

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE. The Daily Herald will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Clocks at cost at E. C. Searles. Hulst & Dawson, druggists. There has been a large number of families settled in that township recently.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet this afternoon at Mrs. W. R. Bilyeu's. Licenses to marry were granted yesterday to J. O. Calaway and Mary L. Simpson.

The citizens of Crawfordville are getting up a petition for the survey of township 15 S. k. 2 east. E. C. Searles is selling his entire stock of dry goods at cost to make room for a large line of boots and shoes.

At the entertainment to be given by the Ladies Aid Society on the 26th inst. Miss Lena Willis, of Salem, will sing.

Physicians' prescriptions compounded with accuracy and care at Hulst & Dawson's drug store, French's corner.

Crawford & Paxton have a fine lot of souvenirs of Albany scenery. They would make capital presents to send your friends in the East.

Messrs Crawford & Paxton took eleven different views of the recent railroad wreck, and they have already sold over two hundred pictures.

The Linn County Teacher's Association will hold its next meeting at Brownsville, Nov. 21 and 22. On Friday evening, the 21st, an entertainment will be given at the City Hall.

The Message, an Albany paper, issued by the pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. G. W. Hill, has made its appearance upon our table. It is bright and attractive, and will form an active agent in the work of the new pastor.

Lake Labiah, the scene of Wednesday night's disaster, will soon be no more, says the Salem Statesman. It is being drained, and will soon be turned from a dismal swamp into rich farms, gardens and orchards.

The engines of the Southern Pacific company have nearly all been draped with mourning in memory of Engineer McFadden and Fireman Neal. This will be carried thirty days, they being members of the Locomotive Brotherhood.

The Brownsville Times says: Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blain, of Albany, were in this city Tuesday and Wednesday. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Blain addressed an audience of ladies at the Baptist church in the interests of the W. C. T. U. Mr. Blain visited his farm near this city.

Messrs. Woodin and Warner, who are working upon the Golden Fleece claim in the Santiam mining district, are putting up our new big house of superior construction, which, when completed, will form the finest house in the district. They will spend the winter in doing rock work upon the claim.

From Akron, Ohio, comes the Farmers News, whose principal point, in the present issue is a cartoon representing the overthrow of the two dominant parties, and the triumph of the Farmers Alliance. Parties may die, but the present outlook does not promise the demise of either one of the old parties.

The young people of Harrisburg have organized a literary society. It is styled the Utopian Society and has already forty members. The following officers have been elected: President, Miss Ellen White; vice president, Clarence Williams; secretary, Charles Lewis; assistant secretary, C. Briggs; treasurer, Miss Edith May; and marshal, F. Krusel. The Utopian Journal has been established and with Barney May at the helm, assisted by Grace Wood.

PURELY PERSONAL. W. H. Raymond is in the city. E. J. McCaustland and bride have returned to this city. Mr. F. W. Holmes, merchant of Butte City, Montana, is in the city.

R. T. Hedrick is in the city. He has accepted a position as instructor on one of the Oregonian Railway trains. M. C. Bingham came in from the Santiam mining district yesterday where he has located some valuable placer and quartz claims.

Am. M. Hoag returned yesterday from San Francisco, and went on to Corvallis on the overland train without leaving his car. It will probably be some time before he will have the opportunity to do so again.

Doa A. Smith, who is developing a coal mine on his place at Rock Creek, Linn county, was in the city yesterday. He has run in an incline over a hundred and forty feet upon the vein, which varies from 9 inches to three feet in thickness.

Farmer Jones Wife Gone. Farmer Jones, of Silverton, lost his wife, Cyrene, at Gervais. She left him and went to Gervais and from there she engaged a team and went to Woodburn or Portland. Jones says he does not know which. All told she got from him she says $600. The $10,000 he settled on her was to be paid at his death, and now says she will not die, and now says that a man named Ross, of Salem, offered to prove Cynthia's perjury for $500. Examiner.

RAILROAD COURTESIES.

A Discrimination against Albany that Ought Not to Exist.

Since the accident to the bridge across Lake Labiah the Southern Pacific Railroad company have been running all through passenger and freight trains over the Oregon Pacific track between this city and Corvallis thereby enabling that company to run into and out of Portland over the West Side.

This courtesy on the part of the Oregon Pacific obviates the necessity of a long and tedious transfer of passengers, baggage and express around the broken bridge at Lake Labiah and a continuation on through freight business, as it is not practicable to break bulk in car load lots as would be required in transferring.

The officials of the Oregon Pacific Railroad company have shown a liberal spirit towards the Southern Pacific and should be appreciated by that company enough to accord to the Oregon Pacific company the usual arrangements for the proposed hauling and interchange of business between railroad companies.

The motto shown by the Southern Pacific heretofore has been "we solicit and accept all favors but give none in return." From this policy a strong prejudice has arisen in the people in the Willamette Valley against the Southern Pacific which will show itself in the passage of stringent railroad laws by the legislature this winter.

For the past two years the Southern Pacific Railroad has refused to advance any charges at this city on interchange freight. This is a discrimination directly against Albany as they pay charges to the Oregon Pacific and other transportation lines at Corvallis and elsewhere.

Doll Bazaar. The ladies of the United Presbyterian church will hold a Doll Bazaar sometime near the middle of December, full particulars and details will be given later. A large assortment of dolls, has been purchased in bique, paper mache, wax, china and even the traditional rag baby, and also those of every child can be accommodated as both dressed and undressed dolls will be on sale. The prices ranging from five cents to five dollars. Every variety of costumes from the "short gown and petticoat to the handsome party dress will be displayed. Cloaks, ulsters, hats, cap and bonnets, also extra suits of clothing and underwear will be furnished. Any lady preferring to purchase a doll dressed to order, can do so by calling at the home of Mrs. S. E. Young and selecting her doll, and style of those desired, and extra suits of clothing can have them made by sending an order to the same place.

Committee of Arrangements.

The Lurch Case. Aaron Lurch, who was recently pardoned by Governor Penneyer from the state penitentiary, went at once to Victoria, and there awaited the result of an application for nullification of the indictment against him in the Lane county circuit court. Failing in this, it is reported that he took passage in a sailing vessel for South America, though the opinion of those best informed is that he went East over the Canadian Pacific railroad. During the last year of his confinement he assiduously applied himself to the study of the French and Spanish languages, and became a proficient scholar in those languages. Mr. Lurch suffered severely for his faults, and the general opinion, says the Eugene Guard, is that now on one would object to the dismissal of the indictments against him.

Oregonian Railway. Wm. Mack, formerly of this city, now of Portland who has been rusticated in the Forks of the Santiam, informs us that the track laying on the Narrow Gauge railway, yesterday morning was at Macleay, twelve miles north of Shelburne, the junction with the Oregon Pacific. As the work was progressing at the rate of about four miles per day, it would reach the junction in about three days. For temporary running they are now using the old light rails of the Narrow Gauge, which will be replaced in a very short time.

A Street Fight. Sunday afternoon a white man and a negro had a slight difficulty which they made a poor attempt to settle with bare knuckles. The white man, who it was said, the negro imposed on, seemed disinclined to "scrap," and after arguing himself with stone about the size of his fist, walked away, the negro flinging at him a few choice epithets. Yesterday morning the negro got word that a warrant had been issued for him and left the city.

It Should Not Be. Nearly every alley in the city is piled full of wood, so that it is almost impossible for a team to pass along. This is especially in the business portion of the city. Wood should not be allowed to remain on any street or alley longer than is absolutely necessary, and the city marshal should see that the ordinance relating to this matter is enforced.

Fell From a Train. John Patton, a young man aged about 17, while attempting to board the Oregon Pacific train at Brown's Mill yesterday morning after he had left the station, slipped after he had caught hold of the rear coach and was thrown to the ground. One leg was slightly injured but otherwise he was not hurt. The train was stopped and he was taken aboard.

MONMOUTH NOTES.

MONMOUTH, Nov. 17, 1890.

Mr. H. M. Davidson, postmaster of Monmouth, has returned from a visit to Illinois. Miss Rhoads, who has been visiting friends here ever since last spring, has returned to her home in Indiana.

Mr. Fabel, who has been sick for a month, is again able to be out on the street. As the motor was leaving for Independence a few evenings ago, it ran over a cow belonging to Mrs. Davis, crippling it so bad that it was necessary to finish the job. Mrs. Davis received $25 damages. Mr. Frank Mulkey and Rev. Says have gone to California.

The Salem quartette club, which is composed of students of the Salem university, gave an excellent musical concert in the college chapel Saturday evening.

The officials of the Oregon Pacific Railroad, spent Sunday in Monmouth, visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. McFadden.

About ninety students now take their meals at the Normal dining hall.

Mr. Anslyn of Albany, was here Sunday, visiting his daughter, Miss Birdie, who is attending school here.

Prof. J. R. N. Bell, editor of the Compendium, who has recently returned from a trip in the east, visited the normal school last week. He addressed the teachers class very ably for a short time.

Miss Cicilia Hingley, of Salem, who is attending school here, is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Two new stores have been opened here; a dry goods store and a confectionery store. Monmouth is getting to be quite a business town, as it now has three dry goods and three grocery stores, one hardware store, one book store, one drug store, a confectionery store, a harness shop, a blacksmith shop, two butcher shops and a bank, and it also has one of the best schools in the northwest.

DROWNING NEAR EUREKA. The Astoria Columbian says: T. J. Smith, of Eureka, well known in this city, was drowned in a heavy evening somewhere between Stella and Eureka. He had been hunting near Oak Creek and the supposition is that he had started down the river on his way home and by some means his boat was capsized. A water spaniel which was with him swam ashore, reaching his home at Eureka Sunday morning. Smith was a single man, about 40 years of age and a prominent member of the Columbia River Fisherman's Protective Union. He had resided at Eureka several years and was well and favorably known along the river.

Thrashing Outfit Burned. An exchange says: The thrashing outfit of George Kinney was burned a few days since near Colfax by incendiaries. The crew had just arisen from the supper table in the cook house, some distance from the machine, when they noticed the flame and smoke. They hurried to the scene as quickly as possible, but arrived too late to extinguish the fire, as no water was at hand. At their approach, it is claimed that two or three men were seen running across the field, and it is supposed that those fellows set fire to the machine. An attempt was made a few days since to burn the outfit near Mt. Kinney, which is thrashing in the country just north of Pendleton. It is supposed to be the work of men hired by a well-known personal enemy.

They Want Their Pay. The enumerators of the late lamented census have not all received their pay yet. The enumerators, clerks and others employed by the government in taking the first census of the city of Portland, says the Oregonian would like very much to see Robert C. Porter, said one of them. "We have never received a cent for our services, and it is not likely that we will either unless we make a fight for it." Those employed in taking the census under Mr. Meach have promptly paid, but the others think that unless they all get together and take some decided action, they will be left out in the cold.

Two Companions Always With Us. Strict justice is like a boomerang. When you take a good deal in it, it gets out of the way of its recoil. Life is like a walking match. One enters it already heavily handicapped, and strives painfully toward an unknown goal. Two companions enter the race with us, Joy and Sorrow. When we fall breathless at last we find as we began: Sorrow always at our side, Joy always one step ahead.

Accepted the Call. The Journal says: Rev. T. H. Gwynne, of Madison, South Dakota, has accepted the call of the Presbyterian church of Salem, and telegraphed Mr. H. V. Matthews that he would be there before the first of December. The church expect to hear him preach Nov. 20.

A Change. The truck and dray business in this city has changed hands, W. E. Kelley retiring and J. N. Combs becoming proprietor. For the present Mr. James Hall is in charge of the work.

Fined $5 and Cost. Edward Chase was arraigned in R. cord Henton's court yesterday afternoon and fined $5 and costs, for being drunk and disorderly. The fine was paid and the prisoner released.

Felt slippers at Klein Bros.

Views of the Wreck. Crawford & Paxton made eight different splendid views of the Lake Labiah disaster, which they are selling at 25 cents apiece.

For One Week Only. Special sale of embroideries and laces at the Ladies Bazaar. Elegant patterns for 10 and 15 cents per yard. Don't fail to secure some of these bargains.

The Home Manuel. Mrs. Talt is offering to the people of Albany the finest holiday book of the season, in "The Home Manuel," the production of Mrs. John Talt. It is a work of intrinsic value, and a very attractive one, too. It should find a place in every household.

Fine Dressed Chickens. Persons desiring a dressed chicken should leave their order at John Dierenge's meat market. He also keeps beef, pork, sausage, bacon and lams. Market on First street, across from Russ House.

Jackets and Wraps. I am now receiving my fall and winter stock of ladies, misses and children jackets and wraps which are of the latest style and good value and as cheap as standard goods can be bought. I have a lot of ladies Newmarkets carried over from last year, which I am selling at cost to make room for new arrivals. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Pig bargains in ladies and gent's gold and silver filled watches at F. M. French's.

The Christian church to-day services will be held by the pastor, H. J. A. M. "Duties of Christians," 7:30 p. m. "Rightly dividing the word." The evening sermon will be illustrated on a blackboard. All are invited to attend.

The Pendleton East Oregonian says that a few days ago a tall, slim, well-dressed stranger, who registered at the Hotel Pendleton in an almost indecipherable hand as "Nolee Litzen, Omaha," jumped the town without paying his board bill, and is evidently a professional cheat. He displayed a roll of greenbacks on several occasions in order to establish his credit, but left town with the money in his pocket.

SUDDEN DEATHS. Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which in three or four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are: a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, asthma, weak and hungry spells, wind in stomach, swelling of ankles or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. Dr. Miles' illustrated on Heart Diseases, free at Standard & Cusick, who sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' unequalled New Heart Cure, and his Restorative Nervine, which cures nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, effects of drinking, etc. It contains no opiates.

MARRIED. MORRIS—TOWKER—On Monday Nov. 17, 1890, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the residence of Mrs. D. C. Miles, Rev. S. G. Irvine officiating, Mr. G. Morris, twin dispenser of the Oregonian R. R. and Mrs. Ella A. Bowler of Cor on City N. Y. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few relatives and friends. The happy couple accompanied by the groom's mother left on the noon train for an extended trip through the eastern states. They will visit New York, Chicago and other principal eastern cities before returning to Oregon.
