Nye, a highly respected citizen of Sweet Home, Linn county, died at his residence in that place. The funeral was conducted by the Masonic lodge, of which he was a member.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Al. Cooke, of Portland, is visiting relatives in this city. Mr. J. S. Cochran of Seattle is spending few days with old friends in this city. A. W. Cheney, late of the Clackamas News, was in Albany yesterday. He may locate here. Mr. John Talt took his departure for Arizona on the steamer that left Yaquina to-day. He will develop his mining interests there this winter. The Jap Was Discharged. The case of "George Jay," a Japanese, was tried in Justice Neagle's court in Seattle, for attempting rape of Miss Kittie Reynolds, brought out some very rare evidence. Miss Reynolds is a fine looking brunette, and lady like in her manners. She testified that she broke into her room and attempted rape upon her. Several witnesses for the defense testified that the woman had at different times received the Jap into her room, and he himself swore that he had given her at different times $2.00 for shameful purposes. Justice Neagle discharged the prisoner. Miss Reynolds left the courtroom in tears. It is claimed that the Jap paid witnesses to swear against the girl's character in order to free himself. The Lost is Found. Early last fall a wealthy farmer of Vancouver, Milton Donthit, mysteriously disappeared from Selma, where he had come ostensibly for the purpose of purchasing a farm. Nothing was heard of him, and no trace could be found of the direction in which he had gone. His family and friends feared foul play, but continued the search for him until they succeeded in finding him. E. Jacobs, Donthit's brother-in-law, living at Vancouver, located the lost man in Southern California, where he had wandered while suffering a temporary attack of dementia. Donthit is now at home and is rapidly recovering his health. He is a brother of Mrs. Harry Thomas, of Salem.

THE NATIONAL GRAPE.

The national grape closed its session at Atlanta, Georgia, on Wednesday. Resolutions were passed favoring the Conger land bill and the Padlock pure food bill, the meat inspection bill, favoring the opening of the markets of the world to American agriculture, deprecating socialism and anarchism, favoring the Australian ballot system, urging the necessity of closely watching the interstate commerce bill to prevent its repeal, urging the government to foreclose its mortgages on the Pacific railroads, favoring the government loaning money to people upon lands and other good securities.

Real Golden Pheasants.

The Oregonian says: In the show windows of the gun department of Messrs. Strawbridge, Rodman & Co., on Second street, between Morrison and Yamhill, are displayed a pair of real golden pheasants, the first ever seen in this city. The cock sports the most beautiful plumage, before which the peacock of 100 degrees pales into insignificance. These birds are not to be confounded with the ring neck Chinese pheasant, now so numerous in the valley, and which is no competitor with the golden pheasant in highly colored feathers.

Aston Literary Society.

The college society held their election yesterday afternoon, resulting in the choice of Miss Ava Balkin re, president; M. E. Breckenridge, vice-president; Miss E. A. Simpson, secretary; Mr. E. J. Loosen, treasurer; Miss Alice C. Moses, critic; Miss Mary A. Canfield, sergeant-at-arms.

THE OLDEST YET.

Having seen in your paper, and also in the Oregonian, the question "Who is the oldest white person born in Oregon?" And seeing that two ladies claim the honor, viz: Mrs. Henness born in 1841 and Mrs. A. Carl, formerly, Miss A. Beers, born in 1840. Being acquainted with both of these women, I think that I can convince them that they will have to step out and give Mrs. Eliza Warren, daughter of Rev. Henry Spaulding and early missionary, one of the first to Oregon, the honor of being the first white child born in Oregon, as she was born in November 1837. Alice Whitman was undoubtedly the first, being born the preceding March 1837, but was drowned when two years of age. So Mrs. Eliza Warren is undoubtedly the oldest white child born on Oregon soil. All honor her to whom honor is due. Mrs. E. M. Helm, XANESBURG, OR., Nov. 19, 1890.

For better Mail Facilities.

The people of Newport are suffering great inconvenience from the inefficiency of the mail service between that city and Yaquina City over which route almost all their mail is carried. A non-resident secured the contract for carrying the mails between the places named at a figure much below what it is actually worth. The result is that the work was poorly performed from the beginning, and recently the contractor failed to provide any means for the transit of mail, since which time postmaster A. H. Hampton has performed the service as best he could. It now appears that the master of the steamer J. M. Richardson offers to carry the mail on schedule time for 9000 per year. The Newport postoffice is of considerable importance and its patrons certainly are entitled to good mail facilities. A committee from the Newport board of trade have drawn up a statement setting forth the conditions and it recommends that the report be sent to Hon. Binger Hermann with the request that he submit the same to the Hon. Postmaster General. It is safe to say that Mr. Hermann will give the matter the attention it requires. -Corvallis Gazette.

A Horse Impaled.

The East Oregonian says that S. L. Magee lost a valuable horse in a peculiar manner yesterday. The animal, which had lately been brought down from the mountains, was partially broken and Zibe Zobe was attempting to train it. A high board fence forms the enclosure. Zibe cracked his whip and the horse attempted to leap over the barrier. He caught his forelegs on the top of the fence and fell backward upon a split-splinter which had been a splinter on a board. This penetrated his side behind the left foreleg, and he died an hour after the accident. The animal was a beauty, coal black in color and of Andil and Bellfounder stock. He had shown evidence of speedy qualities, and was greatly prized by his owner.

An Enjoyable Social.

A very pleasant and successful social was given by the members of the Catholic church at the residence of Conral Meyer Thursday evening. The attendance was large and a pleasant evening was spent. The elegant supper being enjoyed by all. The large prize cake was drawn by Andrew Hunt. The ladies cleared about $60 from the proceeds. The members of the Catholic church join with Mr. and Mrs. Meyer in expressing their thanks to the public for their liberal attendance.

Raising the Engine.

Down at the wreck yesterday the men took a couple lifts at the overturned engine, but were unable to even budge it. They expect to be better prepared to-day to hoist the heavy engine and get it on the temporary track. After getting it once upon the track there will be no trouble to run the engine up to the main track. -Statesman.

A $70 Music Box.

The Hop Market.

The Mockers, of Puyallup, have issued a hop circular. Under the date of Nov. 14th, they say: "The crop year of 1890 has been one of surprises as well as disappointments. Promising at first to be the heaviest on record, the yield was finally cut down to the usual average by the prolonged drought and attack of vermin combined. Starting out at extremely low prices, the value moved steadily up from twelve and a half cents per pound for the earlier contracts to forty cents paid for a few in the bale. Unfortunately for the growers, large blocks of the crop were contracted as comparatively low prices, the bulk of which has gone forward to dealers and consumers and now depress the open market for the remaining portion of the crop. We estimate the Washington crop yield at 38,000 bales and which may possibly reach 40,000 of which there are now left about 8000 bales. The Oregon crop yield estimate is now placed at 20,000 bales, of which no more than 2000 bales are left in the state, making a total stock in the two states of 11,000 bales. There has been an act of war in the hop market since any hops were in the bale, until within the ten days last past when the fact has developed that this was the only firm market left the world over. The consequences are, there has been a check in the market, and business has come to a complete standstill and the conditions are reversed with every body willing to sell, but a few buyers willing to risk business in the absence of order. It is the universal opinion dealers that the stock of hops the world over is no more than the requirements of the trade and that the depression is only temporary, and that an increased activity is certain to follow; how much there is in these predictions only time can demonstrate.

He Will Explain.

An exchange says: Ira Adams was arrested at Salem the other day, and taken back to Chehalis on a charge of obtaining money under a false pretence. It seems that he was acting as agent for a live-stock insurance company that he supposed was reliable and sound in financial backing, and he insured a horse belonging to a resident there for $25. The owner of the animal, charged as above, afterwards learned that the insurance corporation was unreliable and the policy was worthless. Instead of immediately returning the money Adams kept delaying the matter and the result is he is now arrested, charged as above. I thought the matter will be settled satisfactorily upon Adams' arrival at Chehalis.

Going to Topolobampo.

Apparently the Colony in the desert will continue to attract regarding the report that a large number of colonists had started for the vicinity of Lawrence, Kansas, this week for California, it is learned that they are en route to Topolobampo. What inducements were offered is not known. A woman has returned to Ahilene from Topolobampo who tells a story of hardship and suffering in the co-operative colony there. Crops, she says, have been failing for two years past. Most of the colonists have been unable to make a reasonable living, and many of them are anxious to return to their American homes. The best swiftness and insects and reptiles add to the general misery.

The Fireman's Ball.

The firemen's ball to be given at the armory of E. Co. on Thanksgiving evening promises to be a great success. They are sparing no pains to make it an enjoyable affair and it is not early to say that it will be largely attended.

BORN.

ROSS—Near Albany, Friday Nov. 21, to the wife of Geo. Ross, a daughter.

TANGENT NOTES.

TANGENT, Nov. 20. No new cases of diphtheria are reported. The warehouse is being repaired which will add greatly to its appearance. The bridge carpenters are doing good work on the R. R. bridge in this vicinity. The public school at this place has been suspended until the first of January on account of sickness. MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, J. H. Simpson, on Wednesday, Nov. 19, 1890 by Rev. H. M. Howard, Mr. J. O. Calloway and Miss Mary L. Simpson, all of Linn county.

Literary Notes.

The Christmas edition of the Cosmopolitan Magazine is one hundred thousand copies. The order, as originally given to the printers, was for 85,000 copies, but while on the press it was thought advisable to the number to 100,000. It contains a feature never before attempted by any magazine, consisting of 125 cartoons from the pen of Dan Beard, the now famous artist, who did such wonderful illustrations in Mark Twain's book, "The Yankee at the Court of King Aathur." These cartoons are placed at the bottom of each page of the magazine and take for their subject, "Christmas during the Eighteen Centuries of the Christian Era," with variations, showing the way in which we modern Christians carry out some of the chief texts of the Christian gospel. Above, and at each side of the page, are a number of notes, the effect being novel and extremely pleasing, and with the unusually varied table of contents, will make such a Christmas number as is worthy to go into more than 100,000 households. The frontispiece of the Cosmopolitan have of late become noted for their beauty, some of them having as much as four printings. That for Christmas, while in but two printings, is not behind anything that has preceded it in artistic merit. An excellently illustrated article is one on "Santa Claus," by Eliza Ruth and Schidmore. Literary Boston is treated with numerous portraits, and an article which comes within the nineteenth birthday of Von Moltke, sketches the life of the great field-marshal in an interesting and original manner. Elizabeth Bisland has one of her charming articles.
