THE COUNTY DIVISION

The People of the "Forks" Were Never More in Earnest.

A LETTER FROM A VOTER.

The Alleged Devotion to the Dear People Will Bear Watching—The People Demand the Right of Petition.

Sacto, Jan. 31, 1891.

To the Editors of the Herald:

The question of dividing Linn county and creating the county embracing the territory known as the "Forks of the Santiam," having been thoroughly canvassed by the citizens and taxpayers of the locality to be effected by such division, and seeing that the majority of the voters in favor of the division, we wish to record our protest against political demagogues living outside of our proposed county government trying to throttle the will of our people and throwing every obstacle in the way of the legislation for the same. We have so unanimously petitioned.

The citizens of the other portion of Linn county cannot consistently oppose the division as being detrimental to the taxable property of the "Forks" amounts to about one-sixth of the entire property of Linn county, and it is claimed we have the most expensive portion of the county to keep up on account of the Santiam river and its tributaries, so we think there must be some other reasons for their devotion to the dear people of the "Forks," and that can be no other than political. This earnest demand for separation is not fostered by the selfish ambition of party greed but is the sober and earnest appeal of the intelligent citizens and taxpayers of this community irrespective of party affiliations, having only in view the common welfare of the people in the community alike.

Leaders of the dominant party of Linn county may bid defiance to the petition of nearly seven hundred voters from that portion of the county which keeps them in power, ignore the rights of petition by our people by preventing the members of the legislature from Linn county introducing the measure for which they ask, and then expect the old democratic wheel horses of the "Forks" on the first Monday in June to roll up that same old "three hundred majority" but gentlemen over the river, it is not with the adjournment of the present legislature. The people are in earnest about this matter. The "dogs of war" will remain loose until the victory is ours.

PETER ISHNER.

STATEMENT FROM MR. HENRY.

I see in the HERALD of the 20th, inst., a statement dated Salem, Jan. 29 in regard to a statement made that Linn county members in the legislature had refused to introduce a bill in accordance with the wishes of the Santiam people to divide the county. I can only speak for myself, that no one has ever asked me to either present a petition or bill for said purpose.

Respectfully,
J. F. HENRY, MD.
ALBANY, Jan. 31, 1891.

Important to Farmers.

Prof. F. L. Washburn, of the Corvallis experiment station, wishes the hop growers of Oregon to answer the following questions in regard to that industry in Oregon: 1st—Have your hops been affected the past year by hop lice? If so, to what extent, financially, have you suffered? 2d—Are there cultivated prune trees near your hops? What varieties? 3d—Are there any wild plum or prune seedlings near your hop field? What is their correct name? 4th—What is the exact distance of these seedlings (mentioned in No. 3) from your hops? Cuttings are desired from cultivated plums and prunes near hops and from seedlings mentioned in No. 3 and 4 (send the new wood). In every case, give accurately, name of fruit and its distance from your hop yard; whether a few yards, rods, a mile, two miles or more. An early reply is desired, and all replies should be in by Feb. 25, 1891. Address, F. L. Washburn, Entomologist, Experiment Station, Corvallis, Oregon.

A Multiplicity of Tramps.

The towns along the line of the Southern Pacific railroad are overrun with tramps. In Albany the efficiency of the police force has prevented any pillaging, but elsewhere numerous depredations are reported. At Eugene a lot of these fellows have been camped near the depot, and living off of the community by begging and stealing. At Salem just south of the depot and outside the city limits no less than twenty hobos are and have been quartered for many days. They make life in that locality rather unpleasant for timid women. The city officers are without power to interfere with these idlers, and they are committing no crimes for which the county officers might arrest them. But they are a nuisance, nevertheless.

Wagon Road Bill.

The special joint committee of the legislature on wagon roads has reported adversely upon the appropriation of $10,000 for the wagon road up the Calapooia from Brownsville. They recommend for passage other wagon road bills aggregating $97,000.

COAST NOTES.

Novay Items as Reported by Exchange Throughout the Northwest.

Mr. Jacob Verler is now agent at Toledo for the Oregon Pacific railroad, the former agent, Mr. John Gaitner, having resigned.

Nine young ladies and eight young men were baptized in the river at Independence last Tuesday. There is quite a religious revival going on at that place.

A fire department was organized at Hillsboro last week, and C. Blaser was elected chief engineer and G. A. Wehrung, assessor. Thirty members formed a company, and W. Lohman was chosen foreman.

Dr. J. F. Henry, one of the three bachelors in the legislature from Linn county, received a beautiful bouquet of roses, carnations and violets from a young lady friend in San Francisco.

The movement by some of the business men of Eugene to start a woodenware factory at that place will probably prove a success, as two thirds of the stock has already been subscribed.

A bear was killed on the Santiam a few days ago, says the Lebanon Express. It is unusual for bears to make their appearance so early. If we do not have an early spring we have been misled by the animal kingdom, and winter will have to atone for a like offense.

Polk and Marion counties are having trouble over the settlement of the steel bridge at Salem. The county court of the former county claims that it agreed to pay but $20,000 of the cost, and refused to pay any more. It now looks as if a law-suit will be the result.

Important Land Selling.

Register Apperson, of the land office at Oregon City, has received some further instructions from the general land office of the United States in regard to the forfeited lands of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. The portion of his line it establishes under the grant to the Oregon & California Company is the land lying south of the base line, Willamette meridian, to section 7 south and east of the road, to the end of the thirty-mile limit, to where it crosses the land of the Northern Pacific grant. This land lies in the belt of country bounded by the base line, the Oregon & California track, to a point near Silverton, and thence east to the end of the limit. Most of the land in this section is now settled upon, but many pieces of it are valuable and are unoccupied, settlers thinking it belonged to the railroad companies. The land is to be restored to the public domain and opened for entry.

Public Installation of Officers.

Mr. D. P. Mason returned yesterday from Brownsville, where he went to install the officers of the Masonic lodge. The installation was made a public occasion. A large number of ladies were present; a banquet was served, and Mr. Mason was the hero of the hour. He was presented with a fine pair of Brownsville manufactured blankets from the woolen mills there, which were appropriately marked. They are highly prized by Mr. Mason.

Had No License.

Jack Wilkes, who is an agent for a benevolence and insurance company, of California, was arrested in Salem Friday for violating the laws of Oregon relating to insurance companies doing business in this state. A member of the firm is expected to arrive from San Francisco, when the case will be heard. Wilkes claims that he was not aware that the company was required to hold a license in order to put an agent in the field in this state. He was released on bail.
