

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE.—The Daily Herald will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 6 cents per copy.

NOTICES ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. David Scott, postmaster at Fox Valley is in the city. Julius Schmidt returned to this city last evening. Hank Hayes came over from Corvallis yesterday.

F. L. Such is looking after his large interests in this vicinity. Ed Goins has sold his interest in the Jefferson mills to his parents. Call and get a year's supply of linen that E. C. Searles is selling at cost.

H. J. Jones has the largest line of beautiful Christmas cards in the city. Nice candies, nuts, etc. at Powell & Co's, cheaper than any place in the city.

Nothing is nicer for a Christmas present than one of those beautiful books at H. J. Jones'. The Ladies Aid Society will meet this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. L. E. Blain.

As nice a stock of photograph albums can be seen at H. J. Jones' as one could desire. You can get a fine dress at E. C. Searles for 60 cents per yard, former price 75 to 85 cents per yard.

If you want anything in the grocery line Parker Bros. is the place where you will find it. W. N. Steel & Co. can get you a loan from $500 to $25,000 on good real estate security without delay.

I am showing the finest line of boots and shoes ever shown in Albany. Prices the lowest. E. C. Searles. Carpenters finished putting in the cattle guards on the Scio extension of the Oregonian railroad Tuesday.

W. M. Hoag, Wallis Nash and Superintendent Denham were in the city yesterday. Mrs. Walter Monteith and niece, Miss Laura Tate, who have been absent visiting, returned home yesterday.

At H. J. Jones' you will find some of the neatest bibles you ever saw. Nothing nicer could be found for a present. Miss Nancy J. Fitzwater was brought from Lacombe, in this county, yesterday, adjudged insane, and sent to the asylum.

The grade on the Scio extension of the Oregon railroad is now finished and bills for labor, material, etc., are being paid. Hercules baking powder is the best in the market, and is 10 cents cheaper per can than any other. Powell & Co. keep it.

THE CITY ELECTION.

It Was Very Quiet and Few Votes Were Cast.

FARWELL ELECTED TREASURER

The Councilman Elected Were F. M. French, C. G. Burkhardt and C. E. Hawkins.

The city election yesterday was one of the quietest ever held in Albany, and the vote was very light, owing no doubt to the fact that there was no mayor or recorder to be elected this year.

The chief interest was centered in the vote for treasurer and marshal, but there was not enough concern exhibited to produce any enthusiasm or strife.

The vote stood as follows: FIRST WARD. For marshal—H. C. Crowder, 85; J. N. Hoffman, 80. Crowder's majority, 5. For treasurer—F. L. Kenton, 102; H. Farwell, 63.

Kenton's majority, 39. For councilman—F. M. French, 86; A. J. Anly, 70. French's majority, 16. SECOND WARD. For marshal—Hoffman, 114; Crowder, 56.

Hoffman's majority, 58. For treasurer—Farwell, 104; Kenton, 64. Farwell's majority, 40. For councilman—Burkhardt, 107; Viereck, 54.

Burkhardt's majority, 53. THIRD WARD. For marshal—Hoffman, 133; Crowder, 98. Hoffman's majority, 35. For treasurer—Farwell, 134; Kenton, 98.

Farwell's majority, 36. For councilman—Hawkins, 138; Burkhardt, 92. Hawkins' majority, 46. RECAPITULATION. For majorities—Hoffman, 89; Farwell, 37; French, 16.

Burkhardt, 53. The members of the old council who hold over are B. F. Tabler, W. H. Garrett, G. W. Smith, who with the newly elected members will compose the board of aldermen for the next year.

This leaves the council the same as last year with the exception of one in the person of C. E. Hawkins, who takes the seat left vacant by L. W. Deyoe.

From the Mines. Superintendent Kendrick, of the Albany Mining and Milling Company, who has charge of the mill that is reducing the precious metals from the quartz rock, came in from the mines yesterday, having shut down for a day or two to get some important improvements made in the mill.

BROWNVILLE NOTES.

BROWNVILLE, Dec. 1. Misses Kate and Hattie Archibald, on Monday, paid Albany friends a visit.

J. M. Howe, on Monday, at the residence lately occupied by him sold at public auction his household furniture, preparatory to his departure to Eugene.

Miss Annie Lewis, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. James Wilson, on Tuesday, returned home to Salem.

Bert Caple, who on Monday arrived home from Portland will visit friends at this place the coming week.

DIED.—Nov. 25, Josephine, aged 30 year, wife of Henry Mackay. DIED.—Sunday Nov. 23, Myrtle, aged 10 years, daughter of Amanda and William McKinley.

Mrs. William Smith, on Thursday, left for Medford, having received in ornation that her daughter who is visiting friends had been taken seriously ill.

Thanksgiving was generally observed by the citizens of this place, the odoriferous aroma of roast turkey floated upon the air and all, we presume, gave thanks.

J. P. Galbraith and F. F. Croft, of Albany arrived in town on Friday.

Ballard Tyler, who has been unwell for the past week is on the convalescent list.

Miss Hattie Chesney, of Albany, is visiting relatives and friends. Miss Lottie McKinley is improving in health and again gaining in strength.

W. H. Meyers, who arrived from Iowa during the past week intends to locate in Brownsville.

Mr. Banks of Tacoma, on Monday, accompanied by a number of miners started for the Blue River mine, to develop his claim in that locality.

Mrs. Peter Home who for the past month has been at Sodalville, on Saturday returned home.

Rev. I. Y. Baily and family who passed Thanksgiving at Scio, attending the dedication of a new Christian church, returned home on Monday.

The birthday party given at the residence of James McHargue, in honor of daughter, Miss Ida, was attended by a large number of her young companions.

In a late issue of the Oregonian it was stated that Mrs. A. C. Curl, "nee" Miss A. Beers, was thought to be the first white child born in Oregon, her birth taking place in 1840.

EUGENE NOTES.

EUGENE, Dec. 1. The attendance of school children is 125 more in Eugene than it was at this time last year. This would indicate a healthy growth for Eugene.

The unusual dry weather allows communication with the Siuslaw by stage and wagon to an unprecedented late period in winter. All people living way back are taking advantage of it, and are laying in the winter's supplies. Trade is brisk. Streets full of people.

To the great satisfaction of those who are building, our sawmills are running opposition, and the result is lumber is way down—rough lumber $8 per thousand and dress-lumber in proportion. A fine new sawmill put up here this summer has no doubt had much to do with it.

Coburg too would soon have a good growth if the proprietors of the town site would part with their lots at any reasonable figure.

Another indispensable thing, Coburg must have a new schoolhouse. The old building that accommodated those who are now grandfathers is too utterly small and behind the times.

The new steel bridge across the Willamette at Springfield is about completed—cost $40,000. In comparison with the usual cumbersome structures, it looks as though it would not be sufficient for the weight that will sometime be put on it. But steel means strength and certainly is very handsome, and a credit to Lane county.

The little burg of Springfield is booming. Your correspondent looking over the place the other day counted in the neighborhood of 20 new houses. The extension of the railroad from Coburg is graded to the village and the ties are ready to be laid. Everybody is moving to Springfield.

Last Wednesday the people of Eugene were treated to one of the prettiest nights they ever saw. Seven hundred school children marching along the streets. They were preceded by the members of J. W. Geary Post G. A. R. and all morning the best of citizens were assembled to witness the presentation of a beautiful flag by the Post to the school.

The presentation speech was made by M. Martin, the commander of the Post, and was received by an address from the principal, Prof. J. M. Williams. Altogether, as many citizens have said, it was a very impressive ceremony, and one long to be remembered.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS. Standard & Cusick druggists, believe that the secret of success is perseverance. Therefore they persist in keeping the finest line of perfumeries, toilet articles, cosmetics, drugs, and chemicals on hand. They especially invite all persons who have palpitation, short breath, weak or shrunken spirits, pain in side or shoulder oppression, nightmare, dry cough, smothering, droopy or heart disease to try their medicine.

New list of Cures before it is too late. It has the largest sale of any similar remedy. Fine book of testimonials free. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is unsurpassed for sleeplessness, headache, fits, etc., and it contains no opiates.

Ten Fine and Useful Presents to be Given Away. Commencing November 1st, I will present every one a ticket for each dollar's worth of goods purchased, entitling the holder to a chance to draw one of the following beautiful presents:

- 1. Large silver castor, $10 00
2. Silver fruit dish, 9 00
3. Silver cake basket, 8 00
4. Silver card stand, 7 00
5. Set silver knives and forks, 6 00
6. Double pickle castor, 5 00
7. Silver butter dish, 4 00
8. Single pickle castor, 3 00
9. Seth Thomas clock, 2 00
10. Silver cup, 1 00

I have just received another large invoice of carpets, in choice designs, which I am selling at old prices, notwithstanding carpets have raised in value from 2 1/2 to 5 cents per yard, and will double that before spring. I have also received a new invoice of Smyrna rugs in new patterns, also brush door mats, lac curtains, window shades, etc. Samuel E. Young.

Julius Gradwohl's mammoth display of holiday goods is now complete and the nice Christmas presents are going fast. Holiday shoppers should call early at the Golden Rule Bazaar and select their presents.

Nothing small about Matthews & Washburn. They offer to all couples married between Thanksgiving and New Year's 1891 buying from them a stove one of the handiest and most necessary articles free of charge that a newly married couple will want. See their show window.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The City Fathers for Jefferson.

JEFFERSON, Ore., Dec. 1.—City officers elected to-day are as follows: T. M. Witten, T. H. Corbell, W. M. Bilyeu, T. M. Hole, Z. G. Hays and A. Reile, councilmen; E. R. Smith, recorder; W. L. Jones, marshal; G. W. Richardson, treasurer. The vote between A. B. Hudeston and B. N. Longworth for mayor.

Salem Election. SALEM, Ore., Dec. 1.—At the city election to-day the results were as follows: Mayor, P. H. D'Arcy (dem), elected over Geo. Williams (rep), by majority office; recorder, M. E. Shot Him Through The Head. REDDING, Dec. 1. A report arrived to-night that Joe Goodwin, an ex-stage driver, who has of late been tending bar at Fall City, killed a man on Sunday by the name of Allen. It appears Allen went into the saloon drunk and had words with Goodwin, and told him if he would come out from behind the bar he would thump him. Goodwin grabbed a pistol, struck Allen twice, and then shot him through the head, killing him instantly.

Oregon Pacific Boats. SALEM, Ore., Dec. 1.—W. M. Hoag, Wallis Nash and E. H. Durham, of the Oregon Pacific railway, are in Salem to-day looking up boating on the upper river. They decided to build a floating wharf and warehouse in Salem. This will be done at once, so when the river rises boating can be carried on without interruption.

Bank Suspended. TEXARKANA, Ark., Dec. 1.—The First National bank suspended this morning. The bank's officials assert the embarrassment to be only temporary as their assets are $255,000, and the liabilities are $150,000.

Fort Hall Indians at Ghost Dance. BOISE CITY, Idaho, Dec. 1.—It is reported that the ghost dance is in progress among the Indians at Fort Hall reservation, at the camp Ping White, a Hanoek Indian, and an intimate friend of bogus Messiah Johnson.

Death of a Prominent Man. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Charles Livingston, the president of the Alta Publishing Company, and at one time manager of the Palace hotel, died here to-day, from an attack of pneumonia.

Marching Orders. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 1.—Orders were received this evening directing four troops of cavalry to march for immediate marching orders.

HOLIDAY SHOPPERS.

Should See the Wonderful Array at the Golden Rule Bazaar

Mr. Julius Gradwohl, the energetic and enterprising proprietor of the Golden Rule Bazaar in this city, whose store contains the largest and best selected stock of crockery, glass and other wares for domestic use, in the valley, as well as fancy wares, toys and beautiful holiday goods, has returned from a several month's trip to San Francisco, where he combined business with pleasure. He has replenished and enlarged his entire stock and now has a store that is a credit to himself and an ornament to the city. His shelves, counters and every available space are filled with the choicest and most varied stock of goods ever seen in this valley, including a mammoth display of holiday goods. He has added a new line which consists of a beautiful assortment of rolled gold jewelry warranted to wear as good as gold and costing one tenth as much money, diamond cut penknives, fine umbrellas for holiday presents and novelties. His stock is now in and holiday shoppers should lose no time in seeing his wonderful array which is unsurpassed by any on the coast either in elegance or prices.

Notice. A complete assortment of 1847 Rogers' Knives, forks and spoons, at lowest prices at F. M. French's jewelry store. Warranted goods. Clocks at Will & Stark's.

HUSBANDS BE CAREFUL. Husbands too often permit their wives, and parents their children, to suffer from headache, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, fits, neuralgia, by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine such serious results could easily be prevented. Druggists everywhere say it gives universal satisfaction, and has an immense sale. Woodworth & Co., of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Snow & Co., of Syracuse, N. Y.; J. C. Wolf, Hilldale, Mich., and hundreds of others say "it is the greatest seller they ever knew." It contains no opiates. Trial bottles and fine book on Nervous Diseases, free at Standard & Cusick.
