A FEARFUL SCENE.

A Platform With Two Thousand People Falls.

PUBLIC DEBT OF FRANCE.

The Indian Fights are Myths of Frightened Persons—Their Messiah a Well Known Personage.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A terrible accident occurred in the eastern part of Brooklyn before Yale-Princeton football game to-day. A big f ea stand on the grounds suddenly collapsed carrying down the entire load of human beings. It is estimated there were more 2000 people in the structure at the time. The scene was indescribable and confusion and panic followed the crash. The occupants were mostly men, a great majority of them students from Yale and Princeton. There were also many women. They all lay in a confused and struggling mass upon the ground, many being completely buried under the wreckage. The screams, shrieks and groans were were awful. Many fainted from the injuries they received. In an instant their was a general rush forthat part of the field and a score of policemen were soon engaged in pulling the maimed and wounded from the wreck. Others lent assistance and within 10 minutes the whole place was cleared. At first it was feared some were killed but this proved unfounded.

THE LARGEST DEBT.

France Can Boast of That Superlative Appendage.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Pellatan presented the budget committee report on the financial situation in France, showing the estimated debt of the country to be 40,300,-313,594 francs; nominal capital, 22,824,043,609 francs. The actual capital and nominal rate of interest is 348 per cent. and the actual rate is 462 per cent, This, continued the report, is the largest public debt in the world", but French credit is sufficiently solid to allow French stock being reckoned at 3 per cent.

Parnell Likely to be Sustained.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Thimotny Healy and Parnell had a conference today. The feeling among the nationalist members is more favorable to Parnell than yesterday and the opinion prevails that they will sustain him.

Healy is very reticent and refuses to say anything about the Irish leaders intentions. Parnell appears to be in buoyant spirits and splendid health. A noticeable incident occurred in the commons when Parnell went to vote on Labourches amendment. Parnell had to pass the liberal benches and his late allies studiously ignored him. It is stated if Parnell remains in leadership, Sexton and other Irish members will offer themselves for re-election in order to test the feelings of electors.

Colombians Sold as Slaves.

PANAMA, Nov. 27.—The Columbian minister of Foreign Affairs has forwarded a dispatch to Brazil saying information had been received at Caqueta the Brazilians have captured natives of Colombia and carried them off to the Putumey river, where they have been sold as slaves Other atrocious crimes have been committed on the frontier by unknown Brazilians. A most vigorous protest and demand for justice has been made by Colombia.

Foot Ball Game,

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The championship foot ball game between Princeton and Yale colleges, which was contested on the Eastern park grounds of Brooklyn to-day, was won by Yale 32 to nothing. The game was witnessed by 25,000 persons.

Charges Against a Minister.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Nov. 27.—The church-going people of Jacksonville, N. J., near South Amboy, on the line of the New York and Long Branch railroad, are disturbed by the alleged conduct of the Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. Robert Chew, who is charged by Mrs. Alonzo Armstrong, of Keyport, with attempted assault. She made affidavit to her statement of the facts, and this is now in the hands of one of the trustees of the church. John Tice, one of the trustees, on Saturday visited Mr. Chew and asked for an explanation. Mr. Chew declared that there was not a word of truth in the charge. Then Mr. Tice called a meeting of the trustees of the Cliffwood church, which is in Mr. Chew's circuit, and laid the matter before that body. It was unanimously decided to suspend the pastor, pending a hearing before the presiding elder of the district. This was late on Saturday night. On Sunday night when Mr. Chew attempted to enter the church he was met at the door by one of the trustees, who told him his presence was not desired. The congregation was then dismissed and the church closed. On Monday the charges were laid before the presiding elder. He has called a meeting of the trustees and stewards of the church for tomorrow, when the matter will be investigated.

IN FRONT OF A TRAIN.

Dastardly Crime of a Coundrel Who Assaulted a pretty Girl.

Pretty Francis Duchak had a terrible experience at Chicago recently. She was assaulted and knocked down by an unknown man, successfully resisted him, and was then thrown on the track just as an express train came thundering along. Her younger sister pulled her almost from under the wheels and saved her life. The girl, who is 17 years old, lives at Stewart avenue and Eighty-seventh street. About 9 o'clock in the morning she was walking home from church. She was accompanied by a younger sister. At the corner of Wright and Seventy-ninth streets an unknown man seized her around the waist and threw her violently to the ground. The girl is as plucky as she is pretty and fought desperately for her honor. She regained her feet and dug her delicate nails into the scoundrel's face. Like the brute that he was, he knocked her down. The younger sister now diverted the assailant's attention and her sister again struggled to her feet. The asault happened near the railroad srack. An inward-bound passenger train was approaching at a high rate of speed. The engineer and fireman saw the man and woman struggling by the side of the track. It was a dramatic scene. It came near being a tragedy though, and for a second the hearts of the enginemen leaped into their mouths. Knowing that he could not accomplish his nefarious design, and fearing that the train would be stopped and the girl rescued, the wretch attempted to add murder to the dastardly crime of assault. He againe seized the girl by the waist and stifling her screams by placing his rough hand over her mouth, hissed in her ear: "I am going to kill you. The wheels will grind you to peices." A look of terror crept into the girl's eyes and she fought like a tigress to break away from the viliain's clutches. When the train was less then two rods away he violently threw the girl into the narrow space that separate the two shining rails and ran away. Miss Duchak struck on her side and death seemed certain. Then, at the risk of her own life, the young sister heroically rushed upon the track and fairly dragged Frances from under the wheels of the snorting locomotive. The train whirled by and the young girl, more dead than alive, tottered home and told her story. The police were notified, but the unknown scoundrel made good his escape.

HE HAD SMALL-POX

AND RODE IN A CAR WITH TWELVE OTHERS.

Train Hands Pass In and Out, But When It Was Found Out the Car Was Side Tracked.

SALT LAKE, Nov. 27.—There was great excitement on the east bound Oregon short line train yesterday aiter leaving Pocatello, when it was discovered that a man in one of the coaches was sick with the small pox. He had been on the train some time and the train had passed and passed through the coach. Besides this there were 12 other passengers in the coach with him. The car has been side-tracked at Bryan with the sick man in it, and the passengers who rode with him were taken to Green River in another car for examination by a surgeon.

A WARNING TO BOYS,

Another Victim of the Cigarette Habit.

NEWBURG, Nov. 27.—Michael Haley, a 16-year-old Newburg boy, is the latest victim of the cigarette habit in this vicinity. He has for years been accustomed to smoking them, and now his mind is badly shattered and he is a mental as well as a physical wreck. On Saturday afternoon he was found roaming the streets barefooted, bareheaded and only half-clad. The boy was taken to the police station and was afterward removed to the almshouse for treatment. He will probably be committed to some institution for proper care, as his parents can do nothing with him.

A DRUNKEN QUARREL.

Several Men are Shot and Dangerously Wounded.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 26.—John Campo, a Mexican, and Antone Geriecich, an Austrian, were shot in a saloon this evening by Martin Matson. A number of men were in the saloon drinking and became involved in a quarrel. Matson drew a revolver and began firing. Geriecich and Campo were hit in the head and dangerously, though not mortally, wounded. Another of the crowd received a bullet in the thigh, causing only a flesh wound. Matson escaped, but was arrested on the river bank later. When brought to the police station he denied all knowledge of the affair.

The Irish Land Bill,

LONDON, Nov. 27.—In the commons today Balfour introduced the Irish land bill,

COAST FISHERIES.

An Astoria Shooting Scrape in a Saloon.

SEVERAL SEVERELY WOUNDED

An Italian Laborer Crushed and a Hack Driver Suicides—The Sioux Difficulty—Steamer Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—Special Agent Smiley, of the census office in Washington, with several assistants, arrived in this city to-day for the purpose of getting statistics of the fisheries. An effort is to be made to collect this information in a manner thoroughly worthy of the immense interests of this coast. Seventy-five enumerators have been selected in California, Washington and Oregon, including five in this city, who will enter immediately upon their work. The statistics desired will cover the capital invested, the number of men employed and the amount and value of the catch, and will relate, not only to the fisheries proper, including whale fishery, but to oysters, lobsters, shrimps, shells, etc. The enumerators in this city have already entered upon their work and will visit the firms and individuals engaged in fishing for the purpose of securing information.

UNION PACIFIC AFFAIRS.

The Old and the New Clash Somewhat.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—It is evident that the Gould-Sage party did not enjoy the farewell address of President Adams. Sage in an interview to-day said: The tenor of Adams address was almost uncalled for, there having been no public criticism of his management by any directors, notwithstanding the fact that he was running the road to ruin. Mr Adams says in his address that he had been President for seven years and during that time the actions of the directors had been unanimous. That is simply saying that Adams is responsible for the Union Pacific's condition. He should explain how it comes that the pay roll increased 400 names in nine months. What personal interest he had in the Kansas smelting works, in favor of which discrimination is made in rates for shipping bullion and a half dozen other matters.

KILLED BY A CAVING BANK.

A Hack Driver Shuffles Off By Shooting Himself.

PORTLAND, Nov. 27.—Salvatore Gasparro Di Michelle, an Italian laborer, was instantly killed this morning at the quarry in the southern portion of the city. Gasparro together with a number of Chinamen were excavating under a bank which caved in precipitating several tons of dirt and rock on the men. All the Chinamen escaped without injury, but Gasparro failed to heed the warning in time.

Mike Little, a hack driver, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head. Little had been on a protracted spree and was despondent.

Suit to Recover Money.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 27.—Suit has been brought against John R. Baker, a stock operator, who disappeared Thursday last, to recover $116,000, belonging to the estate of Charles H. Baker, which he is alleged to have appropriated.

How Harvard Celebrated the Victory Over Yale.

Yate's victory over Princeton will compensate in a measures for the defeat at the hands of Harvard. How Harvard took the victory the dispatches relates as follows: John Harvard's statue is red again. It may be stated at the outset that this reverend father of Cambride College has been thus rosily decorated by permission of the faculty. And it is not with red paint that this old Puritan is adorned, but with as fine a red toga and red fillet of ribbon around his brow as ever decked a Roman Senator. At 10 o'clock this morning Lloyd Garrison, one of the most prominent men in college, wrapped red bunting around old John Harvard in the form of a toga. Nor is John Harvard alone gloriously red.

All Cambridge is rosy to-night, for the Harvard boys are cele rating their football victory over Yale. Every store is brilliant in red bunting, and every college building and dormitory is ablaze with light—white and red, green and yellow. In Leavitt & Pierce's the side of the store is covered with an immense crimson cloth, in corps, composed of students, and a toass band, started through the atincipal streets. The procession had hardly reached the field before the biggest bonfire ever kinded on Jarvis field was lighted.

When the blaze was at its height a hundred men seized the ropes of the coach in which were the eleven victors and dragged it around, cheering loudly. Then a monster circle of men was formed, and around the fire they danced, cheering continually, and looking for all the world like a lot of redskins getting ready for battle.

COAST NOTES.

Newsy Notes Reported by Exchanges Throughout the Northwest.

Freight trains are now so heavy on the S. P. that an extra engine is necessary to get ever the Cow creek and Calapooia mountains.

Grading on the branch railroads from the S. P. to Jacksonville is nearly finished and the rails will be laid as soon as they arrive, which will not be long.

The Southern Pacific is an all steel rail line now, the iron rail on the Southern Pacific's main line between Portland and Ashland having been replaced by steel.

It is announced semi-efficially that Gen. J. M. Siglin will once more embark in the newspaper business at Marshfield, Coos county, about the beginning of the coming year.

A man in Jackson county has been plowing this fall with a steam engine, and has found that it works quite successfully. He pulls eight plows with his engine and turns over the soil at the rate of sixteen acres per day. The cost of running the outfit is not over $5 per day.

R. D. Allen sold last week to Wm. F. Beerks, of Salem, ten thousand Italian prune trees and to a California man he has just concluded a sale of six thousand Petite prunes. Mr. Beerke intends planting one hundred acres to fruit on the Kaiser bottom, north of Salem, Italian prunes.

Speculations continue to go on concerning the officers of the ensuing legislature at Salem. It is said that O. P. Miller wants to be clerk of the senate; Pomeroy, sergeant-at-arms of the senate; Colonel Neving, reading clerk of the senate; S. J. Finch, of Baker, sergeadt-at-arms of the house; Hayes, of Tillamook, wants to be chief clerk of the house. Severol members are understood to have declared themselves as radically opposed to the selections of inexperienced officers.

The Messiah is Well Known.

DURANGO, Colo., Nov. 27.—It is reported that the Navajo Indians are greatly excited over the reports from Dakota. Their theory is that the Messiah is none other Isadore Cohen, who is known throughout the south of Colorado as "Nosey" Cohen. The reader is well acquainted with their tongues and customs. The Southern Utes talk of the craze with but little interest.

A LUCKY ESCAPE.

THE ALBERT'S BOILERS SUPPORT GIVE AWAY.

Had It Happened at Sea There Would Have Been Another Mysterious Disappearance of a Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—The Chronicle says the United States steamer Alert which is under orders to relieve Swatara, on China station, and has been at Mare Island several months undergoing repairs was to have sailed Dec 3rd and everything was in readiness. On Monday last as the final preparation she was taken to the dry dock to have her bottom scraped and painted. Workmen had hardly commenced operations when they heard a rumbling noise overhead. Investigation showed that about twenty square feet of iron boiler supports that which form an interior or second bottom had fallen in amidship. Heavy iron beams were found to have corroded away and heavy boilers were resting on the ships bottom. The Alert, although an old ship, was regarded as a staunch vessel. A large force was at once put to work making repairs and are working night and day to get the ship in readiness to sail December 10th. Had the support of the boilers held out until vessel was at sea and given way there, the heavy boilers would probably have fallen clear through, leaving the vessel not only without steam power, but with a hole in her bottom so large that she would have immediately sunk.

PRESIDENT ADAMS.

He is Made the Subject of Much Adverse Criticism.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Tomorrow the Tribune will print an interview with Jay Gould, in which he says that ex-president Adams, of the Union Pacific, is a theorist, who conducted many affairs of the Union Pacific without the knowledge of the directors. Gould said he learned, when last in Kansas City, that Adams personally owned a control of the stock yards there, and while the railroad was carrying in their live stock at bare cost of tsansportation, the stock yards earned $1,000,000 the past year. Such action as this, Gould said, would never be permitted under the new management. He believed the Burlington and Rock Island will both come into the plan for securing better results from western railway business. No further changes he said were to be made in the U. P.

Joseph Tait is agent for the Union Mutual Accident Association of Chicago, a company that has many superior features.

FOREIGN POLICY.

Ex-President Adams Asked to Explain.

FATALITY AMONG SAILORS.

The Englishman Won the Sculling Race—The Frenchmen Refuse to Admit the Koch Lymph.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—An Ottawa special says the dominion government will inaugurate a vigorous foreign policy as a result of the McKinley bill. They intend to establish commercial agencies in the Southern and Central American states, to find out the prices Canadian products bring in those countries, together with the prices of products they can send to Canada. Reports will be published monthly for the information of merchants, farmers and manufacturers. In addition the government has a regular system of communication with the places mentioned and monthly services to China, Japan and Australia.

Loss of Sailors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov, 27.—The whaling bark Ocean arrived here today, bringing 4000 gallons of oil and 3200 pounds of bone. She gives the following particulars of the loss of six sailors. They had mortally wounded a whale and approached too close in the boat. The whale struck the boat and the men were thrown out and drowned or killed. Their names were, John Sylvester, W. J. Brady, W. H. Briggs, Wm. Mitchell, Geo. Jurgensen and J. F. Meander. During a gale Geo. Brown was washed overboard and drowned. Robert Ray died of consumption.

An Afflicted Emperor.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—The Emperor Austria is represented as deeply cast down by the probate fate of his relative, Archduke John, which is third calamity during his reign in the Hapsburg family, his brother Maximillian, having been shot in Mexico, and his son and heir, Rudolph, having committed suicide. The went to-day to pray on the spot where Prince Rudolph killed himself.

Orders to March.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 27.—The Messiah craze has reached Oklahoma. Captain Stiles, in command of the troops at Oklahoma, has received orders to march at a moment's notice. This order applied also to the troops stationed at Elkins, Fort Sill, Kingfisher and Guthrie.

No Foundation.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—A dispatch received by the Associated Press this evening from General Manager Mellen, of the Northern Pacific railroad, said the report from Missoula, Montana, of the fighting between the Indians and the soldiers was absolutely without foundation.

Steamboat Burned.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 27.—Steamboat T. J. Leathers was burned this morning near Fort Adams, Miss. The boat and cargo are a total loss. The chambermaid and four roustabouts, all colored, were lost. The vessel cost $40,000.

A Sculling Race.

SYDNEY, Nov. 27.—Bubear, England, and Matterson, Australia, today rowed a sculling race for one hundred pounds a side. Bubear won.

Inderdicts its Importation.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—The French government will not allow the importation into France of the Koch lymph.

BISHOP BECKER.

In his second appearance before an Albany audience Bishop Becker fully equalled all the expectations of the most sanguine. The trip through Egypt was simply grand, presented, as it was, in the Bishop's inimitable way. The pyramids, sphynx and mausoleums of the Pharaohs were visited with delight, and even the mummies were resurrected to point a lesson. This evening will be spent under the Bishop's direction with the masters of eloquence and oratory, from Demosthenes and the lawyers of Ancient Rome and Greece to modern times. It is rare to have such an orator in our midst. By attending to-night at the Opera House, each citizen may have the opportunity of reaping a benefit for himself, and conferring one on the Y. M. C. A. of this city, under whose auspices Bishop Becker appears. The subject of the lecture to-night is "The Eloquence of the Pulpit and Platform."

The Redskins are Coming In.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Gen. Miles this evening said todays advices from General Brooke were of a very satisfactory nature. He confirms the report that Chief Little Wound came into Pine Ridge agency yesterday, and says every hour seems to lesson the strength of the disaffected Indians. Short Bull, of Rosebud agency, has also come in and his people, numbering nearly 2500, are reported as following. Gen. Miles considers Short Bull one of the worst and most treacherous Indians in the northwest.
