JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Flannels at cost at Searls. Masquerade ball to-night. Hulm & Dawson, druggists. Saxony yarn at cost at Searls. Ross Hilber, of Scio, came over last evening. Boenicke keeps the finest candies in the city. Boenicke keeps those juicy non-productive oranges. C. P. Burkhardt left yesterday on a trip to the Sound. W. J. Fitzpatrick, of Corvallis, was in Albany yesterday. Choice fresh butter at C. E. Broswell's at 65 cents per roll. A. J. Adams of the Lebanon Express was in this city yesterday. Fine chow chow and salmon bellies in bulk at Mueller & Garrett's. Miss Bethers, of Philomath, is spending a few days in Albany among friends. Mrs. Atken, of Salem, came down from Mill City last evening on his way home. Glauco Strahan, who is attending school at Salem, is 160 Albany for the holidays. Fred Ross takes charge of the news route, on the O. P. "bay train," to-morrow. Dr. J. M. Patton, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is again able to his practice. Ben Barker is again on duty as brakeman on the O. P. after a wrestle with typhoid fever. E. Matlock of Eugene came down last evening to attend the New Year Masquerade party. H. S. Brasfield and Gilmore Hays, of Corvallis, came up from Salem last evening on their way home. Harry Day takes his departure for Portland this morning, after spending a week at his home in this city. All members of the W. C. T. U. are earnestly requested to meet this evening at 4 o'clock at the W. C. T. U. hall. Will Martin, formerly O. P. river agent in this city, is on a visit to his many friends here. He is now operator at the "Shops," on the S. F. Quite a number of people from Corvallis and Salem will attend the Mask ball this evening at the opera house. A fine time is anticipated. The very best stock of tooth brushes, clothes brushes, toilet back hair brushes and which brooms at Hulm & Dawson's drug store. If you want anything choice in the grocery line go to Mueller & Garrett's, the only place in the city where you can get everything you want. Remember the grand masquerade ball New Year's eve, at the opera house. Masks will not be removed until midnight. Calcium lights, moonlight dance and other new attractions will be introduced. Spectators reserved seats at Will & Link's music store. Mrs. Gilbert is prepared to do dress-making of all kinds. She has employed a first class dressmaker from Sacramento, and will guarantee satisfaction on all kinds of work. Children's garments a specialty. Location, First street over the Golden Rule Bazaar. Mr. H. Manders, representing John & Son, the San Francisco costumers, arrive here last night and will be at the St. Charles hotel to-day with a fine array of costumes for the masquerade ball. He brought with him a great variety of elegant costumes for both ladies and gentlemen. Three young men of Harrisburg spent ten days in the McKenzie and killed eleven deer. One of them then flew down the river from Harrisburg to Corvallis last Wednesday and killed sixty five pounds of ducks and geese on the way. They say game was never more abundant along the banks of the Willamette than at present. Hon. A. R. Shipley and son, M. K. Shipley, leading citizens of Clackamas county, were in the city yesterday. The former is one of the board of regents of the Agricultural college, and was on his way to Corvallis to attend a meeting of the board. The latter was looking after business interests, being interested in the hay hauling business. Mr. Julius Gradwohl, proprietor of the Golden Rule Bazaar store, informs us that he invites the general public who desire to purchase any holiday presents to hurry up, as his goods are going very fast, and New Year's is too close at hand to make new orders. He still has plenty of beautiful holiday goods, but he cannot tell how long they will last, and some items are already sold out. All the Way from Kansas. Three families, named Davis, Rice and Gibson, arrived in this city yesterday from Kansas, having brought their household effects, and even their poultry, from that state. They are farmers and expect to locate near Albany. The families number 17 persons and the trip occupied two weeks. A Phantom Party. Miss Jennie Malin entertained quite a number of her young friends of Albany, at the residence of her parents by a Phantom Party Monday evening. An excellent lunch was served at 12 o'clock, and was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

A Serious Runaway Near Shedd. Practical Jokers Arrested and Fined. SHEDD, Ore., Dec. 21, 1890. During the past week this vicinity has been the scene of several accidents. Last Friday, Mr. Robert Morgan's oldest boy, Prince, while out hunting in company with several other boys, had the misfortune to lose all his fingers and sat on it to rest, and when they were ready to start, he got off of it, the hammer of young Morgan's gun caught on a post, causing its discharge with the above results. The same evening Mr. Elmer Gordon, while getting out of his wagon, caught his feet in the lines and came to the ground striking on his head and hands, throwing his wrist out of place and bruising him up generally. Last Sunday morning Mr. John Morgan, living near Philomath, hitched up his horse and he and his wife were going to attend a funeral. While they were getting into the buggy the horses started to run. Mr. Morgan lost one of the lines and they were both thrown out. Mrs. Morgan struck on her head and breast, and is now suffering from concussion of the brain. Mr. Morgan had his collar bone and shoulder blade broken. Dr. Gaff of Shedd, attended all the parties, and at last accounts they were all doing as well as could be expected. Mr. Moor, a merchant of Tangent, came to this place a few days ago and swore out a warrant for the arrest of some suspected tramps who were expected to board the south bound train in the evening at this place. He placed in the hands of a young man here to be served when the above tramps appeared. As this was the young man's maiden effort in this line, it was thought that he would go about it in somewhat of an awkward manner. Three or four young business men observed the plan of a ke on him and accordingly disguised themselves as tramps and came marching up the railroad each with a pack on his back, and when in the vicinity of the depot, our ever watchful guardian of the peace approached them and requested them to accompany him to the office of the justice of the peace. The would-be tramps protested and took hold of him, and asked him with considerable abundance what he meant. He once again cried out and the boys were compelled to take to the bushes. They ran in one direction to get away and the young man with the warrant ran the other in search of a pistol big enough to arrest them with. After searching every wood house, stable, deer kennel, barrel and dry goods box in the place, he was old the truth concerning the joke, which resulted in the young men who were playing trumps to be brought up before Judge Ellison and mulcted in the sum of $7.00 each. Hon. F. A. Watts and Mr. Ben Johnson of Albina, were seen in Shedd last week. Mrs. Jas. Gault has been sick for the last two or three weeks suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. Change in Business. From Jan. 1st, 1891, we will change our business to a strictly cash system, thereby enabling us to buy for cash and get our discounts, whereby we can, and will, give our customers the benefit of our M. C. H. Mueller, while east, made arrangements to buy goods direct from the manufacturers at the lowest cash prices, and we will sell pure goods at the lowest cash prices. Believing that the people will appreciate a store where they can get goods at cash prices, we are again, Respectfully Yours, MUELLER & GARRETT. A Fine Prune Orchard. One of the finest prune orchards in the country is one belonging to Mr. Samuel Daw, near Peoria. He has 20 acres planted in prunes, some of these trees are full bearing. The seven year old trees this year produced four bushels to the tree, which he sold at the tree for 50 cents per bushel. He is also making quite a specialty of cultivating the wild raspberry which he says is superior to all other varieties. Mr. Daw was in the city yesterday paying his taxes. An Insolent Tramp. A few days ago near Tangent a tramp approached the residence of George Luper and acted in a very insolent manner. The eldest daughter was at home alone. She looked up the house and hastened to a neighbor's going to Mr. Bryan's. A man named Ryan went with her to the house and found the tramp trying to break in at the window. He was very bold, and would not leave until a shot gun was levelled at him. Albany and Astoria Railroad. Another evidence that this county means business is shown in a Washington dispatch, which says that Senator Mitchell has introduced a bill authorizing the Albany & Astoria railroad to build a bridge across the Willamette river in Oregon, and another bill granting the same company the right of way across the Grande Ronde Indian reservation. Yachting Passengers. Yachting, Dec. 20. The steamer Willamette Valley arrived at Yachting to-day with the following passengers: J. E. Robertson, Frank Gruber, Jacob Schmidt, Mrs. C. Marlow, E. Herbert, Mrs. M. Mullin, John Kane, Abraham Seidler, Geo. Merchand. Only sixteen clocks left and I will sell them below cost to clear them out. E. C. Searls.

It at the No. 1, and the baking powder is as good as the best. As he has and taking powder he is the name of Julius Gradwohl's Golden Rule Bazaar, and are expressly put up for his business, and he will continue to give a good quality of tea or baking powder an elegant piece of glassware. M. E. Church Donations. The new Methodist church, of Brownsville, will be dedicated on the 27th of next month, at 10 o'clock, by Rev. J. W. Long, pastor of East Portland, will preach the dedicatory sermon at 11 a. m. and Rev. C. C. Stratton, chancellor of the Willamette University, of Salem will preach at 7 p. m. Dr. Bonding has the reputation of being a very able preacher. He preaches somewhat on the Edwards style. Dr. Stratton is one of the finest orators on this coast. All are cordially invited to come and hear these very able preachers. The Signs of the Times. This evening, at 7:30, in the W. C. P. Hall, Mr. Grant will give a lecture on "The signs of the times," when he proposes to show by comparing scripture prophecies with current events, that we have reached the last generation; that one that we may hope to live to witness the second coming of Christ. His next lecture will be in the same place next evening. Subject, "Coming events."

AN ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment given last evening at the opera house by the ladies of the M. E. church, was a unique and enjoyable affair. The solo by Mrs. C. O. Lee and reading selections by Miss Moses were heartily enjoyed, it was also the excellent music by the orchestra. When the ladies were ready to leave, entitled the Milk Maids' concert, in which 25 young ladies in bright red costumes, with bright tin pans and milk stools, took part, performing a milk stool drill. The farce was admirably presented. The cast of characters was as follows: Chairman, Edith de Sande, San Francisco; Mrs. G. W. Hochstetler; secretary, Lauretta Jeanette Cabret, Harrisburg, Mrs. H. W. S. John; treasurer, Birdie Larkspur, Seattle; Mrs. C. O. Lee. The delegates were: Sophronia Dufanny, Corvallis; May Rideout; Mercy Annus Wisford, Oregon City; Lillie Rideout, Snyman; Marie de Jones, Portland; Eva Shapton; Zena Mabeholder, Albany; Mary Johnson; Irene Adolph Lowdy, Cow Creek Canyon, Mrs. Chamberlain; Prudence Pastry, Ashland; E. Starbuck; Betsy Ann Bellott, Yachting; Mrs. Liffler; Serphida Evanson; H. Mary; Bernice; Tompkins; Turner, Cora; Lotting; Missouri Green; Up-tart, Olympia; Maggie Chambers; Linnetta Walton, Los Angeles; Candis Com; Matilda Ann Perkins, Monmouth; Miss A. Kim; Priscilla Sullivan; Eugene Mrs. J. Ch. Oberlin; Melina Scrippina Eigerstoff, Scio; Ed. Mead. Coming Jan. 10. The National Ladies Concert Co., consisting of eight beautiful young girls possessing marvelous voices, will appear at the opera house in this city on Jan. 10. The Evening Journal says of them: "Central Music Hall was literally packed from parapet to pit last evening by an audience composed largely of the Swedish inhabitants of Chicago, who had been attracted thither by the entertainment given for the benefit of the Lutheran memorial fund. The novel feature of the evening's concert was the first appearance in Chicago of the Swedish Ladies' Octette. This company of singers hails from Stockholm, and consists of eight ladies who were trained and instructed in Sweden by no less a personage than Professor August Edqvist, late choir-master of the Royal Opera at the Swedish capital. Their singing is novel in style and highly enjoyable, possessing such a natural freshness of quality, and being characterized by superior finish. The voices of the singers blend finely, and are phenomenal in range, varying from high soprano to an alto that is almost baritone in quality. They sing with life and animation, shading with excellent taste and skill. On the Ladies' quartets soloists, Miss Nordling made the best impression, singing Mattie's "Ah! Non a Ver" with good effect. The deep contralto voice of Miss Heden was startling in the extent of its range and peculiarity of quality. Seats on sale at Will & Link's. Electro-plating Human Bodies. From the following Catalogue. A French doctor wants to introduce his patent process of preserving the remains of the dead. It is not embalming or yet automating them, though the bodies must be embalmed before the doctor's new process takes hold of them. The new idea is to electroplate the whole body and then to preserve it to posterity the same as the remains of those whose bodies are sufficiently well to allow the expense. First, the body is embalmed, and then it is dipped into a bath of nitrate of silver. It comes from this bath the color of polished silver. After that the face is subjected to a regular electroplating dip, and comes out burnished copper, ready to be preserved to the latest generations. In order to insure perfect success, the face is varnished, and this is the last operation. The burnished copper face is then warranted to remain the same to centuries, and treated with remarkably fair care. This opens up great vistas for old families. They can preserve to the latest day the buried copper countenance of the bod-carrier, saloonkeeper or tailor who was the distinguished founder of their noble line. Along with the family spoons, grandmothers' corner cupboard and other relics, the old man's copper-plated face can be kept a thing of beauty and a joy forever. All the race can have copper-plated ancestors by and by. An improved measuring machine for sale by E. C. Searls. Choice perfumery at Hulm & Dawson's, French's corner. Young, Rev. E. R. Richard officiating. The couple are among Lam county's popular young people, and they were the recipients of the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

The Reason Why.

Why is it that Klein Bros. can afford to sell boots and shoes so reasonable? Because they are both practical shoe makers and make their expenses by working on the shoe here, and any boot or shoe you buy of them, no matter what kind it is, man, woman or child, that rip, run over or the sole tips loose, they repair them for you free of charge, and as they do all the work themselves, they don't charge you 25 to 50 cents a pair extra for a warrant to pay some shoemaker to repair them for you. They also make a specialty of repairing rubber boots. Little Giant and Cowies' Bros. boys, misses and children's shoes—different styles—all sizes and widths made sound all around. Try a pair—nothing better—medium in price. Every pair warranted. SAMUEL E. YOUNG. HOLIDAY SUPPLIES AT COST AT KLEIN BROS. Holiday Shippers at cost at Klein Bros.
