, with his mirth provoking melody in his funny faces, interested the crowd amazingly. Frank Hollister, the artistic banjoist and character vocalist, was enjoyed to the echo. It was an acceptable and interesting affair. The company will do well to come again."

Eugene Simpson and Miss May McIntyre, both of Oysterville,

Wash., were married on the 14th inst. Eugene Simpson is the oldest son of Sam L. Simpson, the Oregon poet. Everybody knows Sam L. Simpson, eldest son of Hon. Ben Simpson, who owned the old sawmill at Oneonta, says the Yaquina Post.
