THE DAY IN CONGRESS

The Force Bill Defeated in the Senate by One Vote. DEMOCRATS ARE JUBILANT.

Six Republicans Voted With the Democrats to Kill the Bill - More Trouble in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. - The senate met at noon, in continuation of the legislative day on Thursday last, the pending question being the resolution to amend the rules by providing a method of closing a debate.

Morgan resumed the floor, and continued his argument begun Saturday in opposition to the proposed rule, and to the elections bill, both of which measures he claimed, "on authority of the New York Times," would be for the advancement of Harrison's project for re-election.

At 1:30 Morgan yielded for a motion by Wolcott, to proceed to the consideration of the apportionment bill.

Dolph moved to lay the motion on the table, and the motion was rejected by a vote of 41 yeas to 38 nays.

After the apportionment bill was laid aside, the journals of Tuesday and Wednesday were approved.

Among the pension bills reported and placed on the calendar was one for Mrs. Mary Ann Donoherty, the bill for whose relief was vetoed by Cleveland two years ago.

Dolph offered a resolution, which went over, instructing the committee on judiciary to report as to the power of the minority of the absentees to compel the attendance of the members.

When the news of the senate's action on the cloture motion reached the house, the speaker's gavel was for some time ineffectual to check the democratic enthusiasm.

"Another bill run," ejaculated Brewer, of Michigan. IN THE HOUSE.

The usual skimming in the house took place today as to the reading and approval of the journal.

The journal was finally approved. The yeas and nays were then ordered on a motion that the house go into a committee of the whole on the navy appropriation bill.

Kelly, of Kansas, referring to the democratic enthusiasm, said the news from the senate, he did not doubt, was good news to the assassins of John M. Clayton.

Something must be said about the betrayal of party pledges. If there was any, it came from those men who had been instructed by their state legislature to vote for certain bills, and who turned around and voted against it.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26. - Lena Hemmeler, a comely German girl 18 years of age, attempted suicide in a sensational way last evening.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. - Senator Aldrich and most of the republican senators to-day were completely surprised at the action of the senate in laying aside the cloture resolution and taking up the apportionment bill.

STATE AND COAST.

Action Will be Taken for the Opening of the Columbia.

WASHINGTON LEGISLATURE. PENNSYLVANIA FAVORS A PORTAGE RAILWAY AT THE DALLAS KOCH'S LYMPH IN SAN FRANCISCO.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. - This afternoon at its meeting the board of trade tested the following call, in accordance with the suggestion of the interior press: "The Warlike Waite board of trade invites the countries bordering on the Columbia and Snake rivers and all other countries interested in a free and open river to send delegates to a convention to be held at the city hall in Walla Walla, Washington, Thursday, February 5, 1891, to devise ways and means and memorialize the legislatures of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, to take such action as will insure the speedy opening of the Columbia and Snake rivers to free navigation."

OLYMPIA, Jan. 26. - A bill to divide Lincoln county into three counties is about to be introduced in the legislature. For years long jealousies between the factions of Davenport and Sprague have had a bad effect on the county's general affairs.

EASTERN STORMS.

New York City Shut Out From the World. IMMENSE DAMAGE IS DONE.

The Telegraph Companies Are Damaged About $1,000,000 - Trains Are Delayed and Wires Down.

New York, Jan. 26. - Yesterday's storm was by far the worst that the telegraph companies here ever had to contend with. An idea of the wreckage may be gathered from the fact that out of 1,600 running into this city the Western Union had but three wires working this morning.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 26. - The house to-day, after a long and vigorous debate, adopted a resolution to the effect that the passage of the elections bill would render the world's fair a sectional affair, and if that measure becomes a law, no appropriation should be made by Indiana.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 26. - The house to-day, after an arduous discussion, passed, 40 to 30, a resolution that in the event of the federal election bill the state will make no world's fair appropriation. Senator St. Clair's vigorous fight against it in the senate.

SPOKANE FALLS, Jan. 26. - The contract for building fifty-five miles of the Great Northern here has been awarded to the Kootenai Falls branch and Kootenai Falls has been let to Burns & Chapman of this city. The contract will involve the expenditure of over a million dollars.

THE THAW HAS SET IN AND GREAT FLOODS CAUSE MUCH DAMAGE. McKinley Will Visit Bismarck - Volcanic Disturbances in Italy - News from the Orient.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 26. - Thaw has set in here, and floods have resulted. The low-lying suburbs of Brussels are flooded to a depth of five feet. Food is being conveyed to the inhabitants of the flooded quarter by boats.

ROME, Jan. 26. - Volcanic disturbances in the sea between Genoa and Spezia, culminated today in a submarine volcano. BRUSSELS, Jan. 26. - A special declaration to the government at Washington formulated by the Congo state authorities was signed yesterday. It gives assurance that American imports will meet with the most favored of that nation's treatment on entering the Congo state.

BERLIN, Jan. 26. - It is announced that McKinley will visit Bismarck the coming summer, and express personally his admiration of that statesman and his protection policy.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 26. - The snow was heavy this morning and a number of small freight wrecks are reported. The damage done to property by the storm is large.

BOSTON, Jan. 26. - The storm in this city yesterday demolished the fire alarm and telegraph, and the entire force of firemen patrolled the city all night.

AT Manchester, N. H., the storm lasted nine hours, 15 inches of snow falling. Nashua, N. H., reports the worst storm of the season with 12 inches of snow obstructing tracks.

OLD Man Jones Again. "Bunko" Jones, as the old Silvertown farmer is called, who has figured extensively in the papers this fall and winter, has sued his wife for a divorce.
