The ladies of the M. E. church will give a sociable at the residence of Geo. Hochstetler on Wednesday evening, Dec. 31. Mr. Henry Hopkins will start Sunday for Fon du Lac, Wisconsin, to visit his family, who will make Albany their home in the future.

The Royce and Lansing Co. came over from Corvallis yesterday and went to Eugene. They will be greeted by a large audience in this city to-night. Fugled, on Fourth street yesterday, a scarf pin in the shape of an ornamental spoon about 1 1/2 inches long. The owner can have the same by calling at this office.

The second quarterly meeting for the conference year will be held at the Evangelical church over next Sabbath, services on Saturday evening also. The public are cordially invited. The receipts of the Ladies Aid Society on Thanksgiving day were about $200, including dinner, supper and the donated money. About $150 was taken in at the entertainment the previous evening.

A large audience was present at the opera house last evening to listen to Bishop J. H. Becker's closing lecture. The subject was "Rhetoric of the Pulpit and Platform," and was highly entertaining. The orchestra which furnished such excellent music for the entertainment of the ladies Aid Society on Wednesday evening was composed of Mr. Henry Hopkins, violin; Mrs. A. B. Seal, piano; and Mr. A. B. Seal, cornet. It has been called the Orphan's Home Orchestra, and for a trio cannot be excelled.

Little Jessie Harbour is one of the many attractions of the Royce & Lansing Co., and in "Toma Vacation" she has a very pretty child's part. Her song and pretty dances are a great attraction for the ladies and children, and she quickly wins her way into the hearts of her auditors. Nothing small about Matthews & Washburn. They offer to all complete married between Thanksgiving and New Years '91 buying from them of the handsomest and most necessary articles free of charge that a newly married couple will want. A Self-Explanatory Letter.

D. T. WYMAN, Pacific Mutual Accident Insurance Co., Albany, Or. DEAR SIR:—I am in receipt of your company's check for $10.71 in full payment of the claim on account of accident I met with on July 13th. The adjustment of my claim has been prompt and satisfactory. I shall take pleasure in recommending the Pacific Mutual to my friends. Yours Very Truly, E. J. LANSING.

THE CITY ELECTION.

It Promises to be Very Quiet—The Contest for the Treasurership.

The city election on Monday promises to be attended by no spirited contest unless it is for the treasurership. The probable increase in the business of that office next year renders it a desirable plum in the politics of the city.

It is conceded that the republicans will nominate the present treasurer, E. L. Kenton, who everybody knows will be a mighty hard man to beat at the poll. The democrats either will, it is said, nominate either H. Farwell or Cal Burkhardt.

For marshal the democrats will re-nominate the present officer, J. N. Hoffman. Who his opponent will be cannot be determined until the meeting of the convention to-night.

In the selection of councilmen the general desire on the part of public seems to be to select men who will continue the important system of public improvements set on foot by the council of the present year. In such a course is wisdom. The question of bonding the city for $75,000 to be expended in the system of public improvements proposed has been voted on in the affirmative by the people and what is needed is a council that will continue this work.

By the nominations made last night good men were placed before the voters to be elected next Monday, and there is no question but that a progressive council will be elected for the next year.

The Oregonian Lines.

The papers transferring the Oregonian lines to the Oregon & California Company are now about completed. The next thing to be expected is a lease from the Oregon & California to the operating company, the Southern Pacific. The present lease of the Oregon & California's lines was for forty years, and took effect about three years ago. It develops that the original proposition for the purchase of the Oregonian lines was entertained by Oregon & California stockholders. Differences of opinion grew up, and while the stockholders were divided as to the advantages of the purchase, time was passing by, and Huntington thought best to take hold of them himself and forestall any other intending purchasers. Now, it appears, the stockholders have assented to the purchase; hence the transfer of the property.

Internal Revenue Collections.

The internal revenue commission's report shows an increased business over any previous year in the district of Oregon, which included Oregon and Washington. The collections for this district were: By John Whitaker, $141,355 29; by Milton Weidler, $181,083. Of this $137,904 81 was collected in Washington. In this district 154,088 pounds of tobacco were used in making 7,073,720 cigars. The seizures for violation of laws aggregated $1100. The number of special taxpayers in Oregon is 6353; in Washington, 5180. Eight hundred and seventy-nine gallons of rye whiskey was lost by leaking and evaporation. The receipts under the eleazarine law were $2204.

A Peculiar Attachment.

The other evening, up at McHains, when George P. Terrell's little twelve-year-old daughter went down to the pasture to drive up the cows she found a pretty little two-year-old deer feeding with them. She drove the cows to the barnyard, and the deer ran along with them as sportive as a calf on a June morning. When they were all secure in the barn, the deer was caught with but little trouble and is readily submitting to domestication. It is fresh and hearty and will make a nice pet for the children.—Statesman.

Are Hotel Clerks so Ignorant.

Yaquina Republican: The people of Yaquina should advertise more if they wish people to come here. It is difficult for a stranger to find out how to reach this place even in Portland. Most of the hotel clerks in that city either do not know or won't tell strangers how to reach Yaquina bay. They inform inquirers that they will have to go to Corvallis or Albany and from there by boat or stage. Some of them even assert that there is no way but to walk over a trail instead of in the cushioned seats of one of the equipped railroads in the country.

Wedding Halls.

Mr. Wm. Wright, of this city, and Miss Elvina Krause, of Salem, were united in marriage in Salem on the 27th inst. The groom is well and favorably known. He was formerly a contractor on the Oregon Pacific railroad. The bride is a sister of Mrs. A. Klein, of Salem.

Oregon Pacific Change of Time.

The train from Albany, east, will on and after November 30th leave Albany at 8:30 a. m., arriving at Halsted at 11:45 a. m., leave Halsted at 2 p. m., arriving at Albany at 5:15 p. m. the same date. The station formerly known as the Material Yard has been changed to Halsted.

The Leech Roaster & Baker.

Those ladies in Albany who desire to procure the larger size of the above named useful household articles send in their orders on postal cards at once to Mrs. A. M. Salt, Albany, Or. Agents wanted for Linn and Benton counties.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. R. Bilyeu and George E. Chamberlain went to Salem yesterday. Mayor J. L. Cowan returned yesterday from a trip to Portland.

THE OLD-TIME OREGONIANS.

They Are Too Often Accused of "Moss-backism" Without Reason.

The Corvallis Gazette publishes some wholesome truths in comparing the progress of the states of the Pacific slope, but in doing so drops into the frequent error of confounding the careful, conservative prudence of the old Oregonians with "mossbackism." The truth is the old-time citizens of Oregon are criticized and roundly abused without reason by too many of the newspapers of the state these same sturdy pioneers who carved out and built for themselves and others homes in the early settlement of Oregon are often the men who come forward with money and means to promote the public improvements and progressive enterprises of to-day—at least this is true in Albany and other growing cities of Oregon. While they have no love for the "booms" and wild-cat methods employed in some of the towns of California and Washington, they are by no means asleep, nor are they "mossbacks." There are sluggards among any people, but the majority of the pioneers of Oregon, while they are careful and conservative in business methods, are more to be relied upon than many of the would-be "builders" who damn the spectacle of a financial, real estate, or business collapse in this state, as have some of our neighbors; on the contrary the country and the cities of the state—notably Portland, Salem, Albany and Eugene—are experiencing as steady and substantial a growth as that enjoyed by the states north or south of us, not as rapid perhaps, but more permanent.

A Refined Parody Company.

The Royce & Lansing Co. Who Will Appear at the Opera House To-night.

In an interview regarding his experience in the show business Ray L. Royce has said: "It is about twelve years since we started on the road as the Royce bell-ringers. We were very hands then, but worked steadily. Then I took Mr. Lansing in and we formed the Royce & Lansing Musical Comedy Company, a name which we have kept, although Mr. Lansing has not been in the company for two years.

"We have always tried to give a clean show, and I think we have succeeded. Then, too, we have had good financial success. This 'Toma's Vacation,' is not a play, and we don't pretend to call it a play. It is merely a sketch intended to hold together the various specialties of our company. If these specialties, character sketches, songs and the like are not well given, then the entertainment is a failure. Some day I hope to get a play which in itself will be of worth, and which will give us a chance to do something better than I have yet done.

"We have had what we consider fair success, but we are anxious to do still better."

"This is the third visit this company has made Albany, and they lay out a first-class, clean and refined entertainment."
