The printers in the West Side office at Independence struck for higher wages, and were immediately discharged.

A trio of three animals, two bears and a dirty Italian, made fun for the small boys on the street yesterday.

At the entertainment to be given by the Ladies Aid Society on the 26th inst. Miss Lena Willis, of Salem, will sing.

Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy and care at Hulin & Dawson's drug store, French's corner.

Messrs Crawford & Paxton took eleven different views of the recent railroad wreck, and they have already sold over two hundred pictures.

The new parsonage for the Baptist church is about completed and will be ready for occupancy by the new pastor, Rev. Hill, in a short time.

ON THE WRECK.

An Excited Man Nearly Causes Another Death.

G. W. Tutill representative of the Russell and Morgan Printing Company of Cincinnati, Ohio is in the city. Mr. Tutill was one of the very few fortunate people who were on the ill-fated train yet escaped uninjured. He was the first to light a lamp in one of the Pullman coaches and his was a laughable story connected with the wreck, the principal participant of which was a very excited man.

ACCIDENTLY KILLED.

A Little Boy Accidentally Shoots a Companion.

A 13-year-old son of D. B. Dickinson quite well known in this country, but now living near Yoncalla was accidentally shot and killed. He had gone to stay over night with a neighbor's boy whose parents had gone to visit a neighbor. The boys were not to touch the guns, they were loaded, but during the evening they concluded to examine a shotgun, which by some means was discharged, the content passing through the shoulder and neck of young Dickinson. The wounded boy would not allow his companion to leave him to go for assistance, and they stayed all night alone. He died Sunday evening. It was a sad accident, and the bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

ANOTHER GHOST.

This Time it Appears in the Third Edition.

We are not to be disappointed for although the next ghost was over-due a week, it has at last appeared in the lower part of the city. Unlike its predecessors it wears a black hood and carries on its breast a small bright light resembling a fire-fly. School children will not venture out in its locality and housewives now milk before night-fall, or not at all. It should be consigned to Portugal where it is said that but 18 per cent, of the total population can read or write, and it is no wonder that when the wind blows from the south, every honest wife locks the front door to keep out the spirits of the dead. There if a farmer dreams he saw a black pig on the highway no one within ten miles of him will change his seat for a month, believing that by so doing he will start an epidemic.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE.

A Farmer's Institute under the auspices of Corvallis, on December 18th and 19th. Four sessions are being planned, beginning on the evening of the 18th, and extending through the forenoon, afternoon and evening of the 19th. All of the sessions will be open to the public and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the farmers' welfare. Accommodations are being arranged for a picnic dinner on Friday, the 19th, at the grange hall in Dr. Farr's brick building. Lunch baskets may be left here, where they will be properly cared for until dinner time. Hot coffee will be served to those who wish it. The program will appear later. Committees on arrangements, H. T. French, Mrs. F. Wilson, S. L. Shedd, E. C. Rimm and Mrs. Geo. Taylor.

Lost in the Mountains.

A Michigan man who was going out to hunt in the trackless forests bought a compass, but about the time he wanted to use it he remembered that he could not read one letter of the alphabet from another, and that no one had ever told him whether the needle pointed east, west, north or south. He was lost for four days as a result, and it was not until the last week when he attempted to take a short cut from the Santiam mines to a neighboring camp. He had no compass but was out only two days before reaching friends.

City Election.

Yesterday Recorder Henton was putting up official notices of the next annual city election which will take place on Monday, Dec. 1st. At that time a treasurer, marshal and one commissioner from each ward will be elected. Soon after night fall when the vote counted some will say as did the Chicago Post at the recent election, "The night is long."

Unyielding, cruel, dirty.

And some have got consequences. The place is full of them. And some have with Mithras.

No Safe Place.

Railroad statistics show that no one car on a train is safer than another. Sometimes the last car is the only one to drop through a bridge, and again the first coach climbs on top of the baggage car. Pay your fare, have faith, and take your chances. Of the forty-two men being last year none were ever hurt in a railroad accident.

Hulin & Dawson's new drug sign attracts much attention, and their stock of drugs and druggists' sundries is admired by all.

Default of the Oregon Pacific.

The New York Times of a recent date says, the application of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to have the Oregon Pacific Railway Company and the Willamette Valley & Coast Railroad placed in the hands of a receiver was the result of a default in the interest due October 1st on the Oregon Pacific bonds. The same interest is now being paid. The petition for a receiver was signed by the holders of $1,500,000 of the bonds, and it was at their request that T. Egerton Hogg, president of both companies, was appointed receiver. The projected line of the Oregon Pacific road, extended from Yaquina Bay, Oregon, to Boise City, Idaho, a distance of 600 miles. There was completed and in operation last May 140 miles extending from Yaquina City to Coe, Oregon. It is probable that the financial affairs of the Oregon Pacific system will be reorganized.

Race Horses at Home.

Andy Foster arrived in Corvallis Tuesday with his horses, Oregon Eclipse and Hercules, which he has attended a large number of races during the season. He will winter the horses in this valley possibly at the fair grounds near this city. During the season Oregon Eclipse was entered in eight races, won fourteen, and was second in three, winning about $200. He also showed himself to be a good short distance horse. The dam of this horse is the noted Lulu Riggs, and was sired by Joe Foster, the California race horse.

Another Enterprise.

Another new enterprise known as the Carbondale Coal Mining Co. has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, with John Carl, Newton Carl, Robert Monchard and A. T. Powell as the incorporators. The capital stock will be $300,000 with the principal office at Seio. The object is to own, work, mine and sell coal, and to own and construct a railroad to the mine. The mines are all situated near Seio in Linn county and the coal is said to be of good quality.

Coming Amusements.

The opera house has been definitely engaged for but three performances, although the society, Mr. Allen, is in correspondence with several troupes, who are endeavoring to make dates. The first in the line of amusements will be the entertainment to be given on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th, by the ladies aid society, for the benefit of the orphan's home. Next will be the lectures by Rev. Becker, on the 27th and 28th inst. A minstrel company has the house engaged for December 11th.

At the Christian church to-day services will be held by the pastor. Subjects, 11 A. M., "Duties of Christians," 7:30 P. M., "Rights of dividing the word." The evening sermon will be illustrated on a blackboard. All are invited to attend.

The Pendleton East Oregonian says that a few days ago a tall, thin, well-dressed stranger, who registered at the Hotel Oregon in an almost indecipherable hand as "Noble Lizen, Omaha," jumped the town without paying his board bill, and is evidently a professional beggar. He displayed a roll of greenbacks on several occasions in order to establish his credit, but he left town with the money in his pocket.

SUBDUED DEATHS.

Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which in three or four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, asthma, weak and hungry spells, wind in stomach, swelling of ankles, or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. Dr. Miles' illustrated on Heart Diseases, free at Starard & Cusick, who sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' unequalled New Heart Cure, and Restorative Serrine, which cures nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, effects of drinking, etc. It contains no opiates.

Linn County Council.

Owing to the prevalence of diphtheria at Eugene the next meeting of the Linn County Council will be with grand Prairie Grange No. 10, Dec. 6, 1890.

J. H. Scott, Vice President.

Will Be Re-organized.

It was stated a few months ago that Co. E., O. N. G., of Corvallis, had disbanded. This account, however, is incorrect, and a new company is being organized. The energetic young men of that city are also contemplating the organization of an athletic club in connection.

A BOTTLED HOG.

One Chinaman Steals a Hog from Another and is Arrested.

There are two rival hogfattening establishments below town, both conducted by Chinamen. Yesterday Ah Swill in looking over his band of hogs missed one, and although he made a careful search was unable to find it. Later in the day he called on Hung Oye, and was surprised to see his porker neatly dressed and hanging up ready for market. Hung failed to cut off the ears, however, which bore Swill's private mark and by which he recognized his property. He immediately came to town and swore out a warrant for Hung Oye's arrest, and Constable Burkhardt soon had him arraigned in Justice Humphrey's court. As the evidence was most conclusive he was bound over in the sum of $100 to await the action of the grand jury.
