The jury in the case of F. Wood vs. Trainer & Thayer, contractors, rendered a peculiar verdict yesterday. Mr. Wood brought suit to recover $400 damages due for stone used in the foundation of the Oregon Bank. The jury, however, returned a verdict against the plaintiff in the sum of $7.50.

Mr. Kent has been digging a well in the lower part of the city for several days and yesterday reached a depth of 17 feet, when he struck a vein of water that came near submerging him. It filled the well so rapidly that he was compelled to secure the services of No. Two's steamer to keep it pumped out in order that he might put down the tubing.

It was a cruel hearted lad, who, wandering listlessly down a street yesterday afternoon, espied two nickels in the tin cup of the blind musician, who had industriously all the afternoon played such tunes as "Where is my Boy To Night," "For my Mother Told Me So," etc., for hastily reaching into his pocket for a brass button he dropped it heavily into the cup, removed the two nickels for change, and hurried on down to join his companions and tell of his fortunate financing.

Music for lunch and the evening. Singing, recitations, selected readings, games, fun, etc., will be the order of the evening. Admission, gentlemen 25 cents; ladies free. Each gentleman requested and expected to bring a lady.

COMMITTEE.

A Close Election.

Joseph Webber sent recently to San Francisco for a first class barber. Yesterday he received a letter from the gentleman stating that he had accepted Mr. Webber's terms but could not start for Albany until after election (to-day) as his vote might be needed in the footings of the general result. The election was so deemed very close when a close barber cannot be secured from a large city as San Francisco.

Seriously Ill.

Several days since Mrs. C. S. Woodworth of Salem, quite well known in this city, was stricken with paralysis, and no hopes are now entertained for her recovery.

Mrs. Woodworth is quite a talented lady, having written for many years over the nom de plume of "Chemetka."

Church Dedication.

The Universalist church in this city has recently been fitted with electric lights and other modern improvements, and next Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, will be formally dedicated by Rev. Dana Thomas of Portland. The public is cordially invited.

Crazy Drunk.

August Winters, a sewer digger in the employ of Jay Laurent, became gloriously drunk last Saturday night and made the street lively until gathered in by Marshal Hoffman. Three days in the city jail is the time he is now serving.

Holiday Book.

Ladies call Mrs. Hyman's and give your order for the juvenile book for Christmas. The latest out.

Who pays the freight why Matthews & Washburn, they have paid the freight on two carloads of stoves and ranges since September 1st, 1890 and have another carload on the way.

Matthews & Washburn desire to say to the parties who failed to secure the covers they wanted out of our first car for this year on the way here and will have them in our salesroom about November 15th.

There are many accidents and diseases which affect stock and cause inconvenience and loss to the farmer in his work, which may be remedied by the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment.
