Seven or eight men who were locating land claims on the Breitenbush, on the line of the Oregon Pacific on the North Santiam. were returning from the Breitenbush on one of the heavy iron push cars to Halstead, the end of the present running division, when a painful accident occurred. On the down grade they had given the car a start and were all riding standing up, when the car ran on to a loose rock that had rolled on the track. SOME PLAIN WORDS.

The case of the Evangelical church members arrested for riot at Sweet Home, the particulars of which have already been pub- classic party in the now notorious church rupture being called a faction. This term was used merely to con-vey correctly the idea intended, and while our pen is in we desire to say a few plain truths.

The HERALD has been repeatedly asked to publish the different versions of the Evangelical church cline to do so. Whenever the warring factions in the church comquarrels of the participants in the debt, and continue to be one of the disgraceful proceedings. When three biggest and richest counties in Oregon. emulate the example of the meek and lowly Nazarene, lay aside the dignity and gentle teachings expected of the church and attempt to settle their disputes by might of muscle, instead of applying to a legal and peaceful settlement of their differences, they must expect expressions which will convey the true meaning of their position. When ministers and church members go to breaking down church doors, using clubs and throwing stones, they must not be too fastidious or too much shocked to hear their actions called by their right names. Such proceedings as were enacted at Sweet Home were a disgrace to the peace and good order of society, and much more a disgrace to the religious body engaging in the riot. When religious disputes are carried to this end the authorities must step in and employ the strong arm of the law to put a stop to it. This applies to either or any faction, when it commits such a breach of the peace and outrage npon society, and as near as can be learned both sides were engaged in the shameful riot at Sweet Home.

Churches, the world over, are recognized by both believers and unbelievers as a chief factor in the promotion of the well-being and good order of society, and it is far from the intention of the writer to speak in disrespectful terms of any church, but resorts to violence, whether by church organizations in their own churches, the mob in the streat or the bomb throwers in Russia, are to be condemned. WE ARE NOT A FACTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD: In this morning's issue of the HERALD you refer to Rev. H. I. Bittner as the presiding elder of the Bowman faction of the church. Please permit us to say that we are not the representatives of a faction, but the authorized representatives of the Evangelical association of North America. Our entire church association consists of twenty-four annual conferences. Twenty-one of these have by strong resolutions at their late sessions declared Bishops Bowman and Esher in full authority, hence these twenty-one conferences recognize the conference presided over by Bishop Thomas Bowman in Albany on May 2, 1890, as the legal Oregon conference of the Evangelical association, and now because three conferences, and a few individuals in some of the other conferences, are in rebellion against the church it does not follow that the church or the other twenty-one conferences are a faction. No more so than the United States of America could have been called a faction because some of the states a few years ago rebelled against the union. We hereby beg the associate press to take notice of without food or blankets these facts. To call us a faction is a slur upon the good name of our church, and we do not wish to be willfully maligned.

To the Editor of the Herald, Qver the signature of "Moss-back," a correspondent in the Morning Herald of the 21st gives vent to statements in regard to the sentiment of the people on the subject of an appropriation for a creditable exhibit at the coming World's Columbian Exposition of 1893 at Chicago, which shows that he is indeed what he professes to be in the true sense of the word (it any exists.) The appropriation, should one be made, is not calculated to "boom" the section represented, a conclusion that has been arrived at by many who simply ape the words of your correspondent without considering the matter. The fair is, or should be, for the mutual benefit of all concerned. An exhibit worthy of the name would do more to put Oregon before the eyes of the people of the East, and even Enrope, than any one thing.
