Grace, 5-year-old daughter of C. E. Brownell was burned very badly Monday afternoon with caustic acid. She broke a vial of the poison in her mouth, and by the untimely spit it out immediately, and the burn is not nearly so bad as it otherwise would have been.

PERSONAL.

Levi, Douglas, of Harrisburg, was in the city yesterday.

John Isom returned yesterday from a trip to Southern Oregon.

Deputy Sheriff D. S. Smith went to Harrisburg last evening to collect taxes.

D. C. Holt, of Lebanon, who recently sold out his drug business in that city, went down to Portland yesterday.

Dr. J. F. Henry of Brownsville, passed down the road yesterday to Portland on his way to Clackamas county, where he was called by the sickness of his nephew, the young son of Hon. B. R. Henry, who formerly resided in this county.

Rev. J. K. Kirkpatrick of Lebanon, was a passenger for Portland yesterday noon. Himself and Mr. Thomas Kay of the Salem woolen mills are figuring upon connecting Lebanon and Waterloo with an electric motor line and establishing an immense manufacturing and power producing plant at the latter place. The plan is perfectly feasible and would inaugurate a profitable and praiseworthy enterprise.

CITY COUNCIL.

Seven More Electric Lights Ordered for the Streets—Bills Allowed.

The city council met in regular session in the council rooms last evening, the mayor and councilmen all being present except Deje.

The special committee to whom was referred the matter of preparing the new city charter, reported progress on the same.

The owners of lot 3, block 103, and lot 1, block 14, eastern addition, were ordered to build a new sidewalk in front of said property within ten days.

The mayor and recorder were instructed to write to Binger Hermann in regard to the passage of the Albany bridge bill through the lower house of congress. It has already passed the senate.

The street commissioner was instructed to put railing up on Sixth and Vine streets to prevent teams from running into the water ditch.

Petition of Mark Hulbert and others for a new sidewalk on the east line of block 42 was referred to the committee on streets and public property, with power to act in the matter.

The committee to whom was referred the matter of electric street lights reported, recommending that lights be placed at the following locations: At the junction of Jefferson and Fifth streets; at the junction of Washington and Seventh streets; Ferry and Ninth; Ellsworth at Second; Vine and Ninth; Lafayette and Eighth; Main and First. They also recommended the removal of the light box at the junction of Calapooia and First streets to Vine and Fifth streets. The report was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

At a regular meeting of John F. Miller, W. C. held Dec. 6th, 1890, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, In view of the loss you have sustained by the death of your beloved daughter, Mabel, be it

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased the Divine Providence to afflict them, and we commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are met in mercy.

Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and condolence be forwarded to the bereaved parents of our departed friend, and to the press.

HATTIE A. CRISON,
HATTIE TILLOTSON,
DOLL SALTSMARSH,
Committee.

Presbyterian Fair.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian Church are as busy as bees dressing dolls and preparing for their fair, to be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 16. A large number of dolls are already dressed and much care has been taken in the fitting and making of the clothing. All garments are well and neatly finished and fastened with buttons and button-holes, or hooks and eyes, so that they can be easily removed. The ladies bespeak a fair share of patronage and invite the public to attend the fair and examine the articles on sale. There will also be a variety of articles for boys on sale, which will be of good quality with prices to suit every urban in the city.

COMMITTEE.

Gene to Coos Bay.

Captain T. W. Symons, United States engineer, has gone to Coos Bay to get the work started on the government works there. Mr. Polhemus, who has had charge of the improvements at Yaquina for several years, has gone to Coos Bay to take charge there and Captain Symons is going over to give him instructions as to what to do this winter. There is a wharf to be built and sews and material to be collected and contracts to be made, etc., which will occupy the greater part of the winter, and as soon as the weather permits in the spring work will be begun on the jetties.

Left for Parts Unknown.

Fred Volley, the man who was shot by Policeman McClain, has left the city. He had almost entirely recovered from his wound, and was to have begun work cooking in the Franklin house (Waverly hotel) Sunday. Sunday morning, however, he arose very early, about 4 o'clock, got breakfast for himself, eat the same, and skipped for parts unknown. It is believed that he suspected that he would be arrested for some crime committed before he came to this city, as he always acted very queer. The case against Policeman McClain will now, probably, be dismissed, as Volley was the only witness.

To be Lighted by Electricity.

The Eagle Woolen mills at Brownsville will be lighted by electricity instead of coal oil. The mechanics are now placing the plant in position, and by this time next week everything will be in readiness. This will be a big improvement to the mills.

Dress goods a specialty at W. F. Read's.

CROOK COUNTY NEWS.

Some Interesting Notes Cited from the Columns of the Ochoce Review.

The effort to establish a new county out of portions of Crook and Wasco counties is not meeting with much success among the heavy tax-payers either in this or Wasco county.

During the storms of last winter feed became very scarce and stock had to eat whatever came handy—nails, kegs, old rags, etc., and some even took on a supply of gravel for roughness. Albert Wilson killed a cow last Thursday that had evidently wintered on a gravel pile, as he found about four pounds of gravel in her stomach, but it had evidently proven a healthful diet, as the cow was fat and was excellent beef. If ranchers would cultivate a taste for gravel among their cattle they might save considerable work in preparing feed, as rock abounds in this county.

The people of this section had a little foretaste of winter last week. Rain began falling on Tuesday evening, coming down in torrents nearly all night, while snow covered the surrounding hills with their winter garb. But no one objects to the approach of winter, as all are well prepared for whatever storms may come, there being an abundance of feed all over the country and stock are in excellent condition, hence there is no fear of loss as there was last winter. Though the winter of time yet for a long winter, and is probably not safe to predict how we shall get through until spring opens next April or May.

Crook county can well boast of the energy and enterprise of some of its women, some of whom set an example which might well be followed by a number of women here. One such number of women have taken ranches and are improving them so that in a few years they will have comfortable homes. One which will prove a valuable piece of property if the Oregon Pacific is built on the present survey is the place taken by Mrs. Holbert on Deschutes near where the railroad survey crosses the river. Mrs. Holbert was out to her place last week and assisted in sowing a crop of rye and did other work to fulfill the requirements of the land laws.

MONMOUTH NOTES.

Monmouth, Dec. 8.

The Monmouth Democrat has changed hands.

Mr. Thomas Boothby is putting up a fine residence on his property in the southern part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolverson of Albany were here last week visiting Mr. Wolverson's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Wolverson.

The stockholders of the motor line have recently erected a neat looking depot at the terminus of their route at this place.

The free lecture on phrenology, by Prof. Vincent, in the college chapel Saturday evening, was well attended.

The second term of Oregon State Normal school, began last Monday with an increase of 20 new students. The total number now enrolled is 192.

Mr. John Stump, while digging a well on his place one and a half miles west of Monmouth a short time ago, struck, 12 feet below the surface, a layer of red print 14 feet thick, which experts pronounce equal to any in the state.

ASSESSMENT AND TAXATION.

At a meeting of the Linn County Business Council, P. of H. held Saturday Dec. 6, 1890, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered published:

WHEREAS, There was a special committee appointed in 1889 by the Senate in the state of Oregon on assessments and taxation, with instructions to report their conclusions in the form of a bill at the next session of the legislature for its condition, and

WHEREAS, Said committee has made its report, and

WHEREAS, If the principles and recommendations in regard to taxation by said committee should be adopted by the legislature, the burdens of taxation would in our judgment fall much heavier on the laboring classes and farmer of the state than under the present laws in regard to assessment and taxation, therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Linn County Council hereby request the members of the legislature to use all honorable means to defeat the adoption of said report and enactment of its recommendations into the forms of law.

The Reason Why.

Why is it that Klein Bros. can afford to sell boots and shoes so reasonable? Because they are both practical shoe makers and make of their expenses, by working on the shoe bench, and any boot or shoe you buy of them, no matter what kind it is, man, woman or child, that rip, run oves or the sole rips loose they repair them for you free of charge, and as they do all the work themselves, they don't charge you 25 to 50 cents a pair extra for a warrant to pay some shoemaker to repair them for you. They also make a specialty of repairing rubber boots.

Heir to a Fortune.

Jos. Wilson who has been working for the Oregonian railroad company, received a letter from an attorney in the east Wednesday night, announcing the death of a relative. By the death of this relative he inherits $1,500,000. It is needless to say he has thrown up the job on the road.

Ladies' and gentlemen's hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs at G. W. Simpson's.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

R. H. Curl on Monday left for Lebanon.

J. Riley of Benton was in town during the past week.

J. M. Moyer, on Wednesday returned home from Portland.

O. P. Coshing, Sr. has been slightly ill during the past week.

The infant child of A. Gentry, is extremely ill from bowel complaint.

R. L. Blanchard of Albany, passed Sunday with home friends of this city.

Rev. J. Waldrop occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church, on Sunday last.

J. A. Winters, the photographer arrived in town on Tuesday, and will remain one week.

Another new house is being erected on Hausman's addition, it is on the property of Elmer Hill.

A. Howe, passed Sunday with family returning to his duties on the Oregonian R. R., on the following Monday morning.

The ladies of South Brownsville are making extensive preparations for a Christmas tree celebration, to take place at the C. P. church, on Sunday last.

Since the widening of the Oregonian R. R., most freight cars of the Union Pacific R. R. are loaded freight at the Brownsville depot.

During the past week Rev. Bowersox of the Evangelical church has been conducting a protracted meeting at the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Findley McKee and children, who on the evening of Tuesday, arrived from Puget Sound will remain in Brownsville during the winter months.

On Monday, Dr. O. B. Reese, left for Portland, accompanied by his son Wannah, a portion of the way to Mossy Creek, Tenn., where the young man will, in the future reside with his grandparents.

The "City Fathers," on Thursday evening, met and transacted the following business: Petitions for sidewalk in Hausman's addition, Oak St. and Cedar street were granted, also a sidewalk ordered built to the city jail. F. M. Jacks and A. S. McDonald, were appointed judges of the city election, to take place on the third Monday in December. Different bills were allowed amounting to $96.70.

On Wednesday at 5:15 p. m., the whistle of No. 10 locomotive, awoke the echoes of the valley, and informed the citizens of Brownsville that the broad gauge was completed to that point, and the first train under the new system had arrived, which means that Brownsville is now in close connection with the immense railroads of the United States, and can ship or receive freight, produce, etc., without extra charge or transferring. On Thursday morning all the narrow gauge rolling stocks, remaining on this side was pushed forward toward Coloug, a large number of track layers, following and widening the road in advance of the broad gauge train. On Thursday at 4 p. m., the regular 5 p. m. train was derailed at Plainview, but aside from the delay, no damage was done and at present writing the trains are making their regular trips.

COAST NOTES.

Grant county sent out 1000 head of cattle to market last week.

China pheasants are seen daily within the city limits of Salem running at large.

Mrs. G. M. Richy, daughter of ex-United States Senator J. H. Slaton, is lying in a precarious condition at La Grande.

Pendleton is now afflicted with an epidemic of measles. Children in many families have been attacked by the disease.

Baker City has been compelled to compromise a case to its own disadvantage brought by an indignant man whose cattle were impounded.

A couple appeared before Squire T. J. P. for C—n precinct lately, and made him a legal tender of the usual fee, when the Squire called, "attention, Right hand, Front. Side step to the left. Man and wife. Guide Right. March." The squire says he will donate a V toward building an armory at Condon.—Fossil Journal.

R. F. Dodd, one of the victims of the Lake Labish disaster died Saturday evening at 9:30 at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. This is the second death that has occurred since the fatal night of the 12th, of Nov. Three were killed outright and it seems that one man is unaccounted for who was riding on the baggage car. Five tombs at least must point to that wreck as the cause of the untimely death of its victims.

They are Clever Musicians.

Concerning Gorton's minstrels, now filling a week's engagement in Portland, the Oregonian of Dec. 24, says: "That burnt cork has lost none of its drawing power was fully shown by the large and appreciative audience that greeted Gorton's famous New Orleans minstrels. Last night the change from melodrama to minstrelsy was a most pleasing one. The company, taken as a whole, is fully up to the average, and as good as any seen here for a long time. Although small in numbers, as compared with some colossal aggregations, it is made up of some good comedians and clever musicians. The jokes are new and mirth-provoking."

MARRIED.

ADRIAN—WALTER.—In this city Dec. 9, by Rev. J. B. Fisher Mr. Otto Adrian and Miss Marguerite Walter, both of this city, but lately of Dakota.

King's Daughters' Entertainment.

The King's Daughters, of the M. E. church, will, on Friday evening, Dec. 12th, give an entertainment, fair and social at the W. C. T. U. hall. A nice programme will be rendered, and also quite a number of useful articles will be on sale at reasonable prices. During the evening the young ladies will serve a lunch of coffee and cake to those who desire for 10 cents. The programme will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Admission 10 cents.

An Epidemic of Crime.

Dayton Enterprise: Dayton's evil star seems to be in the ascendency. Within the past two weeks the vicinity has been shocked by two murders, one suicide and another attempt at suicide. It is singular how disasters seem to come in series, one of the most remarkable instances being the repeated calamities that befall Johnstown, Pa. Like the mythical "hell hounds," they travel in groups.

Masons' Take Notice.

All Masons and their families are invited to meet at Masonic Hall this Wednesday evening Dec. 10 for social enjoyment.

T. L. WALLACE,
W. M.

A Little Discrepancy Somewhere.

State Journal: Oregon polled nearly 80,000 votes last June, and Washington at her last election polled 54,365. Washington, according to Census Superintendent Porter, has 36,000 more population than Oregon. There is a little discrepancy somewhere.
