THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8, 1890.

By the grace and favor of Almighty God the people of this nation have been led to the closing days of a passing year, which has been full of the blessings of peace and the comforts of plenty. Bountiful compensation has come to us for the work of our minds in every department of human industry. Now, therefore, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November, to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving, and I do invite the people upon that day, to cease from their labors, to meet in their accustomed houses of worship and to join in rendering gratitude and praise to our beneficent Creator for the rich blessings he has granted us as a nation and invoking the continuance of his protection and grace for the future.

I commend to my fellow citizens the privilege of remembering the poor, homeless and sorrowful. Let us endeavor to merit the recompense of charity and gracious acceptance of our praise. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety, and the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifteenth.

[SEAL.] BENJAMIN HARRISON.
By the President: JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

THE suiciding mania seems to be growing in its numbers and virulency; every paper we pick up has more or less reports of this nature, often very sensational ones. Some statistical genius has evolved the fact that in Europe all of these forced deaths are a matter of record. Germany, grouped according to nationalties, stands at the head with 150 suicides per million; Scandinavia, 128; France, 116; the Sclava, 40; the Roman people, 27, and Ireland 99 to 93. In Germany, Saxony has the greatest percentage, which increased between 1874 and 1879 from 251 to 334 per million. The same percentage is said to apply to Prussia, the self-destruction being caused by "wild living," chiefly induced by drink, by loss of wealth and by melancholy.

A LIMIT to the session of the legislature is a very good arrangement, and the Tribune commends Wyoming for following the example of some of the states, including Oregon, in fixing a limit. It says: "Wyoming has profited by the experience of some of the older States and has decided to limit the session of its legislature to forty days. The idea is a good one. All the legislation Wyoming needs, or probably ever will need, can be accomplished in a six-weeks' session. The tendency of the times is toward too much legislation rather than too little. More than one of the Eastern states would be glad to have a time limit set upon the sessions of its law making body.

THE Peruvian authorities have taken an unique method of controlling the importation of opium into that country. The government has just issued a decree prohibiting its landing at any other port of the republic except Callao. Presented for entry at any other point on the coast it will be confiscated. Still the Peruvian customs inspectors will find it very difficult to deal successfully with the agile Asiatics who import the drug. They have so far eluded the best officers in our customs-houses along the Pacific coast, and they will probably do the same with our Peruvian friends.

THE dispatches from several Eastern States are still full of conflicting claims, and it is probable that another week will be needed to settle some of these. When the returns are all in the democratic sweep will no doubt be somewhat less. For instance, Michigan, which was thought to have gone over bodily to the democracy, is found to be largely republican, nearly the entire state ticket being elected.

THE return to this country of Hon. Robert Lincoln, our Minister to England, turns out not to have any political or other significance, but simply to lay the remains of his son, who died in London, in the tomb, at Springfield, Ill., of the boys grandfather, Abraham Lincoln, for whom the boy was named. Minister Lincoln and family will return to England in two months, for which length of time he has leave of absence. He is making a most popular and efficient deplomat at the court of St James.

THE difficulties of a teachers position is a well known fact, but in some instances the trials on temper and good nature lead to some very eccentric conclusions. For instance it is said that a school teacher in Philadelphia has secured the aversion of her pupils by ordereing the girls not to wear bracelets. She says the practice excites the envy of those who don't wear them. This decision is like that recently made by a Western teacher, who expelled a well-behaved but very handsome girl from school because her beauty was a disturbing element.

ACCORDING to the latest information from Rio de Janeiro, one of the first subjects that will come up before the new congress, after its organization two weeks hence, is the reduction of the export duty on coffee. This will be the first step on the part of the new republic in the direction of meeting the offer of reciprocity made by this country.

It is estimated that the number of eggs annually consumed by the people of the United States is 1,820,000,000 dozen. Estimating these at the low value of 12 cents per dozen, this article of food costs our citizens not less than $218,400,-000 annually.

THE total exports of iron and steel from Great Britain to all countries in the first eight months of the present year amounted to 2,760,253 gross tons, as compared with 2,725,933 tons in the first eight months of 1889.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator One Dose
WORTH
100 Dollars

DEAR S. L. R: I consider one dose Simmons Liver Regulator worth $100. I was constipated, had Headache, could eat nothing with satisfaction or appetite had the blues, and felt altogether out of sorts. I resorted to Blue Mass, Calomel, Quinine, and every remedy suggested, but only obtained temporary relief. One dose of S L R did me more good than $100 worth of doctors and doctoring. Resp'y, J C MARTIN.

I have been a teacher for twenty years, and during that time have had repeated attacks of headache, produced by torpid Liver, and have been entirely cured by Simmons Liver Regulator. I found it to be of so mild a character in its action not to interfere, in the least with my duties in the school room, to those similarly situated and subject to the same, I earnestly and highly recommend Simmons Liver Regulator.
