HOMESTEADS OF INDIANS.

Unsuccessful Efforts of Capitalists to Acquire Possession of Them.

An interesting feature has just come to light in regard to purchasing land from Indians, which they have acquired under the homestead act. The general supposition has been that after a patent had been issued the Indian had a right to dispose of his holding if he so fit. Such has proved not to be the case.

Cumberland Presbyterian Synod.

This church presbytery held its annual stated meeting at Cottage Grove beginning October 2, 1890. Quite a large number of members and a goodly representation of church sessions were present.

Stewart & Sox have added a line of guns and ammunition to their immense hardware stock.

The father, mother and sister of Mrs. R. F. Ashby spent a few days with her in this city last week, and went to California on Sunday evening.

Messrs. Hugh Fields and M. Jaeger, citizens of Brownsville, have purchased the stock of the Brownsville woolen mill that was still owned by the Albany woolen mills company.

According to report, a Zulu chief is in training at the Medical Academy, and will be matched to fight the winner of the prospective Jackson-Slavin battle.

Those wishing instructions in piano, organ or harmony call on Mrs. H. F. Hollenbeck at the residence of Mrs. T. Monteith. Private musicals will be given each term for the benefit of pupils.

One of the most essential things for farmers in this part of the country to look after is grass seed. Messrs. Stewart & Sox keep a full supply of the different varieties and can meet all demands.

J. A. Smith, Wm. Smiddy, Geo. Smith and H. A. A. are mining locators in the Santiam district, and Augustus Langworth and Augustus Myers in the Calapoosa mining district lately filed.

The La Grande Gazette frequently publishes an item of news how many checks the La Grande National bank cashed in one day. It seems to be quite a surprising thing to have a check cashed in La Grande.

N. J. H. Jacks, secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A., was in the city Sunday and Saturday. The organization here are trying to raise funds to pay for larger and more commodious rooms and get them fitted up in first-class style.

J. R. Wyatt and O. P. Coshaw, law students of this city, are in Salem, for examination for admission to practice law in this state. They have made excellent reputations as students and will continue to maintain a good standing as first-class lawyers.

Take the Union Pacific railway for the East, thirty-five hours quicker than any other transcontinental line. Elegant new dining cars, Pullman palace sleepers, free family sleeping cars, and go to Denver, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago. C. G. Rawlings, city ticket agent, foot of Broadbain street.

Rev. I. B. Fisher goes to East Portland to-day to attend the Ministerial Meeting and Sunday school Convention of the Evangelical church. He will also attend the dedication, on Sunday October 12th, of the new Evangelical church in the Woodstock addition to East Portland, at which Rev. S. P. Spang, editor of the Evangelical Messenger of Cleveland, Ohio, will officiate.

Runaway Accident. Mrs. Anderson, living just south of town, yesterday morning had her team hitched up to drive her place for a load of apples, and had placed her little boy in the wagon and was starting to climb in when the horses started and threw her down and the wheels bruised her considerably. An older boy who was opening the gate to let the team pass out, caught one horse by the rope halter but could not hold on. The little fellow in the wagon stuck to his seat, and the team was caught by some gentleman who saw them running before any other damage was done. It was certainly a lucky escape for the little four-year-old boy in the wagon as well as for Mrs. Anderson.

OREGON AT THE WORLD'S FAIR

Active Work Should Immediately Be Commenced.

How Oregon is to be represented at the World's Fair at Chicago, is a question that interests every citizen of the state. With our varied and extensive products we have the materials to make as fine a show as any state in the Union to make take no back seat in the matter.

To be in position and gain our just rank we must be up and stirring at once. The suggestion of the West Shore that the state board of trade call a World's Fair convention, consisting of delegates from every county is a good one. Let that convention elect a certain number of its members to incorporate the Oregon World's Fair Association, which shall have full charge of the state exhibit. Let his association adopt some practical method of raising sufficient funds for a display that will be of some credit and benefit to the state, not less the West Shore thinks than $250,000, of which at least $100,000 should be appropriated by the legislature. Let them select a broad gauge man as general agent and a live energetic committee to assist him, and then we will see something of which we may be proud and before which we will not hang our heads in shame when we visit Chicago. This is not a Pertland matter, but one that vitally affects the whole state. The benefits will be reaped for years to come, and will accrue as much to one section of the state as the other. Let all loyal, live and intelligent Oregonians make this a personal matter, and then something will be done.

In conversation with G. W. Wright, President of the Albany Board of Trade, and one of the vice-presidents of the State Board of Trade, this matter came up and he expressed the opinion that the State Board of Trade was the largest body from the entire state now in existence and the suggestion that it take up the matter of the World's Fair exhibit met with his hearty approval.

It can be reached in that manner quicker and better than in any other way. The largest proportion of the funds necessary for the purpose should be raised by an appropriation from the state. The money raised outside of the appropriation, which of course will be considerable, could pass through the hands of Treasurer Failing of the State Board of Trade, which fact of itself would inspire confidence and secure liberal contributions throughout the state wherever Mr. Failing is known.

The matter should be taken up and action commenced at once, and our Albany Board of Trade should call a meeting and set the ball rolling.

CONDOLENCE.

HALL OF GRAND PRAIRIE GRANGE, No. 10, Sept. 27

Resolutions of condolence, of Grand Prairie Grange No. 10, P. of G. in memory of George S. Royce who died May 15, 1890.

WHEREAS, The stern and inexorable hand of death has again entered our peaceful ranks and removed therefrom our beloved brother, George S. Royce.

WHEREAS, Brother Royce was ever an active and efficient worker in our order at all times, therefore be it

Resolved, by Grand Prairie Grange that in the death of brother Royce we lose a member whose place can never be filled and whose memory will always be cherished with the fondest recollections; that while we recognize the facts that his wise council and active works, can never be realized by us here. We also realize that he has had only preceded us to that field of labor in realms of higher activity; and more extended and where our endeavor should be to again rejoice him and the many others who have gone before.

Resolved, that our hall be draped in mourning, and these resolutions be inscribed in the minutes for next meeting, a copy be furnished the family, and press for publication.

Resolved that we extend to the family our sincere sympathy and condolence in their hour of affliction.
