THE BIG BEND.

Reports From There Tell of Indian Murders.

FOILED THE BURGLARS.

Fatal Run a Way—The Sioux Looking for the New Messick—Mark Twains' Mother Dead.

SPOKANE FALLS, Oct. 27 —Dispatches are in from Wilbur in the Big Bend country in report to the murder of S. S. Cole, a freighter by Colville Indians. Cole left Cumming's ferry on Oct. 11, on his return to Wilbur, and has not since been seen. His bloodstained wagon and hobbled horses were found, but diligent search has failed to find the missing man. He had considerable money and the Indians saw him receive it a few days prior to his departure. The Indians held up another freighter and robbed him. The whole country is being scoured and a call has been made on Agent Cole for the surrender of inspected Indians.

SHE FOILED THE BURGLARS.

A Plucky Girl Wounds One and Captured the Other.

LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 27.—Two burglars attempted to rob the residence of John K. Connelly, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The first person who discovered the robbers was Mamie, his 18-year-old daughter, who heard a peculiar noise in the lower part of the house. She had retired for the night, but she immediately arose, and, making her way to her father's smoking room, took a revolver from a drawer and proceeded to the room from which the noise had come Here she saw that burglars had entered the main body of the house. Upon following them she found a hard-looking specimen of manhood, who, later on, proved to be Tobin, a notorious Boston crook. He was just rifling the drawer of Mr. Connelly's desk when Mamie entered the room and shouted: "Either surrender or I will shoot." The ruffian sprang upon the girl, who proved equal to the emergency and emptied two chambers of the revolver into him, one of the bullets striking him just above the left lung, bringing him to the ground. At this point his accomplice, who was on the watch outside, entered the house to assist his fallen pal, but the plucky girl covered him with her weapon and he began begging for mercy. She forced him to sit down until the man occupants of the house had been aroused, when he was handed over to the police for safe keeping.

KNOCKS IT COMPLETELY OUT

The Stiffening of the Long and Short Haul Clause.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—A lengthy decision of the inter-state commerce commission, made by Bragg, commissioner, was announced today, in the case of Geo. Rice, agent of the Southern Pacific Railway, and the Union Pacific Railway Company, the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company and others, in reference to the rates on petroleum and its products, to California points, as affected by the long and short clause. The decision is in favor of rail lines and maintains the position that under the act to regulate commerce they have the right to make lower rates to California water and terminal points, on this kind of traffic, to meet the competition of water lines without reducing their rates to the same level at the intermediate points where such competition exists.

A DETACHED FREIGHT.

Cattle and Horses Mangled and Killed.

YUMA, Col., Oct. 27.—A freight train on the Burlington, in Yuma county, was ditched this morning. Fifteen cars, loaded with cattle and horses, were completely wrecked, and the animals was so badly mangled that they will die. A man named Martin accompanying the stock was killed; many others were killed.

New Orleans' Drainage Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Ex-president Cleveland to-day made the argument before the supreme court, as associate counsel for Jas. W. Peake, which is known as the New Orleans' drainage case. The court room was filled with members of the bar and general public, impatient crowds awaited outside for an opportunity to enter. When Mr. Cleveland entered he was heartily greeted by ex-Attorney General Garland and ex-Secretary Bayard, while Justice Lamar bowed from his bench to which he had been appointed by his lawyer, who now sat before him waiting to plead a case.

Result of a Runaway.

SPOKANE FALLS, Oct. 27.—D. M. Drumheller, one of the most prominent bankers of this city, was dangerously injured in runaway accident to-day. A wild team dashed into his carriage. The full extent of his injuries are not yet known, but it is feared he has received internal injuries.

DROWNED IN THE TIDE.

Too Much Demi John Caused His Death.

PORTLAND, Oct. 27 —Chris. C. Miller, aged 63, was found dead on Coon Island in the Columbia river yesterday. The body was found lying on and partially covered with sand, perhaps five feet from the waters' edge. His boat was also on the beach and in it were two demijohns of liquor and on the beach an empty demijohn was found. The supposition is that Miller drank too freely of the liquor and falling near the waters' edge was drowned by high tide. The body was brought here to-day and the coroner held an inquest. As there were no marks of violence the jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

New Board Appointed.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—The mayor this afternoon appointed a new non-partisan board of public improvements in accordance with an act of the legislature just passed. The members of the old board have asked the courts for an injunction, holding that the special legislation in the case was unconstitutional.

The World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Secretary Windom to-day determined to call a meeting of the lady managers of the world's fair at Chicago November 18. They will receive $6 per day and expenses.

Recount for New York Denied,

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Secretary of the Interior Noble to-day rendered a decision denying the application of Mayor Grant for a re-enumeration of the population of the city of New York.

The Grain Supply.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The visible supply of grain is as follows: Wheat, 19,715,000, increase, 1,107,000; corn, 726,000, decrease, 1,053,000; oats, 4,125,000, decrease, 199,000; rye, 631,000, increase, 24,000; barley, 4,809,000, increase, 331,000.

G. A. R. Appointment.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—Commander in Chief Veazy, of the G. A. R., announces the appointment of William Lochereau, Minneapolis judge, advocate general.

Twain's Mother Dead.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Jane Clements, mother of Mark Twain, died this evening, aged 87.

Fortmiller & Irving are carrying an immense stock of wall paper and supplying a large demand in that line.

He Cleaned Up The Office.

Picked up by The Toledo Blade.

Dave Pitcard used to edit a weekly newspaper in a little town not a hundred miles from Cleveland It did not require all Dave's time to write the editorials, so he hunted up the local news, helped stick type and on press days took his turn at the hand-press, just for exercise. One day Dave was lo king over the exchanges and ever and anon cutting out squares and parallelograms, when in came a straping big fellow whose scowling countenance and careless manners of shutting the door would have convinced the uninitiated that he was after satisfaction. Dave laid down his paper, stuck the scissors in his pocket and smilingly said: "Good morning, sir."

"That ain't got a d—d bit of bearin' on the object of my visit; I'm in here to clean out this office." "Good boy; you're just the man I'm looking for; you'll find a broom and a sprinkler behind the door. Don't make any more dust than you can help." "Old luny, you think I'm jokin', do you? It won't be more'n a small numerator with a big denominator fraction of a second till you'll know that I'm as serious as a death sentence. The kind of renovation' that I'm about to do for you is to shake out your forms, stir up your galleys and paint a nimbus cloud over them lynx eyes of yours. That's what's goin' to engage my attention for the next half hour," and the big fellow kicked the paper-cutter over and distributed a galley of dead 'ads' over the floor.

"You will find a broom behind the door, my accommodating friend," said Dave, raising a heavy six-shooter," and you may take said broom and clean out this office according to your first proposition and the better you do your work the lighter I'll pull on this trigger. See?"

"Drop that mortar. I was only jokin,'" said the big fellow, trying to avoid the range of the gun.

"Freeze onto that broom."

"I made a mistake; this ain't the dentist's office, is it?"

"Work that sweeping machine."

"I've dehn drinking."

"Operations must begin in half a second."

"My littl girl's sick, and she's cryin' for her father."

"In a quarter of a second the devil will have a form to carry out."

"Pity my crippled wife."

"And this paper will get the first scoop of the accident."

"Hold on! hold on! I'll sweep her up?" And the fellow seized the broom and made the dirt fly like a street-cleaner. When he had finished Dave escorted him to the street, and after making him promise to call again, bade him goodbye.

RAILROAD DEAL.

The Indians Are Making Rapid Advancement.

DIGGING UP HUGE SCANDAL

More Striking—"Mayor Grant Gets No Re-Enumeration"—Telegraph Men Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—A morning paper says James McLean, president of the Colorado, Utah and Pacific railway, arranged with the Manhattan Trust company to get financial aid in building a new road from Denver to Salt Lake City. The projected road is from Denver to Boulder and across the continental divided at Buchanan's Pass, running through Middle Park, thence to steamboat Springs and over Goose Range to Green River, Provo and Salt Lake. The length of the road from Denver to Salt Lake will be 440 miles, which is 286 miles shorter than the Denver & Rio Grande. The Colorado, Utah & Pacific claims to have about $20,000,000 back of it There will be a tunnel 3000 feet long on the projected line just before Middle Park is reached.

INDIAN ADVANCEMENT.

An Official Attempt to Better the Condition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Commissioner Morgan, of the Indian bureau, in his annual report says that for the last ten years there has been real progress in the right direction in the Indian question, and that the outlook for the future is encouraging. "It has become" he says, "a settled policy of the government to break up revolutions and tribal relations, settle Indians upon their own homestead, incorporate them into natural life and deal with them, not as nations or tribes or bands, but as individual citizens. The American Indian is to become the Indian Americans. The Indians themselves are coming to understand the present policy of government and are showing increasing readiness, and even desire to adjust themselves to it. The commissioner says that he believes public schools are the most effective means of Americanizing our foreign population. He is desirous of bringing the Indian school system into close relation with that of public schools, not only so, but whenever possible he is placing Indian pupils in public schools. He favors compulsory education for Indian children. At date of the last annual report there were 133 Indian reservations in the United States, having an aggregate area of 116,000,000 acres.

STRIKE IN ST. PAUL.

All the Western Union Operators Walk Out.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 27.—All the operators, 37 in number, in the Western Union Telegraph Company office in this city, struck at eight o'clock to-night, and all the company's wires into the city are idle. The walkout is on account of the discharge by the company a few days ago of six operators, supposed to belong to the brotherhood. The discharged men called on Superintendent McMichael, in Minneapolis, this afternoon to try effect an agreement but were not recognized and the strike is the result.

The telegraph company sent at once for a day force to take the night men's places, but the strikers met them on the street and kept most of them from going to work. The majority of 150 operators employed by the Western Union in the city are members of the brotherhood, and it is asserted that all the day men belonging to the organization will go out in the morning. Men here think the Western Union operators in Chicago and Omaha will also strike to-morrow.

Killed By Her Husband's Mistress

LONDON, Oct. 27.—It is probable the police will succeed in clearing away the mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Hogg, whose body was found Friday night in South Hampsted. Mrs. Nellie Piercey, whom Mrs. Hogg visited Friday, and whose house showed traces of a desperate struggle, and who was consequently arrested, was arraigned in the police court to-day for preliminary hearing. The husband of the murdered woman testified that a liason existed between himself and the prisoner. He had a latch key to her house, and frequently visited her. He thought his wife did not know of his relations with Mrs. Piercey. Further investigation of the kitchen at the Piercey residence reveals that a fierce struggle had taken place there, and that an effort had been made to remove the blood stains on the floor and about the room by the use of paraffine.

Another Strike.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Four hundred steam fitters, comprising 90 per cent. of the union men in the city, struck this morning for eight hours, for 10 per cent. advance in wages and the recognition of the union.

A BIG DEAL.

They Rake in the Coin With Nonchalance.

DENVER, Oct. 27.—The United States marshal arrested James Pierce and William M. Stutt, on a charge of running a fraudulent real estate business at Plainfield, an addition to Denver, 30 miles from here on the Denver & Fort Worth railroad. In September, 1889, a thousand circulars were distributed throughout the country, announcing that the company were giving away lots for the price of recording them, say $2.50 and two cents for a postage stamp, which was necessary to return the deed. The only house within six miles of Plainfield is Pierce's own house. The county recorder received 90 cents for each deed and the company pocketed the balance. By this deal the company had cleared nearly $8000, a great deal more than they paid for the whole property. The recorder has made over $3000.

Commercial Gazette Sold.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 27.—It is announced, upon reliable authority, that Murat Halstead, who owns a controlling interest in the Commercial Gazette, sold to Brocker a portion of his holdings. General Alger and J. S. Clarkson has been guessed as some purchasers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Murat Halstead admitted this afternoon that he had agreed to sell his interest in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. He said: "Rumor that connects with the transaction, the names of two distinguished politicians is without any foundation.

Killed by His Partner.

NOGALES, Oct. 27.—James Farrell, a well-known mining man, and until a few days ago, manager for the Imris Mine Company, was shot and killed yesterday by a carpenter named Rood, claiming to be part owner of some mines sold by Farrell, and as such demanding a division.

They Combine For Protection.

FINDLAY, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Gradual, but constant the decrease in price of the Ohio product by the Standard Oil Company, has at last forced independent producers and refiners of Northwestern Ohio to combine. To this end the movement began to-day. Looking toward consolidation, a number of refineries and producing companies for natural protection.

Election in Greece.

ATHENS, Oct. 27.—A general parliamentary election was held in Greece to day. The government was defeated, retaining only one-third of the seats.

Dried Fruit.

I am prepared to pay the highest market price, in trade or cash or choice dried fruits of all kinds.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association holds a business meeting next Friday evening, at which time the various committees appointed by the president will report. It is necessary for all the members to be present that they may become intelligent with reference to the affairs of the Association. Not only the members are urged to be present, but any one, lady or gentleman, who is interested in the establishment of a Christian home for the young men. The ladies will be welcomed always at any business meeting of Association. It is intended to have all these meetings open to the public, and all who care for the elevation of the young men in this city should let that feeling be known by their presence at the meetings. The Association would be only too glad if the ladies of the city would form what is known as a ladies auxiliary, the duties of which are to help make the rooms attractive by those arts known only to the feminine hand, and to help in entertainments and sociables. Let all who believe in the work of the Y. M. C. A. be present in the hall next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Height of Clouds.

London Daily News.

Professor Moller of Carlsruhe has made some interesting observation on clouds. The highest clouds, cirrus and cirro-stratus, rise on an average to a height of nearly 30,000 feet. The middle clouds keep at from 10 000 feet to 23,000 feet in height while the lower clouds reach to between 3000 feet and 7000 feet. The cumulus clouds with there lower surface at a height of from 4000 to 5000 feet, while there summits rise to 16,000 feet. The tops of the Alps are often hidden by clouds of the third class, but the bottom of the clouds of the second class, and especially of the thunder clouds, often enfolds them. The vertical dimensions of a cloud observed by professer Moller on the Netleberg was over 1200 feet; he stepped out of it at a height of about 3700 feet, and high above the moutain floated clouds of the middle class, while veils of mist lay in the ravines and clefts. The upper clouds were growing thicker, while the lower ones were dissolving, and soon it began to rain and snow,

BRIBERY CHARGED.

Long and Short Haul Clause Ousted.

MEETING OF LIBERALS.

Shooting Scrape in St. Louis—Non-Partisan Board—Interfered in a Domestic Row and Was Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Robert E. Pattison, democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, swore out warrants of arrest this morning for criminal libel against the publisher and editor of the Enquirer, proprietor of the North American and publisher and editor of the Harrisburg Call. A hearing will be given this afternoon. The three papers mentioned published Saturday morning charges that Pattison was bribed by the Vanderbilts to sign what were known as the South Pennsylvania bills of '83, and that the governor sought out and retained ex-Judge Jeremiah S. Black to write the veto message, and having received it with the understanding that it was to be sent to the legislature. He changed his mind by the next morning and without notice to Judge Black approved the bills, and Jude Black denounced Governor Pattison for this alleged deception, and severed all amicable relations with him. The article also charged that $30,000 in stock had been paid Governor Pattison and Attorney General Lewis S. Cassidy for the signing of the bill chartering the Pitteburg Natural Gas Corporation.

A SHOOTING AFFRAY.

One Man Killed and Others Wounded.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—A shooting affray, which resulted in the killing of one and the wounding of several others occurred on the levee this afternoon. An old feud existed between John McCune, a negro steamboat roustabout, and Byron Scott, captain of the watch. As Scott was walking up the levee he met McCune and two other negroes. McCune drew a knife and made a hostile movement towards Scott, when the latter pulled a revolver and fired four shots in rapid succession and McCune dropped dead. The other two men, Abe Thomas and Walter Stevenson, received serious wounds. Scott, who is also a negro, was arrested.

KILLED FOR INTERFERING.

Great Excitement in a Georgia Town Over a Murder.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 27.—There is great excitement at Hiawassee, Ga., over the murder of Joseph Gibson, a prominent citizen, who was killed Saturday night. Gibson left Hiawassee Saturday morning and nothing was heard from him until twelve hours later, when his dead body was found a mile from town near the house of a man named M. L. Amous, who is the suspected murderer.

Amous comes from North Carolina and has been studying for the ministry. Gibson, it seems, saw Amous beating his wife and remonstrated with him, at which he became very angry. Gibson's throat was cut from ear to ear. Lynching parties have been formed to hunt for Amous.

Meeting of Liberals.

EDINBURGH, Oct. 27.—A meeting of liberals was held here to day at which Gladstone delivered an address. He said the liberal party were prepared for the expression of the country's opinion regarding home rule before announcing the premature scheme. He urged the people to closely watch the naval and military expenditures, which, he declared, had gone beyond the bounds of prudence and prosperity. Referring to the foreign policy of government, Gladstone blamed Salisbury for sending the accredited envoy to Vatician and the sending of Simmons to consult with the Pope regarding the rights of the Catholic church in Malta, which came dangerously near to supporting the Papal claims to clerical dominion over a part of Italy. Referring to home politics Gladstone said there were seven test questions apart from that of home rule for Ireland, namely, temperance, eight hour day, dis-establishment of the Scotch church, dis-establishment of the Welch church, womens suffrage, home rule for Scotland and allotments, but he cautioned the liberal party against dividing one large family into seven small ones by declining to support a candidate who does not accept a particular test.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Some Old Ones Are Found to Be False.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—The Globe says the politicians are greatly excited over the discovery of glaring inaccuracies in the congressional elections of two years ago, which those investigating the matter find it difficult to explain, except on the ground of carelessness. The discrepancies in one district alone are over 1000 votes. Interesting developments are promised soon,
