THE SPICE OF LIFE.

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.

Our courtships are such sweet affairs,
Life might seem much more clever,
Since wedded vows bring many cares,
Were we to court forever.

Hymen has many hearts made glad
And scores of others saddened.
Many singles wish they had,
And doubles wish they hadn't.

At a swell marriage curious people watch at the church door to see the tied go out.

Mistakes are gentle reminders that we are too confident in ourselves.

To the young maid marriage is a lottery, but to the old maid it is a grab-bag.

So many girls of 16 fall in love with a pretty mustache, and so many men fall in love with a dimple.

A Southern paper explains that when it referred to "the Puritan spirit" it meant New England rum.

Teacher—Why did Cæsar hesitate on the banks of the Rubicon? Bad boy—Because he didn't have any bathing suit.

If an apothecary were allowed to make the same ratio of profit on stamps as on drugs, a 2 cent stamp could be bought for a dollar.

Lover (dolefully pointing to a piece torn from his trousers)—Look at that. Your dog bit me, Sweet creature—Did he? Poor little Fido; I suppose he is jealous.

Several days of September gone, and not a paper yet has referred to the oyster as a "luscious bivalve." What is the matter? Is the oyster editor taking a vacation?

That would be heavenly: He (class of '90)—Did you read that astonishing discovery they've made, that hair grows after death? She—Oh, I am so glad. Maybe you'll have a mustache in heaven.

"I have met this man," said the legal luminary, with extreme severity, "in a great many places where I should be ashamed to be seen myself, and then he paused and looked with astonishment at the smiling court and jury.

SUNDAY THOUGHTS.

He bears misery best that hides it most.

The less men think, the more they talk.

Human improvement is from within outwards

No circumstances can repair a defect of character.

Spend less nervous energy each day than you make.

No Christian can live any higher than he looks.

I dimly guess, from blessings known, of greater out of sight.—Whittier.

The next best thing to owning something is to be willing to do without it.

All men that are ruined are ruined on the side of their natural propensities.

A happy home is the strongest castle satan ever turns his gun against.

It is easier to pick up a thorn by its rose than it is to pick up a rose by its thorn.

To rejoice in the happiness of others is to make it our own; but to produce makes it more than our own.—James.

Never pronounce a man to be willfully niggard until you have seen the contents of his purse. Distribution should be in accordance with receipts.

I pray with every variety of prayer for those who differ with me in creed, that they, following my example, may with me attain unto eternal salvation—Buddha.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

Contributed by the W. C. T. U.

The City Council, of Plainfield, N. J., granted a seven hundred dollar license to a saloon under the postoffice, whereupon Postmaster-General W. namaker cancelled the lease on the present postoffice building, and leased a new one with a clause in the prohibiting a saloon in the building while the postoffice remained there. All honor to such a Postmaster-General.

Iowa has $157,000 [illegible] treasury after every [illegible] met. She has 65 county jails. The black mould of death which the saloon brings, is swept from her villages. Her loafers have gone to high license states. All hail to Iowa.

Amendment meetings, largely attended and enthusiastic in character are being held throughout the state of Nebraska. The prospect of success for the prohibitory amendment increases as the campaign advances. The opposition men are on the alert, leaving [illegible] turned to defeat prohibition. The Lincoln Call says: [illegible] P. Tomlinson, the champion liar of Kansas, is in Omaha, and is repeating his old chestnuts about the failure of prohibition in Kansas. He goes to the newspaper whiskey papers, and has himself interviewed as per instructions from the Brewers' and Distillers' Association of the United States. His business is to travel over the states where prohibition is being agitated and tell lies about the workings of prohibition in Kansas. He is paid by the Brewers' and Distillers' Association of the United States to do their dirty work, and he is a success. He writes his lies and sends the copy to the whisky papers for publication.

A Sure Cure for the Whisky Habit

Dr. Livingston's Antidote for Drunkenness will cure any case of the liquor habit in from ten to thirty days, from the moderate to the drunkard. The antidote can be given in a cup of coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. The Antidote will not injure the health in any way. Manufactured by the Livingston Chemical Co., Portland, Oregon or from J. A. Cumming, Druggist, sole agent.

The Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and Comedy Company which pleased the citizens so much on their apearance here about a year ago, are coming again. They will be here on the 22d of this month, and will be greeted by a full house, for they are good. On their appearance at Huron, Dakota, the Leader of that place said: "Those who attended the vocal and instrumental treat at the opera house last Saturday night pronounced the Oakes Swiss Bell Ringers and comedy Sketch Club a little out of the common order of traveling troupes. They frequently stirred the house in attendance, who favorably expressed themselves in relation to the entire exercise. The solos were excellent. The English comedian, Harry Eades, with his mirth provoking melody and his funny faces, interested the crowd amazingly. Frank Hollister, the artistic banjoist and character vocalist, was encored to the echo. It was an acceptable and interesting affair. The company will do well to come again."

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier, by its vitalizating properties, will brighten pale cheeks, and transform a pale, haggard, dispirited woman into one of sparkling health and beauty.

There are many accidents and diseases which affect stock and cause inconvenience and loss to the farmer in his work, which may remedied by the use Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment.

Sick headache is the bane of many lives; to cure and prevent this annoying complaint use Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney pillets. They are agreeable to take and gentle in their action.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose

WORTH

100 Dollars!

DEAR S. L. R: I consider one dose of Simmons Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had Headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite had the blues, and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to Blue Mass, Calomel, Quinine, and every remedy suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S L R did me more good than $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Resp'y, J C MARTIN.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid Liver, and have been entirely cured by Simmons Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action as not to interfere, in the least with my duties in the school room. To those similarly situated and subject to the same, I cannot too highly recommend Simmons Liver Regulator.
