Also to the same party, 1½ lot in block 13 eastern addition for $660; fractional lot in block 12 eastern addition, $505; lots 1 and 2 in block 12 eastern addition, for $3000; lots 7 and 8 in block 13 eastern addition, to M. L. Young for $1525. Total amount of sales $6,[illegible]80.

A Commendable Act.

We notice that school district No. 19, of Knox Butte, has placed a good and serviceable cabinet organ in the school room. This is a movement in the right direction, for no other element enters so much into the harmonious development and advancement of pupils as does music. School districts should place ample aparatus in the school room and of the best quality, as did the Knox Butte district in this case.

Business Change.

R. E. Conn has sold out his interest in the photograph business to his partner G. L. Wilcox.

THE NEW YEAR'S BALL.

A List of the Merry Maskers and Characters Represented.

The masquerade ball given at the opera house on New Year's eve was a brilliant success. Many elegant costumes were worn. A novel feature of the occasion was calcium lights and moonlight effects, which made a beautiful ball-room scene as the merry maskers traced the mazy rounds in the shimmering light.

Following is a list of those present, as furnished by the committee, which includes all whose names were handed in to them.

The Agricultural College.

The board of regents of the State Agricultural College, were in session at Corvallis during the week, says the Gazette: Those present were W. S. Ladd, Gov. Pennoyer, Supt. E. B. McElroy, A. R. Shipley, S. W. Grim, J. T. Apperson, J. K. Weatherford, John Emmett, W. P. Keady, T. E. Cauthorn and Wallis Nash. The proposed reports to the governor on the experimental station and on the college were read, carefully considered and approved. A letter from Mr. E. Grim to Mr. W. S. Ladd complaining of the management of the experiment station was read, considered and then on motion laid on the table. The necessities of the college and station for new buildings were discussed and the character and the probable cost of the buildings settled on in general terms. The receipt of $15,000 from the U. S. treasury under the Morrill act reported and discussed. The estimates and descriptions of additional outfit recommended by the various departments were fully considered and the methods of dividing the apportionment of the $45,000 were discussed and agreed on. Committee on legislation appointed and ordered to draft a bill for presentation to the coming legislature.

Better Not.

The Newport Republican says the directors of the Yaquina & Alsea Bay R. R. Co., have decided to use cedar ties on the road. Cedar in the Alsea country is cheaper than any other kind of lumber, it cost so little to manufacture it. What a trade that one industry will be when the railroad is finished.

A REMONSTRANCE.

People of Lane County Think $50,000 is Enough for Oregon's Exhibit.

The following remonstrance is being circulated and numerously signed in the respective precincts of Lane county:

To the Honorable the Legislative assembly of the State of Oregon:—Your remonstrators, citizens and tax-payers of Lane county Oregon, respectfully represent unto your honorable bodies that,

WHEREAS The Oregon State Press Association and State Board of Commerce and many leading papers of the state are taking such action as they think will secure an appropriation of $250,000, to be used in making an elaborate display of Oregon's products and resources at the Columbian Exposition to be held in Chicago in 1893; and

WHEREAS, The devastating floods in the spring of 1890 swept away many bridges, fences and other property to the value of millions of dollars, and was followed by poor crops in many localities, and a low price for wheat —our staple product, have caused hard times and very high taxes, already levied, we deem that the expenditure of such a large sum at this time for this purpose is more than the already overburdened taxpayers ought to pay. Therefore, We, your remontrators, respectfully ask your honorable bodies that this matter be carefully considered, and that only such an appropriation be made as may be absolutely necessary and expedient for a fair representation of Oregon's resources, and in no case to exceed $50,000.

The Swedish Nightingales.

Concerning the Swedish Ladies Concert company, which will appear in this city on January 10, the The St. Paul Daily Messenger says:

The Swedish Ladies' Concert company, which charmed all who were fortunate enough to hear them at their concert some two weeks since at the People's church, has returned to St. Paul, and will give a concert to-night at the Newmarket theatre. It is a pleasure to praise these ladies, so charming do they sing. In their national songs there is the suggestion of the fjord, the glacier, the mighty mountains and the quiet, green valleys of their native land. As they sing, one may catch in the refrain the expression of their never dying love to their beautiful country which every Swede bears with him to his death. The effect is enhanced by the National costumes worn by the singers. The voices are pure, clear, and without musical conceits of any kinds. They are cultivated as well, and sing not only the sweet old national ballads, but difficult passages from grand operas. Wherever the company has appeared, it has left hundreds of friends and admirers.

A Tough Yarn.

We have heard tell of people drinking "terrantular juice," "bug juice" and "tamarack juice," "thrible XXX" and "lime-water" and have known painters to drink their alcohol in stock, printers to drink their employers benzine, and, by the way, we have been keeping our eye on a young lady hash adjuster in Pasco who creamed her coffee with concentrated lye the other day and is still alive, but the fellow that is entitled to the "pi" is the fellow that walked into Mr. McSweeney's saloon last night and deliberately downed the contents of a pint bottle of whisky, gin, brandy or alcohol in which was being preserved the fossilized remains of a scorpion. "Scorpion juice" is the latest. If you don't believe this, ask U. S. Marshal Watrus for the bottle containing the proof.—Pendleton Tribune.

Church Notice.

There will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church to-day that the congregation may attend the dedicatory services at the M. E. church. There will be Sabbath school as usual at 12:15 P. M. Y. P. S. C. E. meeting in the lecture room at 6:45 P. M. The week of prayer will be observed. The topic of the Monday evening meeting will be: "Confession and Thanksgiving."

Increased Stock.

The Scio Press says: The directors of the Oregon Metalic Paint Co. of this city held a meeting in Salem Monday, and increased the capital stock from $2,500 to $5,000. The place of business is Scio, and the incorporators are W. J. Herren, D. D. Dayton and Adam Missler. The plant is to be increased. Supplemental articles of incorporation were filed Tuesday.

CUPIDS SUCCESSES.

The Little God Has Won Many Conquests the Past Year.

Cupid has no cause for complaint, for he has done good work in this county the past year. One hundred and seventy-nine marriage licenses have been granted by the county clerk, and during the month of December forty-four souls have been made happy (or miserable), as follows: Lillie A. Daws and F. W. Holmes, William Gum and Mary Sylvester, William Saltmarsh and Nancy Gum, Geo. W. McKnight and Helen M. Lasselle, Otto Adrian and Margartha Waters, Elmer E. Gordon and Clara E. Roberts, Francis M. Georez and Lettie A. Bassett, Martin L. Tucker and Junie E. Woodin, William Sawyer and Hattie Archibald, Asa G. W. Whetstone and Emma F. Stelmacher, E. J. Ryan and Anna G. Davenport, W. J. McCulloch and Etta Stroupe, J. L Gentry and Etna J. Settle, Schuyler Overton and nnie B. Drunkard, J. W. Oliver and Lindia Geime, William McFarland and Bell Coffey, Fred Fritigen and Lucy Costel, Chas. F. Swank and Luella Hadden, J. L. Ball and Mintie Harrington, A. S. McDonald and Idilla Stanard, Harvey Brown Maxwell and Francis R. Snodgrass, C. A. Warner and Jennie D. Young.

ANMERICAN JEWELRY.

It Beats the European Article in Artistic Finish.

I noticed two pretty bracelets the other day on the arms of two sisters, and felt well enough acquainted to say something of the the jewels. "Oh," said the younger sister, "mine is not nearly as handsome as my sister's. You see, this was made in Venice, while her's came from New York." Upon this I inspected the two bracelets, and soon saw that the workmanship as well as the material in that made her was of finer quality than in the case of the other. The ladies then broke forth in praise of American jewelry. No one was wise, they said, to purchase such things abroad unless in search of antiques and curios. Vastly greater skill, pains and time are put into the creation of the best American jewelry, and this fact is acknowledged by all Europeans except those interested on the other side of the question.

I was reminded, however, in the midst of this discussion, that Connecticut and Rhode Island abound in factories where jewelry of all, styles is turned out by the ton and at rates that would astonish the pauper laborers of Europe These jewels are of the cheapest imaginable material and workmanship. They are sold by the great gross at ridiculously low figures and retailed at a few cents each. They are made chiefly for the South American, Southern and Western markets. The negroes buy them with delight, and doubtless they are traded away to Mexican and South American negroes and Indians for really valuable considerations. The history of articles made for the savage markets would throw a curious light upon the tracks of modern civilization. It is not very long since Englishmen were suppelying African savages with gun barrels of gas pipe, ornamented with pressed sheet brass. These weapons must have been highly destructive to their savage owners.—New York Star.

Thirteen Years Work With a knife.

From The Baltimore Sun

Nicholas Levisler, No. 1,620 Hanover street, has erected in his parlor a wooden model of a large country residence which he made with a penknife. The building measures four feet by two, is two stories high, with a French roof and observatory, and has bow-windows and porches. A flight of stairs connects the first and second floors, both of which are neatly carpeted and the walls are covered with paper. The parlor and bedrooms are filled with furniture and have chandeliers hung from the ceilings. The model contains nearly "all modern conveniences." It stands in a garden that occupies almost all the parlor floor. On the grounds are gravel-walks, with settees, a pump and trough, an airy little structure for courting couples and a strong watch-dog. Mr. Levisler, who is a laborer, has been at work on the model for thirteen years, doing small parts at night when he returned from his day's occupation.

Change in Business.

From Jan. 1st, 1891, we will change our business to a strictly cash system, thereby enabling us to buy for cash and get our discounts, whereby we can, and will, give our customers the benefit. Our M. C. H. Mueller, while east, made arrangements to buy goods direct from the manufacturers at the lowest cash prices, and we will sell pure goods at the lowest cash figures. Believing that the people will appreciate a store where they can goods at cash figures. We remain, Respectfully Yours,

LINN COUNTY COUNCIL.

The January meeting of the council convened with Knox Butte grange on Saturday.

President F. M. Kizer called the meeting to order at the usual hour.

Agent Mart Miller made his annual report, which was ordered placed on file.

The committe to procure the publication of resolutions in relation to not repealing the mortgage tax and usury law, reported that papers to which the same had been sent promptly and cheerfully published the same.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to draft reasons why the mortgage tax and usury laws should not be repealed, reported, and the report was fully discussed and adopted.

The committee on legislation recommended that a resolution referred to them, to the effect that all revenues arising from saloon licenses be converted into the common school fund, be not passed. The report was discussed and adopted.

The annual report of the secretary was read and ordered placed on file.

The annual report of the treasurer, showing a healthy condition of the finances, was read, accepted and placed on file.

The election of officers resulted in the choice of John Bryant, president; John H. Scott, vice-president; Mart Miller, agent; Willis Powell, secretary; Strander Froman, treasurer; F. M. Kizer, gate keeper; J. W. Propst, chaplain; Thomas Froman and Phillip Swank, trustees.

The place for the next regular meeting of the council, on the first Saturday in February, was voted to be with Tangent grange.

A vote of thanks was given to Knox Butte grange for the use of the hall and for the most bounteous repast furnished.

The attendance was large considering that a two days' storm was on hand, and a late hour the meeting adjourned, all feeling that a pleasant and profitable session had been held.

OUR CANDID ADVICE.

It is seldom that we appear in the roll of spiritual adviser of family physician but there are times when we feel justified in calling the attention of our many subscribers to an article of true merit. We feel justified in saying that Moore's Reverled Remedy contains more actual merit than any medicine it has ever been our good fortune to test. One trial will make you as enthusiastic as the writer.

Boots and Shoes.

Purchasers of Boots and Shoes bear in mind that big advertisements and offers of big discounts do not always mean best values. You will have to pay some one a profit as no one can do business without expense. The quest on is who can sell you the best goods for the least money.

WHAT About the biggest returns ever made on a small investment is that reported by John Alexander, of Mariposa, Cal. He writes:

"The best investment I ever made in my life was one of $1.25. It brought me health, wealth and happiness. The investment I made was the purchase of one bottle of Moore's Revealed Remedy." Thousands of other people have had equally as good returns from the purchase of this sovereign remedy. It cured Richard Williams, of Newcastle, of asthma, in a week. It did the same thing for John Hewitt, of this city. R. C. Oats of Seattle, over their own signatures, say that it cured their rheumatism in a marvelously short time. J. M Jones and W. P. Johnson, of Seattle, attest its efficacy in curing liver and heart troubles. Thousands of reputable citizens from one end of the Pacific coast to the other write its praise. If you are ill, what better investment can you make than the purchase of a bottle of Moore's Revealed Remedy? If you feel bad every morning on arising, if you are tortured by rheumatism, if you have any of the ills of mankind, invest $1.25 in Moore's Revealed Remedy, and see if it will not give your relief. For sale by all druggists.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

"Some months ago I purchased a box of Dr. J. P. Gill's Catarrh Cure for my own use, but finding my nephew, C. McMahan, needing such medicine I let him have my box of medicine. He now sends for three more boxes, saying it is the best thing for catarrh ever tried by him and his friends. I got another box to use in my case, and cheerfully recommend it to others,

Ex-County Commissioner Lane Co, Oregon.
Springfield, Lane county, Oregon

Prof J. W. Johnson, president of the State university, says it cured him of a cough after two other prescriptions had failed. Likewise two of his little girls used it to cure their coughs. Mrs Mark Bailey, wife of Prof. Bailey, sent it to Prof. Johnson, and recommends it to all who suffer from colds and coughs. For coughs it acts like a charm, and can be inhaled into the pipes or passages, where no other cough cures can reach.
