How Severe Colds Are Broken Up in Montana.

From the Virginia City, Mont. Madisonian.

When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it is. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy last winter, when la grippe was prevailing. We are satisfied that we warded off several attacks that were threatening by the use of this syrup, and we have since relieved, in a few hours, severe colds, and in the course of two or three days, entirely broken them up by its use as have several of our friends whom we have recommend it. It is all that it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by Foshay & Mason.

The Leach Roaster & Baker.

TWO WICKED WOMEN.

They Ply Their Vocation as Timber Swindlers in This City.

A pair of modestly attired women with an unlimited amount of "conversational powers," have been stopping in this city for a few days, plying their vocation as timber locators. They solicited business from women chiefly, and promised to locate their victims on fine timber claims for a modest fee of $75.00, holding out brilliant inducements to make them rich in a short period of time, in a manner that would have excited the jealousy of Captain Stone or any other of the timber land swindlers who have worked this racket threadbare.

The two women seem, however, possessed of a faculty of gleaning successfully in the field gone over, and by reducing the price from $150 to $75 they have found a few victims in Albany, who will probably a little later discover that they have paid a couple of female "locators" a fat fee for the privilege of buying as timber land some burned mountain quarter section of land upon which, after having seen it, they would be unwilling to pay taxes.

The most dishonest part of the work of these timber swindlers is that they usully show the investor some desirable piece of timber land, but when they make the location the unsophisticated buyer finds that the land they have secured is perhaps in another section and contains no timber save huge lot of burned logs and a few dead snags.

There is plenty of good timber land in Oregon, but it is not often obtained by paying fees to timber locators, whether they be men or women. In fact these functionaries, who have swindled unwary people out of thousands of dollars in this state during the past year or two, are to be shunned as upright people would shun the devil.

Gorton's Minstrels.

Gorton's famous New Orleans Minstrels, an organization with an excellent reputation for refined and artistic performances, will appear at Albany opera house on Thursday evening Dec. 11. This company is not a large one numerically speaking, but comes highly endorsed by some of the leading journals of the country, and we have every reason to believe the performance will be all that can be desired. The Missoula, Mont. Daily Gazette of Nov. 9, says: Gorton's minstrels came, saw and conquered Missoula. It is the cleverest small organization of the kind in the United States. The band is excellent and on the stage each performer is an artist. The Turkish patrol and sextette clo are enough to satisfy the longing after novelties, but the whole bill presented last night was far superior to the average minstrel performance.

The members of the church congratulate themselves on the fact that Prof. Shorey has agreed to supply the pulpit for the next six months.

Missionary meetings will be held Monday afternoon and evening, to be addressed by Rev. C. F. Clapp. Womens' meeting at 2:30 and childrens meeting at 4 P. M. General meeting at 7:30 in the evening. Prof Shorey will be present to conduct the several meetings. Pastors and members of other churches cordially invited to be present.

Accident on the Southern Pacific.

The south bound freight train on the Southern Pacific arrived last night eight hours late. The delay was caused by a collision at Portland, in which the conductor was seriously hurt. The Southern Pacific train was standing upon the cross track of the Union Pacific road, when a freight train on the latter road came rushing down in the fog and ran into the other. The box cars, bundles of freight and pieces of the engine, it is said, flew in all directions. Conductor Wankenheimer was on the car next to the one struck, and he was badly cut and bruised. He was taken to his home in Roseburg on the next passenger train.

ABOUT THOSE SIGNS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

The following notice appears in the Evening Democrat: "Engol, the sign painter, has three directory signs erected around the city. The one just across the ferry will stand during the low water era, but let the spring freshets, even a small one come, and it will be sure to sail down stream. The Democrat will give it not to exceed three months to be gazed at."

If our sign boards gather as much moss in the next three monts as the writer of the above notice will have, it will be safe. If not we will get a stuffed ballot box from Arkansas to hold it down.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

John Curtis, a Penniless Stranger, Swallows a Bottle of Laudanum.

About 4 o'clock last evening a stranger appeared at the county jaid and said he wanted to be to locked up. He was as crazy as a loon, and told a pitiful story, saying that he had taken laudanum and wanted to die. He was put to bed in one of the cells and was soon fast asleep.

Subsequently a HERALD reporter, in company with an officer called at the jail. He was able to talk freely and to tell his story.

He said that his name is John Curtis and that he came to Albany a week ago. He walked up from Portland, was sick, without money, and was unable to procure work. On Thursday he bought a bottle of laudanum and drank the contents, after concealing himself in a barn. The drug nearly killed him and made him crazy. He is an Englishman by birth, and talks like a man who has seen better days. He said he served in the civil war, and is 45 years old. Being sick, and unable to find such light work that he could do, he became despondent, and said he was sorry that he did not die. He is being cared for by the county officers.
