than part with her money for the purchase of food. The miserable creature, who was a native of Poland, but had resided here for a lington, in which the democratic number of years, actually had pirty in that stres ad pased their over $12,000 in money at the time ho; e, and had taken every means of her death, besides jewelry of possible to car., wen against considerable value, and yet so them, and the result strongly in strong was her attachment to her d cates how the rate will go wealsh that she wor'd not buy food sufficient or suitable for her virtue, but niggardliness can make | it seems that the only recourse no such claim for itself; and as to gain and hear it. between lavish and even unwise expenditure, and pinching, gras; ing, soul-chilling penuriousness and miserliness, the verdict must be in favor of the former. We cannot live for ourselves alone, and the man who throws his money away, as the fashion is to call it, does not throw it away any more than the sower throws away the seed which he scatters broadcast. Some may fall on stony places and some may be devoured by the kites and other birds of prey, but some must surely fall on good ground and spring up and produce a plenteous harvest for the benefit of others besides the sowers.

Tue labor organizations and in- SATURDAY, OCT. 25 dustrial societies, which are organized to advance and foster First appearance of the eminent the interests of the classes that form their membership, seem frivolous channels and demands that bring them toto disrepute. For instance a local wage workers alliance in Washington ask President Harrison to appoint Mrs. Stanton to the vacancy caused by the death of Justice Miller. When it is remembered that only the most experienced and eminent jurists of the country are appointed to the supreme beach, those men who have served for years in judicial positions, the puerility of the request of this labor organization becomes apparent, and we can but surmise that a day or two and as they share in the whole matter was simply in- the proceeds resulting from sale of upon such subjects does not aid ized. the labor organizations, and tend's to bring them into desepute if Albany Opera House, not absolute contempt.

THE sensational low in the Englewood Presbyterian church in The Merrill-Abt-Abbott (h cago seems to be coming out in the pastor's favor. At a fine! meeting of the conference committees of the pastor and elders held recently, papers, enswers, petitions and s'at ments were sub mi..ed by the Pas and Commit e that caused a corme en, Pas Williams' answer to the sp ific charge made against him is a lengthy document admitting a major por ion of the alleged a cusations and further explaining his legal ground for his cor .e. A bomb that cause I much consternstion and profound dismay can e in the shape of a voleminors do ument signed by nearly 100 of the 'idies of the church who were s id to have withdrawn because they were oppose to the pastor.

A Con .. MPOPTEY says that the beet stiger borney will not help the farmer, because it wil be pr d to the manufacturer of beet so and and not to the producer of " beets. Inis is about se ration ! as it would be to say that a man does not benefit the producer of wheat when he eats bread, because he pays the grocerymen for his supply of flour and not the farmer directly.

ANOTHER collision has occured on the river between Portland and Astoria. This time it is the Williamette Chief and Elder. The Chief was considerably damaged.

BUREHARY & KENNEY.

THE capture of the two California criminals Thorne and Shinn in Chicago was a good bit of detective work by Special Officer Hume. Thorne, who was also known in state as Dorsey, ought to have been hanged for the murder of Banker Cummings, but a sentimental jury fixed his punishment at life imprisonment. He is a confined criminal, whose reformstion is hopeless, so that it would have been far better for the world ... 2.50 had he been removed with a halter.

> A Mormon convicted at Provo for the second time of unlawful cohabitation remarked cynically that he might as well be in the This is a significant commentary on President Woodruff s statement that the Mormons were trying to obey the law, and that polygamy was a dead issue.

THE succession to the place of Justice Miller is one that occupies considerable portion of the public mind at present. The most prominent and able jurist who has A few days agoo an acount was been suggested to all the position given of a woman in Brooklyn, N. is Judge treesham. However his Y., named Esther Hammersmith | presidented aspirations will who had died of starvation rather probably ause him to refuse the place.
