

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE.

The Daily Herald will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it is procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Coming! Miss Neally Stevens! Concert Grand Piano!!! Celery at C. E. Brownell's. French keeps railroad time. A blind negro is 'doing' the city. Congressman Hermann is on his way to Oregon. Egan & Achison are selling monuments at 'Portland prices'.

We make 'em while you wait. Oyster cocktails at Bonick's. Coming! Miss Neally Stevens. H. F. Miller's concert grand piano. Try Mueller & Garrett's fine roast coffee; once used, always used. You can save money by buying your children's dresses ready made at the Ladies' Bazaar.

The only water filter that gives perfect satisfaction for sale by Matthews & Washburn. The Misses Wagner of Corvallis, were in the city yesterday on their way to the exposition. For a fine silk umbrella with a gold or silver handle call on French, (the corner jewelry store). Piano that gives perfect satisfaction you can find at Mrs. Hyman's.

Another invoice of the famous Denton county flour at Blackburn & Piron's at $1.05 per sack. Call now and give your order to M. S. Hyman for the juvenile book so they will be here for Xmas. $1.50 will buy you a pair of those elegant eight-button length undressed Mosquitoe kid gloves at the Ladies' Bazaar. Some of the latest styles of elegant bed lounges can be seen at Fortmiller & Irving's, as they have just received a large invoice.

If you want a durable monument go to Egan & Achison, who are handling nothing but the best grades. Have you seen those beautiful cement walls in the cemeteries, put up by Egan & Achison, at half the cost of stone. It is not surprising that Matthews & Washburn sell the most stoves from the fact that they carry the line of goods at prices that convince even the skeptical.

Lack of Power. It is a well known fact that one state railroad commission are not clothed with the authority that should rest with that august body. This of commanding influence was illustrated yesterday when the clerk of the commission (Geo. A. Wagoner and his fair daughter essayed to take the foreburg local train at the S. P. depot for Portland and the fair. The train was in motion when they arrived on the platform. With all the force of the commission the clerk ordered the train to stop. The ladies not having much faith in his power stepped aboard of the moving cars, and Clerk Wagoner seeing it would not stop late hold of the rear end of the rear coach and swinging himself and the dignity of the railroad commissioner on board. That commission should certainly have more power.

Letter of Recommendation. A letter received by the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in this city from Rev. E. J. Thompson, of Corvallis, says in regard to Bishop H. J. Becker, who will lecture in Albany Friday evening: I wish to congratulate the Y. M. C. A. in being able to secure Bishop H. J. Becker to give them his intensely eloquent and thrilling lecture, "Four Hundred Miles on Horseback in Palestine." He delivered this lecture in the Presbyterian church of this city to a large and delighted audience. Bishop Becker is a man of the highest scholarly attainments, a fluent and eloquent speaker, and a noble Christian gentleman. He has few, if any superiors as a lecturer. He will charm all who go to hear him.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

A New Letter From the "Herald." Correspondent at that Place.

Miss Kate Co-Low, on Thursday left for Portland. F. F. Craft on Tuesday returned home to Albany. H. B. Meyer, on Wednesday returned from Seattle. J. P. Howe and wife, returned home from Eugene. Improvements are daily going on in Hattenman's addition.

On Oct. 16, 1899, to the wife of Archie Blackburn, a son. Born, Oct. 14, 1907, to the wife of George Keeney, a son. Mrs. R. H. Curl, on Wednesday left for Seou, to visit relatives. James Wagner, of Portland is visiting friends at this place.

Link Simons, is confined to the house suffering from lung fever. G. A. Dyson and daughter, returned from Portland on Thursday. Miss Bessie Irwin, on Friday returned to Brownsville from Seattle. Frederick Gross, is confined to the house suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

J. A. Winters, has closed his photographic gallery at this place for the winter months. Mrs. William Blanchard, and daughter, on Friday returned home from Portland. R. M. Bradley and Isaac London, on Monday left for the Cascade mountains.

Mrs. A. J. Adams and daughter, on Tuesday left for Portland via the Oregonian R. R. Married, Oct. 22, 1907, by Rev. H. B. Elworthy, J. P. McFeron and Eva Mortimer. Rev. Renfro, late of California, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sabbath last.

Mr. Phogev, has leased the Arlington Hotel, and will take possession on the 10th of November. Dr. C. D. Osburn, is sufficiently recovered from an attack of rheumatism, to again tend to business. Died, Oct. 15, 1899, at his residence six miles east of Brownsville, Frank Malone, of heart disease.

Mrs. J. P. Corder and children, also Miss Cora Cox and Lizzie Hansman, on Friday left for Portland. Zander Hagen, who for some time past has suffered greatly from an attack of Rheumatic fever, is slowly convalescing. Daniel Gratehouse has moved upon the Thomas Ray farm, and will have charge of the property during the coming year.

J. Blyen, has rented the J. Francis house, lately occupied by E. W. Warner, who has removed to his new dwelling. At the C. P. church, South Brownsville, on Saturday evening, Revs. Renick and Parmer, officiated at a protracted meeting. F. Webber, on his property, situated in Galbraith's addition, is building a neat cottage residence to which he will shortly remove.

R. R. Templeton during the past week, purchased in Hattenman's addition, two lots, upon which he will erect a dwelling house. The M. E. church south, will during the week commence on their property in North Brownsville, to erect a spacious church building.

lease the property and it will continue to be operated as a hotel. Peter Rither during the past week met with a combination of good and bad luck, that he is not desirous of again experiencing; while employed upon the roof of his dwelling a plank upon which his feet rested gave way, and he fell precipitated a distance of twelve feet to the balcony below, from which he bounded to the ground, receiving a twenty-four foot fall, and remarkable as it may be, no serious injuries.

On the night of Friday last, at the junction of the Lebanon and Albany, and Oregonian R. R. a circumstance took place, that to the principal actor was fraught with nothing but the happiness of dizzy disposition. The hour of midnight, or thereabout, and as a party of belated hunters approached the box car that does duty as depot and hotel guard, they heard mysterious mutterings, intermingled with groans and sighs, that evidently emanated, from a soul by sadness harrowed and feeble fire which had been built upon the ground, in the shadow of the pilatid, deep?

They discovered a lone and weary individual, who with head on spread was willing to absorb what little heat he could from the flickering lamp, that alone kept him company, and the serious and weary hours dragged by made doubly so by the pen of an exhausted editor, and through the pen of a J. J. Adams, of "Lambton Express" began the habit of using such words, he says, "I wanted to avoid bad on this occasion," if I did get the full benefit of an exhausted "paper" ***

CIVIL COURT DOCKET.

Following is the civil court docket for the October term, which convenes Monday next. P. J. Porter, et al. vs. John C. Elder, et al, partition. Thomas Jefferson, vs. G. S. Montgomery, attachment. T. Dittenberfer, vs. Perry Smith, recovery of money. State of Oregon vs. James Ransom, burglary. Topfitz & Co. vs. Mary Coggill, recovery of money.

C. F. Cranwell, et al. vs. Daisie Keeney, et al, partition. Martha Pierce vs. Malinda Holkin, suit in equity. George J. Barner vs. Mary Coggill, recovery of money. S. C. Bennet vs. J. H. Wigle, on contract. W. H. H. Shields, et al. vs. T. J. Shields, et al, partition. John Grisham vs. H. N. and A. A. Dorthick, suit in equity. Capital National Bank vs. W. F. Crosby, recovery of money.

The Oregon Powder Company vs. Searls & Deane and the O. P. R. R. Co., garnishment. I. R. Dawson vs. Searls & Deane and O. P. R. R. Co., garnishment. Reischner, Mayer & Co. vs. Searls & Deane and O. P. R. R. Co., garnishment. Earl Race vs. Searls & Deane, attachment. Goldsmith & Rankle vs. Farmers & Merchants Insurance Company, recovery of money. A. Miller vs. Schooling & McDaniel. Johnson & Hebbelwhite vs. Farmers & Merchants Insurance Company, recovery of money. D. M. Osborne & Co. vs. R. N. Merrill, recovery of money. Robinson & West vs. H. F. Merrill and S. E. Young, suit to settle partnership. A. F. Goodrich vs. The Santiam Lumbering Company, recovery of money. Cora L. Young vs. J. C. Young, divorce. Ella W. Merrill vs. F. S. Merrill, divorce.

The Albany Farmers Company vs. S. S. McFadden, recovery of money. Ella H. Mendenhall vs. E. H. Belsaw, partition. C. G. Hickok vs. J. S. Antonelle, attachment. M. Rosenbush vs. The Farmers & Merchants Insurance Company, recovery of money. Ruel Custer vs. Margarette Custer, divorce. Josie Cox vs. Arthur Cox, divorce. W. A. Kinsey, et al. vs. S. W. M. Daniel, et al, partition. Angeline Reed, et al. vs. A. E. Bond, partition. J. S. Antonelle vs. Anna McNulty, suit in equity. Deacon Mortgage & Trust Co. vs. F. S. Thompson et al, foreclosure. John McCrow, guardian vs. H. B. Cole, recovery of money. Samuel Merritt vs. Farmers & Merchants Insurance Company, recovery of money. E. A. McAlister vs. city of Albany, claim damages. Odine & Hart vs. R. R. Templeton, recovery of money. S. Wietzenatz & Co. vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy to recover money. Jacob A. Stein vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. C. R. Thunston receiver vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. Zimmerman & Garrett vs. Chas. Packer, attachment.

In the matter of the assignment of Charles Parser, assignment. May & Sanders vs. W. T. McGrath, attachment. James C. Bond vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. R. H. Hubble vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. Given vs. Given, divorce. Ed. Zeys vs. S. S. McFadden, foreclosure. Mary Ellen Banta vs. Isaac Banta, divorce. P. W. Spink vs. W. H. Newman and M. P. Newman, to recover money.

Rebecca Smith vs. Thomas Smith, divorce. Ella M. Mack vs. Frank Mack, divorce. Board of commissioners for the sale of school land and J. H. Robb vs. James Riley et al., suit to correct deed. Robert H. Benezorne vs. G. W. Blackman, to recover money. John A. Crawford vs. J. D. Parsons and Matilda A. Parsons, to recover money.

Mary J. Garrett vs. Robert B. Garrett, divorce. Rozana M. Harrison vs. Chas. M. Harrison, divorce. Joseph Wild et al. vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. Moyer Bros. vs. Robinson & West, action on policy. James C. Hardin vs. Carrie Hardin, divorce. Jerry Hay vs. J. P. Schooling, appeal from justice's court. Jesse L. Adams vs. Mary A. Adams, divorce. Devoe & Robson vs. R. R. Humphrey and N. B. Humphrey, to recover money. Devoe & Robson vs. C. G. Stahl, recovery of money. W. H. Goitra vs. Charles E. Lehler, recovery of money. F. M. Kizer vs. J. L. Caviness and C. E. Caviness, to correct title. Gustav Abraham vs. Eggert Eggers, to recover money. W. H. McCoy et al. vs. J. B. McCoy et al., suit in equity. John A. Crawford vs. F. E. Goodman, foreclosure. A. L. Lillard vs. E. H. Rhodes, to recover money. D. D. Campbell vs. W. A. Bodine, to recover money. A. H. Davis and Wenchendon Savings Bank vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., to recover money. Geo. W. McKnight and Frank E. McKnight vs. Geb. C. Hinder, suit to recover money. Marx & Jorgensen vs. T. Blew, to recover money. Albany Iron Works vs. J. W. Brown & Son, to recover money. I. R. Dawson, assignee of D. M. Smith insolvent debtor, vs. J. W. Brown & Son, to recover money. Miller & Hoffman vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., to recover money. C. F. Cranwell, et al. vs. B. F. Thayer and W. J. Trainer, to recover money. S. A. Crowder vs. Sarah A. Crowder, divorce. Stewart & Sox vs. W. H. Millhollen, to recover money. A. H. Marshall vs. Earl Race, recovery of money. D. F. Letsinger et al. vs. George Rowell et al., injunction. Maria A. Ranson vs. Charles J. Stewart, to recover money. J. W. Gaines et al. vs. Linn county and J. M. Hassler et al., writ of review.

In the matter of the assignment of Earl Race. Devoe & Robson vs. Wm. M. Rainey, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. B. F. Potter, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. A. L. Lillard, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. J. H. Campbell, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. D. F. Letsinger and B. F. Parsons, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. William Reeves, recovery of money. Price & Robson vs. R. Marsh and H. Miller, recovery of money. Devoe & Robson vs. D. Shelley, recovery of money. John Diamond vs. Margaret E. Findley, foreclosure. F. D. Scammou vs. Frank Ingram, damage. Hart Saddlery Co. vs. Maltby & Carey, recovery of money. S. Newburg vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. J. Franks vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. St. Louis Electric Power Co. vs. The Farmers & Merchants Ins. Co., action on policy. State of Oregon vs. John O. Boyd, selling liquor without license.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

Charles Hill, the Jefferson boy, who applied the torch to the China house in that city, was finally acquitted in the circuit court at Salem. At Woodburn on Sunday a laboring man, recently from the east and out of work, committed suicide by hanging himself to the limb of a tree. He had a pair of gloves and 26 cents in money in his pocket. The senatorial committee appointed by the last legislature to draft a new assessment law, are hard at work in Salem upon the bill. Apparently they are bound to bring in a report of the marriage tax law as part of the bill, which is all some persons want of them. They had better leave that part of the business severely alone.

Mr. Thomas W. Keene, whose dramatic ability is beyond question, has been excelled in personality or magnetic influence, is to-day of the admittedly great tragedians on the American stage. One who through his talent and painstaking and discriminating efforts has attained an enviable eminence as a tragedian. Mr. Keene will present his great characterization of Richard III. on next Saturday evening. Goins & Thomas, run the Jefferson Flour Mill, and have flour and feed of all description on hand. Send in your orders. Notes of Albany Cigar Factory. If you want a real choice smoke try our 10 cent. Why smoke a Chinese made cigar now that you can get a far superior one at J. Joseph's cigar factory, made by white labor? Our 10 cent Havana filled white labor cigars. We make a specialty of selling cigars of our own make by the box at factory prices. Fine Meerscham and Briar pipes and a full assortment of smokers' articles.

Don't miss at weights any longer. Buy a better scale than that way in one year to pay for a good scale. Go to Stewart & Sox and price their scales of all kinds. We keep nothing but the famous barrel-churn. There is nothing so good, and no one can beat us on price. STEWART & SOX. Don't buy an iron harrow until you see our Stewart & Sox. It will pay you to see this. We carry none but pure manilla, and can give you any size from 1-4 to 1-12. All sizes of chain from 2 1/2 to 1-2. STEWART & SOX. We are sole agents in this city for the best flour on the market. The Benton Full Roller, Corvallis new flouring mill. It is the best and cheapest at $1.10 per sack. Blackburn & Pironi. Save one-third of your horse feed by using a feed cutter. Stewart & Sox have four kinds for sale. CARPENTERS & BUILDERS. On ware line will do well to call on Stewart & Sox before purchasing elsewhere. They keep nearly everything in the line of builders hardware, and a magnificent stock of tools. LADIES' ATTENTION. We want to have the best shawls and scarves in this city, and we can give it to you at any time. Every pair warranted and they can be returned if they do not give satisfaction. This is no brag or bluster, we mean what we say. STEWART & SOX. We have three kinds and can give you something as well like. Bring your "chatter half" around and see what we can do for you. STEWART & SOX. We keep on hand a large assortment of all the best hats, for men and boys, and also a large lot of hats, in price from 50c to $20. There isn't a better lot of "material" for hats in the valley. We also have a lot that we want. STEWART & SOX. CATARH cured, health and sweet breath secured, by Shilo's Catarrh Remedy. Price 50 cents. Nasal Inj. 50c. Sold by Postday & Son. WANTED—Agents for real estate, both male and female. See by employment and send pay. Apply to E. Burkhardt, real estate agent, opposite First National Bank.

Wanted to sell 5 yoke good work cattle with yoke chains and etc. Cattle all young and in good condition. For full particulars write or call on Wilamette Pulp & Paper Co. P. O. Box No. 72, Oregon City, Oregon. When you want to go east see Burkhardt & Keeney. They can get you tickets to any and all points at the lowest rates.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

At the Marquam Grand. There was but one general expression last evening from the immense audience that crowded the Marquam to witness Clara Morris in "Camille," and that expression was "superb." Never before in the history of Portland was an audience swayed to and fro in sympathetic unison by an actress. The rendition of "Camille" was looked upon as being more in reality than in mere stage mimic. Miss Morris is a great actress, her equal is not known to-day on the American stage in the rendition of the character of "Camille." The play is an old one, we know of the heartless coquette, the heart-suffering, mental anguish and great self-sacrifice that Camille undergoes, but you will never realize the author's full measure of intensity until you have seen the Camille of Clara Morris. In her first support the portrayal of Armond by Mr. J. M. Colville was a fine piece of acting, and was greeted with applause and a curtain call in the fourth act. He is an excellent support to the great actress. The remainder of the company did ample justice in the roles assigned them, each had a mission to fill and they did it well.—Examiner.

NEW CLOTHING STORE!

Citizens of Linn and adjoining counties: We greet you one and all, and extend to you a cordial invitation to attend at our new store

NEW FIRM! NEW GOODS!! NEW PRICES!!!

The grandest opening and most colossal exhibition of Men's, Youths' and Children's clothing ever before exhibited in the Willamette Valley. Our opening is destined to open a new epoch in the clothing trade of this state. We have searched the market from far and wide, and will display the finest line of goods that America produces. Having gone into the market with ready cash we were enabled to buy good clothing of the very best factories and largest importers in the United States at such prices as will absolutely defy competition.

Our Stock Of Men's Clothing

Is simply incomparable. Our stock of Youths', Boys and Children's clothing far above what we had expected to obtain, while our Furnishing Goods Department is complete in every respect. A full line of overcoats at low prices.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

In boots and shoes we have made careful selection of the most celebrated brands made by the very best manufacturers in the East, and are enabled to display the finest line of these goods ever brought to this city.

Now For Terms,

OUR TERMS WILL BE CASH, and that's why we are enabled to sell you goods cheap. WE BUY FOR CASH, and by doing so are enabled to get the very best goods at the most reasonable discount. We believe that a store run on the cash system where GOOD GOODS can be bought CHEAP is a store that will supply a felt want in this community. Bidding you all once more a cordial invitation to attend our grand opening Oct. 24th, or to call at any time while in the city and inspect our stock, we will be most respectfully yours,

T. L. WALLACE & CO., STRAHAN BLOCK, ALBANY, OR.

Notes of Albany Cigar Factory. If you want a real choice smoke try our 10 cent. Why smoke a Chinese made cigar now that you can get a far superior one at J. Joseph's cigar factory, made by white labor? Our 10 cent Havana filled white labor cigars. We make a specialty of selling cigars of our own make by the box at factory prices. Fine Meerscham and Briar pipes and a full assortment of smokers' articles.

We Want Your Trade,

You Want Our Goods Provided we can make it to your Interest.

Most everyone boasts of their business but to our friends and patrons we assert as a fact that we have one of the most complete stocks of staple groceries in this city.

We Have Everything to Be Found in a Firstclass Grocery Store

Thanking all our patrons and friends for their patronage, we hope by honest dealing and prompt attendance, to merit a continuance of the same. Call and get prices and inspect goods.

BLODGETT AND SON, ALBANY, OREGON.

THE GREAT CLARA MORRIS, Albany Opera House

Friday, Oct. 21. ———— CAMILLE. America's Greatest Emotional Actress, Supported by a Talented Company. Reserved seats on sale at Will & Link's.

Take the Northern Pacific Railroad to all points East, shortest line of the road. No change of cars, best accommodations and the most pleasant route to travel. Tickets for sale over this road to any and all points east at the lowest rates by Burkhardt & Keeney who are the authorized agents of this company at Albany. Call on them for tickets and full particulars.