This would be the best musical treat Albany ever had. F. L. Kenton continues to receive subscriptions for all the leading newspapers and magazines at the cash grocery store near the postoffice. All orders left with him will be forwarded without delay, saving the subscriber the trouble and expense of forwarding the same to the publisher. The "Star of Bethlehem" is now visible in the northwest. It is very bright and can be seen at its best at about 8 p. m. The newspapers were full of the discovery about a year ago. It is seen from the earth every 315 years. You look at it now as in all probability, you will not be here when it appears again. An Incipient Blaze. An alarm was sounded yesterday afternoon for a fire in Wilcox & Conn's photograph gallery, but the fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water, and without the assistance of the engines. The fire caught in the roof from a terra cotta flue. $10 Reward. Ten dollars reward will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any person or persons tearing down sign-boards put up along the county roads, advertising our goods. Klein Bros. Notice. Last evening, on the county road road between this city and Soco, some parties shot a hole through one of our signs. The miscreant is known, and unless he comes forward and makes good the damage done will be prosecuted. Klein Bros. For Sale. A single buggy horse, young and fine traveler, together with a jump seat buggy, harness, whip, etc., nearly new, inquire of O. C. Awbrey, Odd Fellows' temple.

AN IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT.

The City Will be Supplied With Pure Water From the Santiam Canal.

It is gratifying to note that the city will again be supplied with pure water from the Santiam canal. All the drains along the water ditch in this city have been closed, and draining into the canal is a thing of the past. The pump that has for some time been drawing its water from the Calapooya, has been changed and hereafter will furnish pure, mountain water from the Santiam. Previous to this one pump has drawn from a flume which ran along the bottom of the canal, but this had long ago outlived its usefulness and impurities from the drains and sewers seeped through and our citizens were compelled to use this malarial breeding fluid in lieu of pure water. The second pump got its water from the Calapooya river, and immediately above where the water was pumped out are two cemeteries and a slaughter house, and the Calapooya street sewer and several drains empty into the stream that supplied our water. Too much praise cannot be accorded the present management for its action in securing pure water for the city.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Adelina Ratti will sing fourteen times in Russia and get 1000 guineas for each time. Anton Rubenstein is staying in the Black Forest, and is so busy composing that he rarely goes out except for an hour's stroll late in the afternoon. He is thought to be at work on a grand opera. Colonel Frederic A. Bee, Chinese consul to San Francisco, and said to be the only American, with the exception of Anson Burlingame, who held a diplomatic office under that government, is on a vacant visit to Bar Harbor. The decoration officer of public instruction has been conferred by France, through the French legation at Washington, on Dr. Perisio Frazer, of Philadelphia, who was vice president of the fourth session of the International pedagogical congress at Philadelphia. James I. King of Buffalo, registered at the Bohemian spa, at Carlsbad, during the summer, and was announced in the local press as James I. King of Buffalo. This brought down upon him such a rush of beggars, turk hunters and fee hunters that he had to get out of town. Some of the natives even took him for Buffalo Bill. Two of the seven ladies in waiting of Queen Margaret, of Italy, are New York girls—the Princess Vicovaro, who was Miss Eleanor Lorillard Spencer, and the Princess Gramsczy, who was Miss Erickson Field. The Prince Vicovaro is a Cent, and still on the stately palace which belonged to Lubrecia Petroni, the stepmother of Bettrice Genzi, together with many memorials of the Italian royalty. Marriages that are void. A number of papers throughout the state have recently said that in their respective counties a number of marriage ceremonies that had been solemnized were void on account of the failure of the persons performing such ceremony to file the required certificates with the county clerk. Such, however, is not the case. A marriage in this state solemnized before any authorized officer or minister is not void because a certificate had not been obtained from the county clerk or because the certificate was not filed with the county clerk within the time prescribed by law, or within any other time. The penalty laid upon the clerk of solemnizing either a void, but the marriage is good and binding, and the married parties need feel no alarm about the matter. Only those marriages are void which are prohibited by law, because of consanguinity between the parties, or on a count of either having a former wife or husband then living, or on account of either of them being of one fourth of more of negro blood, if solemnized within this state.

Behold the Diver.

The performances of Diver Nelson, who is engaged in boring holes through the timbers that will be bolted to the heavy iron piers of the new Madison street bridge, is attracting considerable curiosity from rowing parties who happen to pass by. The diver in his heavy coat of mail and he d gear looks like some look knight of the days of feudal chivalry. He remains under water sometimes several hours at a stretch, and is supplied with air by two men who operate an air pump, while he makes his under-water explorations. The timbers that are being bolted to the piers are there to give a footing or brace work that will be built between opposite piers. The work on the bridge is progressing satisfactory and in six weeks the river will be spanned. Oregonian.

An Astor Editor's Affliction.

Esotim Sentinel. Jan must have been a remarkably good man to stand his afflictions so meekly and resignedly. This editor has only one of the protuberances that afflicted the above individual, and yet his patience is sorely tried, and a little more provocation would be required to induce him to say something. This pet rests just below the port ear, and when the head turns the body goes with it, thus being anything but owl-like and graceful. The boys, "consarn 'em," say we "got it in the neck" at that big banquet over at Fairhaven. Quench your thirst at the new soda fountain. Elegant Lotion renders the skin soft and beautiful.

FAIR NOTES.

PORTLAND, OR., Sept. 27th. The Industrial Exposition of the northwest for J. D. 1890, may be considered now fairly under way, spaces being pretty well filled and exhibitors generally completed, some few changes and touching up in the machinery hall being done yet. Yesterday and last night—the attendance was not so large as on opening day, but this afternoon a large number of women and children availed themselves of the fine warm day to visit the fair, and the attendance is quite large. The building is so large and so much floor space the crowd is hardly ever great at any one place long, yet all the rooms were pretty well filled, and a better dressed and decorous gathering of people has rarely been seen anywhere. Of course the music hall and Libretto's band is the central attraction and listeners are always occupying the galleries. But the eastern hall is the place where one can visit again and again always finding a song the exhibits then something to examine and admire. But it seems to me the greatest of all attractions is the crowd in attendance itself. Such a variety of humanity, human nature on seas in a small space and a short time. From the seeming prosperous man of city business affairs sleek and well kept in his calm and with the exception of Anson Burlingame, who held a diplomatic office under that government, is on a vacant visit to Bar Harbor. The decoration officer of public instruction has been conferred by France, through the French legation at Washington, on Dr. Perisio Frazer, of Philadelphia, who was vice president of the fourth session of the International pedagogical congress at Philadelphia. THE PARADOX.

The opening night at the opera house last night was remarkably well attended for Albany, the opera house being filled. The performance was all that was promised and pleased everybody. The military drill by six ponies was fine and drew great applause. The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Schneider and Baby Budge was greeted with loud applause on their entrance, and the ladies especially appreciated the waltzing by Mr. and Mrs. Schneider. The back somersault by Barney was a wonderful feat and is accomplished by few dogs. The parade picture of horses and dogs, was the crowning feature of the evening and was the concluding piece. Another performance will be given this evening, and the house will be crowded, as all were well pleased with the performance last evening. Tickets can be procured at Blackburn's drug store, reserved seats without extra charge, 25 and 50 cents.

NECKTIE PARTIES ADVOCATED.

The horse-stealing traffic should be abolished in this county, no matter at what cost. Horses are stolen not only one or two at a time, but in bands as high as thirty, and right under the eyes of the state law. The owner of stolen stock does not feel able to offer a reward for the thieves' capture, and it is at least the duty of the county court to offer a standing reward for their capture, a decent sum for any man who would risk his life to capture the thieves, since the county officers, it seems, are unable to. If prompt action is not taken the farmers and stockmen will be justified in forming necktie parties again as in years gone by. We are in favor of hanging the rascals, without judge or jury.—Weston Leader.

WAS SOMETHING THINGS OVER.

J. W. Strange, recent supervisor of census for the second district of Oregon, devotes nearly two columns of his paper, the Pendleton Tribune, to explaining how and why he is not responsible for mistakes made by enumerators in taking the census, and says he was willing all the time, and is now anxious, for a recount, but doesn't mention anything about being in Portland a week before last trying to convince Agent Letland that the count in Eastern Oregon was all right, and that a re-enumeration was unnecessary. It looks as if Strange was convinced that a recount is inevitable, and was trying to smooth things over so as to relieve himself of any responsibility for the blunders made last June.—Ochoco Review.

THE NEW CLOTHING STORE.

On next Saturday the new and popular firm of T. L. Wallace and Co., will give a grand opening of their new clothing store. The boys are favorites with the people of both the city and country, and having put in an immense stock of first class goods, and doing a strictly cash business, they will command an immense trade from the start. The principle of quick cash sales at small profits, will give the people good bargains and build up a fine trade. Give the boys a call. The Union Pacific are now running two daily trains through to Chicago in three days, carrying all classes of passengers on both trains, having Pullman sleepers, tourists sleepers and free reclining chair cars attached. Passengers can now leave Portland at 7 a. m. and 9 p. m., for sleeping car reservations, etc. apply to C. G. Rawlings, foot of Broadalbin street.

KILLED A BOVINE.

This week one of E. L. Davidson's Jersey cows was killed by the California express north bound. The animal had been left in a small enclosure through which the road extended and was feeding on the track at the time she was struck by the engine. It happened on the city where it was impossible for an engineer to see her a short distance ahead. Section Boss Prunty had two gentlemen place a value on the dead bovine and the sum decided upon was $100—a high one, to be sure.—Statesman.

SPECIAL MEETING.

There will be a special meeting of Oregonian Encampment, No. 6, L. O. O. F., at their hall on Thursday evening, for the purpose of conferring work in the Golden Rule and Royal Purple degrees. All members are specially invited to be present.

DIED.

The little 1-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Workman, died in this city yesterday.

Powell & Company's grocery store. They keep all the market affords. Latest novelties in jackets and capes at E. C. Searls'. Young Places. Work at the Clackamas salmon hatchery has been commenced and in a few weeks eggs and young fish may be seen in all stages of growth. The artificial propagation of salmon is an interesting study. Upon its success to a large extent depends the future of the salmon industry of this state, as the natural increase of the fish is not sufficient to keep pace with the heavy annual catch. The output of fish this year will fall short of last year owing to the high water and the delay in building the racks. If 4,000,000 young fish are obtained, the fish commissioners will realize their expectations.
