

Morning Daily Herald

ON SALE. The DAILY HERALD will be on sale each morning at H. J. Jones' book store, where it can be procured at 5 cents per copy.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

A fine line of neckties at Searls. The Three Sisters went down the river yesterday morning. O. H. Irvine and Tilman Ford came up from Salem last evening.

A dancing party will be given at the armory Saturday evening.

An invoice just received of our celebrated "Engineer" shoes at Searls.

The only place you can get the genuine Ludlow shoe is at Searls' shoe store.

Mr. Charles Smith, of East Portland, is in the city, the guest of his brother, Geo. W. Smith.

A social will be given at the opera house next Tuesday evening by the ladies of the Episcopal church.

The following is an effusion from the pen of the editor of the Prineville News, which is, perhaps, intended to pinch some toe: When a person assumes to be that which he is not—when a nothing tries to be something—when a government tries to look and act like a haystack it is then time for common intellectual people to take to the nearest woods.

Policeman Wm. Miller, who tendered his resignation at the city council meeting Tuesday evening, has been placed back again in his old position, and it is likely the council will re-elect him and make good the dissent on his salary. He is an efficient policeman as well as a competent engineer of the fire department, and should by all means be retained.

At Yaquina Bay.

Captain T. W. Symons has returned from a trip to Yaquina Bay, says the Oregonian, where he went to inspect the government works under his charge there. He says the weather during the time he was there was the most delightful he ever saw. The people there have an air of prosperity and contentment, and the depth of water on the bar, about eighteen feet at high water, is satisfactory. The steamship Willamette Valley went out while he was there, loaded with grain and flour. Captain Symons reports that the South jetty has stood the storms of winter very well. It has sunk a little in some places, and the sea has been cutting in at the foot in some places, but this has all been stopped by dumping rock in at those places. A great deal of preliminary work has been done in stripping and cleaning the quarry in readiness for getting out stone for remaining work on the North jetty. The pile driver is being overhauled and put in complete repair, and as soon as this is done the work of extending the South jetty, which is now out about 600 feet, will be begun. The south jetty is out to its full contemplated length, but it will be improved and strengthened before it is left. If the present fine weather continues, work will soon be underway on the North jetty.

Another Suit for Damages.

Damages suits are piling up in Marion county against the Southern Pacific railroad, as a result of the railroad accident at the Lake Labish trestle last November. There are now six of them and the aggregate of the damages asked is $97,950. They will come up for trial at the coming February term of circuit court, together with the suits that may yet be brought—and it is expected there will be a good many of them. Wednesday morning J. S. Bartholomew, of Boston, made the flings in his case against the company, claiming damages in the sum of $28,200. He had bought a ticket to Roseburg and was a passenger on the ill-fated train and sustained injuries to his back and spine. Mr. Bartholomew is still in Salem.

Fine Pictures.

Messrs. Crawford & Paxton, the enterprising artists, have added some new scenery, backgrounds and accessories to their already tastefully arranged gallery, among them being some backgrounds from the noted Lafayette Scavay. Some of these are real Oregon scenes, showing the big timber and beautiful streams of different portions of the state. They have also finished some fine flash light views of the recent G. A. R. play and Milkmaid Convention. They carry a magnificent line of Pacific coast and Oregon views, and are making fine pictures in the latest and most approved style.

An Enjoyable Party.

A pleasant social party was tendered Miss Lora Vance at the residence of her parents Tuesday evening on her return from a visit at Portland. The following persons were present: Misses Lora and Pearl Vance, Flora and Vesta Mason, M. L. Prather, Emma Pfeiffer, Eva Cowan, Minnie Van Horn, Hattie and Lida Galbraith, Miss Huston, Lillian Hackelmann, Nina Galbraith, Jennie Madin, Sarah Owensby, J. A. Wilson, J. A. Cummings, W. H. Cowan, Mr. Peacock.

Another New County.

We are reliably informed by Mr. J. Robert McInty that the people living on the other side of Mill creek and the Fort Dalles Military Reserve are going to petition the legislature for a new county to be called McInty county. Mr. McInty offers his valuable lot 1857 feet long by 16 by nothing at the north end for a county seat. The old seat is so proud of the prospect of a new county called by his name, that he has begun to put his name in the middle.—The Dalles Times Mountaineer.

THE COUNTY DIVISION

A Growing Sentiment in Albany in Favor Of It.

WHAT PROMINENT CITIZENS SAY.

A Majority of the Business Men of Albany Withing for the Division to Be Made.

The question of dividing Linn county as proposed by the people of the Forks of the Santiam is a subject of serious consideration in this city, as well as in the locality named and elsewhere in the county.

In order to obtain correctly the opinion of the citizens of Albany on the question many of the prominent business men and citizens were interviewed yesterday by a representative of the Herald. A majority of the men seem to be in favor of allowing the people of the Forks of the Santiam to form a new county if they desired to do so.

The question of the Albany bridge enters largely into the matter. It is argued, and with good reason, that if the people of the Forks of the Santiam, on a mere intimation that the city of Albany is going to ask the county for an appropriation to aid in building the bridge, come up with a petition 700 strong against such an appropriation and to create a new county, they will when the appropriation is formally asked for present a remonstrance with even a large number of names, and aided by the Brownsville contingent will come before the county commissioners with a formidable remonstrance against any appropriation for a bridge. In view of this fact, in the face of the liberal appropriation heretofore made by the county for at least seven large wagon bridges in different portions of the county, to which the citizens of Albany cheerfully contributed their portion of the taxes, it would seem the part of wisdom for the people on this side to let the citizens of the Forks have their own way in forming a county of their own, and to build the bridge without them. Especially would this seem wise when the county court records show that more money has been expended by Linn county in the district named than has ever been received in the way of taxes.

The men interviewed on the subject are of different political views and their opinions, which are fairly given, show a preponderance in favor of allowing the division to be made.

County Judge Blackburn said: "If the people of the Forks of the Santiam want to form a new county, as proposed, I am of the opinion that the division should be made."

Walter Ketchum said: "Yes, I am in favor of the division."

H. H. Hewitt said: "By all means, yes. If the people of the Forks want a county of their own let them have it. It would not injure Albany, or Linn county to have the division made as proposed."

O. H. Irvine was strongly in favor of the proposition.

J. W. A. usick said: "Linn county can get along very well without the Forks of the Santiam. If the citizens there want to withdraw let them go."

H. A. Bryant said: "I am perfectly willing for the 'Forks' to withdraw and form a new county. If they want to let them go ahead."

Judge L. Finn said: "Let them withdraw if they want to. Since they have asked for the division I am in favor of it."

F. M. French said: "I am in favor of the division if they will, after following the Santiam river to a point above Waterloo, run the line due south to the Lane county line. I think that whole region should be included in the proposed county."

Jay W. Blain favored the division, if made in the way last suggested.

THE THOMPSON-FISHER NUPTIALS.

Tuesday morning January 27th, at ten o'clock a large congregation of invited guests gathered in the Presbyterian church Corvallis to witness the marriage of Mr. Anson W. Thompson youngest son of the pastor Rev. E. J. Thompson D. D. to Miss Mollie Fisher daughter of Mr. E. W. Fisher one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of Benton county.

The church had been tastefully decorated by the ladies including a large wedding bell covered with a wedding march and at the proper moment the doors were flung open by two of the ushers and the wedding party entered. Within the doors the party separated and proceeded up the south aisle, preceded by Mr. Fred Fortmiller of Albany, and Miss Clara Fisher who were preceded by two ushers Mr. Otto Wells and Lake Doris.

After the invocation by Mr. Prichard, Dr. Thompson proceeded to solemnize the marriage. The ceremony was strikingly appropriate and impressive. Mr. Gillespie offered prayer at the close of which Dr. Thompson pronounced them husband and wife and Mr. Prichard pronounced the benediction and the wedding party passed down the south aisle to the door.

A jolly company proceeded to the home of the bride's parents where refreshments were served bountifully and the young couple pleasantly. The young couple left in the 1 o'clock train for Portland.

Art and Design.

Mr. J. F. Whiting, who is now engaged on some fine works of art for the Columbian World's Fair, will receive under his instruction, all those who desire to make artists of themselves, and if the number justify, he will open a school of design, where a thorough knowledge of all the highest and most useful branches of art and design can be had at a small cost. Every citizen of Albany and the surrounding country should take an interest with Mr. Whiting in the establishment of a school of design at Albany, where there is every facility to render it a success, where at a small expense, the school is held, during recesses for the purpose, could visit the many romantic mountain and ocean scenes, where the artist can study nature in all its beauty and grandeur, furnishing that essential variety to the interesting studio work of the highest order.

So near at hand, Mr. Whiting, after serving as a typographical engineer in the late war, spent three years in New York at the National academy of design, and the leading architects, wood carvers and sign writers, giving him a varied knowledge of the artistic and practical character of studios, which his first prizes received in contest with artists from some of the larger cities in the East are witnesses, and besides the many specimens of his artistic talent displayed in the pages of illustrated periodicals east and west, his testimonials show him to be a gentleman of excellent character and studios to please. For further information address or call on Mr. J. F. Whiting at his studio, rooms 8 and 9 Foster block, or on J. A. Cumming at his Drug Store 1st street Albany Oregon.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

As already announced by the daily papers there will be a meeting of the ladies of Albany at the Y. M. C. A. hall on Friday evening, Jan. 30, at 7 p. m. for the purpose of organizing a Ladies Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association. We have heard very pleasant and encouraging news concerning this proposed meeting and we are indeed glad that the ladies are interested and are going to take hold of this matter with an earnestness that speaks success.
