AMERICAN PORK

Germany Is About To Remove the Restrictions.

THE PORKER GETS THERE.

Great Snowstorm In Russia—Ladies At Drowned By A New York Fresh-Killed His Wife's Paramour.

(Copyright 1891 New York Associated Press)
BERLIN, Jan. 24.—The repeal of the prohibition against American pork is regarded as near, as the weight of the speaking in the recent debate was all on the side of the change.

No prominent defender of the prohibitory law in the Reichstag ventured to deny that the repeal would benefit the masses of the people. United States Minister Phelps said to-day that there were many of them who had been a majority of 27 against the motion if the opposition had waited a little. He had long known the government is ready to modify the restrictions as soon as the precautions taken by the American authorities seemed sufficient to insure the health of the German people.

The government is not afraid of cooked American pork, but only of the uncooked. It is now probable at any rate, that the prohibition against ham and bacon will be removed.

HE WANTED TO DIE.

Mysterious Suicide of a Young Physician.

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., Jan. 24.—Dr. Horace Bates attempted suicide yesterday, and there is a mystery concerning the affair if he has made a big sensation. At 1 o'clock Dr. Bates' father, Horace Bates Sr., died. Four days ago the father was found with a bullet hole in his head. Nobody was with him when the shooting occurred except this son, whose only version was that his father shot himself while handling the pistol. The father regained consciousness, but refused to say anything about the shooting except when shown a newspaper report, saying he shot himself, he denied the story. The circumstances of the son's suicide are fully as mysterious. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning he went outside the house, placed a pistol to his heart and fired. "I aimed at the heart," he said to a doctor who was attending his father. His only explanation was he was in trouble and wanted to die.

GREAT FALL OF SNOW.

It Is Feared That Famine Will Result in Isolated Places.

PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—A terrific snowstorm prevailed, recently, in the south-easterly portion of Russia. Whole villages and numerous isolated houses were almost buried in the snow. Railroad tracks are useless and the only communication is by sleigh. A number of people were frozen to death. The city of Charkov, capital of the government of Kharkov, is so completely isolated that a famine is feared among the poor. Charkov has 200,000 inhabitants.

Killed His Friend.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 24.—Carroll county, in the western part of the state, is all torn up over the killing of a prominent young man named Bob White and the scandal which the killing has brought to light. Will Dreckell, one of the most prominent farmers in that county, in searching through the woods near his house for a squirrel he had shot, he came upon his wife in company with White, his best friend. Without saying a word, Dreckell fired twice and White fell dead. That is the wife's story. Dreckell says that White saw they were discovered, and he jumped on Dreckell, throwing him to the ground. In the struggle that ensued, Dreckell drew his pistol and shot White through the body, killing him. Dreckell had been married three years. It was a runaway match.

Fire at Spokane.

SPOKANE FALLS, Jan. 24.—Fire broke out in the basement of the Green block, a two-story brick on Riverside avenue, at 11 o'clock, and at this hour 12:30 A. M. is under control. The building is completely gutted. John Bark's dry goods store, Washington furniture store and Bertrand's photograph gallery being a total loss. The damage to the goods and building will reach $61,900; insurance, $56,600.

A FOOLHARDY DRIVER.

He Plunges Into a Swollen Stream and Drowns Two Ladies.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 24.—Two New York ladies were swept away by a freshet Thursday, while trying to drive across a flooded bridge near Dover Plains, and were drowned. The gentleman with them narrowly escaped. The ladies were Miss Rosa Scheister and her sister Louise, a widow, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jacob Cablos, on Tower Hill. Mr. Cablos, about noon, started to take the two ladies to Dover Plains, where they intended to take the train on the Harlem railroad for their home in New York. As they approached a bridge crossing a mountain stream they found it flooded. The muddy water was roaring over it fully three feet deep. Mr. Cablos thought the bridge was strong even under the rushing water, and so attempted to cross. The torrent was too strong to be stemmed. It swept horses, sleigh and occupants off the bridge and down the swollen stream, tossing them lightly hither and thither among the rocks and trees with the logs and huge cakes of ice brought down by the current. Only Mr. Cablos escaped. Terribly bruised and exhausted, he was swept into a clump of bushes by a lucky chance. The ladies and horses were drowned. Louise was 35 and Rosa 25 years of age.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

The Remains of a Seattle Man Were Found.

MISSING FOR MANY WEEKS.

Another Tribe of Indians Whose Ghost Dances Should Make Them Ghosts—The Kansas Alliance.

SEATTLE, Jan. 24.—The decomposed remains of Abner Abbott, a bridge carpenter, who has been missing three weeks, were found this afternoon, floating on the surface of the water beneath a disrepairable house in Whitechapel. Enough proof was found in the pockets of the clothing of the man to lead to his identity. Abbott was last seen on Jan. 2, when he left the Seattle hotel, at night with several hundred dollars in his pockets. He went to the Northern Pacific depot to see a friend, and, then, it is thought, he went to Whitechapel. The key to the room he occupied at the hotel was found in his pocket, together with $40 and two watches. There is a deep gash over his left eye and a laceration is suspected. A detective stated tonight that Abbott had had trouble with some unknown person over a love affair.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

A WRANGLE OVER THE CLOSURE RULE TAKES TIME.

Several Nominations Confirmed
Several Speeches—House Approval of the Journal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The senate met at 11 in continuation of Thursday's session, with but 45 senators in attendance, exactly a quorum.

Stewart took the floor to address the senate on the closure resolution, but yielded to a motion by Frye for an executive session on the assurance that it would not occupy more than five or ten minutes.

The senate has confirmed the nomination of N. B. Hill, of Colorado, William A. Russell, of Massachusetts, and Lambert Tree, commissioners to consider the establishment of international coin or coins.

Faulkner demanded the yeas and nays on the amendment and they were ordered.

Stewart then commenced his argument against the proposed rule and against the election bill.

At the close of Stewart's speech, Sanders took the floor, but yielded to Aldrich, who asked unanimous consent, first to limit the debate to half an hour; then to limit the speeches to one hour each; then to have a vote taken Monday. To each of these requests, as made, objection was made on the democratic side.

Sanders then proceeded with his speech.

The senate then took a recess until Monday.

IN THE HOUSE.

Before reading the journal, Breckenridge of Arkansas, raised the point of no quorum, and a call of the house was ordered.

One hundred and ninety-five members, more than a quorum, having responded to their names, the clerk proceeded to read the journal. Breckenridge demanded its reading in full, and after some debate this was done. Breckenridge made another attempt to cause delay, but on motion of McKinley the previous question was ordered on the approval of the journal. It was approved.

The house then went into a committee of the whole on the naval appropriation.

UNSEATING SENATOR

Washington Legislature Continues to Create War.

WASHINGTON WORLD'S FAIR.

Fifty Thousand Thought to Be Enough Money to Spend—Miles on Killing as Indian.

OLYMPIA, Jan. 24.—The senate committee on elections reported to-day in favor of unseating Senator Morris McCharty of Whatcom, and seating Frank H. Richards, the republican contestant. McCharty had five plurality. The committee took four votes from him, leaving him a plurality of one. Then it threw out a vote of the second ward of Fairhaven, which gave McCharty 17 majority on the ground that between 25 and 30 persons were registered from one house which was not large enough to accommodate as many. The report was signed by the entire committee, including McDrooney, the democratic member. The democrats generally condemn his action. The senate will consider and report next Tuesday. In the meantime he will ask for a rehearing.

The protest against the proposed $250,000 appropriation for the world's fair was read in the house this morning. It was from the Farmers' Alliance, of Dixie, Walla Walla county. It wanted the appropriation limited to actual expenses of the committee already appointed, setting forth that "Ours is an infant state with an adult's indebtedness." Another Walla Walla petition favored an appropriation of not more than $50,000. It was signed by 500 persons.

Acting Governor Loughton to-day signed Snively's bill providing for special elections to fill legislative vacancies and will call an election Monday.

The governor to-day issued a proclamation calling a special election in the Eighteenth district, Kittitas county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative Davis. The election occurs February 25.

BIBBERY REMOVED.

The talk of the town to-day was the story that the senate commissioner proposed to investigate the charges of bribery made against Senator Squire. All kinds of rumors were afloat. One was that a purse of $10,000 is being raised in Tacoma to contest Senator Squire's seat. This is seriously doubted. Another was that Senator Squire's friends would have to defend themselves against the charge that they spent $12,000 to elect the Spokane primaries. Another was that a certain member, who was reported to have received $1000 to vote for Calkins and $2000 to vote for Squire, had begun to feel uneasy. He voted for Squire. Another was that one member was taken out in the bay in a boat at night and paid $1000 to vote for Calkins.

Late Friday night writs of attachment were placed in the hands of sheriff McFarland, of Walla Walla, to serve on all properties belonging to G. W. Hunt, in Walla Walla county. These attachments were sworn out at the instance of the Northern Pacific and were to secure the payment of notes given by G. W. ### KANSAS SENATOR.

GALLANT INGALLS STANDS BY THE COLORS.

The President of the New York Alliance Denounces the Kansas Alliance Action.

TOPEKA, Jan. 24.—The first caucus of the farmers alliance members on the senatorial question was held to-night. The members are pledged to secrecy and little yet is learned of the proceedings. The alliance senatorial candidates were called before the caucus one by one, and permitted to give a statement for their candidacy.

All alliance congressmen-elect and persons who have joined the alliance since the last election were barred as candidates. This rules out Congressman-elect Simpson, who was one of the most popular candidates, as well as ex-governor St. John and others. Nine candidates spoke to-night.

Senator Ingalls arrived last night and was in conference all day to-day with the republican managers. At 11:30 there was no nomination and the proceedings are still being kept secret.

A mass meeting was held to-night in the interest of Ingalls' reelection. Several prominent Kansans spoke in favor of Ingalls' reelection, as did also Livestone, president of the farmers alliance of New York state, who denounced the Kansas alliance as being dominated by the southern branch of the organization, which, he said, hoped to gain control of the national government and repeal all pension legislation. When Ingalls came to the platform he was given an ovation. In his speech he said whether he was defeated or elected, whatever the result may be, he would not matter in what form, no matter who their adversary, "I shall respond to the challenge of the insolent opposition to the grand army of the republic. Should I go down I shall see that there is not a maimed or crippled soldier who shall not feel that he has not lost a defender."

Contemplate No Third Party.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The industrial federation to-day determined that the national committee shall consist of a chairman for the different organizations of the confederacy in each state. President Terrill leaves Sunday night for Omaha, to meet the national alliance of the northwest confederate, on matters pertaining to the organization. He says the confederation contemplates no third party movement, but would always give its support to persons
