THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Mayor Cregier of Chicago has signed the ordinance providing for the issuance of $5,000,000 bonds in aid of the World's Fair...

Now the President of the United States can issue his official proclamation to the nations of the world, informing them that the World's Fair will be held in the city of Chicago at the time fixed upon...

The San Francisco Chronicle, whose editor Mr. De Young has been foremost among the Pacific coast delegates in arranging for the World's Fair, says:

There has been an idea abroad that the exposition would be a flash in the pan. Foreign nations knew the squabbling and quarreling which attended the selection of the location, and have been cognizant of the bickering which has gone on so continually since Chicago was chosen...

President Harrison's proclamation will convince them of the national character of the undertaking, and when it is followed this winter, as it will be, by liberal state and national appropriations...

THE INDIAN TROUBLE.

would long ago have been perpetrated but for the military strength which General Miles suddenly developed at each of the Sioux agencies.

When a man, charged with a grave responsibility, has conducted himself so as to bring around exactly what everybody was praying for, it seems grotesque, not to say contemptible, to blame him for an excess of zeal. Without putting on valorous airs, or assuming the garb of mystery, General Miles went promptly at work as soon as he saw that a crisis was approaching; to surround the Indians effectually and to compel them to count the cost of every step they took...

The Illinois man who shot two boys because they were skating on his pond and then overawed a court with his revolver should move west. He would be a handy man in Wyoming or Idaho, as he seems to have the frontier belief in the sovereign virtue of the revolver in all disputes.

Little is being said about the election of U. S. Senator, which is to occur at the approaching session of the Oregon legislature, but it is said they will be more than one candidate when the time arrives.

Stockholders' Annual Meeting. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon Iron Manufacturing Co. will be held at the office of the company, in the Hotel Oregon, on the 22nd of December, 1900, at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing directors of said company, and for other business of the company.

Notice to Electric Light Consumer. Owing to the great loss in "burn outs" of incandescent lamps on the Westinghouse circuit, it is necessary to either charge for lamps or to burn out or advance the rate. Therefore, consumers will be notified that after January 1st, 1901, the rate on 16-cp lamps burned until 12:00 p. m. will be charged $1 per 100 as a basis rate, in place of 80 cents as at present, for each lamp, and larger lamps in proportion; and lamps burned a later hour than 12:00 p. m. will be charged $1.50 for a 12-cp lamp, and $2 for all night, same as the present price; and consumers contracting and paying for a 2500 light and letting their lamps burn all night or a later hour than contracted for, will be charged accordingly without further notice.
