THE COLUMBIAN FAIR

Brazil Proposes to Open First and Transfer to Chicago.

ANNEXATION OF HAWAII.

Wrecked Seamen Picked Up by Indians—Illinois Steel Works Shut Down—Faith Cure Failed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Information was received from Brazil that the youngest of republics proposes to hold a world's fair of its own to celebrate the Columbus discovery. It is not the intention to conflict with the celebration at Chicago, but to make it auxiliary thereto. The proposition is to open it January 1893, at Rio Janiero and after a few months close it, and transfer the whole exhibit to Chicago in time for opening fair there. Brazilians ask the co-operation of the United States in carrying out the project. The matter has been informally brought to the attention of the state department and congress. It is proposed to ask an appropriation of $200 000 for the United States exhibit.

WRECKED SEAMEN.

Arrive at Victoria in Friendly Indian's Canoes.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 1.—Captain Perry of the American schooner "Dare," wrecked on Vancouver Island on December 30, reached here today, being brought by post Indians in canoes. The "Dare" left San Francisco for Tacoma, December 8th. The schooner broke in two on the rocks. The captain and crew lashed themselves to the center board case, and drifted ashore in an exhausted condition, where they were kindly cared for by the Indians. At low tide the Indians went aboard the wrecked vessel, secured a couple of gold watches, chronometer and other articles which the captain gave them for bringing himself and crew to this city.

HAWAII WANTS TO ANNEX.

She Thinks in That Manner She Can Regain Her Reciprocity.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—A special dispatch from Ottawa, Ontario, says Col. Ashford, commander of the Hawaiian army admits he would not be surprised to see the Islands annexed to the United States in the near future. The placing of sugar on the free list under the McKinley bill deprived them of reciprocity advantages, which they for years enjoyed, and plantation owners are raising the cry of annexation so they may regain what they have lost.

It Was a Failure.

HULL, Jan. 1.—The strike of dock laborers at this port has entirely collapsed.

BLIZZARD STORMS

SWEEPING OVER KANSAS AND MISSOURI.

Railroads Blockaded, Supply Trains Likely to be Stalled, Freight Traffic Suspended.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Jan. 1.—The rain of this morning has turned into a blinding snow storm. One of the worst blizzards ever known here is raging and the weather growing much colder. High winds prevail and serious blockades on all railroads are inevitable. Reports from other parts of the state show storm to be general.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1.—Dispatches from different parts of Kansas indicate the entire cessation of all but local railroad traffic as the result of the storm. The C. B. & Q. east bound passenger train is blockaded on the Atlantic north of Atchison, and the Missouri Pacific east bound train is stalled north of Hiawatha. Relief trains with provisions and fuel has been sent from Atchison to the blockaded trains, but they too may be unable to plow through the huge drifts. The east bound Rock Island passenger train is tied up at Sabina, and the east bound Union Pacific train has been unable to get past Brookville. No freights have been sent out of here since noon.

WAR IN PERU.

The Insurgents Are Overcome—The Government Secure

FREIGHT TRAIN RAN INTO.

A Cotton Mill in Rhode Island and a Prison in New York Burned—New Years at the White House.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Advices from Peru give the details of the revolution which occurred in Lima on December 3d. Pierola, the Boulanger of Peru, has been quietly at work for some time among the lower classes endeavoring to create a revolution which would place him in a position of dictator. On the afternoon of December 3d, several of Pierola's chosen followers obtained admission to Fort Santa Catalipa with about eighty men. A signal was given and the insurrectionists suddenly took possession of the fort. The government troops were called out and for two hours a fierce battle waged, which ended in the defeat of the revolutionists. The Peruvian consul said to-day there was no fear of a further outbreak. Correspondents of W. R. Grace & Co. make light of the trouble and say there is no further danger of a revolution. Seventy-five of the insurrectionists were killed in the fight at the fort.

ON A TECHENICALITY.

Will Try to Save Their Necks—There Were Only 15 Jurymen.

CLIFTON, Arizona, Jan. 1.—Acting Governor Murphy respited sentences of F. Nelson and Antonio Grimado, both convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on the 9th inst. Respite for thirty days, grounds for the same are that the grand jury was an illegal body and the indictments invalid. Nelson and Grimado murdered their wives and children, Nelson when drunk and Grimado through jealousy. The new law covering grand juries changed the number from twelve to seventeen as a maximum and as there were only fifteen members on the jury that found the indictment, the prisoners may eventually be freed.

IMMENSE STRIKES.

Men Go Out On Grievances Slightly Trivial.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The men employed on the Victoria dock have gone out on a strike. The present movement is for the purpose of compelling the employers to pay the men for the time they are absent at dinner. Two thousand soldiers employed in the mines in the vicinity of Merther Lydoi Wales quit work on account of alleged grievances.

A Prison Burns.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 1.—A fire broke out in the kitchen department of the Clinton prison at midnight. The new portion of the prison, kitchen, hospital, and storerooms, state shop and machine shops, were destroyed. The new portion of the prison contained 350 prisoners, who made a stampede to escape, but the panic was soon checked, and the prisoners transferred to the old prison. The loss is $200,000. All the provisions were burned. The thermometer was ten below zero.

They Discredit the Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Secretary of War Proctor was interviewed to night regarding the rumor from the Indian agency at Pine Ridge that General Brooke has been relieved. The secretary said he knew nothing about it and did not credit the report. From what could be learned from other sources there appeared to be little reason for believing the report to have any substantial foundation.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—Marshall Field & Co., well known dry goods men began suit in the United States circuit court, for the recovery of duties paid under protest, under the provisions of the McKinley tariff bill. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 1.—The announcement is made here to-day that a deal signifying much to the live stock interests is on foot, the exact nature of which is known only to parties interested. It leaked out, however, that the movement looks to nothing short of a complete control of the Union Stockyards of the St. Louis & National Stockyards of East St. Louis by the Chicago "Big Four" combine of packers with Hammond, of Baltimore, coming in for a share in the amalgamation. Armour & Swift of Chicago, and representatives of Nelson Morris of Chicago and Hammond of Baltimore, met in a conference in this city last Saturday.

THE INDIAN WAR.

THIRTY OF THE BRAVE BOYS LAID IN RUDE COFFINS.

The Wife of a Lieutenant Drowned in the Missouri River—The Lieutenant Nearly Drowned.

OMAHA, Jan. 1.—The Bee's Pine Ridge special says: General Miles has assumed command of the forces, relieving General Brooke, who started this morning into the field with the second infantry, going by way of Oelrich's Point, about 15 miles north.

The Bee's Pine Ridge special says: Amid wild and bitter storm the bodies of thirty brave boys, who fell at Wounded Knee were laid away to rest. The cortege was headed by Col. Forsythe and Major Whiteside, and was composed of 15 wagons bearing the rudely coffined dead, followed by an escort of companies, "A", "K," "B," "I," "D," and "E," of the seventh cavalry. Together with assisting squad from the second cavalry, it wound away from camp up to the little cemetery, situated at the crest of the hill northwest of the agency. The surviving members of the fatal company "K" looked lonesome enough with their normally manned ranks. The vacancy was startling in contrast to the rest of the column that it caused tears to start in the eyes of many a comrade. Owing to the intensely critical condition of surroundings with the enemy flocking about the agency threatening an attack, the usual salute of guns was omitted while the soft notes from the bugle and wail of storm whispered a last good-bye.

PIERRE, S. D., Jan. 1.—Word was received from Fort Sully today that the wife of Lieutenant E. G. Carnahan was drowned today while crossing the Missouri river, in an army ambulance. The ice breaking and the vehicle going under. The driver was also drowned and Lieutenant Carnahan who was riding some distance ahead and returned to the rescue was barely saved from drowning by the soldiers.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 1.—Eight companies of troops left this morning for Hastville, Nebraska taking with them four Gatling guns. Much excitement prevailed here to-day over uncorroborative reports of the massacre of five troops of the Ninth Cavalry by Indians.

PARNELL AND O'BRIEN.

The Former Will Retire If the Latter Is Made Leader.

DUBLIN, Jan. 1.—It is understood here that Wm. O'Brien has cabled John Dillon, who is now in New York, that Parnell consents to retire if O'Brien is made leader of the Irish party. It is further understood that the Boulogne conference was adjourned in order to await Dillon's reply. The insupressable organ of the McCarthyite faction of the Irish party says: "Parnell wants no vindicative resulting in the annullment of the O'Shea divorce. He intends to marry Mrs. O'Shea when the divorce is made absolute."

KANSAS BLIZZARD.

A Foot of Snow Which Will Seriously Impede Travel.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1.—A blizzard set in last night and continued with great severity during the day over Northern Missouri and Kansas. Kansas is covered with a blanket of snow from four inches to a foot thick, which in many places drifted to such an extent as to seriously cripple railway traffic. All incoming trains from the west are delayed.

HE DEFENDS HIS FATHER.

And Says the Salvation Army Is Harmonious.

PARIS, Jan. 1.—Chibborn Booth, writes a letter to the Journal des Bates, denying there are dissensions in the Salvation Army. He also says the "Darkest England" funds are not placed to the general budget of the army, and asserts that General Booth is the sole author of "Darkest England."

CATHOLICS, PARNELL.

The Feud Waxes Stronger—Conflict of Priests and People.

PARNELLITE MAYOR IN CORK

Iowa and Kansas Blizzards—The Salvation Army and Booth—The Striking Business Not Enough Jurymen.

CORK, Jan. 1.—The feud existing between the Irish bishops and Parnellites, which has been smouldering since the election of North Kilkenny, again burst forth fiercely to-day and a most bitter feeling prevails on both sides. Mayor Hogan, an earnest supporter of Parnell, was installed at the town hall as mayor of Cork to-day, and a scene of intense enthusiasm was had on the part of Parnellites. No anti-Parnellites were present. A rumor was circulated early in the day that there was trouble brewing for the Parnellite mayor. The trouble manifested itself when the arrangements were being made, during the morning for the customary installation ceremony at the Catholic cathedral, which has always formed part of the day's proceedings. The Parnellites were then informed for the first by rumor, and afterwards by positive fact that the installation ceremonies at the cathedral must be abandoned, Bishop O'Callahan refused to receive the Parnellite mayor, this information was greeted with many signs of extreme indignation by the Parnellites, who are now convinced that the battle with the priesthoods is in its early stages, and that a long and desperate struggle for supremacy between themselves and the priests may be looked forward to throughout Ireland, if Parnell remains at the head of the Irish party.

DUBLIN, Jan. 1.—Lord Mayor Meade was installed amid a scene of considerable excitement. Sexton and Healy were roundly hissed by the crowds present, and the mention of Parnell's name was cheered to the echo.

ORDERED TO LEAVE.

His Crime Was the Color of His Cheek.

UNIONTOWN, Ala., Jan. 1.—There was a riot at Catharine station on the Mobile & Birmingham R. R., Tuesday night and it is reported that several people were killed. The difficulty arose out of a faction fight. The colored postmaster at that place was ordered to leave town, which he did. The excitement continued unabated, and an application has been made on the governor for militia.

BROOKE RELIEVED

General Miles Will Take Full Command.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 1.—A dispatch to the State Journal from Pine Ridge says the second infantry has received orders to pack their effects and be ready to move. It is rumored that General Brooke has been relieved of his command and ordered home. General Miles will take command in person and conduct operations in the future.

Fell Overboard and Drowned.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 1.—Captain Nelson, of the steamer Doublin, from Ensenada, reports the loss of a passenger named M. Wurch, between this place and Ensenada last night. Wurch was last seen at 3 o'clock this morning by the watchman, at which time he was under the influence of liquor. It is supposed he fell overboard about that time. He was a hatter by occupation and was formerly at Phoenix, Ari. It is said his family lived at San Luis Obispo.

Nebraska Militia Movements.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 1.—Governor Thayer to-day sent telegraphic instructions to the commander of the state militia at Long Pine, to move at once to Chadron, the scene of the threatened Indian outbreak. Orders also have been given to commanders at Fremont, Central City and Takamah to be prepared to start at any time.

"The Mills Are Closed To-Night."

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—The shops of the Illinois Steel Works, except the blast furnaces, were shut down last night, throwing fifteen hundred men out of employment. The officers of the company are reticent in regard to the length of time the mills will remain closed. The employes believe work will be resumed in March, if not sooner.

Faith Cure Failed.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 1.—Justin A. Pettigrew, a brother of United States Senator Pettigrew, died last night. Senator Pettigrew is much incensed at the Christian scientists who attended the sick man.

More Dancing Indians.

HIAWATHA, Kans., Jan. 1.—The Kickapoo Indians began the ghost dance on their reservation near here Sunday and have been at it every day since. One of their members fell dead from exhaustion yesterday.

At 5 o'clock this morning the overland train had not arrived, being still off the track at the Shops.
